PREFACE

During the last decade or so, my friend Shri Narinder Sagar has been urging me to bring out a good classical text in English on the subject of MUHURTA JYOTISH (Electional Astrology) as readers did ask for this subject time and again.

Hence the credit for the present rendering of "Muhurta Chintamani" in English with copious explanatory notes and details goes only to Shri Sagar but for whose thankful insistence, this work would not have been feasible.

In the ultimate analysis, like any branch of learning, even "Muhurta Jyotish" essentially aims at maximising human welfare: success and happiness. And for achieving this goal, "Muhurta Jyotish" deals with a system to determine specific epochs of time (or muhurtas) which would ensure successful and happy endings of various activities or events of life if initiated during those auspicious periods. Thus Muhurta Jyotish can help identify more favourable periods for starting and successful operation of various significant activities of life including business, industry, government or other social institutions or functions like marriage, journey or even starting the medical treatment of an ailment.

In this backdrop, "Muhurta Chintamani" a 16th century text, was chosen for translation as, it is by far the most exhaustive and time-tested treatise on the subject. Its author shri Acharya Ram as well as his nephew shri Govind Daivagya wrote two separate commentaries on this text. These commentaries have no doubt been very useful, however, additional information and concepts have been profusely drawn from various sources including Ratnasar, Samarsar, Vyavahar Tatwa, Raj Martand, Darvagya Manohar, Muhurta Parjat, Narad Puran, Muhurta Deepak, Vivah Vrindavan, Jyotirveda Bhavnam etc. to explain certain concepts and axioms in the book.

There is another aspect of this book which I must reemphasize. Though this text deals with "Lauhurta", it has some very significant and rare principles for use in predictive astrology making use of the pentad: week day, date (vedic), star, 'yoga' and 'karan' besides planetary movements through zodiac.

During the course of my presentation in the form of exhaustive notes, tables or charts or other mathematical aids, adequate care has been to ensure that original essence of the text is not lost or misplaced.

The author has chosen to present the whole text in thirteen (13) sub-divisions concerning various portfolios of life to determine the most auspicious muhurtas for marriage, journey and other social or economic activities and events like starting business, industry, profession, service, investments, medicine or investments/market fluctuations. Even choosing a town to settle down has been given importance.

Whenever necessary remedial measures to dispel inauspicious influences have been given.

I have made a very modest attempt in presenting this commentary as I am aware of the fact that the book demand a very detailed and lucid explanations. In this exercise some 'nouns' have not been translated to keep the original theme intact, though their English equivalents have been stated in brackets. As and when felt necessary even divergent views have been given to widen the understanding and comprehension.

As I close, my heart goes to thank Prof. D.P. Chauhan but for whose affection and devoted attention, this book would not be in the present form. I owe to him more than just a few words of formal gratitude. I must however, thank him for all he has done to improve the language in many ways.

AUSPICIOUS AND INAUSPICIOUS MUHURTAS

May Gajanana (the elephant mouthed god Ganesha, the son of Shiva's consort Paravati) remove all the obstacles of my way. He is adorned for a moment with the emergence of the second teeth or the second tusk (Ganesha, the elephant mouthed god has only one teeth or tusk) as he has thrown in sport by his hand into his mouth the forepart of the Ketaki flower in the ear of Gauri or Paravati (she wore the Ketaki flower in her ear as a jewel).

Notes: In all the books written in Sanskrit there has been the tradition to offer obeisance for welfare at the beginning of the book. Here obeisance has been paid to Shri Ganesha, the son of Paravati, Shiva's consort. Ganesha ji is endowed with the qualities of removing all the obstacles and ensuring successful completion of a deed. The present book has been annotated in Sanskrit by Shri Govind ji. The book is known by the name of Peeyushdhara (The Current of Nectar). In Peeyushdhara may be seen the harmonization of Shri Govind ji's multifaceted knowledge of Shruti, Smriti, Purana, Nyaya, Vyakarana, Mimamsa, Dharma Shastra and Astrology. According to him the word भंग (Bhanga) in the shloka in 'केतकपत्रभंग' is wrong from the literary point of view and the expression should be 'केतकपत्रभागम्' or 'केतकबालपत्रम्' in place of 'केतकपत्रभंगम्'. "The word 'भाग' would be better", says Shri Govind ji. He has said so with a view to observing the rules of literature. But there will be no difference in meaning due to the word भंग or भाग

Rama, the son of Ananta Daivagya, for the successful completion of rites (conception, christening, first eating of grains etc.) and deeds (trading, buying and selling, travelling etc.) for the proper knowledge of Muhurtas (elections of time etc.) and for expressing in brief the deep meaning of things, composed this book named 'Muhurta Chintamani'.

Notes: Indian thinkers hold the view that a deed begun at a favourable moment will confer favourable results. Therefore Astrology has made provision for the Muhurtas for the various rites like those of conception, christening (naming), child's first eating of grains, making hole in the ear (कर्ण वेध), beginning of education, beginning of teaching letters, keeping fast, marriage, yajna etc. and the various deeds like travelling, construction of new house, making jewels taking loan, ploughing, sowing seeds, cutting crops etc. It is for the proper knowledge of these that Ramacharya has composed the book named Muhurta Chintamani etc. are respectively Agni, Brahma, Gauri, Ganesha, Sarpa, Kartikeya, Surya (the Sun), Shiva, Durga, Yamaraja, Vishwe Deva, Vishnu, Kamadeva, Shiva and Chandrama (the moon).

तिथीशा वह्निकौ गौरी गणेशोऽहर्गृहो रविः ।

Notes: On full Amavasya (the 30th Hindi Tithi) the longitude of the sun and that of the moon are the same. At the end of Amavasya the moon, due to her fast movement, goes towards the East from the sun and in this way, the moon's being away from the sun by 12° , each time there is one tithi Pratipada etc. that is, when the moon goes away from 0° to 12° from the sun, there is the Pratipada tithi of the Shukla Paksha (the bright half of the month). The rest of the tithis are formed by the moon's going away from the sun by 12° each time. When the distance between the sun and the moon is 180° there is the full disc of the moon in the sky. It is because of this that the 15th tithi is named as 'Poornima' or 'Purnamasi'. After 'Poornima' (Full moon tithi) when 15 tithis are completed, the distance between the sun and the moon again becomes 0° and this day is the day of Amavasya (full dark tithi). It brings an end of the month.

In the present Shloka are stated the lords of the tithis. The lords of the tithis in both the Pakshas (fortnights) - the bright half and the dark half - are the same. The first tithi of the bright half of the month is called Pratipada. In Indian Panchangas (Almanacs) it is indicated by the figure 1 (one) and in the same way the other tithis are also represented by figures or numbers 1, 2, 3 and so on. Poornima has been allotted the number of 15. The tithis after Poornima are not represented by the numbers of 16, 17 and so on, they are again started with Number 1 (one) and are represented by numbers 1, 2, 3 and so on. Only the Amavasya of the month is represented by the number of 30.

The Lords or deities of the tithis are as follows:

Dates (Tithis)	Lords or deities
1. Pratipada	Agni (Fire)
2. Dwitiya	Brahma (the creator of the universe)
3. Tritiya	Gauri (Lord Shiva's consort)
4. Chaturthi	Ganesha (Parwati's son)
5. Panchmi	Sarpa (Serpent, he is also a god)
6. Shashthi	Kartikaya (son of Lord Shiva and Parwati)
7. Saptami	The Sun (He is also a living god)
8. Ashtami	Shiva (the god of destruction)
9. Navami	Durga (the goddess who is symbol of primeval energy)
10. Dashmi	Yama Raja (god of death)
11. Ekadashi	Vishwe Deva (one of God's names)
12. Dwadashi	Vishnu (the god who supports creation)
13. Tryodashi	Kamadeva (god of love)
14. Chaturdashi	Shiva
15. Poornima	The moon
30. Amavasya	The moon/Manes.

The worship, fast and the establishing of the image with life (in Sanskrit प्राण प्रतिष्ठा - Prana Pratishtha) of the gods - these are to be done on the tithis of which they are the Lords or presiding deities. Thus, if one wants to worship Ganesha, it should be done on the 4th tithi the lord or presiding deity of which is Ganesha and so on.

'NANDA' ETC. NAMES OF TITHIS AND SIDDHA YOGA:

In both the bright half of the month and the dark half of the month, Nanda, Bhadra, Jaya, Rikta and Poorna (in three frequencies) are respectively the names of the tithis. The three frequencies of the bright half of the month are respectively inauspicious, medium in auspiciousness and fully auspicious and; the three frequencies of the dark half of the month are regarded respectively fully auspicious, medium in auspiciousness and inauspicious. If, in both the bright and the dark half of the month, the tithis Nanda etc. in order (of all the three frequencies) happen to fall on Friday, Wednesday, Tuesday, Saturday and Thursday, then on that day there is the Siddha Yoga.

Notes: In the 15 tithis of the bright half and the dark half of the month, 1/6/11 are Nandas, 2/7/12 are Bhadras, 3/8/13 are Jayas, 4/9/14 are Riktas and 5/10/15 are Poornas (in the Dark half of the month the Poornas are 5/10/30).

In the bright half of the month the tithis Pratipada (1), Dwitiya (2), Tritiya (3), Chaturthi (4) and Panchmi (5) have been said to be inauspicious. Here inauspiciousness or auspiciousness depends upon the decreasing or the increasing of the moon. The moon disappears completely in the night of the Amavasya (30 tithi) and in the nights of the 1/2/3/4/5 tithis she is seen to be slowly increasing. Therefore owing to the weakening of the moon these tithis of the bright half of the month which are of the first frequency are said to be inauspicious. The second frequency of the tithis of the bright half of the month, that is 6/7/8/9/10 witness increase in the kalas of the moon. The strength of the moon increases to a certain degree. Therefore, these tithis are neither auspicious nor inauspicious or they are medium in auspiciousness. In the 3rd frequency of the tithis of the bright half of the month, that is 11/12/13/14/15 the moon is endowed with all the kalas and therefore these tithis have been spoken of as auspicious.

On the other hand in the dark half of the month in the first frequency of the tithis, that is, 1/2/3/4/5 the moon decreases slowly. But she is seen in her greater number of kalas. Therefore the tithis of the first frequency of the dark half of the month that is 1/2/3/4/5 have been said to be fully auspicious. In the 2nd frequency of the tithis of the dark half of the month 6/7/8/9/10 the moon gradually decreases in strength, and so these tithis have been said to be medium in auspiciousness. And in the 3rd frequency of the tithis of the dark half of the month, the moon's being completely devoid of strength, therefore these tithis 11/12/13/14/15 have been said to be inauspicious.

If the Nanda tithis (1/6/11) happen to fall on Friday, Bhadra tithis (2/7/12) on Wednesday, Jaya tithis (3/8/13) on Tuesday, Rikta tithis (4/9/14) on Saturday and Poorna tithis (5/10/15) on Thursday, then on that day there happens to be Siddha Yoga. This Yoga is counted among the most auspicious yogas and it is regarded as success giving in one's efforts.

Brahma rishi Vashistha has said that as the Ekadashi tithi (11) destroys all the sins if on this tithi one keeps fast, gives alms, performs worship, listens to the religious stories, performs the completion rites of some fast 'उद्यापन' etc., in the same way the above mentioned Siddha tithis confer auspicious effects by destroying the defects relating to Muhurtas such as those of Masa Shunya (zero month), Masa Dagdha (burnt month).

Inauspicious day such as the day of Saturday happening to fall on the inauspicious tithi of Rikta becomes a day of Siddha Yoga and confers auspicious effects.

AMRITA YOGA AND DAGDHA YOGA ON DAYS SUNDAY ETC. If on days Sunday, Monday and so on there happen to fall respectively Nanda, Bhadra, Nanda, Jaya, Rikta, Bhadra and Poorna, then there is Amrita Yoga. In the same way, if there happens to fall the Nakshtra of Bharani on Sunday, Chitra on Monday, Uttara shadha on Tuesday, Dhanishtha on Wednesday, Uttara phalguni on Thursday, Jyeshtha on Friday and Rewati on Saturday, Daghdha Yoga happens to be on that day

Notes: If it happens that there is the Nanda tithi (1/6/11) on Sunday, Bhadra tithi (2/7/12) on Monday, Nanda tithi (1/6/11) on Tuesday, Jaya tithi (3/8/13) on Wednesday, Rikta tithi 4/9/14 on Thursday, Bhadra tithi (2/7/12) on Friday and Poorna tithi (5/10/15 or 5/10/30) on Saturday, there is formed on these days what is called Amrita Yoga. [According to Shri Govind ji Devarishi Narada's shloka:

सूर्ये नन्दा, तथा सोमे भद्रा, भौमे नन्दा, बुधे जया,

गुरौ रिक्ता, शुक्रे भद्रा शनौ पूर्णामृतेत्यर्थः ॥

should be interpreted in this way "If it happens that there is the Nanda Tithi on Sunday, Bhadra Tithi on Monday, Nanda Tithi on Tuesday, Jaya Tithi on Wednesday, Rikta Tithi on Thursday, Bhadra Tithi on Friday and Poorna Tithi on Saturday, then Amrita Yoga is formed, this is the meaning"]

But certain writers have interpreted that these days are Mrita Yoga forming if these Tithis fall on them. Actually, they have wrongly interpreted the expression शनौ पूर्णामृतेत्यर्थः. The meaning of the expression should be this - If Poorna tithi falls on Saturday, the yoga formed will be Amrita. The expression when it is analysed is 'पूर्णा + अमृत + इत्यर्थः'. This meaning is verified by the shloka written by Maharishi Kashyapa

जया सौम्ये गुरौ रिक्ता पूर्णार्कावमृता शुभा ॥

पूर्णार्कावमृता is analysed as 'पूर्णा + आर्को + अमृता' that is if अर्क पुत्र or आर्कि or शनिवार Saturday coincides with the Poorna tithi, the Yoga so formed is Amrita Yoga.

KARKACHA AND SAMVARTAKA YOGA: If Shashthi etc tithis in right order of tithis fall on Saturday etc in reverse order of days, there is Adhama Yoga (Karkacha) on these days. There is Adhama (Samvartaka) yoga also if Pratipada (1) falls on Wednesday and Saptami (7) falls on Sunday. And teeth should not be cleaned with Neem stick etc on the Shashthi (6) etc. Tithis.

Notes: If it happens that the Shashthi (6) tithi falls on Saturday, Saptami (7) on Friday, Astami (8) on Thursday, Navami (9) on Wednesday, Dashmi (10) on Tuesday, Ekadashi (11) on Monday and Dwadashi (12), on Sunday, the yoga formed on these days is not auspicious and good. Shri Govind ji (the writer's brother) has given this yoga the name of 'Karkacha yoga'. And the yoga that is formed if Pratipada (1) happens to fall on Wednesday and Saptami (7) on Sunday has been given the name of 'Samvartaka'. Teeth are not to be cleaned with stick of any tree (such as Neem tree) in these yogas.

According to 'Kashi Khanda Granatha' collection of wood should not be made on Pratipada (1), Amavasya (30), Shashthi (6) and Navami (9) and on Sunday.

षष्ठ्यष्टमीमूतविधुक्षयेषु नो सेवेत ना तैलपले क्षुरं रतम् ।

नाम्यञ्जनं विश्वदशद्विकेति यौघात्रीफलैः स्नानममाद्रिगोष्वस्तु ॥ ७ ॥

On Shashthi (6), Ashtmi (8), Chaturdashi (14), Amavasya (30) tithis are prohibited respectively for oiling (the hair), eating flesh, shaving and sexual intercourse with one's wife. Ubatan (paste made of turmeric etc used to cleanse the body) should not be applied on the body on Trayodashi (13), Dashmi (10) and Dwitiya (2) and bath should not be taken after rubbing Amla (a fruit) on the body on Amavasya (30), Saptami (7) and Navami (9).

Notes: Anti-yogas (yogas which remove the evil effects of the inauspicious yogas) are also there in this connection.

तीर्थक्षीरं चतुर्दश्यां दीपमाल्यां च मैथुनम् ॥

That is, if the Shashthi tithi (6) falls on Saturday oil may be applied on the body, flesh may be eaten on the Durgashtami (8) of the month of Ashwina (coincident with October), shaving may be done on Chaturdashi at a place of pilgrimage and sexual intercourse may be indulged in on the Amavasya of Deepawali (one of the four chief festivals of the Hindus falling on the 30th tithi of the Hindi month of Kartika)

One more fact is to be kept in mind here that the tithi which remains on that day for two or three hours after Sunrise is not the one on which the above said things should not be done. Thus, suppose the Shashthi tithi (6) remains (on Saturday) only for 2 hours after the Sunrise, then oil may be applied on the body 2 hours after Sunrise.

DAGDHA, VISHA, HUTASHANA AND YAMAGHANTA YOGAS. If Dwadashi tithi (12) happens to fall on Sunday, Ekadashi (11) on Monday, Panchami (5) on Tuesday, Tritiya (3) on Wednesday, Shashthi (6) on Thursday, Ashtami (8) on Friday and Navami (9) on Saturday, the yoga formed on these days is Dagdha. Again, if Chaturthi tithi (4) happens to fall on Sunday, Shashthi (6) on Monday, Saptami (7) on Tuesday, Dwitiya (2) on Wednesday, Ashtami (8) on Thursday, Navami (9) on Friday and Saptami (7) on Saturday, the yoga formed on these days is called 'Visha'. In the same way, if the Dwadashi tithi (12) happens to fall on Sunday, Shashthi (6) on Monday, Saptami (7) on Tuesday, Ashtami (8) on Wednesday, Navami (9) on Thursday, Dashmi (10) on Friday and Ekadashi (11) on Saturday, the yoga formed on these days is called 'Hutashana' yoga. Similarly, if the Makha Nakshatra happens to be there on Sunday, Vishakha on Monday, Aridra on Tuesday, Moola on Wednesday, Kritika on Thursday, Rohini on Friday and Hasta on Saturday, the yoga formed on these days in these Nakshtras is Yama Ghanta

ZERO TITHIS OF CHAITRADI MASAS or MONTHS IN BOTH THE PAKSHAS (The bright and the dark half of the month):-
 Pratipada and Dwitiya (1 and 2) tithis in the month of Bhadrapada (August). Dwitiya and Tritiya (2 and 3) in Shravana (August). Dwadashi (12) in Baisakha (April). Chaturthi and Panchami (4, 5) in Pausha (December) Saptami and Ashtami (7, 8) in Margashirsa (December) and Ashtami and Navami (8, 9) in Chaitra (March) are given the name of Zero tithis in both the Pakshas.

In the dark half of the month of Kartika (November) Ashadha (July). Phalguna (February) Jyeshtha (May) and Magha (January) the Panchami, tithi (5), the Shashthi (6), the Chaturthi (4) the Chaturdashi (14) and Panchami (5) are respectively the zero tithis and so are respectively the Chaturdashi (14), the Saptami (7), the Tritiya (3), the Trayodashi (13) and the Shashthi (6) in the bright half of the month.

Notes: Shradhdha (the offering of food and water to the manes on certain days as prevalent among the Hindus) may be done in the Zero tithis, but no auspicious deed should be performed on these tithis. The doing of auspicious deeds brings destruction of the family and also of money.

Masas (Months) are of four kinds Solar months. Lunar months. Sidereal months and Savana months. The Solar months are determined according to the transit time of Sun's entry into 12 signs (like Aries. Taurus etc) each of an angular distance of 30°. Lunar month is the time period from completion of new Moon (conjunction of Moon with the Sun) to the next new-Moon. There are two kinds of Lunar months used in India. The new Moon ending and the full Moon ending. The new Moon ending Lunar Month covers the period from one new-Moon to the next. This is known as amanta (Amavasya) or Sukhladi system. The day next to Amavasya is the first day of the month. The full-Moon ending Lunar month known as Purnimanta covers the period from one full Moon to the next and begins from the day after the full Moon. (1)

Vikram Samvat begins from the first tithi of Chaitra Shukla (Shukla Pratipada) according to the Chaitradi system, and the Vikrama Samvat started from 57 B.C.

The Lunar month which begins (on the Pratipada of the bright half of the month) when the Sun is in the sign of Pisces and which ends (on the Amant or Amavasya) when the Sun is in the sign of Aries is called the 'Shuddha' (pure) Chaitra (March) Masa or month. The names of pure months are as follows:-

1. Chaitra	5. Shravana	9. Marga Shirsā
2. Vaisakha	6. Bhādrapada	10. Pausa
3. Jyeshtha	7. Asvina	11. Magha
4. Ashadha	8. Kartika	12. Phalgunā

As long as the number of Aries Sankranti etc in a Solar year (12 Solar months) is equal to the number of Amanta (Amavasya), the months are considered to be pure months. When in a year the number of Amantas becomes greater than the number of Sankrantis, the additional month is called 'the extra' month or 'Mala' month. Similarly, when in a Solar year the amanta number becomes fewer than the Sankranti number, the one month which is fewer is called the 'Kshaya' month.

The difference between the two sunrises is called one savana day. 30 Savana days make one Savana month and 12 Savana months make one Savana year.

The time between the rise of a Nakshtra or star in the horizon and another rise of it on the next day is called one Sidereal day. 30 such Sidereal days make one Sidereal month and 12 Sidereal months make one Sidereal year.

In this, book the 'amanta' or the Sukhladi system has been regarded as the base of calculation. Where some other system will be used, it will be separately indicated.

INAUSPICIOUSNESS ARISING OUT OF THE CONJUNCTION OF TITHI AND NAKSHTRA: And in the same way if it happens that the Ashlesha Nakshtra falls on the Dwadashi Tithi, the Uttarashadha on the Pratipada (1), Anuradha on the Dwitiya (2), Makha on the Panchami (5), the three Uttaras (Uttara Phalguni, Uttara Shadha and Uttara Bhadrapada) on the Tritiya (3), Rohini on Ekadashi (11), Swati and Chitra on Trayodashi (13), Hasta and Moola on Saptami (7), Kritika on Navami (9), Poorva Bhadrapada on Ashtami (8), and Rohini on Shashti, then the tithi is inauspicious for performing auspicious deeds.

ZERO SIGNS IN THE MONTHS CHAITRA ETC.: In the months of Chaitra, Vaishakha, Jyeshtha, Ashadha, Shravana, Bhadrapada, Ashvina, Kartika, Marga shirsa, Pausha, Magha and Phalguna, the signs respectively of Aquarius, Pisces, Taurus, Gemini, Aries, Virgo, Scorpio, Libra, Sagittarius, Cancer, Capricorn and Leo are zero signs.

Notes: The Zero signs have been said to be inauspicious in doing auspicious deeds. If an auspicious deed is performed in these zero signs it causes destruction of the family and money.

ZERO ASCENDANTS (DAGDHA LAGNAs) IN ODD TITHIS
In both the Pakshas, the Shukla and the Krishna Pakshas, in the odd tithis, beginning from Pratipada, Libra and Capricorn on Pratipada (1), Leo and Capricorn on Tritiya (3), Gemini and Virgo on Panchami (5), Sagittarius and Cancer on Saptami (7), Aries and Leo on Pisces on Trayodashi (13), are named as zero signs. Auspicious deeds performed in these Ascendants cause harm and bring undesirable effects.

LEAVING OF EVIL COMBINATIONS IN DOING GOOD DEEDS: The Zero tithis of the month, and whatever zero signs there are, should be left out (and on these no auspicious deed should be performed) in Madhya Desha (Central India, a particular region in India). In other regions these are not bad for doing auspicious deeds.

LEAVING OUT OF PANGU-ANDHA ETC. ASCENDANTS AND ZERO SIGNS: Pangu (Lame) Andha (Blind)-Kana (one eyed) Ascendants and the zero sign in a month are to be left out for doing auspicious deeds only in Gaur and Malawa Country (region). These Ascendants and signs are not to be left out in other countries or regions

Notes: The Ascendants Pangu and Andha-Kana have been explained in chapter 6 Shloka 81. Here Andha and Kana should not be regarded as two separate Ascendants. It is one term Andha-Kana

COMBINATIONS WHICH ARE TO BE LEFT OUT IN DOING ALL AUSPICIOUS DEEDS: The Panchami Tithi (5) with the Hasta Nakshtra falling on Sunday, Saptami (7) with Ashwini on Tuesday, Shashthi (6) with Mrigasira on Monday, Ashtami (8) with Anuradha on Wednesday, Dashmi (10) with Rewati on Friday, Navami (9) with Pushya on Thursday and Ekadashi (11) with Rohini on Saturday-these combinations are to be avoided in doing all auspicious deeds.

Notes: If there is the conjunction of only the Nakshtra and the day, it is auspicious and should be adopted in doing all auspicious deeds; but it becomes inauspicious if there is the conjunction of the above stated tithis. This yoga is referred to as Madhu Sarpisha yoga. Maharishi Vashistha has spoken of another kind of Madhu Sarpisha yoga which is named as 'Halahala' yoga. According to Vashistha the conjunction of Sunday-Panchami-Kritika, Monday-Dwitiya Chitra, Tuesday-Poornima-Rohini, Wednesday-Saptami-Bharani, Thursday-Trayodashi-Anuradha and Saturday-Ashtami-Rewati-makes what is called the inauspicious yoga of Halahala.

YOGAS (COMBINATIONS) WHICH ARE TO BE AVOIDED IN ENTERING NEW HOUSE. TRAVELLING AND MARRYING The rise of Ashwini Nakshtra on Tuesday, of Rohini on Saturday and Pushya Nakshtra on Thursday-these combinations are to be avoided respectively for entering newly constructed House, travelling and marrying

Notes. Although siddhi yoga that is, the yoga which ensures the successful completion of a deed, is formed in the conjunction of the above-mentioned days and Nakshtras, but this yoga is to be rejected in the ceremony of entering a newly constructed house, travelling and marrying.

NAMES OF ANAND ETC YOGAS: 1. Anand, 2. Kala-Danda, 3. Dhoomra, 4. Dhata, 5. Saumaya, 6. Dhawanksha, 7. Ketu, 8. Shrivatsaya, 9. Vajra, 10. Mudgar, 11. Kshtra, 12. Mitra, 13. Manasa, 14. Padma, 15. These 28 are the Chala or movable yogas. They give results according to their names.

Notes: Among these yogas Kaladanda, Dhoomra, Dhawanksha, Vajra, Mudgar, Padma, Lumba, Utpata, Mrityu, Kana, Musala, Gada, Raksha are inauspicious yogas and the rest are auspicious.

METHOD OF FINDING OUT THE ANANDA ETC. yogas: If Ananda etc. yogas are to be known on Sunday count from Ashwini to the Nakshtra on Sunday, if these are to be known on Monday count from Mrigshira to the Nakshtra on Monday, if on Tuesday, from Ashlesha, on Wednesday from Hasta, on Thursday, from Anuradha, on Friday from Uttarashadha and, on Saturday from Shatbhisa (Abhijit also).

Notes: It may be better understood in the following way. If there is the rise of Ashwini Nakshtra on Sunday the first yoga will be the Ananda yoga. And if there is the rise of the Bharani Nakshtra on Sunday the yoga formed on this day will be Kala-Danda. In this way the rise of various Nakshtras on Sunday will be responsible for making the various 28 yogas (Nakshtras are 28 when Abhijit Nakshtra is also included) If we have to see the yogas (combinations) of Monday due to the rise of different Nakshtras on this day, we shall count from Mrigshira to the Nakshtra on Monday. If the Nakshtra on Monday is Mrigshira itself, then the yoga on this day will be the 'Ananda' as counting from Mrigshira to Mrigshira gives 1. If there is the rise of Aridra on Monday, the yoga formed on this day will be Kala-Danda, if of Punarvasu, the yoga formed on this day will be Dhoomra. Other yogas will be formed in the same way due to the rise of different Nakshtras on Monday. The 28 yogas will be formed on all the Seven days of the week due to the rise of different 28 Nakshtras on these days.

Here is an example for more clarification. Suppose there is the rise of the Vishakha Nakshtra on Thursday. To know what will be the yoga on this day we shall count from the Anuradha Nakshtra to the Vishakha Nakshtra. The number comes to be 28. Therefore, the conjunction of Vishakha Nakshtra and Thursday will form the 28th yoga which is Pravardhamana yoga.

REJECTION OR LEAVING OUT OF INAUSPICIOUS YOGAS: The first 5 Ghatīs in the Dhwanaksha, the Vajra and the Mudgar yogas, the first 4 Ghatīs in the Padma and the Lumba yogas, the first 7 Ghatīs in the Gada, the first ghati in the Dhumra, the first two Ghatīs in the Musala are rejected as inauspicious. And the full time of Rakshasa, Mrityu, Utpaat and Kala yogas is rejected as inauspicious (for doing any auspicious deed)

Notes If the deed is very urgent and necessary, it should be done then after leaving out the ghatīs of the yogas Dhwanaksha etc. that are spoken of as rejectable, other wise it should not be done.

RAVI YOGA If, by counting from that Nakshtra in which the Sun is situated to that one in which the Moon is situated, there comes any of the number 4/6/9/10/15/20, then the yoga that is formed in this way is 'Ravi yoga' which is the destroyer of all inauspiciousness.

Notes: Suppose the Sun is situated in the Ashwini Nakshtra and the situation of the Moon is in one of these Nakshtras-Rohini, Ardra, Ashlesha, Magha, Hasta and Poorvashadha-then there will be the Ravi Yoga as all these Nakshtras are 4/6/9/10/13/20th from the Ashwini Nakshtra.

When there is the Ravi Yoga and by chance the day happens to be Sunday, then the conjunction of Sunday and the Ashlesha Nakshtra will form Vajra Yoga and that of Sunday and Magha, Mudgar yoga. Although these yogas (combinations) have been regarded inauspicious, yet according to Shloka 42 of the present chapter, the native will get the good effects of Ravi yoga.

SARVARTHA SIDDHI YOGA: If there is on Sunday Hasta, Moola, Uttaraphalguni, Uttarashadha, Uttarabhadrapada, Pushya or Ashwini Nakshtra; on Monday, Shravana, Rohini, Mrigshira, Pushya or Anuradha; on Tuesday, Ashwini, Uttarabhadrapada, Kritika or Ashlesha; on Wednesday, Rohini, Anuradha, Hasta, Kritika or Mrigshira; on Thursday, Revati, Anuradha, Ashwini, Punarvasu, or Pushya; on Friday, Revati, Anuradha, Ashwini, Punarvasu and Shravana and; on Saturday, Shravana, Rohini or Swati Nakshtra, then, there is, according to the ancient writers on Astrology, the Sarvaratha Siddhi yoga on these days.

UTPAATADI YOGA (UTPAATA, MRITYU, KANA AND SIDDHA YOGA.): On Sunday from Vishakha Nakshtra, on Monday from Purva Shadha, on Tuesday from Dhanishtha, on Wednesday from Revati, on Thursday from Rohini, on Friday from Pushya and, on Saturday from Uttaraphalguni, four Nakshtras from each onwards there are respectively the Utpaata, Mrityu, Kana and Siddha yogas. The effects of these yogas are also according to their names.

Notes:

Table for illustration:

Days	Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
Yogas
Utpaata	Vishakha	Purva-shadha	Dhanishtha	Revati	Rohini	Pushya	Uttara-Phalguni
Mrityu	Anuradha	Uttara-shadha	Shatbhisha	Ashwini	Mrigshira	Ashlesha	Hasta
Kana	Jyeshtha	Abhijit	Poorva bhadrapada	Bharani	Ardra	Magha	Chitra
Siddhi	Moola	Shravana	Shravana	Kritika	Punarvasu	Poorva Phalguni	Swati

As this table shows, the Utpaata etc yogas will be in this way. Thus if on Sunday there is the Vishakha Nakshtra there will be Utpaata yoga, if Anuradha, Mrityu yoga, if Jyeshtha, Kana yoga and if Moola, Siddhi yoga and so on.

THE ORDER OF THE INAUSPICIOUS YOGAS IN VARIOUS COUNTRIES OR REGIONS: The inauspicious yogas forming due to the conjunction of tithi (Hindi date) and day, of tithi and Nakshtra, of Nakshtra and day and of tithi, day and Nakshtra are evil causing, and therefore should be rejected only in the countries or regions of the Punjab, Bengal and Nepal.

THINGS TO BE REJECTED IN DOING ALL THE AUSPICIOUS DEEDS: The Lagna or the Ascendant and the Navamsha occupied by the Moon and the malefic planets (the emaciated Moon, the Sun, Mars, and Saturn), the third part of a Ghati or 20 Palas (4 minutes) before and after mid day and mid night—these are to be rejected in doing all the auspicious deeds. Similarly, the Navamsha of a malefic planet, three days before an eclipse, seven days after a portent (like an earthquake etc.) and an eclipse and the whole day on which an auspicious portent occurs—these should also be avoided in doing, all auspicious deeds. And the Nakshtra cleaved by planets, the Nakshtra in which there is the planetary war and the Nakshtra in which there is some Utpaata or portent—these three Nakshtras are to be rejected for six months in doing all the auspicious deeds.

Notes: The Sun, Mars, Saturn, Rahu, Ketu, emaciated Moon and Mercury together with a malefic planet, are regarded as malefic planets.

Reversal in natural events is called a portent.

Portents are of three types:

1. Celestial Portents,
2. Atmospheric Portents, and
3. Terrestrial Portents.

In Shloka 485 Chapter 46 of 'Brihat Samhita' the writer speaks of portents in these words: "The celestial portents are the unnatural behaviour of planets and asterisms, meteors, thunders, storms and halos; the atmospheric ones are arcrial cities, rainbows etc and; the terrestrial ones arise from the moving and the Stationery objects.

Those portents which are generated by the peculiar nature of the seasons and do not lead to evil consequences are called auspicious portents. According to 'Brihat Samhita' the auspicious portents in different seasons are as follows:

1. Spring (Basant) seasons (Constituted by the Lunar months of Chaitra and Vaishaka or roughly March and April): Thunder-bolts, lightning, earth tremor, bright glare at twilight, sounds of loud thunder, halos, dust, smoke in forests, the Sun's being crimson at the time of rising and setting, the exudation of food, sweet juice, oil and an over-abundant yield of flowers and fruits on trees and increased sensuality on the part of bulls and birds.

2. Summer (Greesham) season (constituted by Jyeshtha and Ashadha, roughly May and June): The sky tarnished by shooting stars and falling meteors, the orbs of the luminaries (the Sun and the Moon) being tawny, blaze and explosion without fire, smoke dust and strong wind filling the sky, the twilight red like red lotus, the sky looking like the ocean with surging waves and the drying up of the waters of the river.

3. Rainy (Varsha) season (constituted by Shravana and Bhado, roughly July and August): Rainbow halos, lightning, sprouting of withered trees, tremor, upheaval, unnatural appearances, rumbling and splitting of the earth, rising, flowing upwards and flooding of lakes, rivers and wells respectively and falling off of mountains and houses.

4. Autumn (sharad) season (constituted by Ashwina and Kartika, roughly September and October). The sight of celestial damsels, spirits, Gand harvas, aerial Chariots, marvellous things, and of planets, stars and constellations in the day time in the sky, sounds of singing and musical instruments in the forests and on mountain plateaus, increase of crops and diminution of water.

5. DEWY (Hemant) season (constituted by Marga shirsha and Pausha, roughly November and December): Cold wind, frost, cries of birds and beasts, sight of demons yakshas and such other invisible beings, aerial voices being heard, the quarters along with the sky, forests and mountains getting darkened with smoke and the high rising and setting of the Sun.

6. Winter (Shishira) Season (Constituted by Magha and Phalguna, roughly January and February): Snow fall, unnatural winds, appearance of deformed and super human beings, the sky looking like dark collyrium, and colourful with the fall of stars and meteors, women, cows, goats horses, beasts and birds giving birth to freakish young ones and unnatural changes in leaves, sprouts and creepers.

In the countries or regions in which these auspicious portents happen naturally, where these happen daily, they cannot be called portents. Thus in the hilly countries or regions the falling of snow should not be called an auspicious portent.

The cleaving of a Nakshtra: When, moving in his own orbit or sphere, the celestial latitude of a planet gets in the same direction with the celestial latitude of a Nakshtra, the planet is said to be cleaving that Nakshtra. Such a Nakshtra is also to be rejected.

Planetary war: When the planets move in the sky along their orbits lying over one another, they appear to our eyes to move on one surface or plane as a result of their great distance from the earth. According to the degree of their seeming approachment there are four kinds of war. 1. Bheda (occultation, cleaving) 2. Ullekha (grazing) 3. Amsumardana (clashing of the rays) 4. Apsavya (passing south ward). When two planets appear to have a single orb on account of their apparent over lapping the fight is called Bheda. In this the orb of the lower planet abstracts completely the upper one. When the rims of the two orbs graze each other, it is called Ullekha. When the rays of the two planets situated closely appear to be clashing with one another it is Amsumardana. When a planet covering another moves towards the south it is Apasavya.

THE NAKSHTRAS IN WHICH ECLIPSES OCCUR: The Nakshtra in which there is the full eclipse of the Sun is to be rejected for six months, for 3 months if there is the half eclipse, for one month if there is the one fourth part eclipse. If the eclipsed Sun or Moon sets then three days before the eclipse, and if the eclipsed Sun or Moon rises then three days after it, no auspicious deed is to be done. And if there is the half eclipse at other time than the time of rising or setting then 3 days before and 3 days after and the full day of the eclipse, should be avoided for doing all auspicious deeds ORGANS OF THE PANCHANGA WHICH ARE TO BE AVOIDED IN DOING AUSPICIOUS DEEDS: The Nakshtra at the time of birth, the month of the birth, the date of the birth, Vyatipata, Bhadra, Vaidhriti yoga, Amavasya (the 30th Tithi of the month), the day of the death of father and mother, the tithi that has not occurred.

the tithi that has been added, the month that has not occurred, the month that has been added, Kulika, Ardhayama and, Pata-these are to be rejected while doing an auspicious deed, and the 3 ghatis of the beginning of the Vishkambha and Vajra yoga should also be rejected.

Notes: The tithi (Hindi date) which does not remain at the time of the Sunrise is called the Kshaya or loss of tithi or destroyed tithi, and when one tithi remains for two days at sunrise it is called the Vriddhi (added tithi). As regards Kulika, it has been dealt with in Shloka 37 of the present chapter. Ardhayama has been explained by the author himself in Shloka 60 of Chapter 6.

Yoga: When the total motion of the Sun and the Moon is equal to 800 Kalas, it is called one yoga. The number of yogas is 27. Their names are as follows: (1) Vishkambha (2) Preeti, (3) Ayushman, (4) Saubhagya (5) Shobhana, (6) Atiganda, (7) Sukarma, (8) Dhriti (9) Shoola (10) Ganda (11) Vriddhi (12) Dhruva (13) Vyaghata, (14) Harshana (15) Vajra (16) Siddhi (17) Vyatipata (18) Variyan (19) Paridha (20) Shiva (21) Siddha, (22) Sadhya (23) Shubha (24) Shukam (25) Brahma (26) Aindra and (27) Vaidhriti.

From the sum total of the numbers of the Nakshtras (as 1 for Ashwini, 2 for Bharani 3 for Kritika and so on) in which there are the Sun and the Moon 1 (one) is to be deducted. The remaining number is the number of the yogas Vishkambha etc. For example suppose the Sun is in the Magha Nakshtra and the Moon is in Rohini. Then from Ashwini the Sun is in the 10th and the Moon is in the 4th Nakshtra. The sum total of both is 14. When 1 is deducted from it the remaining number is 13. The 13th yoga is that of 'Vyaghata'. Therefore, the yoga on the concerned day will be 'Vyaghata'. 'Yoga' is one of the 5 organs of Panchanga (Almanac), the other four organs being tithi, var, Nakshtra and, Karana

THE GHATIS OF PARIDHA ETC. YOGAS THAT ARE TO BE REJECTED. The first half of the Paridha Yoga, the first five Ghatis of Shubha yoga, the first 6 Ghatis of Ganda and Ati Ganda Yoga and the first 9 Ghatis of Vyaghata yoga-these should be rejected in doing all auspicious deeds. (The remaining Ghatis are good effects giving).

The 4th, 6th, 8th, 9th, 12th and 14th-these tithis of both the Pakshas should be rejected in doing an auspicious deed. The first 8,9,14,25,10 and 5, Ghatis respectively of these tithis are to be rejected in doing all auspicious deeds. The remaining Ghatis of these tithis are auspicious and good-effects giving.

Notes: The 4th, 6th, 8th, 9th, 12th and 14th these 6 tithis have been called Paksha Randhra. In the Shlokas from 34 to 36 the Bhoga period (the period in which a tithi and a yoga occurs) of yogas and tithis has been taken to be 60 ghatis (24 hours) and it is then that the rejected ghatis have been referred to. If the value of a yoga or a tithi is more or less than 60 Ghatis, then the rejected ghatis should be proportionately found out.

THE WAY TO FIND OUT KULIKA, KAL-BELA, YAMA-GHANTA AND KANTAKA INAUSPICIOUS MUHURTAS: Count the number from the day on which you want to find out the four inauspicious Muhurtas Kulika etc to respectively Saturday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Tuesday. The numbers arrived at in this way are to be doubled and that will give you respectively Kulika, Kalbela, Yama Ghanta and Kantaka yogas.

Notes Suppose you want to find out Kulika etc yogas on Sunday. Counting from Sunday to Saturday gives you 7. When this number is doubled it will give 14. So the 14th Muhurta will be Kulika. Similarly, the number arrived at when counting from Sunday to Wednesday is 4. When it is doubled it gives 8. So the 8th Muhurta will be Kalbela. The same method is to be used in finding out these Muhurtas on other days also.

The Table of Kulika etc. yogas

Muhurtas
Kulika	14	12	10	8	6	4	2
Kal Bela	8	6	4	2	14	12	10
Yam-ghanta	10	8	6	4	2	14	12
Kantaka	6	4	2	14	12	10	8

If Journey is done in the above said Muhurtas there may be the death of the native. if marriage is performed his daughter may become widow; and in Vrata bandha there occurs Brahmavadhā, that is deprivation of the knowledge of Vedas etc.

According to the view of Vashistha these 4 Muhurtas have not been regarded inauspicious at night.

The evil effects of Yamaghantaka occur specially in the regions between Vindhya and Himachala.

On Sunday	6th, 7th, 8th, 10th and 14th
On Monday	4th, 6th, 8th, 9th, 12th and 13th
On Tuesday	2nd, 4th, 3rd, 6th and 10th
On Wednesday	2nd, 4th, 8th, 9th 10th and 14th
On Thursday	2nd, 6th, 12th, 14th, 15th and 16th
On Friday	4th, 5th, 6th, 9th, 10th, 12th and 14th
On Saturday	1st, 2nd, 8th, 10th, 11th and 12th

The above said Kalamsha (Kalamsha is the 6th part of Dinmana) are the evil moments and Kulika, Kantaka, Kalabela, Ardhayama, Yamaghanta etc are the evil Muhurtas. These evil moments and evil Muhurtas are to be rejected in doing all auspicious deeds.

Notes: In order to know Kulika etc the local dinmana is divided by 16 and the Quotient in Ghatis and Palas is the value of one Muhurta. For example, there is on Sunday the 14th Kulika Muhurta. If you want to know its time it will be known in this way.

Local Dinmana (day duration) $30/26 \div 16 = 1$ Ghati, 54 Palas and 7 Vipalas. Therefore $14 \times 1/54/7 = 26/37$, that is, the end of the 14th Muhurta will be from Sunrise at 24 Ghatis and 42 Palas and from this time to 26 Ghatis 37 Palas will be the duration of the 'Kulika' Muhurta on Sunday.

Gulika and Kulika denote the same meaning. If the Dinmana is divided by 8 and we count from the Lord of the day, then the eighth part does not have any lord and that is the part of Saturn and is called Gulika. For example, $30/26 \div 8 = 3/48/15$. This is equal to the value of 2 Muhurtas. The number from Sunday to Saturday is 7. Therefore from Sunrise to $3/48/15 \times 7 = 26/37$ is the value of Gulika. $3/48/15 - 2 = 1/54/7$ is the value of One Muhurta.

Therefore from Sunrise $26/37 - 1/54 = 24$ Ghatis, 42 Palas to 26, 37 which is the value of the Kulika Muhurta is also equal to that of Gulika and the name Gulika given by the ancient astrologers to it has the same meaning as it is there of Kulika.

The Table of Evil Muhurtas:

Sunday	Mon-day	Tues-day	Wednes-day	Thurs-day	Friday	Saturday
6	4	2	2	2	4	1
7	6	3	4	6	5	2
8	8	4	8	12	6	8
10	9	6	9	14	9	10
14	12	10	10	15	10	11
-	13	-	14	16	12	12
-	14	-	-	-	14	-

According to the above said 37th Shloka on Sunday the 14th Muhurta is Kulika, the 10th one Yama ghantaka, the 8th one Kalbela and the 6th one Kantaka. And according to the 64th Shloka of the Chapter on marriage (Vivahaprakarana) the 4th Ardhayama according to the Muhurta is the 7th Muhurta. Therefore, on Sunday there is proved the 6th Muhurta to be Kantaka, the 7th Ardhayama, the 8th Kalbela, the 10th Yama Ghanta and the 14th Kulika. In the same way there are all the muhurtas on the other days of the week like Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday etc.

REJECTION OF HOLASHATAKA ETC IN MARRIAGE ETC.

In the regions on the shores of Vipasha (the river Vyasa) Iravati (the river Ravi) and Shutudra (the river Satlaja) and the region of Tripushkara (the tank of Pushkar in the region of Ajmer in the Rajasthana State), the 8 days before the festival of Holi are inauspicious for performing auspicious deeds like marriage etc and therefore these are to be rejected

Notes Now in the modern times Vipasha is called Vyasa, Iravati, Ravi and, Shutudra, Satluj All these three rivers are in the Punjab. On the shores of Vipasha (Vyasa) there are the cities of Hoshiarpur, Gurudaspur, Mandi, Kangra, Sultan and Kapurthala; on the shores of Irawati (Ravi) there are those of Lahore (Now in Pakistan), Amritsar and Multan and; on the shores of Shutudra (Satluj) there are those of Ferojpur, Shimla, Bhawalpura and Ludhiana.

Tripushkara (the Pushkara region) is now in Ajmer.

REJECTION OF CERTAIN YOGAS LIKE MRITYU, KRAKACHA ETC.: Mrityu yoga Krakacha yoga, Dagdha yoga, and Vishhutashan yoga etc. are good-effect giving due to Moon's auspiciousness arising out of her motion in various Houses (Gochara). According to some writers of Astrology these are good effects—giving after one prahara (one prahara = 3 hours as there are 8 praharas in 24 hours) and according to others these should be rejected only while doing a journey.

Notes: The moon is auspicious if she is in the 3/6/7/10/11 signs from the person's Janama Rashi (The sign in which the Moon is situated at the time of birth) and in the bright half of the month she is auspicious in the 2/5/9 signs.

अयोगे सुयगोऽपि चेत्स्यात्तदानीमयोगं निहत्यैष सिद्धिं तनोति ।

परे लग्नशुद्ध्या कुयोगादिनाशं दिनार्धोत्तरं विष्टिपूर्वं च शस्तम् ॥ ४२ ॥

OTHER WAYS IN WHICH INAUSPICIOUS YOGAS ARE REMOVED: If there is an auspicious yoga also (auspicious combination like Sarvarth-Siddhi, Amrit Siddhi yoga etc.) on the day on which there is an inauspicious yoga, then this auspicious yoga will destroy the inauspicious yoga and will give siddhi or completion of a deed. It is the saying of the other learned astrologers that if there is an auspicious or favourable Lagna at the time of the deed then the inauspicious yoga or combination is destroyed. After noontime Bhadra and the inauspicious yoga like Vaidhrti, Vyatipaata etc. before it are also givers of good effects.

Notes: If there comes some auspicious yoga when there are inauspicious yogas like Krakacha etc., then that auspicious yoga destroys the inauspicious effects of the inauspicious yoga and gives the good effects of its own. The inauspicious effects of the inauspicious yoga are destroyed if there comes that auspicious or favourable Lagna (Ascendant) which has been regarded as auspicious for a certain deed. Raj Martanda has laid special emphasis on an auspicious or favourable Lagna. He says:

यत्र लग्नं विना किञ्चित् क्रियते शुभ संज्ञकम् ।

तत्र तेषां योगानां प्रभावाज्जायते फलम् ॥

The meaning is – where something that is auspicious is done without (auspicious) Lagna, there the effects are caused due to the impact of those yogas or combinations.

DETAILS OF BHADRA: In the Shukla Paksha or the bright half of the month there is Bhadra on the 8th and 15th tithis in the first half part of the tithi; and Bhadra is there also on the 4th and the 11th tithis in the latter half part of these tithis. Again, in the Krishna Paksha or the Dark half of the month there is Bhadra on the 3rd and the 10th tithis in the latter half part of these tithis; and Bhadra is there also on the 7th and the 14th tithis in the first half part of these tithis.

Notes: Bhadra is the name of a 'Karana'. Karana is the half of the tithi-maana, that is, there are two karanas in a tithi. Karanas are of two kinds the first is movable and the second is immovable. 1. Bava, 2. Balava, 3. Kaulava, 4. Taitil, 5. Gara, 6. Vanija, and 7. Bhadra (Vishti is another name of Bhadra). These seven Karanas occur four times in every Paksha (half part of the month). Due to their four times occurrence, they are called chara or movable. 1. Shakuni, 2. Nag, 3. Chatuspada and 4. Kinstughana-these four karanas are fixed karanas. There is Shakuni in the latter half of the 14th tithi of the Krishna Paksha, there are respectively Naga and Chatuspada in the first and the Second half of the 30th tithi (Amavasya) of the Krishna Paksha or the Dark half of the month; and there is Kinstughana in the first half of the Pratipada (the first tithi) of the Shukla Paksha or the Bright half of the month. These Karanas do not have their occurrence in the other tithis. Therefore they are called Sthir Karanas or fixed Karanas.

If after knowing the full maana or value of a tithi it is divided by two, then the first half of it is called Poorvardha and the second half Uttarardha. For example, if the full maana or full value of the Ashtami tithi (the 8th Hindi tithi) is 62 ghatis, then from the time when the Saptami tithi (the 7th tithi) comes to an end to the 31 Ghatis of the Ashtami tithi, there is Bhadra

From this proof or statement there is the Shakuni Karana in the latter half of the 14th tithi of the Krishna Paksha, there is the Naga Karana in the first half of Amavasya or the 30th tithi of the month and there is Chatuspada in the 2nd half of this tithi; and there is Kinstughana in the first half of Pratipada (the 1st Hindi tithi) in the Shukla Paksha. These four are the fixed Karanas. Then there is Bava Karana in the second half of the Pratipada of the Shukla Paksha, there is Balava Karana in the first half of the 2nd tithi, there is Kaulava karana in the second half of this (the 2nd) tithi, there is Taitil Karana in the first half and Gara in the second half of the Third tithi, and then there is Vanika in the first half and Bhadra or Vishti in the second half of the fourth tithi. These seven are the movable karanas. Then from the Panchami tithi to the Saptami tithi (the 5th and the 7th Hindi tithis respectively) of the bright half of the month will pass the 6 Karanas from Bava to Vanika and then there will be the Bhadra Karana in the First Half of the Ashtami tithi (the 8th Hindi tithi). Again, 6 Karanas from Bava to Vanika will pass from the second half of the Ashtami tithi to the first half of the Ekadashi tithi (the 11th Hindi tithi) and there will be the Bhadra Karana in the second half of this tithi. Still again, 6 Karanas from the Bava to the Vanika Karana will pass from Dwadashi to the Chaturdashi tithi (the 12th and the 14th tithis respectively) and then in the first half the 15th tithi (Pauranamasi) there will be Bhadra again. After this there will be the occurrence of the Bhadra Karana in the second half of the Tritiya (the 3rd Hindi tithi) tithi the first half of the Saptami tithi (the 7th Hindi tithi) and in the second half of the Dashmi tithi (the 10th

DETERMINING THE MOUTH AND TAIL OF BHADRA;
AND ITS EFFECTS: In the bright half of the month on the above said Bhadra tithis (8th, 15th, 4th and 11th tithis) in the right order of the tithis that is 4th, 8th, 11th and 15th tithis respectively 5 Ghatis at the beginning of the 5th, 2nd, 7th and 4th Prahara; and in the dark half of the month on the above said Bhadra tithis (3rd, 10th, 7th and the 14th tithis) in the right order of the tithis, that is 3rd, 7th, 10th and 14th tithis respectively 5 Ghatis at the beginning of the 8th, 3rd, 6th and 1st Prahara, there is the mouth of Bhadra. This Mouth is inauspicious. In the same way in the bright half of the month in the above said tithi order, the 3 ghatis at the beginning of the 8th, 5th, 6th and 3rd Prahara; and in the dark half of the month on the above said Bhadra tithis, in the right order of tithis 3 Ghatis at the beginning of the 7th, 2nd, 5th and 4th Prahara, there is the tail of Bhadra. This tail is auspicious. If the Bhadra of the last half of the tithi is in the day and that of the first half of the tithi is in the night, it is auspicious.

Notes: The 8th part of the full maana or value of a tithi is called 'Prahara'. 5 Ghatis mouth and 3 Ghatis tail-this has been written after supposing 60 ghatis as the full maana or value of a tithi. If the full maana or value of a given tithi is less or more than 60 ghatis, then the mouth and tail are to be known by proportional mathematics. Here is an example. Suppose the full Maana or value of the Chaturthi tithi (the 4th Hindi tithi) of the bright half of the month is 55 ghatis and 54 Palas or 3354 Palas. Then the ghatis, Palas and Vipalas of the mouth of Bhadra on this tithi will be known by this formula:

Therefore on the Chaturthi tithi of the bright half of the month the 4 ghatas 39 palas and 30 vipalas (4/39/30) of the 5th Prahara there will be the mouth of Bhadra, that is, there will be the Mouth ghatas of Bhadra from 27 ghatas 57 palas to 32 ghatas 36 palas and 20 vipalas

If the full maana or value of a tithi is divided by 8, the quotient will be the value of the passed Prahara at a given time.

Tithi Maana ÷ 8 = Quotient + Remainder ÷ 8 = passed Prahara.

Passed Prahara - 1 = the present Prahara.

In the following shloka of 'Ratna Mala' there is a very fine method of the existence of the Mouth ghata in the 5th etc Prahara of the tithis Chaturthi etc (the 4th Hindi tithi etc.) and of the existence of the Tail ghata in the 8th etc Prahara of these tithis.

The order of the mouth of Bhadra in the tithis Chaturthi (the 4th Hindi tithi) etc. is as follows: The mouth of Bhadra is in the 5 ghatas of the beginning of the 5th Prahara (the number of the West direction), 2nd (the number of the Agni Kona), 7th (the number of the North direction), 4th (the number of Nairiritya Kona), 8th (the number of the Ishaan Kona), 3rd (the number of the South direction), 6th (the number of the Vayavya kona) and 1st (the number of the East direction) Prahara. There is the tail of Bhadra in the 3 ghatas of the ending of the 4th Prahara from the Prahara of a tithi in which there is its mouth.

THE LIVING AND EFFECTS OF BHADRA: When the Moon is in the signs of Aquarius, Pisces, Cancer or Leo Bhadra lives in the Mrityu Loka (that is on the Earth); when she (the Moon) is in the signs of Aries, Taurus, Gemini, or Scorpio, Bhadra lives in the Swargaloka (the abode of gods) and when she is in the signs of Virgo, Sagittarius, Libra and Capricorn Bhadra lives in the Patal Loka (the Hades or the Underworld). The effects of Bhadra are felt in the Loka (world) in which it lives.

THE THINGS WHICH SHOULD NOT BE DONE IN THE COMBUST ETC. STAGES OF JUPITER AND VENUS: When Jupiter and Venus are in old age, in the combustion stage or in childhood stage and when there is the 'Kshaya' (the month that has not occurred) Month or the Malla (additional month) Month, the following things should not be performed; the building and the using of a small well, garden, tank, well and house: the beginning and ending of a vrata (fast), coming in of a newly wedded wife, Mahadaana, some yajna, Ashtaka Shraddha, Godan (the Keshanta Samskara of a Brahmachari) eating newly grown grains, water tank, the first Shrawanikarma, Vedavrata, Neelvrashotsarga, Atipanna Samaskara (the jat Karmadi Samskaras of children which have not been performed in proper time), Deva Pratishtha (performing the life giving ceremony of a god) learning the first lesson from the guru (teacher), putting on the Sacred thread, marriage, the first cutting of hair, the first visit to a god or the first going to a place of pilgrimage, renunciation of the world, Agnihotra (or burning the sacred fire), the first visit to a king, coronation, journey, yajna of four months, Samavartana, piercing the ear and the testing of some celestial objects.

Notes: Jupiter and Venus are said to be old before they are combust and they are in their infancy after rising.

THE DEFECTIVE PERIOD WHEN JUPITER IS THERE IN THE SIGN OF LEO OR CAPRICORN. OR WHEN HE IS RETROGRADE OR ATICHARI OR WHEN HE COMBINES WITH THE SUN: All the deeds that should not be performed when Jupiter is

combust (these are described in Shlokas 46 and 47) should also be left out (postponed) when Jupiter is in the sign of Leo or Capricorn. According to some learned Astrologers all these deeds are also to be left out when Jupiter is retrograde and is Atichari. In the same way all these deeds are to be left out during the period when Jupiter and the Sun remain in the same sign or when a Paksha (fortnight or one half of the month) is of 13 days. During these periods things made of ivory or elephant teeth (tusk) and jewels having gems studded in them are not to be got made and also not to be worn.

Notes: The remaining of Jupiter for one year in one sign with his medium or average speed is called Samvatsar. If Jupiter moves into the next sign before the Samvatsar is completed with his spashta or true speed, that is called Atichaar.

The month in which there is not the occurrence of two tithis (this is called the Kshaya of a tithi) has a paksha of 13 days.

LEAVING OUT THE PERIOD IN WHICH JUPITER IS IN THE SIGN OF LEO IN THREE WAYS: First, when Jupiter is there in the sign of Leo and he is also in the Navamsha of Leo, marriage etc. are not to be performed. (This Navamsha, of Leo extends from 4-13-20' to 4-16-40'). Auspicious deeds like marriage etc. are to be left out not at other places than at those that are there from the Northern Bank of Godavari to the Southern Bank of the Northern Ganga (that is, the regions of Central India, Madhya Bharata and Rajasthan). If the Sun is in the sign of Aries, then there is no defect of Jupiter's situation in the sign of Leo.

Notes: Geographically Rajasthan Gujarat, Madhya Pradesh, some Northern part of Maharashtra, and some Southern Parts of Orissa, Uttarpradesh and Bihar fall in between the Ganga and the Godavari.

The leaving out of the defective period when the Sun is in the sign of Aries is confirmed in 'Jyotirubandha' also

The girl married when the Sun is in the sign of Aries or when Jupiter is in the sign of Leo is of an excellent conduct, is truthful and is endowed with jewels, diamonds happiness and fame.

DETERMINATION OF THE DEFECTS ARISING OUT OF JUPITER'S SITUATION IN THE SIGN OF LEO: The period in which Jupiter is situated in the sign of Leo is to be rejected in all countries (regions) in the five quarters from Magha Nakshtra, that is, four quarters of the Magha Nakshtra and one quarter of Poorvaphalguni. This period is not defective and not to be rejected in the remaining four quarters (that is 3 quarters of Poorvaphalguni and one of Uttara Phalguni Nakshtra) except in the region between the rivers Ganga and Godawari. But if the Sun is in the sign of Aries in this region also (the region between Ganga and Godawari) marriage and engagement etc are auspicious. The period when Jupiter is in the sign of Leo should be rejected while performing auspicious deeds in all places in the region of Kalinga (on the Southern Bank of the river Vaitarni of Orissa and on the Northern Bank of the river Krishna to the regions of Raj Mahendri Vishakhapatana and Ganjaam district) Gaur (from Madhya or Central Bengal to the Northern limit of Orissa or Bardwana) and in that of Gurjars or Gujarat. (In these regions the period when Jupiter is in the sign of Leo is not to be rejected even when the Sun is in the sign of Aries).

Notes: It is concluded from the above Shlokas that

1. Jupiter in the sign of Leo and also in the Navamsha of Leo is to be rejected in all places for performing auspicious deeds.
2. Auspicious deeds like marriage etc may be performed in the regions to the North of river Ganga and to the South of river Godawari when Jupiter is in the sign of Leo
3. In auspicious deeds like marriage etc even Jupiter in the sign of Leo and also in the Navamsha of Leo is auspicious when the Sun is in Aries.

It is the opinion of some learned Astrologers that Jupiter in the sign of Leo is defective and should be rejected only in the year in which there is the Magha Nakshtra on the Pauranmasi in the month of Magha.

AVOIDANCE OF THE PERIOD FOR PERFORMING AUSPICIOUS DEEDS WHEN JUPITER IS IN THE SIGN OF CAPRICORN OR WHEN HE IS IN HIS FALL: In the region to the east of the river Reva (or Narmada which flows in the regions of Jabalpur etc.), to the west of the river Gandaki (which rises from the Himalayas and joins the river Ganga near Patna city of the State of Bihar after flowing to the west of Nepal; this river is called by different names in different places such as at some places it is called Narayani, at others Shaalgrami and at others Gandaki), to the north and the south of the river Sonbhadra (this river joins the river Ganga at Patna) auspicious deeds may be performed when Jupiter is in his fall or he is in the sign of Capricorn, the performance of such deeds should not be avoided; but auspicious deeds are not to be performed and should be avoided in the regions of Konkana (the region of Southern India which comprises Canara, Ratnagiri, Kolava, Bombay, Thana etc.), Magadha (the Southern part of the modern state of Bihar), Gaur region (Central Bengal and Orissa), the Sindha region (Kutchh and Bahawalpura Vela which is now called Bombay).

Notes: It is said in 'Vayavahar Chandrika' that the whole of Jupiter in the sign of Capricorn should not be rejected in performing auspicious deeds. He is to be rejected only in the lowest degrees (5°) of this sign of his fall (Capricorn).

गोऽजान्त्यकुम्भेतरमेऽतिचारगो नो पूर्वराशिं गुरुरेति वक्रितः ।

er signs except those of Taurus, Aries, Pisces and Aquarius, and if after becoming retrograde he does not move back to the former sign (the sign in which he has become Atichari) then that Varsha (the Guru Varsha related to the former sign which has been crossed due to his being Atichari) will be called Lupta-Samvatsar (or Mahatichaar). This Lupta samvatsar is to be completely rejected in performing auspicious deeds.

Notes: The Bhoga Kaala (the traversed period) of Jupiter of one sign when he moves with his medium speed is called Samvatsar. These, by the names of Prabhava etc, are the Guru Varshas or Guru years. If Jupiter with his Spashta or true gati (speed) moves into one sign in every year then they are the Shuddha Varshas (pure years) related to their respective signs.

According to the above Shloka if Jupiter becomes Atichari in the signs of Taurus, Aries Aquarius and Pisces and being retrograde does not move back to his former sign, and in this way causes a Lupta Samvatsar, that Lupta Samvatsar is not to be rejected in doing auspicious deeds.

Atichaar: The reaching of a planet to a certain place before its fixed time, that is, the time in which he would have reached with his natural speed, is called Atichaar. Therefore if a planet enters a certain sign before its normal time of entering it with his medium speed, then it will be called the Atichaar of that planet. This Atichaar is not regarded as auspicious. The Atichaars particularly of Jupiter, the Sun and the Moon are inauspicious—effects—giving because the Atichaar of the Moon causes Kshaya tithi (non-occurrence of a tithi), that of the Sun causes Kshaya Maas (non-occurrence of a month), and that of Jupiter causes Kshaya Varsha (non occurrence of a year).

If Jupiter moves with his natural or medium speed his time of moving in one sign is one year or one Samvatsar. These Varshas (years) which are named as Prabhava etc. are called Guru Varshas (or Jupiter years). If the moving time of Jupiter in one sign is one year then that year is the Shuddha Varsha (pure year) related to that sign. Contrary to this, if he moves in two signs in one year then such a Jupiter, because of his not completing one year with his natural or medium speed, is called Atichaari. If such a Jupiter does not become retrograde and does not come back to his former sign, then the Varsha or year of the former sign will be called Lupta-Samvatsar or Viluptabd. If he becomes retrograde and comes back to the former sign from which he has become Atichaari, then there does not occur any Viluptabd. In such a condition it should be known by making calculations as to whether when the retrograde Jupiter comes back to his former sign, the total time of his Direct Movement and that of his Retrograde Movement comes to one year or not. If this total time is not one year inspite of Jupiter's retrogression, then that Varsha or year is also regarded as Lupta-Samvatsar or Luptabd. The learned Astrologers of Maithili call it Mahatichaar.

VAAR PRAVARTI (THE TIME AT WHICH A DAY BEGINS: One fourth ($1/4$) is to be obtained of the distance (in yojanas; a yojana is a measure of distance) of one's own city from the cities or the regions through which the Prime meridian line has passed (According to the ancient sages the cities and the regions through which it has passed are Kalicut, Sholapur, Ujjain, Kurukshetra, Jalagaon, Indore, Sawai Madhopur, Jaipur, Pilani, Ludhiana, Jammu etc). whether one's own city is situated to the west or to the east of this line. This one fourth part is to be subtracted from the number of these very yojanas. The figure which is arrived at after subtraction is supposed to be so many palas and these palas are added to 15 ghatīs (If one's own city is to the west of the Prime Meridian line, then these Palas are added to 15 ghatīs; if it is to the east then these are to be subtracted from 15 ghatīs. How much less the number of the ghatīs and palas obtained in this way is from the Dinaardha (Half of the Dinmaana) of one's own city that much number of ghatīs and palas will be the Vaar Pravarti after the rising of the Sun. If the number is greater, then Vaar Pravarti will be as much before the rising of the Sun as this number is greater than the Dinaardha of one's own city.

Notes Here is an example to know the Vaarpravarti. Suppose Varanasi is at a distance of 63 yojanas (1 yojana = 5 kosha and one kosha = about $1\frac{1}{4}$ miles) from the Prime Meridian Line. One fourth part of it will be $63 \div 4 = 15\frac{3}{4}$. This figure when it is subtracted from 63 gives $47\frac{1}{4}$. These are palas and these are subtracted from 15 ghatīs. The remainder comes to be $14\frac{1}{2}/45$. Then suppose in a given year, in a given month and on a given day the Dinaardha is 15 ghatis and 24 palas. We want to know the Vaar Pravarti of this day. Here we find that our remainder is less than the Dinaardha. The difference between the two is 1/11/15. Therefore, on this particular day the Vaar Pravesh occurred 1/11/15 (one ghati, 11 palas and 15 vipalas) after the rising of the Sun. If this difference comes to be zero then Vaar Pravesh occurs just at the rising of the Sun.

सैकास्तष्टा नगैः कालहोरेषा दिनपात्रमात् ॥५५॥

THE METHOD OF KNOWING THE KAALHORESH: The ghatis and palas of the Ishta Kaala (the time the Kaala Hora of which is to be known) from the time when there is the Vaar Pravriti are doubled and the figure so obtained is to be put at two places. The doubled ghatis and palas of one place are to be divided by 5. The remainder after dividing is to be subtracted from the doubled ghatis and palas and 1 is to be added to it and the figure so obtained will give the Kaal Hora of the Ishta Kaal. If the total comes to be more than 7, then it is divided by 7 and the remainder will be the number of the day the lord of which will be the Kaal Horesh (counting from the day on which the Kaal Hora is to be known).

Notes: Suppose it is to be known as to who will be the Horapati or Horesh at 6 Ishta ghati on Monday, that is Kaal Horesh is to be known after 6 ghatis from Vaar Pravarti. Then according to the Rule Ishta ghati is doubled which gives 12. This figure is put at two places. the figure of the second place is divided by 5. The remainder which is 2 is to be subtracted from the doubled Ishta ghati 12 which gives 10. Then by adding 1 to 10 we get 11. This figure is divided by 7 as it is more than 7. The remainder after dividing comes to be 4. Counting from the Lord of Monday (the Moon) the Lord of the 4th day, Thursday (Jupiter) will be the Kaal Horesh.

There are 24 Horas in every day as $2\frac{1}{2}$ ghatis = 1 Hora, that is, one Hora is equal to 1 Hour. The First Hora will be of the day which is there on that particular day. Thus on Sunday the First Hora will be of the Sun, the Lord of Sunday.

SIGNIFICANCE OF THE KAALHORA The deed which has been advised in the Shastras to be performed on a particular day may be done (on any day) in the Kaal Hora of the Lord of that day; the deed which has been advised to be done in a particular Nakshtra, that may be done in the Tithyamsha or Muhurta or in the 15th part of the Lord of that Nakshtra (There are 15 Muhurtas in a day). These are called Swami Tithyamsha. A Tithyamsha is equal to the 15th part of Dinmaan and is considered to be the part of the Nakshtra.

The consideration of the defect of Vaar Shoola and Nakshtra Shoola is also to be made both in the Hora and in the Muhurta; and Parighdanda (the special defect of the time of a journey) according to Shloka 36 of Chapter 11) is not to be violated even in the Muhurta of the Nakshtra.

Notes: A particular deed is to be performed on that very day on which it has been advised to be done according to the Shastras or classics on Astrology. But if the deed is necessarily to be done on a certain day which is not suitable for that deed, then it may be done even on that unsuitable day in the Kaal Hora of the day which is suitable for that deed.

Notes: The Adhomukha Nakshtras: The mouth of such Nakshtras is regarded to be downward. Therefore these are called Adhomukha Nakshtras. THE MUHURTA FOR WEARING CLOTHES ETC. Revati, the Nakshtras called Dhruwa, Ashwini, Hasta, Chitra, Swati Vishakha, Anuradha, Dhanishtha. Pushva and Purnarvasu these Nakshtras the Rikta Tithis (4/9/14), the days of Saturday, Monday and Tuesday-in the Nakshtras tithis and days except these (the above mentioned ones), it is not proper to wear Coral, things made of tusk (elephant teeth) Sankha, gold and clothes (that is, these things should be worn on the Nakshtras, tithis and days mentioned above and not on others) And in the Nakshtras called Dhruwa, Punarvasu and Pushya, a woman whose husband is living should not wear new clothes. To wear red clothes Tuesday has been considered to be auspicious.

Notes: The Nakshtras Punarvasu, Pushya, and those which are called Dhruwa have been specially recommended for wearing new clothes. These Nakshtras are not recommended for a woman who is fortunate in having her husband alive because if she wears new clothes in these Nakshtras she remains deprived of having her husband's company (sexual intercourse). For men and widowed women wearing clothes etc. in these Nakshtras is not prohibited. It is obligatory for woman whose husband is alive that she should not take bath on the day on which falls the Shatbhisha Nakshtra. Shri Chandeshwar says in this connection.

स्नानं कुर्वन्ति या नार्यश्चन्द्रे शतभिषान्विते ।

सप्तजन्म भवेद् वन्ध्या विधवा दुर्भगा मृशम् ॥

That is, the women who take bath in the Nakshtra of Shatbhisha, remain sterile or widow for seven lives and are ugly.

THE EFFECTS WHEN A NEW CLOTH IS BURNT, TORN AND SOAKED IN MUD: The clothes (so burnt etc.) be divided into 9 parts. Then it is to be imagined that there are gods in the four corners, demons in the three parts of the middle and men in the remaining parts of the sides. If the new cloth is burnt or is torn or is soaked in mud in the part of the demons then it is inauspicious. If it so happens in the part either of the men or of the gods, then it is auspicious. If it so happens in the borders of the part of all the three, then it is inauspicious.

Notes: In the same way if a bed (a cot), an aasana (mat), a Khadau (a type of shoe made of wood) a bed cover, or a bed sheet happens to be in the same condition, that is, it is burnt etc., then it should also be regarded auspicious or inauspicious according to the 9 parts.

The cloth which is burnt, is soaked in dung or mud or is cut by any kind of metal in the part of the Rakshasa is not auspicious effects-giving. In such a condition the near future of that man should be considered as inauspicious. According to the annotation named 'Pecyusha' this condition may be even death-bringing.

The cloth which is burnt, is torn or is soaked in mud in the part of gods and men indicates auspicious effects.

If the border of the cloth only is burnt etc. in the part of gods or men or demons it should be regarded as an intimation of inauspicious effects.

THE RULE WITH REGARD TO WEARING CLOTHES ON A DAY WHICH IS TO BE REJECTED: With the permission of the Brahmin the clothes which are obtained in a marriage or happily given by a king or by an eminent person should be worn even in a day or a Nakshtra etc. which is rejected for this purpose, it is said by the learned astrologers.

Notes: In this Shloka cloth is only a representative object.

Therefore, any object which is obtained in marriage, which is one's own or which is given by a king etc., should be accepted and used with the permission of the Brahmin. Day or Nakshtra etc. is not to be considered in such a case.

THE MUHURTAS WITH REGARD TO THE ENTERING AND GOING OUT OF ANIMALS FROM CATTLE PROTECTION AND COW SHEDS: In such an auspicious ascendant when there is no planet in the 8th House, in the Nakshtra of one's own yoni (described in chapter 6) in the Nakshtras called chara it is excellent to protect animals. And in the Rikta Tithi, Ashtami (the 8th Hindi tithi) Amavasya (the 30th tithi), on Tuesday, in Shravana, Chitra and the Nakshtras called Dhruwa the going of animals (cattle) out of cow shed and their entering, bringing up in it, this is not auspicious.

Notes: It has occurred in the Pashu Raksha Muhurta that on that day there should be the Nakshtra of that yoni which is the yoni of that animal. Yoni is a technical word. What is the yoni of every Nakshtra, it has been told in the 25 and 26 Shlokas of chapter 6. Here the meaning is that the Nakshtras of that yoni are to be taken which is the yoni of that animal which is to be protected. For example, for the protection of Ox and Cow the Nakshtras of 'Gau' (Cow) yoni are to be taken, for the protection of horses the Nakshtras of 'Ashwa', for the protection of buffaloes, the Nakshtras of Mahisha (Buffalo); and for the protection of elephants, the Nakshtras of 'Gaja' (elephant) yoni are to be taken.

THE MUHURTA WITH REGARD TO TAKING MEDICINE AND STITCHING: At the time when the patient takes the First Dose of a medicine there should be the Nakshtras called Laghu, Mridu and Chara and the Nakshtras of Moola; there should be the presence of the benefic planets like Venus, the Moon, Jupiter and Mercury in the Ascendant of Dual Nature (3/6/9/12) and there should be no planet in the 12/7/8 Houses from the Ascendant; and there should be the day of Friday, Monday, Thursday, Wednesday and Sunday and any Tithis leaving the tithis called Rikta and Amavasya. It is inauspicious to take medicine in the Nakshtra of one's own birth. Doing the work of stitching is auspicious in the Nakshtras of Punarvasu, Dhanishtha, Chitra, Anuradha, Ashwini and Pushya.

THE MUHURTA OF MAKING PURCHASE AND SALE: It is inauspicious to make a sale in the Nakshtras of making purchase and to make a purchase in the Nakshtras of making sale. The Nakshtras of Revati, Shatbhisha, Ashwini, Swati, Shravana and Chitra are auspicious with regard to making purchase.

Notes: As a matter of fact this Shloka is controversial. Here the natural question is this that if selling is to be rejected in the Nakshtras of purchasing how one will purchase or sell if some one does not purchase when some one sells it. Therefore it is advised that only that thing which is kept or stored in the shop should be purchased in the Muhurta of purchasing and the thing which is to be sold should be kept in the market in the Muhurta of selling.

It is auspicious to get clothes washed in the Nakshtras of Dhanistha, Ashwini, Hasta, Chitra, Swati, Vishakha, Anuradha, Punarvasu and Pushya. And it is not auspicious to get clothes washed on Rikta tithis (4/9/14) tithi of a Parva (any Parva or festival) Shashthi tithi and the Shradhdha tithis of father and mother (shradhdha means feasting a Brahmin with certain rituals on the day of death in the month of Ashwin) and on the days of Saturday and Wednesday.

Notes: Acharya Chandeshwar has spoken of Saturday Tuesday, Sunday and the day of Sankranti and the tithis of Pauranmasi (the 15th tithi of the month) and Dwadashi (the 12th tithi) as rejected days and tithis for getting clothes washed.

THE MUHURTAS WITH REGARD TO BEARING WEAPONS AND USING BED ETC.: Spear, armour, bow and arrow, dagger etc. these weapons are to be borne on tithis other than Rikta tithis (4/9/14), on the days of Friday, Thursday and Sunday, in the Nakshtras called Maitra, Dhruwa and Laghu, Punarvasu, Jyestha and Vishakha, in the sthir (fixed) Lagnas or Ascendants (2/5/8/11), if the Moon in the Ascendant is aspected by a benefic and benefic planets are situated in the Angles (1/4/7/10). The first ascending on a bed or an aasana (a mat) is auspicious in the Nakshtras called Dhruwa, Mridu and Laghu and in Shravana, Bharani, Punarvasu Nakshtras.

Notes: In the Shloka there is the word आदि (etc.). It means wearing "Paduka" (wooden protector of feet). Thus the wearing of shoes, chappals (sandals) etc. is also suitable in this very Muhurta.

ANDHAKSHA, MANDAKSHA, MADHYAKSHA AND SWAKSHA NAMES OF THE NAKSHTRAS: Dhanishtha, Pushya, Rohini, Poorvashadha, Vishakha, Uttaraphalguni and Revati-these seven Nakshtras are called Andhaksha. Hasta, Uttarashadha, Anuradha, Shatabhisha, Ashlesha, Ashwini and Mrigshira-these 7 Nakshtras are named as Mandaksha. Ardra, Magha, Poorva Bhadrapada, Chitra, Jyestha, Abhijit and Bharani, these 7 Nakshtras are called Madhyaksha; Swati, Punarvasu, Shravana, Kritika, Uttara Bhadrapada, Moola and Poorvaphalguni, these 7 Nakshtras are named as Swaksha.

Notes: Andhaksha means to be blind. In the same way Mandaksha means one having small eyes, Madhyaksha means one having medium sized eyes and, Swaksha means one having beautiful eyes. The easier method of knowing these Nakshtras Andhaksha etc. is as follows: begin counting from the Nakshtra named Rohini. The four Nakshtras onwards (including Rohini) will be respectively Andha, Manda, Madhya and Swaksha Nakshtras. Then the next four Nakshtras will again have these four names. This order will go on till the end of 28 Nakshtras.

The Table or Speculum for these Names Andhaksha etc.

Andhaksha	Mandaksha	Madhyaksha	Swaksha or Sulochana

THE EFFECTS OF THE NAKSHTRAS ANDHA ETC. : The

wealth lost (or stolen) in the Nakshtras named Andhaksha is gained immediately; that lost (or stolen) in those called Mandaksha is gained with efforts; that lost (or stolen) in those called Madhyaksha is heard of in or after many days to be in a distant, remote place, but it (this wealth) is not gained and; that lost (or stolen) in those named Swaksha or Sulochana is neither heard of nor gained.

Notes: The effects of these Nakshtras is to be applied with regard to the person (younger or elderly) who has run away from home in anger due to quarrel etc.

In other books on Astrology it is stated that the wealth lost or stolen in the Nakshtras called Andhaksha moves in the Eastern direction; that lost or stolen in those named Mandaksha moves in the Southern direction; that lost or stolen in those named Madhyaksha moves in the Western direction and; that lost or stolen in those called Swaksha moves in the Northern direction. The following Shloka is obtained in this connection

THE NAKSHTRAS WHICH SHOULD BE REJECTED IN LENDING AND BORROWING AND AMASSING MONEY: The money which is lent to some one as a loan, is kept in a chest or buried under ground, is given to some one on interest or is lost in the Nakshtras named Teekshana, Mishra, Dhruwa and Ugra and the yogas of Bhadrakarana and Vyatipaata is not got back.

THE MUHURTAS WITH REGARD TO DIGGING WELLS OR TANKS AND BEGINNING DANCING: In the Nakshtras of Anuradha, Hasta, those called Dhruwa, and those of Dhanistha, Shatbhisha, Magha, Poorvashadha, Revati Pushya and Mrigshira; if there is Mercury or Jupiter in the Ascendant; if the Malefics are weak; if Venus is situated in the 10th House from the Ascendant and the Moon is of the watery signs (9/10/11/12), in such a Muhurta the digging of a well and a tank etc is auspicious. In the above said Nakshtras excluding Poorvashadha and Magha and including Jyeshtha Nakshtra, if there is Mercury in the Ascendant and the Moon is there in Gemini or Virgo sign and there are benefic planets in the 4th House, then the learning or the first beginning of Dancing is auspicious.

Notes: In the above mentioned Shloka the situation of Mercury in the Ascendant, that of the Moon in the Gemini or the Virgo sign and then that of benefic planets in the 4th House have been spoken of as auspicious. Now, after the situation of these two benefic planets (Mercury and the Moon) only two benefic planets remain. Therefore, from the phrase in the Shloka 'हिबुके शुभैः', the plural of a benefic planet does not seem to be proper due to the reason that possibly there may be one or two benefic planets in the 4th House. Therefore 'हिबुके शुभे' this reading may be proper.

Although according to other learned astrologers the Nakshtras auspicious for digging small well, well and tank are different, even then the Acharya (the writer of the present book) has spoken of Nakshtras of the same type for all of them because of the same kind of all the three (they are all reservoir of water) things.

THE NAKSHTRAS OF VAAPI OR SMALL WELL: Swati, Ashwini, Pushya, Hasta, Punarvasu, Rewati and Shatabhisha.

THE NAKSHTRAS OF DIGGING WELL: Hasta, Pushya, Dhanistha, Shatabhisha. Anuradha, Magha and all the three Uttaras.

THE NAKSHTRAS OF BUILDING TANK: Ashwini, Mrigshira, Rewati, all the 3 Uttaras, Rohini Pushya, Shatbhisha, and Poorvashadha.

THE MUHURTA FOR JOINING SERVICE: It is in the Nakshtras named Kshipra (Hasta, Ashwini and Pushya), Maitra (Mrigshira, Rewati, Chitra, Anuradha); on the days of Wednesday, Friday, Sunday and Thursday, when the benefic planets are in the Ascendant and the Sun or Mars are in the 10th or in the 11th House, when there is friendship in the Lords of the Yoni and the Rashi of the Master and the servant (The details of Yoni Maitri or friendship and the friendship of the Planets is given in the Shlokas from 25 to 28 of the Chapter entitled 'विवाह प्रकरणम्' or the Chapter regarding marriage), that servants should serve the Masters.

Notes: The serial No. of the Nakshtra of the Master should not be before that of the servant.

THE MUHURTA OF LENDING AND BORROWING MONEY: The use of money (the exchange of money, depositing money in the Bank, taking LIC Policy and lending money etc) is auspicious in the Swati, Punarvasu, the Nakshtras called Mridu (Mrigshira, Rewati, Chitra and Anuradha) Vishakha, Pushya, Shravana, Dhanishtha, Shatbhisha, and Ashwini Nakshtras; in the Ascendants called chara (Movable) which are 1/4/7/10 and if there is no planet in the 9th, 5th and 8th Houses from the Ascendant.

Money is not to be borrowed on Tuesday. On the day of the Sankranti of the Sun in the Vridhi yoga in the Hasta Nakshtra and on Sunday-money borrowed at these times continues to exist in the borrower's family for ever, that is, such debt is never completely paid off and the burden of it is always there on his family: even his sons and grandsons are never relieved from this debt. Money should not be lent to any one on Wednesday.

Notes: The family burdened with debt should keep fast on Tuesday. By doing so the family certainly gets relieved from the debt. Collection of money is good on Wednesday.

THE MUHURTA FOR PLOUGHING: Ploughing (First ploughing at the beginning of the year or the session) has been said to be auspicious in the Nakshtras of Moola, Vishakha, Magha, in those named as 'Chara' or Movable (Swati, Punarvasu, Shravana, Dhanishtha and Shatbhisha), in all the three Uttaras and Rohini, in those called Mridu or Delicate (Mrigshira, Rewati, Chitra and Anuradha), in those called Kshipra (Hasta, Ashwini and Pushya), on days other than Sundays and Saturdays; when the Malefics (the Sun, Mars and Saturn) are weakened; when the Moon is in the Navamsha of the watery signs (4/10/11/12); when the Planets of Venus and the Moon have full strength and when Jupiter is posited in the Ascendant. There is loss in Agriculturing if ploughing is performed in the Ascendants of Leo, Aquarius, Cancer, Aries, Capricorn and Libra, on the Rikta Tithis (4/9/14) and on the Shashthi (6th) Tithi.

THE MUHURTA FOR SOWING SEEDS: The sowing of seeds is auspicious on the tithis and days and in the Nakshtras which have been said as auspicious for ploughing, that is, the sowing of seeds is auspicious in the Nakshtras of Moola, Magha, Swati, Dhanishtha, Uttaraphalguni, Uttarashadha, Uttara Bhadrapada, Rohini, Mrigshira, Rewati, Chitra, Anuradha, Hasta, Ashwini and Pushya and on the days of Monday, Wednesday Thursday and Friday; 8 Nakshtras from the Nakshtra in which Rahu is there are inauspicious for the sowing of seeds; three Nakshtras after it are auspicious, then one Nakshtra is inauspicious, then three Nakshtras are auspicious, then again one Nakshtra is inauspicious; and then again 3 Nakshtras are auspicious, then one Nakshtra is inauspicious, and then 3 Nakshtras are auspicious and then four Nakshtras are inauspicious. Seeds are to be sown in the auspicious Nakshtras only. This is called Rahu Chakra or Hala Chakra or the cycle of Rahu or the cycle of plough share. The Munis or thinkers have called inauspicious and auspicious the 3/8/9/8 Nakshtras from the Nakshtra in which the Sun is there in this Rahu Chakra or 'Hala Chakra', that is, the three Nakshtras before the Nakshtra in which the Sun is there are inauspicious for ploughing, then 8 Nakshtras are auspicious, then again 9 Nakshtras are inauspicious and 8 Nakshtras are auspicious.

Notes: In Shloka 28 the writer has spoken of the auspicious Nakshtras, tithis and days on which the first ploughing at the beginning of the year or the session should be done. The sowing of seeds is auspicious in all the Nakshtras except those of Shravana, Shatbhisha, Punarvasu and Vishakha and the day of Tuesday. The Rikta and the Shashthi Tithis are inauspicious and should be rejected in reference to the first ploughing. Therefore these tithis should be rejected in reference to the sowing of seeds also.

THE MUHURTAS FOR SHIRA CHHEDANA, VIRECHANA, VAMAN (All the three are done in the treatment of diseases) AND RELIGIOUS ANUSTHANS (Performance of religious deeds):

SHIRA CHHEDANA OR THE LETTING OUT OF BLOOD FROM VEINS (FOR PURIFICATION OF BLOOD). The Nakshtras of Chitra, Swati, Anuradha, Jyestha, Rohini, Mrigshira, Shatbhisha, those called Laghu (Hasta, Ashwini and Pushya) and Shravana and the days of Tuesday, Sunday and Thursday are auspicious for Shira

Chhedana or the letting out of blood from veins.

VIRECHANA AND VAMAN OR CATHARSIS AND VOMITTING (Taking medicinal anema or laxative and to take medicine for vomitting for cleaning the bowels): For Virechana, the Nakshtras that have been said to be auspicious for Shiro Chhedana and the other days than those of Wednesday and Saturday are auspicious.

PERFORMANCE OF RELIGIOUS RITES OR DEEDS: the performance of religious rites is proper and auspicious in the Nakshtras called Mitra (friend)-Mrigshira, Rewati, Chitra, and Anuradha-those called Kshipra-Hasta, Ashwini and Pushya-those called Chara or Moveable-Swati, Punarvasu, Shravana, Dhanishtha, Shatbhisa-those called Dhruwa-Uttaraphalguni, Uttarashadha, Uttara Bhadrapada and Rohini-on Sunday and on the days of Benefic Planets, that is, on Wednesdays, Thursdays, Fridays and Mondays, if there is the Shadavarga of Mercury or Jupiter, in the Ascendant or if there is Jupiter in the Ascendant and Jupiter is strong also.

Notes: The Sanskrit interpreter of 'Muhurta Chintmani', Shri Govind has regarded Anuradha as the Nakshtra called Mitra (friend) because this Nakshtra has 'Mitra' as one of its names. If we accept this statement, then only 13 Nakshtras will be accepted as proper in which religious rites may be performed and then the Nakshtras of Mrigshira, Rewati and Chitra will not be accepted.

The Natal Ascendant, Saptamamsha, Decanate, Navamsha, Dwadashamsha and Trimshamsha have been called as Shadavarga. When there is the sign of Mercury or of Jupiter in these shadavargas it should be understood that there is the shadavarga of Mercury or of Jupiter in the Ascendant. If there is the sign of these planets in the Shadavarga it should be regarded as auspicious.

THE MUHURTA FOR THE STORAGE OF THE GRAINS AND THE INCREASING OF IT: The storage of the grains is auspicious in the Nakshtras other than those called Mishra or Mixed (Vishakha and Kritika), those called Ugra or intense (All the three Poorvas, Poorvaphalguni, Poorvashadha, and Poorva Bhadrapada, Bharani and Magha) Ardra, Ashlesha and Jyeshtha, in all the Ascendants other than those of Cancer, Aries, and Libra and on all the auspicious days.

In the same way the increasing of grains by lending it on interest is good (and profit giving) in the Nakshtras called Dhruwa (All the three Uttaras, Uttara Phalguni, Uttara Shadha and Uttara Bhadrapada and Rohini) in those of Pushya, Vishakha, Jyeshtha, Ashwini and in those named as Chara or Movable (Swati, Poonarvasu, Shravana, Dhanishtha and Shatbhisha).

THE MUHURTA FOR PACIFICATION: The Beneficial rites and the pacification of the planets etc are beneficially and auspiciously performed in the Nakshtras called Kshipra (Hasta, Ashwini and Pushya), in those named as Dhruwa (All the three Uttaras, Uttara Phalguni, Uttara Shadha and Uttara Bhadrapada and Rohini), in that of Rewati, in those called 'Chara' or Movable (Swati, Poonarvasu, Shravana, Dhanishtha, and Shatbhisha) and in those of Anuradha and Magha, in an Ascendant in which Jupiter is in the Ascendant, the Sun is in the 10th House and the Moon is in the 4th House. The performing of pacification of the planets is not auspicious when Jupiter and Venus are combust. But the pacification of 'Nimitta' (seeing of Dhooma Ketu when he rises, seeing the Kak Maithun or copulating of crows, falling the occurrence of an eclipse in the Nakshtras of the birth etc) may be performed even when Jupiter and Venus are combust.

Notes: If the birth occurs in the Nakshtra of Moola and in the Gandanta, in the 'yogas' or combinations of Vyatipata and Vyaghata etc and on the 14th Tithi (Hindi date) of the Krishna Paksha or the dark half of the month, some religious rites are arranged to be done by some 'Karma Kandi' (or skilled in performing such rites) Brahman (one of the Four Varnas or Castes of the Hindus, the other three being Kshatri, Vaishya and Shudra) for the pacification of evil. These rites are called 'Shanti Karma' or 'Rites for Pacification'. Seeing by someone of Kak Maithun, the rise of Dhoom Ketu or any portent or inauspicious natural scene is regarded as evil effects-giving for the pacification of which 'Nimitta' Shanti or pacification is arranged to be done. It is not necessary that one should consult the Muhurta for arranging the performance of the Nimitta Shanti.

THE MUHURTA FOR DOING HAVANA OR YAJNA (BURNING SACRED FIRE): In the three Nakshtras each from the Nakshtra of the Sun to that of the Moon, the Planets respectively of the Sun, Mercury, Venus, Saturn, Moon, Mars, Jupiter, Rahu and Ketu are the Sharers of the ahuti of the Havana (Ahuti—the spices etc that are poured into fire in one lot). The Ahuti of the Havana is inauspicious in the Nakshtra which belongs to a Malefic Planet.

Notes: The Ahuti which is given in the 3 Nakshtras from the Nakshtra in which the Sun is there will be received by the Sun; in the 3 Nakshtras after that by Mercury, then in the 3 Nakshtras after that by Venus, then in the 3 Nakshtras after that by Saturn, then in the 3 Nakshtras after that by the Moon, then in the 3 Nakshtras after that by Mars, then in the 3 Nakshtras after that by Jupiter, then in the 3 Nakshtras after that by Rahu and lastly in the 3 Nakshtras after that by Ketu.

Suppose on the day on which we have to do Havana or Yajna the Sun is there in the Nakshtra of Rewati and the Moon is placed in that of Poonarvasu. The Number of Nakshtras from Rewati to Poonarvasu is 8. If 8 is divided by 3, the remainder is 2 ($8 \div 3 = 2$). The meaning of 2 as remainder is that the Planet coming after 2 planets, that is, that coming after the Sun and Mercury will be the claimant of the 'Ahuti'. The planet after these 2 planets is Venus and she will claim this 'Ahuti'. This fact may be stated in this way also that on the day on which 'Havana' or 'Yajna' is performed, the First 'Ahuti' in the 'Havana' will go into the mouth of Venus or will be got by Venus. Venus is a Benefic Planet, therefore the effect will be beneficial. If by chance the Ahuti is received by a Malefic Planet, then 'Shanti Karma' or 'Pacification rite' should be performed and a cow should be given in charity to a Brahmin who is of good conduct and who is engaged in penance.

According to Maharishi Kashyap there is the obtainment of the following effects in the event of the falling of the 'Ahuti' in the mouth of the various planets.

When Havana or yajna is performed, if the Sun receives the 'Ahuti' there is the destruction of the Auspicious effects; if the Moon receives it the crops will be inundated; if Mars is the receiver there will be the fear of fire; if Mercury, the increase in the intellectual powers; if Jupiter, the fulfilment of the desired objective; if Venus, there is the profit of the worldly and the other worldly property or wealth; if Saturn, there is the destruction of wealth and the loss of kingdom; if Rahu, there will be loss of every kind and; if Ketu there will be famine, death and loss of kingdom.

THE ABODE OF LIVING OF FIRE IN THE HAVANA AND THE AUSPICIOUS AND INAUSPICIOUS EFFECTS OF IT: One should be added to the 'Tithi' (the 'Ishta Tithi or the desired Tithi from the Shukla Pratipada or the 1 Tithi of the Shukla Paksha) and then the number of the day (the number from Sunday) is to be added to it and the Sum is to be divided by 4. If the remainder is 3 or 0; then the abode of the Fire is on the Earth and by doing the Havana on that day the performer gets happiness; if the remainder comes to be 1, the abode of the Fire is in Heaven and by doing Havana on that day there is the loss of life; if the remainder comes to be 2, the abode of the Fire is in the Paatal or the Hades (the underworld) and by doing Havana on that day there is the loss of wealth.

Notes: Here the number of the Tithi is to be counted from the Pratipada or the first tithi of a Hindi month in the Shukla Paksha or the Bright half of the Month. If the Tithi is of the Krishna Paksha or the dark half of the month, then 15 is to be added to the number of the Ishta Tithi to arrive at the real Tithi.

For example, suppose the Havana is to be performed on the Sashti Tithi (6) of the Krishna Paksha of the month of Kartika on Thursday, then 15 is to be added to 6 which gives $6 + 15 = 21$. Thus 21 is the real Tithi. 1 is added to it which gives 22. The number of the day of Thursday which is 5 when counted from Sunday is to be added to 22 and the resultant figure comes to be 27. Then 27 is to be divided by 4, the remainder is 3. Therefore the Agnivasa or the abode of fire should be on the Earth. The doing of Havana on this day will be auspicious and beneficial.

According to the Shloka 1 is added to the Sum of the Tithi and the day and the resultant figure is to be divided by 4. Then if the remainder comes to be 1, the abode of fire is supposed to be in Heaven, if it comes to be 2, in the Hades or the underworld and if it comes to be 3 or 0, on the Earth. In this way the abode of fire remains only in 3 places, that is the abode of fire is there only in Heaven, in the Hades or the underworld (Pataal) and on the Earth. Therefore, the figure could be divided by 3 only and there was also not the necessity of adding one (1) to the sum of the Tithi and the day. Why is one added to the sum of the Tithi and the day and why is it divided by 4 ? This question arises quite naturally. The answer to this question is suitably given by our teachers of Astrology in the following way that is, due to the fact that the top of the flame of fire being upward rising, the abode of the Fire remains respectively in the Hades or the Underworld, on the Earth, in the Sky (clouds) and in Heaven, in which the inner part of the Earth and the Sky (clouds) remains in one and the same world of the Earth because the Sky (clouds) has also been regarded in the atmosphere of the Earth. Bhaskaracharya has clearly said that 12 yojanas (96 miles) above the Earth there is the atmosphere of the Earth; the clouds etc are in this atmosphere. The real abode of the fire is in the order of Hades-Earth-Sky (clouds) and Heaven. Therefore after dividing the Sum of the Tithi and the day by 4 due to the remainder as 1 the abode of the fire should be in the Hades or the underworld, as 2, on the earth, as 3 in the sky (clouds) and as 0, in Heaven. But due to Heavens being the best abode, the Acharyas or the learned kept this order of the abode of Fire-Heaven-Hades or the underworld-the Earth and the sky (clouds). It was due to this fact that there arose the necessity of adding 1 to the Sum of the Tithi and the Day. Therefore, due to the remainder being 1 the abode of the fire was supposed to be in Heaven; it being 2, in the Hades or the underworld; as the Earth and the Sky (clouds) are supposed as one, so due to the remainder being 3 and 0, the abode of fire was supposed to be on the Earth.

ऊर्ध्वं शिखस्य वह्नेः 'पाताल-भू-घन-स्वर्गा' इति चत्वारि स्थानानि सन्त्यत एव तिथि वार योगे चतुर्मक्ते एकादिशेषे क्रमेण पातालादौ स्थान चतुष्टये वह्निवासो भवितुमर्हत्यतः—

THE MUHURTA FOR EATING THE NEW GRAINS: The eating of the new grains is auspicious in the Nakshtras named as 'Chara' or Movable (Swati, Poonarvasu, Shravana, Dhanishta, Shatbhisha), those called Kshipra (Hasta, Ashwini and Pushya), those called Mridu or Delicate (Mrigshira, Rewati, Chitra and Anuradha), in an auspicious Ascendant, in all the tithis, Months, Ascendants Ghatas and Days except on the Nanda Tithis (Pratipada, Shashthi and Ekadashi 1/6/11 Tithis) in the Ghata called Vishghata, in the months of Chaitra and Pausha and on the days of Saturday and Tuesday.

Notes: There is the Vishghatika (that is inauspicious time) in every Nakshtra. Taking the 'Bhabhoga' or the total value of a Nakshtra as 60, the Acharyas or Teachers of Astrology have spoken of Vishghatikas of the Nakshtras in particular time. Therefore, the beginning and the ending of the Vishghatika should be found out by proportion after finding the real Bhabhoga Ghatas of a Nakshtra. If the value of Nakshtras remains 60 Ghatas, then the Vishghata will begin in each Nakshtra after the following Ghatikas and it will remain till 4 ghatis.

Table

S.No.	The names of the Nakshtras	After the ghatis
1.	Rewati, Punarvasu, Kritika, Magha	after 30 ghatis
2.	Rohini	after 40 ghatis
3.	Ashlesha	after 32 ghatis
4.	Ashwini	after 50 ghatis
5.	Uttara Phalguni, Shatabhisha	after 18 ghatis
6.	Poorvaphalguni, Chitra, Uttarashadha & Pushya	after 20 ghatis
7.	Vishakha, Swati, Mrigshira, Jyestha	after 14 ghatis
8.	Ardra, Hasta	after 21 ghatis
9.	Poorva Bhadrapada	after 16 ghatis
10.	Uttara Bhadrapada, Poorvashadha, Bharani	after 24 ghatis
11.	Anuradha, Dhanishtha, Shravana	after 10 ghatis
12.	Moola	after 56 ghatis

Now suppose the Bhabhoga ghatis of the Nakshtra of Rewati are 64. Then we find that in the table given above the Dhruwa or the constant of this Nakshtra (Rewati) is 30. Therefore 30 is multiplied by 64. It gives 1920. It is divided by 60 and the quotient comes to be 32. In this way it is clear that if the Bhabhoga of Rewati is 64 Ghatis, the beginning of the Vishghati will begin after 32 Ghatis. Again, as in the case of the value of a Nakshtra being 60, the value of Vishaghathi is 4, therefore we shall have to find the value of the Vishaghathi of a Nakshtra when its value is 64. In order to do so 4 is multiplied by the Bhabhoga 64 and the resultant figure is divided by 60. The quotient comes 4 ghatis 16 palas which is the total value of the Vishaghathi of Rewati. In other words, as the Bhabhoga of the Nakshtra of Rewati is 64, then the Vishaghathi will remain for 4 Ghatis 16 Palas after the 32 Ghatis.

Notes: In 'Deepika' the Muhurta for using a new boat is given in this way. The using of a new boat is proper and auspicious on the auspicious days (Monday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday), in the Nakshtras of Shravana, Dhanishtha, Mrigashira, Poorva Phalguni, Anuradha, Ashwini and Hasta, on other auspicious Tithis than those called 'Rikta' (4/9/14) and Amavasya and when there is the auspicious position of the Moon in other Houses except in those of 4-8-12 from the Natal Ascendant of the owner of the boat.

Moola, Ardra, Bharani, Magha, and Mrigshira, when Mercury is there in the First House in the Ascendant of Aquarius, when the Planet of Venus is in the 4th House from the Ascendant and the 8th House is without any planet.

THE MUHURTA FOR THE BATHING OF THE PATIENT WHEN HE IS RELIEVED OF THE DISEASE: The bathing of a patient when he is relieved of the disease he has been suffering from is auspicious in all the other Nakshtras than those of Rewati, Punarvasu, the Nakshtras named 'Dhruwa' (all the 3 Uttaras, that is, Uttaraphalguni, Uttarashadha, Uttara Bhadrapada, and Rohini) those of Magha, Swati and Ashlesha, on the Rikta Tithis (4/9/14), in the chara or Movable Ascendants (1/4/7/10), on other days than those of Friday and Monday, in the event of the Moon being emaciated (she is emaciated when she is in the 4/8/12 Houses) when the Malefic Planets are in the 11th House, or in Angles or in Trines.

THE MUHURTA FOR MAKING TREATY FOR FRIENDSHIP: It is good and auspicious to make mutual friendship in the Nakshtras of Mrigshira, Pushya, Anuradha, Poorvaphalguni, on the 8th or 12th Tithi or in the Taitil 'Karana', on an auspicious day and when the Ascendant is aspected by Venus.

Notes: The 'Taitil Karana' never comes on the 8th Tithi. It (the Taitil karana) comes in the latter half of the 12th Tithi of the Krishna Paksha or the Dark Half of the Month. Therefore, making treaty for friendship on the 8th or on the 12th Tithi or in the 'Taitil Karana', this interpretation is quite proper.

THE MUHURTA FOR DIVINE TEST: It is auspicious and proper to give a test (the test given to know whether the persons accused of theft, sexually loose morals are really guilty of the sins) leaving the Tithis of 8th and 14th Saturday and Tuesday, the Bhadra Tithi, the Nakshtra of the birth, the month of the birth, when there is the Sun or the Moon in the 8th House from the natal Ascendant and the Nakshtras of the Nadi of the Person, in the Ascendants having dual nature (3/6/9/12) or in the Movable Ascendants and in the same Navamsha Lagnas, when the position of the Moon, Jupiter and Tara is auspicious and in the Nakshtras of Hasta, Punarvasu, Shravana, Jyeshtha and Shatbhisha.

Notes: In the ancient times in order to know the truth or falsehood, a test was given to a person who was doubted of doing a sinful deed like theft or of seducing some woman. In the time in which the above stated shloka was composed, the person doubted was asked to touch some heated metal. If the person concerned was guilty of doing that deed the metal burnt his hand or the part of the body which touched the metal. The innocent did not get any harm from the metal. Such tests are not given in the present times.

As regards the 'Nadi Nakshtras', Shrimad Govinda ji has said in the Sanskrit commentary of this book (Muhurta Chinatmani): "For the ordinary human beings the First Nakshtra from their Janama or Birth Nakshtra is called the 'Janama Nakshtra'; the 10th, 'Karma Nakshtra'; the 16th "Sanghatika Nakshtra; the 18th, 'Samudaya Nakshtra'; the 23rd, 'Vinasha Nakshtra'; and the 25th, 'Manasa Nakshtra':". For the kings, besides the above 6 Nakshtras, the other Nakshtras such as the Nakshtra of the caste, of the country (region) and of the time of their Abhisheka or Coronation, are also considered. In this way, for them there are 9 'Nadi Nakshtras'.

The Nakshtra of the country (region) is taken as per the name of that country. The Nakshtra prevailing at the time of 'Rajyabhisheka' or coronation is referred to as 'Abhisheka' Nakshtra.

The Nakshtras of the castes are as follows:

1. The Nakshtras of the Brahmins: Poorva Phalguni, Poorvashadha, Poorva Bhadrapada and Kritika.

2. The Nakshtras of the Kshatriyas (Martial Races): Uttara Phalguni, Uttarashadha, Uttarabhadrapada, and Pushya.

3. The Nakshtras of the farmers: Rewati, Anuradha, Magha and Rohini.

4. The Nakshtras of the Vaishyas: Punarvasu, Hasta, Abhijit and Ashwini.

5. The Nakshtras of the criminal castes: Moola Ardra, Swati and Shatabhisha.

6. The Nakshtras of the Shudras: Mrigashira, Jyeshtha, Chitra and Dhanishtha.

7. The Nakshtras of the Chandala Caste: (the caste the members of which take toll for cremation) Ashlesha, Vishakha, Shravana and Bharani.

The above mentioned 7 were the castes in which the Indian Community was divided in those days when the book was written.

THE FAVOURABLE OR SUITABLE LAGNA OR ASCENDANT FOR DOING ALL THE ORDINARY AUSPICIOUS DEEDS: The beginning of all the auspicious deeds has been regarded as proper and excellent if there is any sign in the Ascendant of the signs of Upachaya Houses, that is, the 3rd, the 6th, the 10th and the 11th House from the Natal Ascendant and from the sign in which there is the Moon that is, the Janama Rashi of the person concerned, and there should be no planet in the 8th and the 12th House (that is, the 8th and 12th Houses from the Ascendant are 'Shuddha' or without any planet); if there is the conjunction or aspect of the Benefic Planets on the Ascendant; and if the Moon is also there in the Upachaya signs (3/6/10/11) from the Ascendant.

Notes: A favourable or an auspicious Ascendant is found out for the Muhurta of doing every deed. This is referred to as 'Lagna Shuddhi' or a favourable or suitable Ascendant. 'Lagna Shuddhi' is done according to the nature of the Muhurta. But here the writer has told us of a 'Lagna Shuddhi' or favourable Ascendant or Ascendant which will do for all the deeds of ordinary nature. Varahamihira has said in 'Brihat Samhita' that the 'Lagna Shuddhi' or the favourable Ascendant is auspicious and proper for the beginning of all kinds of ordinary deeds if there are Benefic Planets in the 12/1/4/7/10/8 Houses; the Malefic Planets should remain in the 3/6/11 Houses; and in an Angle or in a Trine there should be Jupiter and Venus.

If a person is bitten by a snake in the 7 Nakshtras of Bharani, Ashlesha, Moola, those named as Mishra or Mixed (Kritika, Vishakha, Ardra and Magha) he (the person) is subjected to death.

THE MUHURTA FOR PRET KRIYA AND THE DEEDS WHICH SHOULD NOT BE DONE DURING PANCHAKA: It is proper and effect-giving to do Pret Kriya in the Nakshtras called Kshipra (Hasta, Ashwini and Pushya) and in those of Ashlesha, Moola, Mrigashira, Shravana, Ardra and Swati.

As long as the Moon remains in the Ascendants of Aquarius and Pisces, that is, from the 3rd quarters of the Nakshtra of Dhanishtha to that of Rewati (the 5 Nakshtras from Dhanishtha to Rewati are referred to as 'Panchaka') the deeds like the cremation of a dead body, the journey towards the southern direction, the weaving of a cot or stringed bed and making thatches for a house should not be done.

Notes: Certain rites are done after the death of some one. The combined name of these is 'Pret Kriya' if it is necessary to do the cremation of a dead body in the Panchakas, then the pacification of the Panchakas should be done as per the rules prescribed in the Shastras.

THE MUHURTA FOR THE COLLECTION OF WOOD ETC.: The 6 Nakshtras before the Nakshtras of the Sun and those of the Moon are called 'Adhaha Sthala'. If the collection of wood is made in these Nakshtras then juicy food is prepared in the Kitchen (with that wood). Then with the collection of wood made in the 7 and 8 Nakshtras which are called 'Shirsha' dead body is cremated. Then if the collection of wood is made in the Nakshtras 9,10,11 and 12 which are called 'Madhya', there is the fear of snakes. Then in the Nakshtras 13,14,15, and 16 which are called 'Poorva', there is the coming of friends to the person's house. After this in the Nakshtras 17,18,19 and 20 which are referred to as 'Dakshina', there is the fear of disease. Then in the Nakshtras 21,22,23 and 24 which are called 'Pashchima' the work of making of 'Kwatha' (A particular Ayurvedic Medicine) is done. And lastly, in the Nakshtras 25,26,27 and 28 which are called 'Uttara' there is the getting of happiness by the person-making this collection.

THE YOGAS OF TRIPUSHKARA AND DWIPUSHKARA: If on the days of Saturday, Tuesday and Sunday there are the Nakshtras of Vishakha, Uttaraphalguni, Poorvabhadrapada, Punarvasu, Kritika and Uttarashadha, and if on these days there are the Bhadra Tithis also (2/7/12 Tithis) then due to the conjunction of these three-days, Nakshtras and Tithis, there occurs the 'TRIPUSHKARA YOGA'. This 'Tri Pushkara Yoga' (the combination of 3) gives three fold effect in the death, in the destruction and in the increase (the meaning is that if there is the 'Tripushkara yoga' and if there is death in someone's house, then 3 persons will die in his house, if there is the destruction of something in someone's house in this yoga, then there will occur the destruction of 3 things, and if in this yoga there is the profit of one thing to someone, then there will be to him the profit of three things). And the conjunction of these 3, the days of Saturday, Tuesday, and Sunday; the Nakshtras of Dhanishtha, Chitra and Mrigshira; and the Bhadra Tithis (2/7/12 Tithis)-Causes the occurrence of the DWIPUSHKARA YOGA. This yoga gives two fold effect.

THE TIME WHICH SHOULD BE REJECTED IN DOING 'PUTTALA DAHA' OR THE BURNING (CREMATION) OF A DUMMY OF SOMEONE: The 'Puttala Daha' or the burning (cremation) of someone's Dummy is not to be done on the days of Friday, Tuesday, and Saturday, on the Tithis of Amavasya, Chaturdashi, Tryodashi (30,14,13) and on those called Nanda Tithis (1/6/11); in the Nakshtras called 'Tikshana' (Moola, Jyeshtha, Ardra and Ashlesha), in those called 'Ugra' (Poorvaphalguni, Poorvashadha and Poorvabhadrapada, Bharani and Magha) in those of Rewati and Shatbhisha, in these 11 Nakshtras; in the Tripushkara yoga, in the

'Adhikamasa' and in the Kshaya Masa (an additional month and a destroyed month) in the Dakshinayana (when the Sun remains in the signs from Cancer to Sagittarius); in the yogas of Vyatipata and 'Parigha'; when the planets of Jupiter and Venus are combust; on the Bhadra and Vaidhriti Karanas and in the 'Shukla Paksha' or the bright half of the month.

Notes: The burning of a dead body or Cremation is of two kinds. First, there is that of the real dead body and secondly, in the absence of the real dead body, that of the body made of straws like the straws of Kusha Kasha and Plas grass. The second kind of cremation is done in that condition when the dead body of the person concerned is not available. For example, the person concerned has been drowned in water, or he has died in some foreign country or region and his relatives have not received his dead body. Then it is his dummy which is burnt.

Muhurta is not consulted in the cremation of the real body. If the information of the concerned person's death is got within a year, the 'Puttala Daha' Sanskara (rite) may be done in 'Dakshinayana' also.

THE AUSPICIOUS AND INAUSPICIOUS TIME FOR THE PERSON WHO BURNS THE DUMMY: The person who performs the 'Pret Kriya', should not do such rites as the cremation rite etc in the 'Janama' and Pratyari Taras (These have been referred to and described in the 'Gochara Prakarana') and when the moon is there in the Houses of 4/8/12 from his Janama Rashi or the sign in which the Moon is situated.

The performing of 'Pret Kriya Karma is medium effects-giving (for the person doing it if it is performed in the 12 Nakshtras of Anuradha, Poorvaphalguni, Punarvasu, in those called Dhruwa (Uttaraphalguni, Uttarashadha, Uttarabhadrapada and Rohini) in those of Vishakha, Mrigshira, Chitra and Dhanishtha.

The Pret Kriya is auspicious for the person performing it on the days of Sunday, Monday and Thursday and in the Nakshtras of Shravana, Hasta, Swati, Ashwini and Pushya. Consideration has been done with regard to the auspiciousness of the cremation of Dummy rite etc. The performing of these is not to be done during the time of 'Ashaucha' (The period of Pataka: After someone's death in the family a fixed period is regarded as unholy for the members of that family and in this period the performing of worship, recitation of Mantras and other auspicious deeds are not done, their performing is rejected).

Notes: The person performing Kriya should not do 'Pret Karma' in the Janama Nakshtra (the Nakshtra of his birth) and in the Pratyari Nakshtras, that is, the 5/10/14/19th and 23rd Nakshtras from the Janama Nakshtra; and in the event of the Moon being in the 4/8/12 Houses.

'Ashaucha' refers to that period in which from the day of the death of the dead certain rites related to the Pretkriya of him, such as Ekadashaha, Dashagatra, Sapindana and Brahmanabhoja etc are performed. This period is referred to as the period of Pataka. It is usually of 13 days. It is regarded as unholy.

THE CONSIDERATION OF ABHUKTA MOOLA: According to Brahmarishi Narada the last four Ghatis of the Nakshtra of Jyeshtha and the first four Ghatis of that of Moola, these 8 Ghatis form the 'Abhukta Moola'.

Brahmarishi Vashishtha has said that it is the last one Ghati of the Nakshtra of Jyeshtha and the first two Ghatis of that of Moola (the 3 Ghatis combined) which form the 'Abhuktamoola'. But according to Acharya Brahaspati the "Abhuktamoola" is formed by the last half Ghati of the Nakshtra of Jyeshtha and the first half Ghati of that of Moola.

अथोचुरन्ये प्रथमाष्टघट्यो मूलस्य शाक्रान्तिमपञ्चनाडयः ।

जातं शिशुं तत्र परित्यजेद्वा मुखं पितास्याष्टसमा न पश्येत् ॥५४॥

THE MEASURE OF AND THE EFFECTS OF THE ABHUKTAMoola ACCORDING TO ANOTHER OPINION: It is the opinion of some unknown Acharya (teacher of Astrology) that 'Abhuktamoola' is formed by the first eight ghatīs of the Nakshtra of Moola and the last 5 ghatīs (these 13 ghatīs combined) of that of Jyeshtha.

The native born in the 'Abhuktamoola' should be given up or left or the father should not see its face for eight years.

आद्ये पिता नाशमुपैति मूलपादे द्वितीये जननी तृतीये ।

घनं चतुर्थोऽस्य शुभोऽथ शान्त्या सर्वत्र सत्स्यादहिमे विलोमम् ॥५५॥

THE EFFECTS OF THE BIRTH IN THE NAKSHTRA OF MOOLA AS PER DIFFERENCE OF QUARTER AND IN THAT OF ASHLESHA: There is the destruction (death) of the native's father if the native is born in the first quarter of the Nakshtra of Moola; that of the native's mother; if in the 2nd quarter; there is the loss of wealth, if in the 3rd quarter; and the birth is auspicious if it occurs in the 4th quarter. And if Shanti Anushthana or Pacification of the defective birth is performed then it (the birth) is auspicious in all the quarters.

The effects are reversed if the birth occurs in the different quarters of the Nakshtra of Ashlesha, that is, it (the birth) is auspicious if it occurs in the First quarter, it causes the loss of wealth, if in the 2nd one; it causes the death of the native's mother, if in the 3rd Quarter and; that of the native's father, if in the 4th Quarter.

Notes: According to Brahmarishi Vashishtha if the First quarter of the Nakshtra of Moola falls in the night it does not cause any evil for the native's father, and similarly if the 2nd quarter of this Nakshtra falls in the day time, it does not cause any evil to its mother.

THE ABODE OF THE NAKSHTRA OF MOOLA: The Nakshtra of Moola resides or lives in Heaven in the months of Ashadha, Bhadrapada, Ashwin and Magha; on the earth in those of Shravana, Kartika, Chaitra and Pausha; in Pataal or the Hades or the Underworld in those of Phalguna, Margashirsha, Vaishakha and Jyestha. The inauspicious effects occur in the place where the Nakshtra of Moola resides or lives.

Notes: The 12 Hindi Months in serial order are - Chaitra, Vaishakha, Jyestha, Ashadha, Shravana, Bhadrapada, Ashwin, Kartika, Margashirsha, Pausha, Magha and Phalguna. The month of Chaitra falls roughly in the month of March. The falling of the other months may be calculated after Chaitra.

THE INAUSPICIOUS TIME FOR THE BIRTH OF A CHILD: The birth of a child occurring in the 'Gandanta' (Tithi Gandanta, Nakshtra Gandanta, and Lagna Gandanta) in the Nakshtra of Jyeshtha; in the yogas of Shoola, Mahapaata, Parigha, Vyaghaata, and Ganda; in the event of Tithi Kshaya; on a Sankranti; in Vyatipata and Vaidhriti; on the Sinivali Amavasya (the Amavasya on which the Moon is visible) and that of Kuhu (the Amavasya on which the Moon is not visible); in the Vajra yoga, on the Chaturdashi or the 14th Tithi of the Krishna Paksha or the dark half of the month; in Yamaghanta (described in 9th Shloka of the 1st Chapter of this book) in the Dagdha Yoga (described in 1/8); in the Mrityu Yoga (described in 1/30 and 1/5) in the Karana of 'Bhadra'; in the Janama Nakshtra or the Nakshtra of the birth of a brother and sister; and in that of the native's father and mother; in any of all these, is evil effects giving or inauspicious. Therefore, there should be done the Shanti or pacification of all these. All is auspicious by performing 'Shanti' or pacification.

Here Shri Rama Daivagya has given the number of the Taras which were seen and known in each part by the Acharyas or Teachers of Astrology in their observatories.

1-1½ THE NAMES OF THE SANKRANTIS AND THEIR EFFECTS: If there is the Sankranti of the Sun in the Nakshtras named as Ugra—Poorvaphalguni, Poorvashadha, Poorvabhadrapada, Bharani and Magha that Sankranti is given the name of Ghora; this Sankranti is the giver of joy and happiness to the people of Shudra Varna or caste; if the Sankranti falls in the conjunction of the Nakshtras called 'Laghu' (small)—Hasta, Ashwini, Pushya and Abhijit—and of Monday, it is named as the Sankranti of Dhwanakshi; it gives happiness and joy to the people of the Vaishya Varna or caste; if it happens to fall in the conjunction of those Nakshtras which are referred to as 'Chara' or Movable (Swati, Punarvasu, Shrivana, Dhanishtha and Shatbhisha) and of the day of Tuesday, its name is 'Mahodara'; it is the thieves who are made joyful and happy in this Sankranti; the Sankranti which happens to fall in the conjunction of the Nakshtras named as Maitra (Mrigashira, Rewati, Chitra and Anuradha) and the day of Wednesday is called by the name of 'Mandakini'; it gives joy and happiness to the people of the Kshtriya Varna or caste; that which happens to fall in the conjunction of the Nakshtras called 'Sthira' or fixed (Uttaraphalguni, Uttarashadha, Uttarabhadrapada and Rohini) and of the day of Thursday is referred to as 'Manda' which is the giver of joy and happiness to the varna or caste of Brahmins; that happening to fall in the conjunction of Nakshtras named as Mishra or Mixed (Vishakha, Kritika) and of the day of Friday gets the name of 'Mishra'; it gives joy and happiness to the animals; that which falls in the conjunction of the Nakshtras named as 'Tikshna' or intense (Moola, Jyeshtha, Ardra and Ashlesha) and of Saturday is given the name of 'Rakshashi'; it gives joy and happiness to the people of 'Chandala' Caste.

Notes: The name of the time of entrance of the Planets from one sign into the other sign is 'Sankranti' Kala. A Sankranti is called the Sankranti of that sign in which a Planet enters. In this way there are the Sankrantis of all the Planets. In the Sankrantis of the Sun, the Moon, Mars Mercury, Jupiter, Venus and Saturn respectively 32,2,9,6,88,9 and 160 ghatikas which occur before and after the time of the Sankranti are rejected in doing an auspicious deed. In this chapter it is only the 12 Sankrantis of the Sun that have been specifically commented upon as the 'Saur Masa' occurs due to the Sankranti of the Sun, according to which Varsha or year, Ritu or season, Ayana (the Uttarayana and the Dakshinayana of the Sun) and the Parvas or the festivals of 'Kumbha' etc. are determined. There are the descriptions in our Dharmashastras (Scriptures) of the main period in which bathing, giving of alms in charity etc. should be done. These descriptions are available only of the Sankrantis of the Sun and not of those of the other Planets.

The Table showing the effects of Sankrantis

2-3. If a Sankranti occurs in the first 3rd part of a day it gives pain to the Kshatriyas, if in the 2nd, to the Brahmins, if in the 3rd to the Vaishyas and if it occurs at the setting of the day it gives pain to the Shudras. If a Sankranti occurs in the first prahara of night, it destroys the Pishachas etc.; if in the 2nd one, the Rakshasas; if in the 3rd one, the Natas (actors in circus); and if in the 4th one, the guards of animals or the gopas or the cowherds. The Sankranti occurring at the time of the rising of the Sun destroys the hypocrites. The Sankranti of 'Makara' or Capricorn is called Uttarayana, and that of 'Karka' or Cancer is referred to as Dakshinayana.

Notes: If the 'Dinmaana' is divided by 3, the ghatas and palas obtained as quotient are called the 'Tritiyamsha' (or the 3rd part of the 'Dinmaana'). If the 'Ratrimaana' is divided by 4, the ghatas and Palas obtained as quotient are called prahara or yaama.

Pishacha: is a kind of evil spirit. Rakshasa: is a demon. Nata: A caste the people of which earn their livelihood by showing bodily feats.

THE NAMES OF THE SANKRANTIS AS PER THE DIFFERENCE OF SIGNS: The Sankranti of the signs of Sagittarius, Gemini, Virgo and Pisces is named as 'Shadashiti Mukha'; that of the signs of Libra and Aries is called 'Vishuwa'; and the name of that of the signs of Leo, Scorpio, Taurus and Aquarius is 'Vishnupada'.

निशीथतोऽर्वागपरत्र सङ्क्रमे पूर्वापराहान्तिमपूर्वभागयोः ॥ ५ ॥

THE PUNYA KAALA OF A SANKRANTI: The 16 ghatas before and the 16 ghatas after the Sankranti of the Sun, that is 32 ghatas is the Punya Kaala or the holy time. If a Sankranti begins before midnight then the latter half of the previous day (from 12 o'clock to the setting of the Sun on the previous day), and if it begins after midnight, then the first half of the next day, (that is from the Sunrise to 12 o'clock on the next day) there is the Punya Kaala.

पूर्णे निशीथे यदि संक्रमः स्यादिद्वयं पुष्यमथोदयास्तात् ।
पूर्व परस्ताद्यदि याम्यसौम्यायने दिने पूर्वपरे तु पुण्ये ॥६॥

THE CONSIDERATION OF THE SPECIAL PUNYA KAALA OF A SANKRANTI: If a Sankranti begins exactly at midnight, then there is the Punya Kaala of it in both the days before and after it. If there is the Sankranti of the sign of Cancer before the rising of the Sun, then it is the previous day which is the Punya Kaala; and if there is that of the sign of Capricorn after the setting of the Sun (in the night) then the next day is the Punya Kaala.

THE MEASURE OF THE SANDHYA AND THE SPECIAL CHARACTERISTICS OF THE SANKRANTIS OF CANCER AND CAPRICORN: 3 ghatis before the half rising of the disc of the Sun is called the Sandhya (the time joining two times) of the morning; and 3 ghatis after the half setting of the disc of the Sun is referred to as the Sandhya of the evening time.

If there is the Sankranti of Cancer in the Sandhya of the morning, then there is Punya Kaala in the whole day which follows this Sandhya; and if there is the Sankranti of the Capricorn in the Sandhya of the evening, then there is Punya Kaala in the day before it.

Notes: If there is the Sankranti of Cancer in the morning Sandhya, then there remains Punya Kaala in the whole day from the rising to the setting of the Sun and if there is the Sankranti of Capricorn in the 3 ghatis after the setting of the Sun (in the evening Sandhya), then the whole previous day from the rising to the setting of the Sun remains Punya Kaala.

याम्यायने विष्णुपदे चाद्या मध्यास्तुलाजयोः ।

षडशीत्यानने सौम्ये परा नाख्योऽतिपुण्यदाः ॥८॥

THE SPECIAL PUNYA KAALA: In the Sankrantis of the signs of Cancer, Leo, Scorpio, Taurus and Aquarius, the 16 ghatis before

Sankranti are specially holy and givers of Punya; in those of the signs of Libra and Aries, it is the 16 ghatas in the middle of the Sankranti that is, the 8 ghatas before and the 8 ghatas after middle of the Sankranti time, which are specially holy and givers of Punya; and in those of the signs of Gemini, Virgo, Sagittarius, Pisces and Capricorn, it is the 16 ghatas after the Sankranti time which are specially holy and givers of Punya.

SAAYANA SANKRANTI AND THE PUNYA KAALA IN IT:

If Ayanamsha is multiplied by 60 and the product is divided by the movement of the longitude of the Sun the quotient which is obtained in days, ghatas and Palas, so many days before the Sankranti of Aries etc. there is the 'Chala' (saayana) Sankranti. In it (Saayana Sankranti) also the giving of alms in charity and the doing of Tapa etc. (Penance etc.) gives much Punya as is given by these in the Nirvana Sankranti.

THE SAMA, BRIHAT AND JAGHANYA NAMES OF THE NAKSHTRAS: The Nakshtras called Mridu or Delicate (Mrigashira (1), Rewati (2), Chitra (3) and Anuradha (4)), those called Kshipra (Hasta (5), Ashwini (6), Pushya (7) and Abhijit (8)) Dhanishtha (9), Shravana (10), Kritika (11), Magha (12), Poorvaphalguni (13), Poorvashadha (14), Poorvabhadrapada (15) and Moola (16), these 16 Nakshtras are named as 'Sama' Nakshtras. The Nakshtras called Dhruwa (Uttaraphalguni, Uttarashadha, Uttarabhadrapada and Rohini), Vishakha and Punarvasu these 6 Nakshtras are called 'Brihat' Nakshtras and Ashlesha, Shatbhisha, Ardra, Swati, Jyeshtha and Bharani, these 6 Nakshtras are referred to as 'Jaghanya' Nakshtras.

Notes: By dividing the 360° of the zodiac (the circular path of the signs) into 27 equal parts, there is one part each of 13°-20 or 800 kalas. This is more or less equal to the 800 kalas of the movement of the Moon the total value of each of the 15 Nakshtras which are called 'Sama' is equal to the movement of the Moon in one day. Therefore they are named as 'Sama'; the total value of each of those 6 Nakshtras named as 'Brihat' is more than the movement of the Moon, therefore they are named as Brihat; and the total value of each of those 6 Nakshtras called 'Jaghanya' is less than the movement of the Moon, therefore they are named as Jaghanya Nakshtras.

खराम ३० संख्याः सममे महर्घसमर्घसाम्यं विधुदर्शनेऽपि ॥ ११ ॥

THE MUHURTAS AND THE EFFECT OF SANKRANTI ACCORDING TO THE DIFFERENT NAMES OF THE NAKSHTRAS: There are 15 Muhurtas in a Sankranti if it happens to occur in the Nakshtras named as 'Jaghanya', 45 Muhurtas if in 'Brihat', and 30 if in 'Sama'. In the month of the Sankranti occurring in the Nakshtras having 15 Muhurtas the rates of grains etc are costly, in that of the Sankranti occurring in the Nakshtras having 45 Muhurtas these are cheap, and in that of the Sankranti occurring in the Nakshtras having 30 Muhurtas these are neither costly nor cheap, these are average.

The same effect prevails in the appearance or rising of the Moon, that is, if the Moon appears or rises in a Jaghanya Nakshtra on the 2nd Tithi of the Shukla Paksha or the bright half of the month, the rates of grains etc are costly in that month, if in a 'Brihat' Nakshtra, these are cheap, and if in a 'Sama' Nakshtra these are average, neither cheap nor costly.

दिशो नखा गजाः सूर्या धृत्योऽष्टादश सायकाः ॥ १२ ॥

THE VIMSHOPAKA PHALA (EFFECT) OF THE YEAR DUE TO THE SANKRANTI OF CANCER: There are 10 Vimshopakas of the year if there is the Sankranti of the sign of Cancer on Sunday; if on Monday, 20; if on Tuesday, 8; if on Wednesday, 12; if on Thursday, 18; if on Friday, 18; and if on Saturday, 5, that is, in that year, the measure of auspicious effects is equal to the said viswas.

If a Sankranti happens to occur in the 'Karanas' of Taitila, Naga and Chatuspada, then at that time the Sun moves in sleeping condition. In the 5 Karanas from the karana of 'Gara' (Gara, Vanija, Bhadra, Bava, and Balava) the Sun moves in the sitting condition, and in the karanas of 'Kinstughana', Kaulava and Shakuni, the Sun moves in the standing condition. In these conditions in the rates of grains etc. and in the falling of rains there occur the effects which may be regarded respectively as inauspicious, medium and excellent.

THE VAAHANAS (CONVEYANCES) OF THE 'SANKRANTIS' ACCORDING TO THE KINDS OF 'KARNAS' AND THEIR EFFECTS: If there is the Sankranti of the Sun in the 11 Karanas of 'Bava' etc, then the means of conveyance of the Sankranti respectively are (1) Lion (2) Tiger (3) Pig (4) Donkey (5) Elephant (6) He-Buffalo (7) Horse (8) Dog (9) Ram (10) Ox and (11) Cock. And if a Sankranti is sitting it destroys those who are sitting, if it is standing, it destroys those who are standing, and if it is sleeping, it destroys those who are sleeping.

THE AUSPICIOUS OR INAUSPICIOUS EFFECTS TO HUMAN BEINGS FROM SANKRANTI ACCORDING TO THE NAKSHTRAS IN WHICH THEY ARE BORN: If the birth Nakshtra falls in the 3 Nakshtras from the Nakshtra which is before the Nakshtras in which a Sankranti occurs, then in that month there will be going out (or travelling); then if it falls in the next 6 Nakshtras, there will be happiness and comfort; then again if it falls in the next 3 Nakshtras, there will be pain; then if it falls in the next 6 Nakshtras there will be the obtainment of clothes, again, if it falls in the next 3 Nakshtras, there will be loss of wealth, and if it falls in the next 6 Nakshtras there will be gains of wealth.

THE THINGS WHICH SHOULD BE DONE WHEN A PLANET IS STRONG: If the Sun is strong the king should be seen; if the moon, there should be the reading and teaching of the shastras or ancient classics (religious books) if Jupiter, marriage; if Venus, there should be travelling; and if Saturn, learning (from the guru) should be taken.

If Tara is strong the Moon is auspicious; if the Moon is strong the Sun is auspicious; and if the Sun is strong, all the planets become strong.

There is the Chandramaasa (the Lunar month) from the Pratipada or the first Tithi of the Shukla Paksha or the bright half of the month to the Amavasya (the 30th Tithi of a month). If there is no Sankranti of the Sun in this Chandramaasa then there is the 'Adhimaasa' (additional month) and if there are two 'Sankrantis' of the Sun in it, then there is the 'Kshaya maasa' (or lost month). In the 'Kshayamaasa' the First Maasa (month) and the next maasa should be taken according to the division of the Tithi. Thus, if the birth or the death occurs in the First half of the Tithi, then the birth day of the native and the annual Shraddha of the dead (the anniversary of the dead) are to be celebrated or performed in the previous month; and if the birth or the death occurs in the second half of the Tithi, then his birthday and his annual Shraddha are to be celebrated or performed in the next month.

दुष्टोऽपि खेटो विपरीतवेधाच्छुभो द्विकोणे शुभदः सितेऽजः ॥४॥

THE AUSPICIOUS AND THE VEDHA PLACES (HOUSES) FROM THE JANAMA RASHI OR THE BIRTH RASHI: If the Sun in Gochara or in transit is there in the 6th place or house from the Janama Rashi of the native (the sign in which the Moon is there at the time of birth is referred to as the Janama Rashi of the native) then he is auspicious for him, provided that there is no planet in the 12th House, that is, if there is some planet in the 12th House, there is 'Vedha' to the Sun and then the Sun posited in the 6th House becomes inauspicious and harmful for him. In the same way the Sun in transit is auspicious in the 10th House, but if there is some planet in the 4th House, then there is the Vedha of the Sun. The Sun in transit is auspicious in the 3rd and the 11th House but the Vedha places of these Houses which are respectively the 9th and the 5th House should be without any planet.

Similarly, Mars, Saturn and Rahu are auspicious respectively in the 6/11/3 Houses provided that there is no planet respectively in the 9/5/12 Houses, that is, these places (9/5/12) are the Vedha Places of these Planets. The Moon is auspicious in 10/3/11/1/6/7 when there is no planet respectively in the 4/9/8/5/12/2 places. Mercury is auspicious in the 2/4/6/8/10/11 Houses from the Janama Rashi of the native when there is no planet respectively in the 5/3/9/1/8/12 Houses.

Jupiter gets auspiciousness in the 5/2/9/7/11 places or Houses from the Native's Janama Rashi when there is no planet respectively in the 4/12/10/3/8 places.

Venus is auspicious in the 1/2/3/4/5/8/9/12/11 places from the Native's Janama Rashi, if respectively the 8/7/1/10/9/5/11/6/3 Houses are without any planets.

There is no mutual Vedha in those planets who have the relation of father and son between them, that is, there is no inauspicious effect in them (The Sun is the father and Saturn is the son, and the Moon is the father and Mercury is the son). Thus, the Sun is auspicious if he is in the 6th House from the Native's Janama Rashi, and in the 12th House from it all the planets due too Vedha give inauspicious effects; but if Saturn is there in the 12th, there will only be auspicious effect, that is, there will be no Vedha.

The planet giving inauspicious effect gives auspicious effect if there is the Vipreeta Vedha (Reverse Vedha); that is, if a planet is situated in the places which are his Vedha places and contray to it there is some planet in his above stated auspicious place, then there is Vipreet Vedha. The effect of Vipreet Vedha has been said to be auspicious.

For example, if the Sun is there in the 12th House from the Native's Janama Rashi, and at the same time there is some planet in the 6th House, then there will be Vipreet Vedha and its effect will be auspicious.

The Moon in the Shukla Paksha or the bright half of the month is auspicious in the 2/9/5 places, if there remains no planet respectively in the 6/8/4 Houses.

Notes: Here the word Gochara means a planet moving in the sky ('Go' = Sky and 'Chara' = moving). It is seen from that Rashi or sign in which the Moon was at the time of birth as to where a planet is at the present time (the time of the query). If a planet is in an auspicious place from the sign in which the Moon was situated at the time of birth, he gives auspicious effects. If he is in an inauspicious place, he gives inauspicious effects.

The meaning of 'Vedha Vichar' is 'the prevention of the effect of 'Gochara Effect. Thus, if the Sun is in the 3rd House from the sign in which the Moon is situated, that is, from the 'CHANDRA RASHI' at the time of birth, and some other planet is situated in the 9th House from this 'Chandra Rashi' (except Saturn) then the auspicious effect resulting from the Sun is not obtained. The Sun is the father and Saturn is the son. In the same way, the Moon is the Father and Mercury is the Son. There is no Vedha between father and the son. Thus, if due to Gochara the Sun is there in the 3rd House and due to Go-chara there is Saturn in the 9th place from the Janama Rashi then he (Saturn) will not prevent the Gochara Effect of the Sun.

In the event of there being 'Vipreeta Vedha' even an inauspicious Planet becomes auspicious, that is, if a planet falls in the Vedha place and there is some planet in the House which has been spoken of as the auspicious place or House of that planet, that planet is auspicious. For example, if Mars or Saturn is in the 9th House and there happens to be some planet in the 6th place or House, then it is Vipreet Vedha and is auspicious.

The Table or Speculum of Knowing the Auspicious and the Vedha Places of the Planets:

Names of the Planets	Places	Vedha Places

5. DIFFERENCE OF OPINION WITH REGARD TO VEDHA:

The opinion of Narada and the other Acharyas (teachers of Astrology) is that the Vedha of the planets is from the Janama Rashi (Thus, if the Sun is in the 6th House from the Janama Rashi and if there is some planet in the 12th House from it, then the Sun has Vedha from that planet). But the opinion of Acharya Kashyap is that Vedha is from the sign of that very planet, that is when the Sun is in the 6th House, there is Vedha if there is some planet in the 12th House from the Sun, or when the Sun is in the 12th House, there is Vedha if there is some planet in the 6th House from the Sun.

According to Acharya Kashyap, both these kinds of Vedha are there in the region between the Himalayas and the Vindhya Mountains (that is, in the Northern India). This Vedha is not defective in other places.

THE EFFECTS OF AN ECLIPSE AS PER THE JANAMA NAKSHTRA AND THE JANAMA RASHI: If an eclipse occurs in the Janama (birth) Nakshtra there occurs the death of the native, if it occurs in the Janama Rashi, the native gets bodily pain; in the 2nd, sign loss; in the 3rd, obtainment of Lakshmi or wealth; in the 4th, mental pain; in the 5th anxiety; in the 6th, happiness; in the 7th, pain to the native's wife; in the 8th, there occurs the death of the native; in the 9th, there is the loss of respect; in the 10th, the native gets happiness; in the 11th, gains and; in the 12th, destruction or loss of wealth. These are the effects of an eclipse. In the eclipse which gives inauspicious effects, the native should recite Mantras, give Cow, gold as alms or in charity, and should do Japa (or the repeated recitation of a mantra) for pacification, or, it is the opinion of the other Acharyas that the eclipse which gives inauspicious effects should not be seen.

पापान्तः पापयुग्धूने पापाच्चन्द्रः शुभोऽप्यसत् ।

शुभांशे वाधिमित्रांशे गुरुदृष्टोऽशुभेऽपि सन् ॥७॥

SPECIAL EFFECTS DUE TO THE STRENGTH OF THE MOON: If the Moon is hemmed between Malefic planets or if she is in conjunction with a Malefic Planet or if she is in the 7th place from a Malefic Planet then inspite of being auspicious she gets or becomes inauspicious; And if she is in the Navamsha of a Benefic Planet or of her extreme friend and is aspected by Jupiter, then inspite of being inauspicious she gets or becomes auspicious.

Notes: Here it is the Moon who should be regarded as the main auspicious effects-giving planet. Indeed, it is not only the Moon, but every planet, becomes inauspicious if he is hemmed between Malefic Planets; and becomes auspicious if he is in the Navamsha of a Benefic Planet or of his extreme friend and is aspected by a Benefic Planet.

व्यत्यासे चाशुभौ प्रोक्तौ संकटेऽब्जबलं त्विदम् ॥८॥

THE STRENGTH OF THE MOON AS PER THE DIFFERENCE OF SHUKLA AND KRISHNA PAKSHA: If the Moon is auspicious in the beginning of the Shukla Paksha or the Bright half of the month (in Pratipada etc.) and if she is inauspicious in the beginning of the Krishna Paksha or the Dark half of the month (in the 16th Tithi etc), then both the Pakshas are auspicious. But this strength of the Moon should be considered only at the time of emergency or of trouble, and not at any other time.

THE WEARING OF GEMS AND DIAMONDS FOR THE PACIFICATION OF THE DEFECTS ARISING FROM A MALEFIC OR INAUSPICIOUS PLANET IN GOCHARA: A ring made of gold is to be divided into 9 parts. In this ring the native should get studied a diamond in the eastern part for the pacification of Venus; Pearl in the Agneya Kona (East South) for that of the Moon; Coral in the Southern part for that of Mars; Gaumeda in the Nairitya Kona (West South) for that of Rahu; Neelam or Sapphire in the Western part for that of Saturn; Vaidurya Mani or Cat's eye in the Vayavya Kona (West North) for that of Ketu; Pukharaj or Topaz in the Northern part for that of Jupiter; Panna, or emerald in the Ishana Kona (East North) for that of Mercury and; Manikya or Ruby in the middle part for that of the Sun. This ring is to be worn by the native.

Notes: This 'Yantra' is referred to as 'Nava Graha Yantra' or a yantra for the pacification of the nine planets.

The shape of the Nava graha yantra:

Mercury Emerald	Venus Diamond	Moon Pearl
Jupiter Topaz	Sun Ruby	Mars Coral
Ketu Cat's eye	Saturn Sapphire	Rahu Gaumeda

गोमेदवैदूर्यकमर्कतः स्यू रत्नान्यथो ज्ञस्य मुदे सुवर्णम् ॥१०॥

THE VARIED GEMS OF THE PLANETS: The native should wear Ruby for the pleasing of the Sun, Pearl for that of the Moon, Coral for that of Mars, emerald for that of Mercury, Topaz for that of Jupiter, diamond for that of Venus, Sapphire for that of Saturn, Gaumeda for that of Rahu, and Cat's eye for that of Ketu. Gold should also be worn for the pleasing of Mercury.

लौहं मन्दस्यारभान्वोः प्रवालं तारा जन्मक्षीत्रिरावृत्तितः स्यात् ॥ ११ ॥

THE WEARING OF GEMS AS PER ANOTHER WAY. AND THE KNOWLEDGE OF TARA: For the pleasing of Rahu and Ketu the native should wear Lajavarta; for that of Venus and the Moon Silver; for that of Jupiter, Pearl; for that of Saturn, iron; for that of the Sun and Mars, Coral. Count from the birth Nakshtras to the present Nakshtra. The number thus obtained is to be divided by 9. The remainder is the Tara. It is repeated three times.

Notes: Suppose the birth Nakshtra is Shatbhisha and some thing is to be begun in the Nakshtra of Punarvasu. Then counting from Shatbhisha to Punarvasu we get 11. Dividing it by 9 we get the remainder as 2. Therefore at the time of the beginning of that work the Tara will be number 2 named as 'Sampata'.

THE NAMES OF TARAS: 1. Janama, 2. Sampata 3. Vipata 4. Kshema 5. Pratyari, 6. Sadhaka 7. Vadha 8. Maitra 9. Atimaitra, are the 9 Taras and their effects are as per their names.

Notes: of these Taras, 1,3,5, and 7 are inauspicious and 2,4,6,8, and 9 are auspicious.

GIVING OF ALMS FOR THE PACIFICATION OF INAUSPICIOUS TARAS: For the pacification of Vadha (Killing to Death) Tara the native should give in alms gold and Molasses, Gur or jeggery in Vipata Tara, Vegetables in the Taras of all the three repeating Taras and salt in the Pratyari Tara. Vipata, Pratyari and Vadha these 3 are not auspicious in the first turn, and in the 2nd turn the first charana or quarter of Vipata the last charana or quarter of Pratyari and also of Vadha-these are inauspicious. And all are auspicious in the 3rd turn.

षष्टिघ्नं गतमं मुक्तघटीयुक्तं युगाहतम् ।

शराब्धिहल्लब्धतोऽर्कशेषेऽवस्थाः क्रियाद्विधोः ॥ १४ ॥

THE SADHANA OR CALCULATION OF THE AVASTHAS OF THE MOON: The number of the passed Nakshtra (counting from Ashwini) is to be multiplied by 60. To this should be added the passed ghatis of the present Nakshtra. Then it is to be multiplied by 4 and the product should be divided by 45. the quotient is again to be divided by 12. The remainder is the avastha of the Moon in the order of the 12 signs Aries etc.

Example: Suppose the passed Nakshtra is Hasta. Its number from Ashwini is 13. If it is multiplied by 60, the product comes to be 780. To 780 should be added the 10 Bhukta or passed ghatis of the present Nakshtras of Chitra, the resultant figure comes to be 790 which is again multiplied by 4 and the product comes to be 3160. It is divided by 45, and the quotient comes to be 70. If it is divided by 12, the remainder comes to be 10. If the native's Rashi or sign is Aries. then the Avastha of the Moon is 10 which is 'jwara' (fever)-see the speculum of the Avasthas of the Moon.

These are the Avasthas of the Moon in the order of the signs of Aries etc., that is, the Moon's Avastha in the case of the native having the Rashi or sign of Aries is Pravasa etc. that of having the Rashi of Taurus is Nasha etc. that of having the Rashi of Gemini is Marana etc.; that of having the Rashi of Cancer is Jaya and so on. The effects of these Avastha are in accordance with their names.

AUSHDHI SNAANA (MEDICINAL BATH) AND DAKSHINA (GIVING REMUNERATION TO THE BRAHMINS) FOR THE REMOVAL OF THE INAUSPICIOUS OR MALEFIC EFFECTS OF THE PLANETS: In order to get relief from the inauspicious or malefic effects of the planets the native should take the bath in water mixed with Laja (roasted paddy), Kootha, Bariyaar Kauni (a creeper), Motha, Sarasaun, Haldi (Turmeric), Deodaaru and Lodhia.

For the pacification of the inauspicious effects arising from the inauspiciousness of the Sun the native should give a cow with a calf; for the pacification of those arising from that of the Moon, conch; for that of Mars red coloured Ox; for that of Mercury, gold; for that of Jupiter yellow clothes; for that of Venus, white clothes; for that of Saturn, black cow; for that of Rahu, Sword; for that of Ketu, he goat.

THE TIMINGS IN WHICH THE PLANETS GIVE THEIR EFFECTS BEFORE MOVING INTO THE NEXT RASHIS: The Sun gives his effects auspicious or inauspicious 5 days before moving into the next Rashi or sign; Mars, 8 days; Mercury, 7 days; and Venus 7 days. The Moon gives her effects 3 ghatis before moving into the next Rashi or sign; Rahu, 3 months; Saturn, 6 months, and Jupiter 2 months.

THE THINGS WHICH SHOULD BE GIVEN AS ALMS IF THE PANCHANGIYA ANGAS (PARTS OR LIMBS OF THE AL-MANAC): The King (the native referred to as King) should give gold if it is the 'Yoga' which is inauspicious; conch, if the Moon; grains, if 'Karana'; rice, if 'Tithi'; gems, if 'day'; Cow, if Nakshtra; gold, if 'Nadi'; and 'Sendha' salt, if Tara.

THE PERIOD IN WHICH THE PLANETS GIVE EFFECTS IN A RASHI OR SIGN AND THE EFFECTS OF THE JANAMA NAKSHTRA AS PER THE DIFFERENCE OF DAYS: The Sun and Mars give their respective effects auspicious or inauspicious when they are in the beginning of a Rashi or sign; Venus and Jupiter, when in the middle; Mercury gives his effects in the whole of the Rashi or sign; and the Moon and Saturn when at the end.

In every month if the Janama Nakshtra happens to fall on the days of Sunday etc. (in their right order), then the effects are obtained in the following way: travelling, if on Sunday; gains of grains if on Monday; fear from fire if on Tuesday; excellent intellect, if on Wednesday; gains of clothes, if on Thursday; happiness if on Friday and pain if on Saturday.

THE TIME WHICH SHOULD BE REJECTED IN THE FIRST APPEARANCE OF WOMEN'S MENSES: The first appearance of women's menses is not auspicious on the Bhadra Tithis (described in the 43rd Shloka of chapter 1); during sleep, on the day of a Sankranti, on the Tithis of Amavasya (the 30th Tithi) and Rikta (4/9/14), in the evening time, on the Tithis of Shashthi, Dwadashi and Ashtami (6/12/8) in the Vaidhriti yoga, in the diseased condition, during the period of the eclipses of the Sun and the Moon and in the Yoga of Vyatipaata. The meaning is that if there is the first appearance of women's menses in these inauspicious times there come obstacles in the happiness arising from the birth of issues. Therefore it is auspicious if its pacification is done.

THE MUHURTA FOR THE BATHING OF WOMEN AFTER MENSES: The woman having menses should be asked to take bath after menses in the Nakshtras of Hasta, Swati, Ashwini, Mrigashira, Anuradha, Dhanishtha, those named as Dhruwa (all the 3 Uttaras and Rohini) and Jyestha, on the auspicious Tithis (2/3/5/7/11/12/13), on the auspicious days (Monday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday). The woman who takes bath after menses in the Nakshtras of Mrigashira, Rewati, Swati, Hasta, Ashwini and Rohini gets pregnant or conceives soon.

Notes: The customs prevailing in a country or region are also taken into consideration in the bathing of a woman after menses. At some place a woman takes bath four days after the beginning of the menstrual cycle. Here the days which are prescribed as rejected are not considered for cleaning or bathing. Manu has said. " भर्तु स्पृश्या चतुर्थेहि " that is, the woman becomes worthy to be touched by her husband after 4 days (of the beginning of menses). At some places a woman having menses is allowed to take bath only when there is an auspicious day and an auspicious Nakshtra. This is the most proper time of bathing.

THE TIME WHICH IS TO BE REJECTED IN HAVING SEXUAL INTERCOURSE FOR CONCEPTION: The husband should leave all the three gandantas (the Tithi, the Nakshtra, and the Lagna Gandanta), the Vadha and Janama Tara (that is, 7/10/16/19/25th Nakshtras from the birth or Janama Nakshtra), the Nakshtras of Moola Bharani, Ashwini, Rewati and Magha, the time of the eclipse of the Sun and the Moon, the 'Yogas' of Vyatipata and Vaidhriti, the days of the shraddha of the Father and the Mother (the days of their death), the day time, the first half of the Parigha Yoga, the Nakshtra troubled by Utpaata (portent), the Lagna (Ascendant) of the 8th Rashi or sign from the 'Janama Rashi' or sign of birth, the Lagna of a Malefic Planet (1/5/8/10/11) for doing sexual intercourse with his wife after the period of menses has expired, and she has bathed.

FURTHER THINGS WHICH SHOULD BE KNOWN ABOUT THE MUHURTA OF CONCEPTION: The Karana of Bhadra (described in 1/43), Shashthi (the 6th Tithi), the days of festivals, the Rikta Tithis (4/9/14), the evening time, the days of Tuesday, Sunday and Saturday and the 4 nights from the beginning of the menstrual discharge-these should be left for sexual intercourse which is meant for conception.

Sexual intercourse (for conception) is auspicious in the Nakshtras of Uttaraphalguni, Uttarashadha, Uttarabhadrapada, Mrigashira, Hasta, Anuradha, Rohini, Swati, Shravana, Dhanishtha and Shatbhisha.

Notes: The odd days after the appearance of menses should also be left out for sexual intercourse which is meant for conception and for having a son. Sunday and Tuesday are auspicious for the person who is desirous of having a son. For the person who is desirous of having a daughter it is the even days after the beginning of the menstrual discharge and the days of Monday, Friday, Thursday which are suitable. The days of Wednesday and Saturday are called neutral (without any sex, male or female). Therefore, the conception which is had on these days begets neutral progeny.

After the beginning of the menstrual discharge the sexual intercourse done for having a son on the even days within 16 days is the giver of a son, and that done on the odd days is the giver of a daughter. After this till the beginning of the next menstrual discharge the sexual intercourse is done merely for the gratification of the sexual desire.

A FAVOURABLE LAGNA OR ASCENDANT FOR CONCEPTION: If there are Benefic Planets in the Angles (1/4/7/10) and the Trines (9/5); Malefic Planets in the 3/6/11 Houses, there is the aspect of the male planets (the Sun, Mars and Jupiter) on the Ascendant, the Moon and the Ascendant are in the Navamsha of an odd sign and there are the even nights the 4th etc. (4/6/8/10/12/14/16) after the beginning of the menstrual discharge, the sexual intercourse done for conception is auspicious and giver of a son. It is medium in the Nakshtras of Chitra, Punarvasu, Pushya and Ashwini.

THE MUHURTA FOR SIMANTA SAMSKARA: The performing or doing of the Samskara which is named as Simanta is auspicious on the days of Thursday, Sunday, and Tuesday; in the Nakshtras of Mrigashira, Pushya, Moola, Shravana, Punarvasu and Hasta; on the other Tithis except those of the Rikta Tithis, the Amavasya, the 12th, the 6th and the 8th Tithis, (that is on the 1/2/3/5/7/10/11/13 Tithis); when Masapati or the lord of the Month of conception is endowed with strength (since the month in which the deed of conception is performed to the 9th Month, there is the Masapati or Lord of the Month for every month); in the 6th or 8th month from the conception; when the Benefic Planets are in the Angles and Trines; when the Malefic Planets are in the 3/6/11 Houses and when there is the Ascendant and the Navamsha of a Male sign. Or the Simanta Samskara is excellent in the Nakshtras named as Dhruva (the 3 Uttaras and Rohini) and Rewati, on auspicious days and when there is the Ascendant and the Navamsha of a male sign.

Notes: The word 'Samskara' or 'Sanskara' means the changing of the shape of something, giving it a new shape or form. The rites or deeds described in the 'shrutis' and 'smritis' (the religious books which were heard and remembered) by which man is purified (of sins) are spoken of as 'Samskaras'. The name of the invisible deed giving specific significance which is done by performing special Vedic deeds, ordinary and exceptional in one's own caste and place, has been said to be 'Samskara'. In this chapter the word 'Samskara' has been used for the invisible specific meaning, for the suitable or favourable day, Nakshtra etc. The Indian Manisha (thinkers) have engaged their attention in the search of absolute happiness or bliss and they have found it in Moksha (or relief from the cycle of birth and death). Therefore, the deeds by which man is cleaned of his sins and becomes a rightful claimant of Nirwana or Moksha Pada are also called 'Samskaras'. The Sage 'Charaka' has said 'संस्कारो हि गुणान्तराधानमुच्यते' that is, 'Samskara' is the name of removing the evil qualities which are already there in man and bearing good qualities in their place. From this point of view Samskara is the planning of the new building of man. According to the Indian Munis (thinkers) Samskaras are 48, but of these it is only the 16 that are specially performed.

The Names of the 16 Samskaras: 1. Garbhadhan (conception)
2. Punsavana 3. Simant 4. Jaata Karma 5. Naama Karana (christening or naming) 6. Nishkramana (going out of the house) 7. Anna Prashana (the first eating of grains) 8. Vapan 9. Karnavedha 10. Vratadesha 11. Vedarambha 12. Keshanta 13. Snaan 14. Vivaha or marriage 15. Agni Paripraha 16. Tretagni Sangraha.

Sushruta (an authority on Indian Medicines) has written in Chapter 6 entitled as 'Shareer Sthaana' or the various parts of the human body "पंच संघयः शिरसि विभक्ताः सीमान्ताः तत्राघाते वा उन्माद मयचेष्टानाशैःमरणम्" that is, the head is divided into 5 Sandhis (joints); if these are hurt or injured, if there is lunacy if there is fear and because of not moving man dies. Due to the Sandhis (joints) of the skull of the head, it is called Simanta. There is the brain in the head with which we think and meditate. SIMANTO-NNAYANA (It is another name of the Simanta Samskara) means the elevation or the upward rising of the brain or the development of the brain. Therefore, the meaning of the SIMANTO-NNAYANA Samsakara means that Samsakara in which the mind of the mother is concentrated on the development of the brain. 'Punsavana Samskara' is the Samskara of the development of, the body, while 'Simantonnayana Samskara' that of the mind. In these two Samskaras is included the bodily and the mental development, everything relating to the foetus in the womb.

It is said that the 'Simantonnayana Samskara' should be performed in the 4th or the 6th or the 8th month after conception. It is clear from this is that the best time for the Simantonnayana Samskara is when the cells of the brain of the foetus in the womb are building. It is written in the 'Shareer Sthaana' Chapter of Sushruta:

“पञ्चमे मनः प्रति बुद्धतरं भवति ! षष्ठे बुद्धिः । सप्तमे सर्वाङ्गं प्रत्यङ्गं विभागः प्रव्यक्ततरः । अष्टमे ऽस्थिरी भवति ओजः । तत्र जातः चेन्न जीवेत् निरोजस्त्वात् ।” that is, in the 5th month (after conception), it is the soul which becomes more conscious, in the 6th one, the intellect; in the 7th one, the various organs and limbs become more pronounced; in the 8th one, 'oja' remains unstable; the infant born in the 8th month does not remain alive because of the lack of 'oja'. From this statement, it is clear that, as Sushruta opines, in the 5th month (after conception) the soul of the infant in the womb becomes more conscious than it was before this time. "It becomes more conscious than it was before" means this that in the 4th month the Nervous system begins to take shape or is built. It is because of this that the, time of 'Simantonnayana Samskara' has been chosen to be in the 4th month. In the chapter 1/14/1 of 'Ashwalayana Grihya Sutra', there is the saying "चतुर्थे मासे सीमन्तोन्नयनम्" that is there should be the completion of the Simantonnayana Samskara in the 4th month. Sushruta has written: "षष्ठे बुद्धि" that is, in the 6th month there begins the development of the intellect of the infant in the womb. Therefore, it is the 6th month also which has been prescribed for the doing of this samskara.

In the 8th month (after conception) the woman is referred to as Dohrada. 'Dohrada' means one who has 2 Hearts - one heart of the woman's own, and the other of the infant in her womb. In the 8th month after conception, the body, the brain and the heart-all these three are fully prepared. Therefore, if the Simantonnayana Samskara has not been done in the 4th month, it may be done in the 6th month, and if it has not been done in the 6th one also it may be done in the 8th one.

THE LORDS OF THE 10 MONTHS OF CONCEPTION AND THE DETERMINION OF THE STRENGTH OF THE MOON: The Lord of the first month of conception is Venus; of the 2nd, Mars; of the 3rd, Juptier; of the 4th, the Sun; of the 5th, the Moon; of the 6th, Saturn; of the 7th, Mercury; of the 8th, the Ascendant Lord; of the 9th, the Moon; and of the 10th, the Sun.

In the Samskaras of marriage and conception etc., it is the Chandra Bala or the strength of the Moon of the women which is to be considered; and in the other Samskaras, of their husbands'.

THE MUHURTA FOR THE PUNSAVANA SAMSKARA AND VISHNU POOJA: After 'Garbhādhaana' or Conception the 'Punsavana Samskara' should be performed in the 3rd month on the Tithis, days and in the Nakshtras which have been stated as auspicious for the 'Simanta Samskara'. And after this in the 8th month, in the Nakshtras of Shravana, Rohini and Pushya, in auspicious Lagans or Ascendants or when there is a benefic planet in auspicious Ascendants, and when the 8th House from the Natal Ascendant is auspicious and is without any Malefic Planet, the worship of Lord Vishnu should be performed (for the protection of conception).

Notes: The foetus which is there in the womb of the mother develops in two directions. First, there is the bodily development and secondly, the mental development. For the physical or bodily development there is the 'Punsavana Samskara'. By this Samskara, the attention of the mother is drawn towards the bodily development of the foetus which is being nourished in her womb. Therefore, this Samskara is performed after conception when it becomes certain that the conception has been stabilised.

THE MUHURTA FOR THE JAATAKARMA AND THE 'NAAMA KARANA' SAMSKARAS: It is auspicious to perform the 'Jaata Karma' and the 'Naama Karana' samskaras of the newly born infant on the other Tithis except in the Parva or festival (14/8/30/15/ the Sankranti of the Sun) and the Rikta Tithis (4/9/14), on an auspicious day, on the 11th or the 12th day from the birth, in the Nakshtras named as Mridu or Delicate (Mrigashira, Rewati, Chitra and Anuradha), in those named as Dhruwa (the 3 Uttaras and Rohini), in those named as Kshipra (Hasta, Ashwini and Pushya) and in those named as 'Chara' or Movable (Swati, Punarvasu, Shravana, Dhanishtha and Shatabhisha, in these 16 Nakshtras.

Notes: The 'Jaata Karma' is a post natal 'Samskara'. After the birth of the infant there are certain necessary things to be done such as cleaning the mouth, the nose of the infant, make it bathe etc. After these things certain Samskaras are also performed, the aim of which is to instil in the infant certain samskaras and habits though the infant itself is not conscious of them and learns them unknowingly. These Samskaras are as follows:

1. To write 'Om' on the infant's tongue with a thin rod of gold: This is done by the father and the mother in order to instil in the infant without its knowledge certain Samskaras. When the father writes 'Om' on the infant's tongue, he takes this responsibility upon himself that he will make his progeny the traveller travelling on the path of Adhyatma or spirituality and will not leave him free in materialism.

2. To say 'Vedosi' in the ear of the infant. The meaning of 'Vedosi' is "you are a creature having knowledge of the Absolute, you are not ignorant". After the Jaata Karma Samskara, the 5th is the 'Naamakarana' Samskara or the Christening or naming ceremony. The 'Naamakarana' is generally very auspicious if it is done in the forenoon, medium in auspiciousness if it is done at noon. It should not be done in the afternoon and in the night.

The name of the infant should be in one of the 5 ways.

1. The name may be one relating to the 'Kuldevata' (the family god, or the god who is worshipped most in the family).

2. There has been the tradition of naming the infant on the basis of the names of the months which begin with Margashirsha and are these in order 1. Krishna 2. Ananta 3. Achyuta 4. Chakradhara 5. Vaikuntha 6. Janardana 7. Upendra 8. Yagyapurusha 9. Vasudeva 10. Hari 11. Yogisha 12. Pundari Kanksha (These are the names of the months beginning with Margashirsha).

3. The name may be on the charans or quarters of the Nakshtras. This is called 'Rashinaama'

4. The actual name (that which is spoken easily) is excellent if it is of two, four or six letters.

5. The 5th is the pet name. It should be sober, sweet and delicate and it is excellent if it is according to the parent's wish.

After this the 5 Nakshatras are death-bringing. After this in the 5 Nakshatras the child becomes weak and lean. THE DETERMINATION OF THE MEANS OF LIVING OF THE CHILD: Seating the child on the ground put before it many things such as clothes, weapon, book, pen, gold and silver. The child will earn his bread or livelihood by that thing which it takes of its own will or desire.

THE MUHURTA FOR EATING TAAMBOOL OR BETEL LEAF: It is better to make the child eat betel leaf at the age of 2.1/2 months or at the time of Anna Prashana, on other days than those of Tuesday and Saturday, in the Nakshtras named as Dhruva (the 3 Uttaras and Rohini) in those named as Mridu or Delicate (Mrigashira, Rewati, Chitra and Anuradha) in those named as Laghu or small (Hasta Ashwini and Pushya), in those of Shravana, Moola, Punarvasu, Jyeshtha, Swati and Dhanishtha, in these 17 Nakshtras, in the Ascendants of Gemini, Capricorn, Virgo, Aquarius, Taurus and Pisces, in the event of the Benefic Planets being in the Angles and the Trines and of the Malefic Planets being in 3/6/11 Houses.

THE MUHURTA FOR KARNA VEDHA OR MAKING HOLE IN THE EARS FOR WEARNING JEWELS: 'The Karna Vedha Samskara' is excellent if it is done leaving, the two months of Chaitra and Pausha, the sleeping time of Lord Vishnu (From Ashadha Shukla Ekadashi or the 11th Tithi of the bright half of the Month of Ashadha to the Kartika Shukla Ekadashi), the month of the birth, the Tithis named as Rikta (4/9/14), even years (2/4 etc) and the Janama Tara (1/10/11 Nakshtra from the Janama or birth Nakshtra, all these—and in the 6/7/8/ month from birth or on the 12/16 day from the day of birth, on the days of Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Monday, in the odd (3/5 etc) years, in the Nakshtras of Shravana, Dhanishtha, Punarvasu, those named as Mridu or Delicate (Mrigashira, Rewati and Anuradha and those named as Laghu or small (Hasta, Ashwini and Pushya).

Notes: The 'Karna Vedha Samskara' of children should be performed on the 12th or the 16th day from the day of birth after consulting favourable Tithi-Day-and Nakshtra. If it is not possible to do it on these days then it should be done in the 6th or the 7th Month. If again it is not possible to do it in these months also, then it should be done in the 3rd or the 5th year.

The Chaitra etc. lunar months in which the child is born is called the 'Janama Maasa' or the month of birth. According to some Acharyas the one month extending from the day of birth to the 30th day is regarded as the Janama Maasa.

'LAGNA SHUDDHI' OR A FAVOURABLE ASCENDANT IN 'KARNA VEDHA': 'Karna Vedha Samskara' is auspicious when the 8th House from the Natal Ascendant is without any Planet in it, Benefic Planets are in the Angles, Trines and in the 3/11 Houses, when there is an Ascendant of the signs of Venus or Jupiter (2/7/9/12) when the Malefic Planets are in the 3/6/11 Houses from the Natal Ascendant and Jupiter is in the Ascendant.

THE TIME WHICH SHOULD BE REJECTED IN DOING AUSPICIOUS DEEDS: It is not auspicious and excellent to establish the image of a god (or goddess) or to build a tank, to celebrate a marriage, to do 'Agni Adhaana' (to use fire in auspicious deeds), to do entry in a newly built house, to do 'Mundana' or the first cutting of a child's hair, to do coronation and to wear 'Yagyopaveeta or Janeu' (sacred thread worn by the Hindus) - all these things - in the Dakshinayana of the Sun, in the childhood, old age and the Combust condition of Jupiter and Venus and at the time of the rising of Ketu. Some Acharyas opine that till one Paksha (15 days) or half a Paksha (7 days) after the rising of Ketu, the above stated auspicious deeds are not auspicious. And according to some other Acharya since the rising of Ketu and as long as it remains visible, auspicious deeds should not be done.

Notes: The rising of Ketu cannot be known through mathematical calculations. Ketus are of three kinds:

1) Divya (born in the sky)

2) Antariksha (born in a different place from the place of the Planets and the Nakshtras)

3) Bhauma (born on the earth)

The rising and setting of Ketus cannot be known through Mathematical calculations because of their being in the nature of sudden happening. The number of Ketus is not fixed. Acharya Varahamihira has given much information about Ketus in his book entitled 'Brihat Samhita'.

पुरः पश्चाद् भृगोर्बाल्यं त्रिदशाहं च वार्द्धकम् ।

पक्षं पञ्चदिनं ते द्वे गुरोः पक्षमुदाहृते ॥२७॥

THE CHILDHOOD AND OLD AGE OF JUPITER AND VENUS : After the rising of Venus in the east there is her childhood for 3 days and after her rising in the West there is her childhood for 10 days. And 15 days before her setting in the East and 5 days before her setting in the West there is her old age.

Jupiter has his childhood for 15 days after his rising in the east and in the west both, and he has his old age for 15 days before his setting in the east and in the west both.

Notes: As long as the difference between the Sun and Jupiter remains below 11° (eleven degrees), so long because of his hiding in the rays of the Sun he (Jupiter) is called Combust. And as long as the difference between the Sun and Venus remains below 9° (nine degrees) so long because of the aforesaid reason about Jupiter she (Venus) is also called combust. Before their being combust there is the old age of Jupiter and Venus because in these days they are devoid of their brilliance. And after their rising there is increase in their brilliance gradually. Therefore because of their being devoid of brilliance for some days after rising there is their childhood.

अथ त्वात्ययिकेऽप्यन्यैरर्द्धाहं च त्र्यहं विधोः ॥२८॥

28. DIFFERENCE OF OPINION WITH REGARD TO THE CHILDHOOD AND THE OLD AGE (OF JUPITER AND VENUS): Some Acharyas say that there are 10 days for each of the childhood and of the old age respectively after and before the rising and setting of Jupiter and Venus. And some have said that this time is only of 7 days. And some Acharyas have said that for the Muhurta of some extremely important work the time of these stages is only 3 days.

The Moon remains a child for half day after rising and she remains old for 3 days before setting.

Notes: The aforesaid differences seem to have come into being because of keeping the necessity of the Muhurta in mind. It should be accepted that different Customs prevail in the different regions of the country with regard to the childhood and old age of Jupiter and Venus. Gargacharya has referred to this fact in the shloka given below:

शुक्रो गुरुः प्राक् परतश्च बालो विन्ध्ये
दशावन्तिषु सप्तरात्रम् ।

बंगेषु हूणेषु च षट् च पञ्च शेषे तु देशे
त्रिदिनं वदन्ति ॥

that is, before and after or on both the sides the childhood and old age of Jupiter and Venus should be regarded as 10 days in the places near the Vindhya-chala Mountains, 7 days in Ujjain, 6 days in Bengal, 5 days in Huna region and 3 days in the other provinces.

29. THE MUHURTA FOR MUNDANA OR CHUDAKARANA (The first cutting of hair of a child): The doing of the Mundana or Chudakarana Samskara is auspicious in the 3 etc. odd years from the time of conception or that of birth, on the other Tithis excepting 8/12/4/9/14/1/6 and the day of Parva, in the Uttarayana of the Sun excepting in the month of Chaitra (that is, in Magha, Phalgun, Baisakha, Jyestha and Ashadha), on the days of Wednesday, Monday, Thursday and Friday, in an auspicious Lagna or Ascendant and Navamsha but excepting the Lagna or Ascendant of the 8th sign from the Janama Rashi and the Janama Lagna (the birth sign and the Natal Ascendant) in any Lagna or Ascendant, when the 8th House from the Natal Ascendant is without any Planet, in the Nakshtras named as Mridu, Chara and Laghu alongwith the Nakshtras of Jyeshtha and without that of Anuradha (that is, in the Nakshtras of Mrigashira, Rewati, Chitra, Swati, Punarvasu, Shrivana, Dhanishtha, Shatabhisha, Hasta, Ashwini, Pushya and Jyeshtha in these 12 Nakshtras) and when the Malefic Planets are in the 3/6/11 Houses.

Notes: The situation of Venus in the 8th House from the Natal Ascendant is auspicious for the Mundana Samskara

अष्टमस्था ग्रहाः सर्वे नेष्टाः शुक्रविवर्जिताः ।

According to this Shloka of Parashara the other Planets than Venus are inauspicious in the 8th House from the natal Ascendant.

THE EFFECTS OF THE PLANETS POSITED IN THE ANGLES IN THE LAGNA OR ASCENDANT AT THE TIME OF MUNDANA: If at the time of Chudakarna there is the emaciated Moon in an Angle from the Lagna or Ascendant, there occurs the death of the child, if Mars is there then the child is attacked with a weapon, if Saturn is there then it becomes lame, and if the Sun is there then it suffers from fever; the Mundana is auspicious if Mercury, Jupiter and Venus are in the Angles and Tara is auspicious (that is, it is the 2/4/6/8/9th Tara).

पञ्चवर्षाधिकस्येष्टं गर्भिण्यामपि मातरि ॥३१॥

THE DETERMINATION OF MUNDANA ON THE MOTHER'S BEING PREGNANT: If the conception of the mother of the child whose Mundana Samskara is to be done is of more than 5 months duration or time, it is not proper to do Mundana and such Mundana should be prohibited; and if the child is of more than 5 years of age then Mundana is auspicious even in the event of the mother's being pregnant.

EXCEPTION OF MALEFIC TARA IN DOING MUNDANA: If at the time of Mundana the Moon is in a Trine, in her own exaltation sign or in the Varga of her friendly planets or in her own divisional chart, then inspite of the Tara's being malefic (the 1/3/5/7th Tara) the Mundana is auspicious. If the Moon in transit being auspicious is in the sign of a Benefic Planet, then even the Malefic Tara becomes auspicious in such things as Mundana, travelling etc.

THE TIME WHICH IS TO BE REJECTED IN THE MUNDANA OF THE ELDER SON: If the child's mother is having menses or is Prasutika (one who is recently delivered of a child) then the Samskaras like 'Mundana' etc should not be performed; and the 'Mundana' of the eldest son should not be done in the month of Jyestha (roughly falling in May/June) According to some Acharya (Acharya Bharadwaja) the Mundana etc should not be done in the month of Margashirsha (roughly falling in November/December) also.

THE MUHURTA FOR KSHORA-KARMA (making the barber cut the beard moustache and the hair of the head). It is auspicious to clean the teeth, to get 'Kshora Karma' done and to get the nails cut on the tithis, days and the Nakshtras which have been stated as proper and auspicious for the Muhurta of Mundana. But 'Kshora-Karma' etc. should be left and should not be done on the days of Saturday, Tuesday and Sunday, on the 9th day from the previous Kshora, in the evening time, on the Tithis named as Rikta (4/9/14) on the Tithis of Parva and in the night. One who wants his well being and his benefit should not clean his teeth, should not do Kshora Karma and should not cut his nails without 'aasana' (or mat) for sitting, during war on the battlefield, in some (other) village, on the day of travelling, after having bath, after oiling and after having taken meal.

Notes: The doing of 'Kshora Karma' on the auspicious days has been said to be longevity increasing and the doing of it on inauspicious days is harmful for longevity.

On the 9th day from the previous 'Kshora Karma' another 'Kshora Karma' should not be done. Thus if Kshora Karma was done on Wednesday, another such Karma should not be done on the 9th day from Wednesday, that is on Thursday. While doing Kshora Karma there should be the use of rug or mat etc.

If there is necessity of it, Brahmins may do Kshora Karma on Sunday, Kshatriyas on Tuesday and Vaishyas and shudras on Saturday.

The consideration of time has not been said with regard to the Raaj-Karmacharis (Persons in the king's or government service).

SPECIAL TIME FOR KSHORA KARMA: With the permission of a Brahmin or of the king to take part in a yajna, at the time of the death of father and mother and on the occasion of relief of a prisoner from the prison, Kshora-Karma may be done on those days which have been rejected for such Karma. The man whose wife is pregnant should not do the carrying of a dead body to the cremation-place, the travelling to a place of pilgrimage or to a foreign country, bathing in the sea and Kshora Karma.

Of the afore-said Nakshatras used for shaving purposes, the king should shave only after five days of his previous shave. If on the fifth day those Nakshtras are not found available then one should shave in the muhurta of shaving Nakshtra, as it is considered auspicious.

If a person repeatedly does Kshora-Karma within a year, 6 times in the Nakshtras of Kritika, 3 times in that of Anuradha, 8 times in that of Rohini, 4 times in that of Magha and 4 times in that of Uttaraphalguni, he is subjected to death, that is, Kshora Karma should not be done in these Nakshtras.

Notes: Muhurtas of Nakshtras are said in Chapter No. 6 and sloka No. 52-53.

THE MUHURTA FOR THE BEGINNING OF LEARNING LETTERS BY CHILDREN: In the 5th year from the birth after making the child worship Lord Ganesha, Lord Vishnu, goddess Saraswati, and goddess Laxmi, it (the child) should be taught the writing of the letters or it should be given the knowledge of the letters of the alphabet on the Tithis of 11, 12, 10, 2, 6, 5, and 3, in the Nakshtras named as Laghu or small (Hasta, Ashwini and Pushya), in those of Shravana Swati, Rewati, Punarvasu, Ardra, Chitra and Anuradha, in the auspicious or benefic Lagnas or Ascendants (2/3/6/9/12) except the Lagnas or Ascendants of the Chara Rashis (movable signs) and on auspicious days.

Notes: According to Markandeya, the Shashthi (6th) Tithi should be rejected for the beginning of learning the letters Samskara. In the Lagna or Ascendant which prevails at the time of the beginning of the learning of letters there should be no planet in the 8th House from the Ascendant.

THE MUHURTA FOR THE BEGINNING OF GETTING EDUCATION: In the context of the beginning of getting education by children the auspicious Nakshtras are Mrigashira, Ardra, Punarvasu, Hasta, Chitra, Swati, Shravana, Dhanishtha, Shatabhisha, Ashwini, Moola, Poorvaphalguni, Poorvashadha, Poorvabhadrapada, Pushya and Ashlesha, the auspicious days are Sunday, Thursday, Wednesday and Friday and the auspicious Tithis are 6/5/3/11/12/10/2; and the Lord of the Ascendant running at the time of the beginning of Getting Education should be a benefic planet and there should be benefic planets in the Angles and Trines from the Ascendant.

Notes: Some Acharyas have said that for beginning to learn archery the Nakshtras named as Dhruwa, those of Rewati and Anuradha are the auspicious ones.

THE TIME OF UPANAYANA SAMSKARA (the ceremony of investiture with the sacred thread or Janeu): The Upanayana Samskara of the Brahmins has been decided to be done in the 8th or the 5th year from the time of conception or of birth, that of the Kshatriyas in the 6th or the 11th year and that of the Vaishyas in the 8th or the 12th year; (This is an ideal time for the Samskara of Upanayana). If this Samskara is done when twice of the prescribed time has passed, then this Samskara has been regarded as of medium level.

Notes: The word Upanayana is a compound word made up of 'upa' which means near and 'Nayana' which means taking. Thus it means taking near the Guru or the Acharya for getting education or studying the Vedas.

The idea of Upanayana is of great significance. It refers to the fact that one birth of the child took place at the home of its father and mother and another birth will take place at the home of the Guru. After the 'Upanayana' the child will be referred to as 'Dwija' or the twice-born, that is a person who is born twice. 'Upanayana' is called Vrata-bandhana also.

The main rite in the Upanayana Samskara is the investiture with the Janeu or the sacred thread. Therefore it is called Yagyopaveeta or Vratibandha Samaskara also. The Samskaras of Upanayana and of Vedarambha are very near to each other so near that these can be hardly differentiated. The Vedarambha Samaskara (getting the education of the Vedas) begins just with the Upanayana Samaskara even today both these Samskaras are performed at the same time in the Gurukulas (Gurukula means the home of the teacher. In the ancient times, the Shishya or the pupil went to the home of the Guru or teacher to get education. He resided there as long as his education was completed) The word Upanayana itself means that the child is now worthy of and dedicated to get the knowledge of the Vedas.

THE MUHURTA FOR THE UPANAYANA SAMSKARA: It is auspicious to perform the Samskara of Upanayana in the Nakshtras named as Kshipra (Hasta, Ashwini and Pushya), those named as Dhruwa (the 3 uttaras and Rohini), that of Ashlesha, those called Chara or movable (Swati, Punarvasu, Shravana, Dhanishtha and Shatabhisha), that of Moola, those named as Mridu or Delicate (Mrigashira, Rewati, Chitra and Anuradha), those of Poorvaphalguni, Poorvashadha, Poorvabhadrapada and Ardra, on the 5 days of Sunday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Monday, on the Tithis of 2/3/5/11/12/10 and in the Shukla Paksha or the bright half of the month. The first 3rd part (that is upto the 5th Tithi of the Krishna Paksha) of the Krishna Paksha is also acceptable. The Upanayana samskara is not to be done in the 3rd part of the day or in the afternoon which is called 'Apranha' in Hindi.

Notes: The first third part of the Dinamaana is called 'Poorvanha'; the 2nd part, 'Madhyanha'; and the 3rd part, 'Apranha'. It is the rites done to the gods which are properly done in the 'Poorvanha' of the day; those done to men in the 'Madhyanha'; and those done to the manes (Shraddha etc.) in the 'Apranha'. The main period of performing Upanayana is the 'Poorvanha' of the day. The Madhyanha and the Apranha should be altogether rejected for this purpose. If there is the lack of an auspicious Ascendant in the Poorvanha, then Upanayana may be performed in the Madhyanha as well. Upanayana is extremely auspicious and proper in the month of Chaitra and at the time when the Sun is gone in the sign of Pisces.

According to Brahmarishi Vashishtha, Kashyapa and Narada the 16 Nakshtras of Hasta, Chitra, Swati, Shravana, Dhanishtha, Shatabhisha, Rohini, Mrigashira, all the three Uttaras, Anuradha, Rewati, Ashwini, Punarvasu and Pushya are auspicious for Upanayana. These are stated to be auspicious by the Rishis (sages) that is, are 'Arsha'. The Upanayana has been said to be inauspicious for the Brahmins if it is done in the Nakshtra of Punarvasu also.

41. THE AUSPICIOUS LAGNA OR ASCENDANT FOR THE UPANAYANA MUHURTA: The Lagna or the Ascendant chosen for the doing of Upanayana should be such in which Venus, Jupiter, the Moon and the Ascendant Lord are not in the 6th and the 8th House. And the Malefic Planets are inauspicious in the 1/8/5 Houses.

THE FAVOURABLE LAGNA OR ASCENDANT IN THE UPANAYANA SAMSKARA: In the Lagna or the Ascendant favourable for the Samskara of Upanayana there should not be the Benefic Planets in the 6/8/12 Houses. If the Malefic Planets are situated in the 3/6/11 Houses, they are auspicious. The Full Moon will be excellent if she is in her highest exaltation in the Ascendant or in her own sign otherwise she is not the indicator of auspiciousness if she is in another sign in the Ascendant.

THE LORDS OF THE VARNAS LIKE BRAHMINS ETC AND OF THE VEDAS: Jupiter and Venus are the Lords of the Brahmins, the Sun and Mars of the Kshatriyas; the Moon is the Lord of the Vaishyas; Mercury of the Shudras; and Saturn of the Antyajas (untouchables). Jupiter, Venus, Mars and Mercury are the Lords respectively of the Rigaveda, Yajurveda, Saamaveda and Atharvaveda.

THE REASONS FOR INDICATING THE LORDS OF THE VARNAS AND THE VEDAS: The day and the Lagna or the Ac-endant of that planet who is the Lord of the Varna and the Veda of the child, and the strength of the planet described in the chapter of 'Gochara Prakaranam' is extremely auspicious in the Upanayana samskara. The strong position of the planets who are the Lords of the Vedas, of the Sun, the Moon and Jupiter is the best for the Samskara of Upanayana or 'Yagyopaveeta'. If at the time of the Upanayana samaskara Jupiter and Venus (Lords of both the Varnas and the Vedas) are in their enemy's sign, in their deep debilitation sign and are defeated in the planetary war, then the concerned child is devoid of the Vedas and the shastras.

Notes: If the 'upaneet' child (the child whose Upanayana samaskara is to be done) is of the Rigaveda branch, the day of Thursday, 9/12 Lagnas or Ascendants and the strength of Jupiter, if he is of the yajurveda branch, then the day of Friday, 2/7 Lagnas or Ascendants and the strength of Venus; if he is of the Saama Veda branch, then the day of Tuesday, 1/8 Lagnas or Ascendants and if he is of the Atharvaveda branch, then the day of Wednesday, 3/6 Lagnas or Ascendant and the strength of Mercury -these are praise worthy or auspicious days, Lagnas or Ascendants etc.

EXCEPTION OF THE MONTH OF THE BIRTH ETC. IN THE UPANAYANA SAMSKARA: If the 'Upanayana Samskara' of the eldest child who is born in the Brahmin Varna is done in the Nakshtra, the month, the Lagna or the Ascendant and on the Tithi of his birth, then the child is endowed with much education and learning. If the child is of the Varna of Kshtriya or of Vaishya and he is born after the first conception, that is, he is born of the 2nd conception and if his 'Upanayana Samskara' is performed in the above-stated conditions, then he also is endowed with much education and learning.

THE AUSPICIOUSNESS OR THE INAUSPICIOUSNESS OF

JUPITER: If Jupiter is in the 5/9/11/2/7 places or Houses from the Janama Rashi (sign of birth) of the boy or the girl, then he is excellent; his (Jupiter's) being in the 10/6/3/1 places or Houses he (Jupiter) should be pacified or worshipped; it is only then that he is acceptable or favourable and if he is in 4/8/12 places or Houses, then he is not acceptable or favourable in the Samaskaras of marriage, 'Upanayana' etc.

THE EXCEPTION OF THE INAUSPICIOUS JUPITER: If Jupiter is in his sign of exaltation, own sign or friend's sign, no matter he is in any sign, but he must be in his own Navamsha or in his own Vargottama Navamsha or exalted Navamsha (thus the Jupiter in the sign of Gemini should be of the sign of Gemini in the Navamsha also), then he is excellent (or auspicious) in the 4/8/12 Places or Houses from the sign of birth (the Janama Rashi) also.

If Jupiter is in his debilitation sign or in his enemy's sign (10/3/6/2/7) then he is inauspicious even in an auspicious House.

THE TIME WHICH SHOULD BE REJECTED IN THE UPANAYANA SAMSKARA: The Samskara of Upanayana is not to be performed in the Krishna Paksha or the dark half of the month on the Tithis from Shashthi (the 6th) to Amavasya, on the day of Pradosha (described in the 55th Shloka of this very chapter, on the days of Anadhyaya (on the Tithis which are rejected described in the 54th Shloka of this very chapter), on Saturday, in the 'Apranha Kaala' (in the afternoon) on the day on which there is thunder and lightning in the clouds in the morning and on the Galagrantha Tithis (the 13/14/15/30/1/4/7/8/9 Tithis).

THE EFFECTS OF THE NAVAMSHA OF THE PLANETS THE SUN ETC IN THE LAGNA OR ASCENDANT OF UPANAYANA: If there is the Navamsha of the Sun in the Lagna or Ascendant in which the 'Upanayana' is being performed, then that child will be cruel-minded, if of the Moon he will be stupid, if of Mars he will be a sinner, if of Mercury he will be clever, if of Jupiter he will be the doer of all the 6 deeds which are worth doing (the doing of yagya or Yajna, making some one do Yagya, taking of alms, giving of alms, studying and teaching these are called 'Shatakarma'), if of Venus he will be the doer of yagya or yajna and wealthy, and if of Saturn he will be stupid.

THE SPECIALITY ABOUT THE NAVAMSHA OF THE MOON: At the time of Upanayana Samskara the Moon may be in any sign, but if she is in the Navamsha of an auspicious sign, then that child remains engaged in getting education, if she is in the Navamsha of a Malefic sign, then he will be penurious, if she remains in her own Navamsha, he will remain very unhappy. But if the Moon is there in the Nakshtras of Shravana and Punarvasu and then she remains in her own Navamsha, then he will become wealthy.

THE EFFECTS OF THE PLANETS THE SUN ETC. WHEN THEY ARE POSITED IN THE ANGLES: If in the Ascendant which is there at the time of doing the 'Upanayana Samskara' the Sun is situated in an angle, the child whose Upanayana is done joins royal or government service; if the Moon is in an angle he becomes a trader or a merchant; if Mars, a trader of arms & weapons (or gets job in the army); if Mercury, a teacher; if Jupiter, an excellent scholar or a learned man; if Venus, wealthy; and if Saturn is placed in an Angle he becomes a servant to the Mlechhas or the low born dirty men.

THE EFFECTS OF JUPITER, VENUS AND THE MOON WHEN THEY ARE IN CONJUNCTION WITH OTHER PLANETS: If Jupiter, Venus and the Moon, all these or even one of them is in conjunction with the Sun (at the time of the 'Upanayana Samskara' of a child) the child whose Upanayana is done will be bereft of good qualities; if with Mars, he will be violent; if with Saturn, cruel; and if with a benefic planet (Mercury), he will be an intelligent scholar or a learned man.

THE AUSPICIOUS AND INAUSPICIOUS EFFECTS OF THE NAVAMSHA OF THE MOON: If the Moon is in the Navamsha of Venus and Venus is in a Trine from the Lagna or Ascendant, and Jupiter is posited in the Lagna or Ascendant then the child whose 'Upanayana Samskara' is done (in such combination) will have the knowledge of all the Vedas; and if the Moon be in the Navamsha of Saturn, Jupiter be in the Lagna or Ascendant and Venus should remain in a Trine, then the child will be extremely cruel and uncivilized.

ANADHYAYA (that is, the Tithis which should be rejected): The 10th Tithi of the Shukla Paksha or bright half of the month of Ashadha, the 2nd Tithi of the Shukla Paksha of Jyeshtha, the 11th Tithi of the Shukla Paksha of Pausha, the 12th Tithi of the Shukla Paksha of Magha and the 1/8/14/15/30 Tithis of the Shukla and Krishna both Pakshas of every month and the day of Sankranti, these (Tithis and days) are named as 'Anadhyaya' in the doing of the 'Upanayana Samskara' that is, the 'Upanayana Samskara' should not be done on these.

THE CHARACTERISTICS OF 'PRADOSHA': If there occurs the beginning of the 13th Tithi in the 12th Tithi before midnight, of the 7th Tithi in the 6th Tithi before 1½ Prahara in the night, and of the 4th Tithi in the 3rd Tithi before 1 Prahara in the night, then these 3 Tithis are referred to as the Pradosha Tithis. In this way the 12th, the 6th and the 3rd Tithis are named as Pradosha Tithis.

Notes: The meaning of 'the Pradosha Night' is 'the mouth of the Night'. In this way Pradosha occurs on every day as after the setting of the Sun the beginning of the Night, due to its being the mouth of the night, will be named as Pradosha. This Pradosha is 'Naityika', that is, it occurs daily and is the daily occurring Pradosha. the Pradosha which has been referred to in the present Shloka is named as Naimittika Pradosha. The studying and teaching of the Vedas and of the Vedangas (parts of the Vedas) have been prohibited in these Pradoshas.

After the 'Upanayana Samskara', another samskara which is called 'Brahmodana', is performed on the same day in the evening. In the Brahmodana Samskara a special 'paaka' or dish is prepared with sacred food grains. this 'Paaka' or dish is named as Brahmodana 'Paaka'. This Smaskara is performed among the Brahmins. The child is caused to eat 'the sacred Paaka'. If after the 'Upanyana Samskara' and before the 'Brahmodana Paaka' there occurs any kind of natural disturbance (the thunder of the clouds, storm or tempest), then the Brahmodana Samskara should be performed after doing the pacification rite.

THE FIXED NAKSHTRA IN THE UPANAYANA

SAMSKARA ACCORDING TO EACH VEDA: The Upanayana Samskara of the Rigavedis is auspicious in the Nakshtras of Mrigashira, Ardra, Ashlesha, Hasta, Chitra, Swati, Moola and all the 3 Poorvas; that of the Yajurvedis in those of Rewati, Hasta, Anuradha, Mrigashira, Punarvasu, Pushya, Rohini and all the 3 Uttaras; that of the Saamavedis in those of Ashwini, Dhanishtha, Pushya, Hasta, all the 3 Uttaras, Ardra, and Shravana; and that of the Atharvavedis in those of Mrigashira, Rewati, those named as Laghu or small (Hasta, Ashwini and Pushya), Anuradha, Dhanishtha and Punarvasu.

THE PACIFICATION RITE FOR THE AUSPICIOUS DEEDS IF THE CHILD'S MOTHER IS HAVING MENSES: If after the completion of the 'Nandi Shraddha' (At the beginning of every auspicious deed there is done a principal part of that karma or deed, Nandi, that is the Shraddha indicating well being), as ill luck would have it, the child's mother has menses, and there is no proper Lagna or Ascendant after this present one, then the Samskaras of Mundana, Upanayana and marriage etc should be performed on the same day according to the customs after doing the pacification rite, otherwise it is not auspicious (that is, the Samskaras of Mundana etc, are not auspicious without doing the pacification rite.)

THE CHHURIKA BANDHANA MUHURTA FOR THE KSHATRIYAS: After the Upanayana Samskara and before the marriage Samskara the 'Chhurika Bandhana Samskara' (the tying of a dagger on the back) is auspicious in the months which are auspicious for 'the Upanayana Samskara' on the other days etc except in the month of Chaitra, in the combust condition of Mars and on the day of Tuesday.

THE MUHURTA FOR THE KESHANTA KARMA AND SAMAVARTANA SAMSKARA: (Getting the hair cut and the completion of Brahmacharya): In the Muhurta which has been told as auspicious for Mundana (Stated in the 29th Shloka of this very chapter) Samskara, the doing of 'the Keshanta Karma' is auspicious. This Samskara is performed in the 16th year. And the Muhurta which has been told as auspicious for the Upanayana Samskara is also auspicious for the 'Samavartana Karma' or the completion of Brahmacharya.

Notes: The 'Keshanta Samskara' of a Brahmin should be done in the 16th year, of a Kshtriya in the 22nd year and of a Vaishya in the 24th year.

After completing the study of the Vedas and the Vedangas at the house of the Guru or teacher there used to be for the Brahmacharis 'Samavartana Samskara' before entering into or taking the Grihastha Ashrama. In the modern times the getting of degree after graduation is also a kind of Samavartana Samskara or convocation.

Our Rishis divided the whole life of man, taking it as consisting of 100 years, into 4 Ashramas-the Brahmacharyashrama, the Grihasthashrama, the Vanaprasthashrama and the Sanyasashrama-each of which spread over 25 years of man's life. There are Samskaras at the different stages of life in each of these Ashramas. The Brahmacharyashrama is the first of these Ashramas. In this Ashrama one completed his education. He resided in Gurukula or the Home of the Guru (teacher).

MARRIAGE SANSKARAS

THE IMPORTANCE OF ASCENDANT IN MARRIAGE: A wife having good conduct and charming manners is the giver of Dharma, Artha and Kama (religion, wealth and gratification of senses). The nature, conduct and good qualities of a woman become excellent if her marriage is performed in an auspicious Ascendant. It is because of this that a good Ascendant is considered (or chosen) for marriage as son, good conduct and wealth are bestowed by a good Ascendant of marriage.

THE RULE FOR ASKING AN ASTROLOGER ABOUT AN ASCENDANT FOR MARRIAGE AND A COMBINATION OF MARRIAGE THROUGH HORARY CHART: First of all the reverend astrologer should be worshipped by presenting him gems and clothes (as gifts) and when he is pleased and is in a good mood he should be asked about a favourable Ascendant for the marriage of the concerned girl.

If the Moon is in the 10/11/3/7/5 Houses in the Horary Chart (Ascendant at the time of asking) and Jupiter aspects her fully, then the marriage will be performed soon or if the Ascendant is Taurus, Libra or Cancer and if it (the Ascendant) is occupied or aspected by a benefic Planet, then also marriage will occur soon: This is the effect that is to be predicted.

रचयतो वरलाममिमौ यदा युगलभांशगतौ युवतिप्रदौ ॥३॥

THE CONSIDERATION OF OBTAINING A MATCH (BOY OR GIRL) FROM THE HORARY CHART: There is the obtainment of husband for a girl, that is, it should be predicted that the girl will get married if at the time of asking about her marriage the Moon and Venus both being endowed with strength are posited in an odd sign and are also in the Navamsha of an odd sign and both have their aspect on the Lagna or the Ascendant. And if the Moon and Venus being endowed with strength are posited in an even sign and are also in the Navamsha of an odd sign and have their aspect on the Lagna or the Ascendant, then the marriage of the boy will be decided very soon in the future.

THE KNOWLEDGE OR PREDICTION OF THE YOGA OR THE COMBINATION OF WIDOWHOOD FROM THE HORARY CHART: If there is the Moon in the 6/8 Houses in the Horary Chart or if there are Malefic Planets in the Lagna or the Ascendant and there is Mars in the 7th House or there is the Moon in the Lagna or the Ascendant and there is Mars in the 7th House from her, then the girl (about whose marriage the astrologer has been asked) will get widowed in the 8 years from the date of her marriage.

नीचगतश्च तदा खुल कन्या सा कुलटा त्वथवा मृतवत्सा ॥५॥

THE YOGA OR COMBINATION OF BEING LICENTIOUS AND MRITAVATSA (THE WOMAN WHO GIVES BIRTH TO CHILDREN BUT THE CHILDREN DIE SOON AFTER BIRTH) If there is some Malefic Planet in the 5th House in the Horary Chart and if he being aspected by his enemy planet is situated in a Malefic Sign, then there is the certainty of the girl's becoming promiscuous or Mritavatsa (that is, either she will be a woman of loose character or her children will not survive).

THE YOGA OR COMBINATION OF THE CANCELLATION OF MARRIAGE AS PER THE HORARY CHART: If the question about a girl's marriage is asked in the Krishna Paksha or in the Dark Half of the Month and if at that time the Moon being in an even sign is situated in the 6th or the 8th House and is aspected by a Malefic Planet, then, as per such Horary Chart, there is the Cancellation of marriage, that is, the marriage does not take place even though all the conditions and the date of the marriage have been decided.

THE PACIFICATION RITE FOR REMOVING THE DEFECT OF THE YOGA OR COMBINATION OF WIDOWHOOD. Having made it certain from the Natal Ascendant or the Horary Chart of the girl that there is the presence of the 'Baala Vidhwa Yoga' (the girl's becoming widow soon after her marriage), the girl should be asked to keep Pippala Vrata and Savitri Vrata (these fasts are explained in the notes) and then she should be married to a match having a long span of longevity in his Natal Ascendant: or, first she should be married according to the religious rites of her religion to the image of Lord Vishnu, to a tree of Pippala and to a Pitcher in an auspicious Muhurta (LAGNA OR ASCENDANT) in a lonely place, and then she is to be married to a match having the Yoga or combination of long span of longevity in his Natal Ascendant. In such a condition the girl does not have the defect of re-marriage and if the above stated rites are performed her Yoga or combination of widowhood is cancelled.

Notes: The Savitri Vrata (The fast named as Savitri) is kept on the Amavasya (the 30th Tithi of the Month) of the Month of Jyeshtha. This fast, if it is fully observed, is kept on three days, on the 13th, the 14th and the 30th Tithis of the Krishna Paksha of the Month of Jyeshtha. If the girl is unable to keep fast on three days continuously, then in such a condition fast may be kept only on the Amavasya or the 30th Tithi of Jyeshtha. Women keep this fast for removing the defect of the Yoga or combination of Widowhood in their Natal Ascendants.

The Pippala Vrata (The fast named as Pippala): This Vrata or fast is kept for one month beginning on the 3rd Tithi of the Krishna Paksha or the Dark Half of the Month of either of the Month of Chaitra or of Ashwina. This fast is kept for the cancellation of the Yoga or Combination of Widowhood in their Natal Ascendants.

THE CONSIDERATION OF THE ISSUES OF THE GIRL AS PER THE HORARY CHART: The pandits or the astrologers should predict that the girl (about whom they have been asked) will have the kind of issue (girl or boy) with whom some other (married) woman happens to come there of her own accord and without being invited or asked on the occasion of the Horary Chart

Notes: If at the time when the Horary Chart of a girl is being prepared some married woman happens to come to the Astrologer with her issue (son or daughter) of her own accord without being asked to come there, then according to the Science of Prediction the first issue of the concerned girl will be of the kind which is there in the lap of the woman coming there, that is, the girl will have a daughter if the woman has girl in her lap and she will have a son if she has boy, this should be the prediction for her.

9. THE AUSPICIOUS AND INAUSPICIOUS OMENS AT THE TIME WHEN HORARY CHART IS PREPARED: If at the time when the Horary Chart is prepared there is heard the sound of Conch, Mridanga, Veena etc then it is an auspicious omen and everything will go well, but if there is heard the cry of a crow, an ass, a dog or a jackal, then it is an inauspicious omen and some evil will happen.

THE MUHURTA FOR CHOOSING BRIDE: In the Nakshtras of Uttarashadha, Swati, Shravana, Poorvaphalguni, Poorvashadha, Poorvabhadrapada, Anuradha, Dhanishtha, Kritika or in the Nakshtras of marriage (described in the 55th Shloka of this very Chapter) first the girl (who is to be chosen as bride) should be pleased with the gifts of clothes, jewels, fruits and flowers and then having done this she should be chosen as bride.

Notes: Having been satisfied with the other matters relating to the marriage of the boy and the girl, the relatives of the boy give word to the relatives of the girl that the girl is suitable to them and she has all the desirable qualities in her and there is no need to search other match for her now and with this the relatives of the boy choose the girl as the bride after putting clothes, jewels, fruits and flowers in her lap.

It is said at another place that the girl is to be chosen as bride with hands full of sugar cane, rice, flower, supari, betel and turmeric and with untired peaceful heart. The bride is to be chosen on all the rest auspicious days except Tuesday, on all the tithis except those Tithis which are named as Rikta, in an auspicious Ascendant. At the time of choosing all the five parts of the Panchanga should be auspicious and the Moon should also be strong and favourable.

THE MUHURTA FOR THE CHOOSING OF THE BRIDE-GROOM OR FOR ENGAGEMENT: The Brahmin or the real brother of the bride should choose the bridegroom or should do the engagement on an auspicious day along with the sound of a song and musical instrument and with clothes, Yagyopaveeta or Janeu (sacred thread worn by the pious or religious Hindus) etc in the Nakshtras named as Dhruwa (the 3 Uttaras and Rohini) in those of Kritika, Poorvaphalguni, Poorva Shadha and Poorvabhadrapada.

THE TIME FOR MARRIAGE AND 'GRAHA SHUDDHI' (SUITABILITY OF THE PLANETS). The arranging of marriage is auspicious at the time when Jupiter is 'Shuddha' or suitable six years after the birth of the daughter in even years 8/10 and so on; when the Sun is 'Shuddha' or suitable in the case of the boy in odd years, 9/11 and so on and when the Moon is 'Shuddha' or suitable in the case of both the boy and the girl.

Notes: The position of Jupiter in a benefic House from the 'Janama Rashi' (the sign in which the Moon is there at the time of birth) of the girl is referred to as 'Guru Shuddhi' (or the favourable position of Jupiter); and the position of the Sun in a benefic house from the 'Janama Rashi' of the boy is referred to as 'Ravi Shuddhi' (or the favourable position of the Sun) and the position of the Moon in a benefic house from the 'Janama Rashis' of both the boy and the girl is referred to as 'Chandra Shuddhi'.

PROPER TIME FOR MARRIAGE: Celebrating marriage is auspicious when the Sun is in the signs of Gemini, Aquarius, Capricorn, Scorpio, Taurus and Aries. If the Sun is in the sign of Gemini, then in the month of Ashadha it is only from the Pratipada (the first Tithi of the month) to the 10th Tithi in the Shukla Paksha or the Bright Half of the month that the celebrating of marriage is auspicious. If the Sun is in the sign of Scorpio marriage may be celebrated in Kartika also, if he is in the sign of Capricorn, in Pausha also and if he is in the sign of Aries, in Chaitra also.

Notes: It is the 'Saur Maasa' or Solar month alone which is regarded as proper in the auspicious deeds like doing marriage etc. Marriage is not to be celebrated in the months of 'Kartika', 'Pausha' and 'Chaitra'. But if the Sun enters the sign of Scorpio in the 'Kartika' 'Chandra Maasa' (Lunar Month), then it ('Kartika'), becomes 'Margashirsha' according to the 'Saur Maasa' or Solar Month. Similarly, if the Sun enters the sign of Capricorn in the month of 'Pausa', then it ('Pausa') becomes 'Magha' and if he enters the sign of Aries in the month of Chaitra, then it (Chaitra) becomes Baisakha. Therefore, the celebration of marriage becomes auspicious in these conditions even in the months of Kartika, Pausha and Chaitra.

नोचितोऽथ विब्रधैः प्रशस्यते चेदिद्वतीयजनुषोः सुतप्रदः ॥१४॥

THE CONSIDERATION OF THE TIME OF MARRIAGE: If the bridegroom and the bride are the first born of their respective parents, then it is not proper to celebrate their marriage in their Janama Maasa, Janama Nakshtra and Janama Tithi (Month, Nakshtra and Tithi respectively of birth). If both are born of the second conception then the celebration of their marriage in the 'Janama Maasa' etc becomes the giver of son (to the newly married couple), such is the saying of the Pandits or the learned astrologers.

केचित्सूर्य वह्निगं प्रोह्यचाहुर्नैवान्योन्यं ज्येष्ठयोः स्याद्विवाहः । १५॥

CELEBRATING AND NOT CELEBRATING MARRIAGE IN THE MONTH OF 'JYESTHA': The marriage of the eldest daughter and of the eldest son is not to be celebrated in the month of Jyeshtha. If the daughter is the eldest one she may be married in Jyeshtha to a bridegroom who is not the eldest son of his parents or the eldest son may be married in Jyeshtha also to a bride who is not the eldest daughter of her parents.

It is the opinion of some Acharya (Bharadwaja) that the celebration of marriage is auspicious in the month of Jyeshtha also leaving that Jyeshtha month in which the Sun is in the Nakshtra of Kritika and joining in wedlock (celebrating the marriage) of the bride and the bridegroom of the First Conception is also not auspicious.

Notes: Here it is the issue which is born of the first conception who is to be regarded as the eldest progeny. If the first conception is any how destroyed, then the issue born of the second conception is not regarded as the eldest progeny according to the shastras, although practically he/she is regarded as the eldest progeny.

THE RULES REGARDING THE TIME OF MARRIAGE ETC. OF THE PROGENY BORN IN THE SAME FAMILY AND OF THE SON AND THE DAUGHTER BORN OF THE SAME PARENTS: In one's own family the marriage of a daughter should not be celebrated till the expiry of 6 months after the marriage of a son and the Mundana (first hair cutting) of a child is not to be done till the expiry of 6 months after the marriage of a boy or a girl. Two real brothers should not be joined in wedlock with two real sisters. The marriage of two real brothers or sisters should not be celebrated till 6 months and 'Shraddha' of some one in the family is not to be done in an auspicious deed.

Notes: In the family of father, grandfather and great-grandfather, the celebration of the marriage of a daughter till 6 Saur Maasa (Solar Months) after the marriage of a son, has not been regarded as auspicious. Here marriage is only an example; other 'Samskaras' like the 'Upanayana Samskara' should also not be done till 6 months (Solar Months) after the expiry of the doing of any other samskara of the progeny of the same family.

The Samskaras of the issues born of the same mother should not be performed at the same time.

The Samskaras like 'Upanayana' etc. of two children born of different mothers may, be done by doing them in different 'Mandaps' (places where the Samskaras are done. These places are variously beautified) or getting them done by different Acharyas (Acharya here means the Pandit who does the Samskara).

मासोत्तरं तत्र विवाह इष्यते शान्त्याऽथवा सूतकनिर्गमे परैः ॥ १७ ॥

CONSIDERATION OF SOME ONE'S DEATH IN THE FAMILY OF THE BRIDEGROOM OR THE BRIDE: If there occurs the death of some one in the three generations of either of the bridegroom or of the bride after the 'Vaagadaana' (choosing the bridegroom by offering him money, sweets and fruits), then the marriage should be celebrated after one month. And some Acharyas say that marriage may be celebrated within a month also (after the death) after the expiry of the period of 'Ashaucha' (13 days after the death of some one in the family have been regarded as inauspicious for doing any auspicious deed. These are called the days of Ashaucha) after doing pacification rite.

चूडाव्रतं चापि विवाहतो व्रताच्चूडा च नेष्टा पुरुषत्रयान्तरे ।

वधूप्रवेशाच्च सुताविनिर्गमः षण्मासतो वाऽब्दविमेदतः शुभः ॥१८॥

THE PROHIBITION REGARDING THE DOING OF MUNDANA ETC AFTER MARRIAGE: The Samskaras of 'Upanayana' and 'Mundana' are not auspicious till 6 months after the marriage of some one in the family of 3 generations. And Mundana (in the family) is not auspicious till 6 months after 'Upanayana'.

A daughter is not to be sent to her husband's house till 6 months after the coming-in of a son's wife. But if the year (Samvata) is changed then auspicious deeds may be done even within 6 months. Thus if the marriage of a son takes place in the month of Magha, then in the month of Vaisakha (within 6 months) the Samskaras like 'Mundana', 'Upanayana' etc may be done, as the Samvata (year) is changed (According to the Hindu System Samvata or year is changed in the Month of Chaitra which falls roughly in March or April).

THE EFFECTS ARISING BECAUSE OF THE BIRTH OF THE BOY OR THE GIRL IN THE NAKSHTRAS OF ASHLESHA, MOOLA, JYESTHA AND VISHAKHA: The daughter and the son born in the Nakshtra of Ashlesha destroy (cause the death of) their mother-in-law; those born in that of Moola, their father-in-law; and the daughter born in the Nakshtra of Jyestha destroys the elder brother of her husband; and that born in the Nakshtra of Vishakha destroys the younger brother of her husband. The meaning is that they are inauspicious to the relatives stated above.

मूलान्त्यपादसार्पाद्य पादजातौ तयोः शुभौ ॥२०॥

THE REMOVAL OF THE DEFECT ARISING DUE TO THE BIRTH IN THE NAKSHTRA OF ASHLESHA ETC.: The daughter born in the first three Charanas or quarters of Vishakha is the giver of happiness to the younger brother of her husband. The daughter (or the son also) born in the 4th Charana or quarter of Moola Nakshtra is auspicious for her father-in-law and that born in the first quarter of the Ashlesha Nakshtra is so for her mother-in-law.

Notes: Here there is no removal of the Nakshtra of Jyeshtha. It is stated in the 19th Shloka that a daughter born in the Nakshtra of Vishakha brings destruction or death to the younger brother of her husband. But in the present Shloka the writer has spoken of the removal of this defect that if the daughter is born in the first three Charanas or quarters (3/4 part) of the Nakshtra of Vishakha, she is the giver of happiness to the younger brother of her husband.

In the same way the boy or girl born in the 4th quarter of the Nakshtra of Moola are auspicious for their father-in-law. It is only the first 3 quarters of this Nakshtra that have been regarded as the destroyer of the father-in-law. Again, a daughter and a son born in the Nakshtra of Ashlesha have been spoken of as the destroyers of their mother-in-law, but the first Charana or quarter is auspicious.

THE EIGHT KOOTAS IN THE MELAPAKA OF MARRIAGE: 1. Varna, 2. Vashya, 3. Tara, 4. Yoni 5. Grahamaitri, 6. Ganamaitri, 7. Bhakoota, and 8. Nadi, these are the eight kinds of Kootas each of which has one more guna or point than the former one; that is, the guna or point of Varna is 1; that of Vashya, 2; that of Tara, 3; that of Yoni, 4; that of Grahamaitri, 5; that of Ganamaitri, 6; that of Bhakoota, 7 and that of Nadi, 8.

Notes: According to the rule of the Arithmetic of 'Saika Padaghana Padardhama', the number of all the gunas or points is $(8 + 1)8/2 = 36$

Guna or Point here refers to the measure which may be expressed in points and which covers all the aspects of the married life of the bridegroom and the bride. The points are called Gunas. If the number of the gunas or points of 'Melapaka', (Melapaka is a technical term. It means the total Gunas or points obtained by both the would be bridegroom and bride on the basis of 8 Kootas) of the bridegroom and the bride is 18 or more than 18, then the Nakshtra Melapaka of both is suitable for marriage. The greater the number of gunas than 18, the better is the Melapaka of the marriage of both. It is said in 'Jyotirnibandha' that if the number of gunas of Kootas is 16, it is not suitable; if it is from 17 to 20, it is medium; if it is from 21 to 31, it is excellent; and if it is from 31 to 36, it is most excellent. But if there is the 'Dusta Bhakoota' or the Bhakoota is evil, then it is inauspicious upto 20; it is medium from 21 to 25; it is excellent from 26 to 30; and it is most excellent from 30 to 36.

The Astrologers do the comparison of the Janamangas (horoscopes) of the bride and the bridegroom before their marriage in many different ways. The system stated above is referred to as Nakshtra Melapaka System. In this system there are the above stated 8 parts. These parts are referred to as Kootas. The 'Janama Nakshtra' or the Nakshtra at the time of birth alone is the main basis of this system.

THE CONSIDERATION REGARDING THE KOOTA NAMED 'VARNA': The signs of Pisces, Scorpio and Cancer are Brahmins; Aries, Leo and Sagittarius are Kshatriyas; Taurus, Virgo and Capricorn are Vaishyas; and Gemini, Aquarius and Libra are Shudras (These Brahmin, Kshatriya, Vaishya and Shudra are the 4 Varnas or Castes). The girl belonging to higher Varna than the Varna of the boy is not auspicious, such has been said by the Pandits or the learned astrologers.

Notes: If the Varna of the bridegroom is higher than that of the bride or if it is different, then there is the obtainment of one 'guna'; otherwise there is zero obtainment of guna; that is the Koota of Varna has been given 1 (one) Guna.

THE SPECULUM OF VARNA

	Shudra	1	1	1	1

About a case when the Varna of the bride is higher than that of the bridegroom, it has been said in a book:

वर्णश्रेष्ठा तु या नारी हीन वर्णस्तु यः पुमान् ।

विवाहं यदि कुर्वीत तस्या भर्ता न जीवति ।।

that is, if the Varna of the woman is higher, than that of the man, and if such woman marries such man, then the husband does not remain alive for long.

But this defect is removed if, inspite of the Rashi Varna (The Varna or caste of the sign) of the man being lower than that of the woman, the Lord of the Rashi (sign) of the man is of a higher Varna than that of the Rashi (sign) of the woman

The Varnas of the Planets are as follows :

The Sun – Kshtriya

The Moon – Vaishya

Mars – Kshtriya

Mercury – Shudra

Jupiter – Brahmin

Venus – Brahmin

Saturn – Shudra.

VASHYA KOOTA: Except the sign of Leo all the other signs are the Vashyas of the Male signs (Gemini, Virgo, Libra, and the latter half of Sagittarius), and all the watery signs (Cancer, Capricorn, Aquarius, Pisces) are the Bhakshyas (objects of eating) of the male signs. Leaving the sign of Scorpio all the other signs are the Vashyas of the sign of Leo. More Vashyas and Bhakshyas should be known by the behaviour of the people.

Notes: Vashya means attraction and Bhakshya should be taken to mean 'Pachaka' or that which digests. This Koota will make it clear as to how much is the intensity of the mutual attraction in the bride and the bridegroom. Two points have been allotted to this Koota. In the consideration of the Koota of Vashya there are three kinds of Vashyas of the bride and the bridegroom - Sakhya or Maitra (friendship), Bair or enmity and Bhakshya (that which digests). If both the bride and the bridegroom have Maitri or friendship as their Vashya there will be 2 gunas, if they have Bair (enmity) and Bhakshya there will be zero guna; if Vashya and Bair, 1 guna; if Vashya and Bhakshya, 1/2 guna. It should be kept in mind while considering this Koota that the bride should be either Vashya or Bhakshya.

Vashyas are Four: 1. Chatushpada or quadruped. 2. Nara or Dwipada or Male. 3. Jalachara (Moving in water) 4. Keeta (insect)

SPECULUM TO KNOW THE VASHYA KOOTA:

The signs of the bridegroom
		Nara (Male)	Chatushpada (Quadruped)	Jalachara (Moving in water)	Koota (insect)
The signs of the bride	Nara (Male)	2	1/2	1/2	1
	Chatushpada (Quadruped)	1/2	2	2	2
	Jalachara (Moving in water)	1/2	2	2	2
	Koota (insect)	1	2	2	2

According to another book there are 5 Vashyas in the signs. The speculum of these 5 Vashyas is as follows :

THE SPECULUM OF THE VASHYAS

Vashya	The signs of the bride and the bridegroom
Chatushpada (Quadruped)	Aries, Taurus, the latter half of Sagittarius, the first half of Capricorn
Nara (Male)	Gemini, Virgo, Libra, the first half of Sagittarius
Jala chara (Moving in water)	Cancer, the first half of Capricorn, Pisces, Aquarius

Vashya	The signs of the bride and the bridegroom
Bana chara (Roaming in forest)	Leo
Keeta (insect)	Scorpio

And on this basis the speculum for knowing the points of Vashya koota will be made in the following manner.

THE CONSIDERATION OF TARA KOOTA: Counting is to be done from the Nakshtra of the girl to that of the boy, and then it (Counting) is to be done from the Nakshtra of the boy to that of the girl. If by dividing each of them by 9, the remainder comes to be 3/5/7, then the Tara is inauspicious. And if the remainder is other than these (that is, if it is 1/2/4/6/8/0) then the Tara is auspicious.

Notes: 3 Maximum points have been allotted to Tara Koota. If the Tara Koota of both the bride and the bridegroom is excellent, there will be 3 points. If it is auspicious of one and inauspicious of the other, there will be 1½ marks; and if it is inauspicious of both and the Tara is also inauspicious (it is of 3/5/7), then the Tara Guna (The Tara point) will be zero. Therefore it is quite clear that the gunas are determined according to the auspicious and inauspicious Taras of both the bride and the bridegroom. The names of the Taras have been given in the 12th Shloka of chapter 4.

YONI KOOTA: The yoni of the Nakshtras of Ashwini and Shatabhisha is 'Ashwa' (Horse); that of Swati and Hasta, Mahisha (She buffalo); that of Dhanishtha and Poorvabhadrapada, Singha (Lion); that of Bharani and Rewati, Haathi (Elephant); that of Pushya and Kritika, Medha (Mesha-Aja-Bakra or Ram in English); that of Shravana and Poorvashadha, Vanara (Monkey); that of Uttarashadha and Abhijita, Nakula (Mongoose); that of Mrigashira and Rohini, Sarpa (Serpent); that of Jyeshtha and Anuradha, Harina (deer); that of Moola and Ardra, Swana (dog); that of Punarvasu and Ashlesha, Marjara (Bidala or Tom cat in English); that of Magha and Poorvaphalguni, Mushaka (Rat); that of Vishakha and Chitra, Vyaghra (Leopard); and that of Uttaraphalguni and Uttarabhadrapada, Gau (Cow).

There happens to be mutual Mahabair (Extreme enmity) between—two yonis of the Nakshtras stated in one quarter of the shloka, therefore these should be regarded as worthy of being left out while equating the gunas or marks.

Notes: One yoni has been described in one quarter of the shloka. In this way there are $7 \times 2 = 14$ yonis in the shloka. Here it has been said that there is the condition of Mahabair (or extreme enmity) in the 2 yonis of each quarter which is not acceptable. Thus there is the Mahabair between the Ashwa (Horse) yoni of the Ashwini-Shatabhisha Nakshtra in the first half of the first quarter and the Mahisha (she buffalo) yoni of the Swati-Hasta Nakshtra in the 2nd Half of the first quarter. This Mahabair (extreme enmity) is quite natural and it should be so. In the same way there is Mahabair (extreme enmity) between Singh-Haathi (Lion and elephant), Medha-Vanara (Ram and Monkey), Neola-Sarpa (Mongoose and serpent), Harina-Swana (deer and dog), Marjara-Mushaka (Cat and Mouse) and Vyaghra-Gau (Leopard and cow). Therefore the marriage of the bride and the bridegroom having the above stated opposite yonis should not take place. 4 points have been allotted to the 'Koota' of 'Yoni'. The Similarity and adjustibility of mental habits and attitudes is known on the basis of the yonis. There is great importance of the yoni koota in reference to sexual joy, mutual attraction and love. Here the number of Nakshtras has been taken to be 28, that is, the Abhijita Nakshtra has also been given a place in the yoni koota. The number of gunas in the Mahabair (extreme enmity) is zero; in the Bair (enmity), 1 (one); in the udaseenta or neutrality, 2; in the Mitrata (friendship), 3; and in the Ati-mitrata (extreme friendship), 4.

Marriage may take place if the yoni kootas of the boy and the girl are mutual enemy and the vashya kootas are suited or are friendly.

GRAHA-MAITRI (FRIENDSHIP BETWEEN PLANETS):

Mars, Jupiter and the Moon are friends to the Sun, Venus and Saturn are enemy to him and Mercury is Neutral (neither friend nor enemy; Mercury and the Sun are friend to the Moon, there is no enemy of her and Mars, Jupiter, Venus and Saturn are neutral; the Moon Jupiter and the Sun are friends to Mars, Mercury is his enemy and Venus and Saturn are neutral to him; Venus and the Sun are friends to Mercury, the Moon is his enemy, and Jupiter, Saturn and Mars are neutral to him; the Sun, the Moon and Mars are friends to Jupiter, Mercury and Venus are his enemy and Saturn is neutral to him; Mercury and Saturn are friends to Venus, the Moon and the Sun are her enemy, and Mars and Jupiter are neutral to her; and Venus and Mercury are friends to Saturn, the Sun, the Moon and Mars are enemy to him and Jupiter is neutral to him.

Notes: In the Koota of Graha-Maitri (friendship between planets) the equation of Gunas is done on the basis of the natural friendship of the Planetary Lords of the Janama-Rashis (the Rashis or signs at birth) of the bride and the bridegroom. It is thought that if there is the adjustability in the Graha-Maitri, the married life of the couple is passed happily. If there is enmity between the Lords of the Janama Rashis (Rashi in which Moon is situated at birth) of the bride and the bridegroom, then after marriage difference of opinion, clashes and quarrels and jealousy among them are quite usual. 5 Points have been allotted to Graha-Maitri. Here TatKalika Maitri (Maitri or friendship at any given time) is not considered. It is only the natural friendship (Naisargika Maitri in Sanskrit) that is considered here. If there is the absence of mutual Naisargika Maitri or Natural friendship, then the Maitri Dosha (the defect arising from absence of Maitri) is cancelled if there is Maitri or friendship between the Lords of the Navamsha of the Moon of the bride and the bridegroom.

GANAKOOTA (The Koota of Ganas): The 9 (nine) Nakshtras namely Magha, Ashlesha, Dhanishtha, Jyeshtha, Moola Shatabhisha, Kritika, Chitra and Vishakha are Rakshasa (Demons) Ganas; the 9 other Nakshtras namely Poorvaphalguni, Poorvashadha, Poorvabhadrapada, Uttaraphalguni, Uttarashadha, Uttarabhadrapada, Rohini, Bharani and Ardra are Manushya (Man) Ganas; and the 9 still other Nakshtras namely Anuradha, Punarvasu, Mrigashira, Shravana, Rewati, Swati, Hasta, Ashwini and Pushya are Deva (gods) Ganas.

THE EFFECTS OF THE KOOTA OF GANAS: If the Gana of the bride and the bridegroom is the same, then there will be excessive love between wife and husband; love will be of average intensity if the gana of one is Devata (god) and of the other is Manushya (Man); there will be death if the Gana of one is Rakshasa (demon) and of the other is Manushya (Man); and there will be quarrel between them if the Gana of one is Devata (god) and of the other is Rakshasa (demon).

Notes: The nature of the native is shown on the basis of Gana Koota. The Ganas of Devata (gods) Manushya (men) and Rakshasa (demons) represent respectively the qualities which may be spoken of as divine human and demonic. If a native has Rakshas as his gana he/she should be wedded to the native having the same (that is, Rakshasa) gana. This koota has been allotted 6 Points.

THE CONSIDERATION OF BHAKOOTA: If the Janama Rashi (the sign in which the Moon is situated at the time of birth) of the Bridegroom and of the bride are mutually in the 6th and the 8th House, it (this yoga or combination) is the giver of death; if it is in the 9th and in the 5th House, it will cause the loss of progeny; if it is in the 2nd and in the 12th House, it will cause poverty; and there will be happiness if they are in other places.

Notes: According to 'Jyoti Prakasha' if the Janama Rashi of the bride is in the 5th House from that of the Bridegroom, it will be inauspicious, but it will be auspicious if it is in the 9th House. And if the Janama Rashi of the bride is in the 2nd House from the Rashi of the Bridegroom it will be inauspicious, but it will be auspicious if it is in the 12th House.

If the Janama Rashis of the bridegroom and the bride are in the 7th House and in the 4th and the 10th House, from each other, it has been regarded as auspicious; but the two pairs of Rashis or signs-Capricorn and Cancer, Leo and Aquarius-are the 7th from each other but they are enemy to each other. And the Janama Rashis of the bridegroom and of the bride will be in the 4th and the 10th House in this way-Libra from Capricorn, Leo from Taurus, Cancer from Aries, Pisces from Gemini, Virgo from Sagittarius, Scorpio from Aquarius. But there is enmity between the Lords of these pairs of Rashis or signs. Therefore, they are also regarded as inauspicious.

Therefore it is the 3-6, 4-7, 5-8, 9-12, 10-1 and 11-2, 4th and 10th situations which are auspicious and it is the Rashis or signs which are in the 7th House from each other (4-10 and 5-11) that are inauspicious.

If the Rashis of the Bridegroom and of the bride are in the 6/8 House from each other and if the Lords of the Rashis are friends to each other, OR if the Lord of both the Rashis is only one planet, then this situation comes in the limit of friendship. These situations are formed in the following Rashis or signs: 1-8, 2-7, 4-9, 5-12, 6-11 and 10-3. Doing of marriage is auspicious in these situations. The relation of the concept of 'Bhakoota' is there with regard to economic condition and growth of the family. 7 Points have been allotted to Bhakoota.

THE REMOVAL OF EVIL BHAKOOTA: If in the evil Bhakoota stated above (in the 31st Shloka) the Lord of the Janama Rashis of the bridegroom and the bride is the same, and the defect relating to Nadis is absent, then marriage is auspicious or if the Lords of the Janama Rashis have friendship with each other and the Nadi is also favourable, then also marriage is auspicious. If the Janama Rashis of the bridegroom and the bride are in the 6th and the 8th House from each other (if the Rashis of the bridegroom and the bride are in the 6th and in the 8th House from each other, it is called the 'Shadashtaka Dosha' or the defect of being the 6th and the 8th) and if there is the enmity of the Lords of the Rashis of both with each other but if there is the friendship of the Navamsha Lords of the Janama Rashis of both, and if both are endowed with strength also and are without Nadi Dosha (defect of the Nadis), the marriage is auspicious.

If the Tara and the Nadi of the bridegroom and the bride are favourable, even then marriage is auspicious.

If in the 'Dusta' or evil Bhakoota there is no friendship between the Lords of the Janama Rashis of the bridegroom and the bride, but if the Rashi of the Bride is the 'Vashya' of the Rashi of the Bridegroom and the Nadi is favourable, even then marriage is auspicious.

Notes: If there is the 'Dusta' or evil 'Bhakoota', 5 kinds of removal have been stated here in this shloka.

1. The Lord of the Janama Rashis of the bridegroom and the bride is the same planet.

2. There is friendship between the Lords of the Rashis of the bridegroom and the bride.

3. If both the above stated conditions are not there, then the Navamsha Lords of the Rashis of both the bridegroom and the bride are endowed with strength and are friends to each other.

4. The Tara of the bridegroom and the bride is excellent.

5. The Vashya Koota is favourable, that is the Rashi of the bride is the Vashya of the Rashi of the bridegroom.

In all the above stated 5 kinds of removal the favourableness of the Nadi has been said to be necessary.

DUSTA BHAKOOTA NASHAKA YOGA (The combination which destroys the evil Bhakoota): If there is the friendship of the Lords of the Janama Rashis of the bridegroom and the bride or if there is friendship between the Lords of the Navamshas of the Janama Rashis, then there does not occur the Dosha or defect of Dusta Gana (Manushya, Rakshasa and Devata).

'Shubha' or auspicious 'Bhakoota' (the 3rd, the 11th, the 4th, the 10th the Bhakoota etc.) is the destroyer of the Doshas (defects) relating to the enmity of the Planets (the enmity of the Lords of the Rashis of the bridegroom and the bride).

Graha Maitri (the friendship of the Planetary Lords of the Janama Rashis of the bridegroom and the bride) destroys the Dosha (defect) of Dusta Bhakoota (evil Bhakoota).

NADI KOOTA (The Koota of Nadi): The Nakshtras of Jyeshtha, Moola, Ardra, Punarvasu, Uttaraphalguni, Hasta, Shatabhisha, Poorvabhadrapada and Ashwini are counted among the Nadi named as 'Adi'; those of Pushya, Mrigashira, Chitra, Anuradha, Bharani, Dhanishtha, Poorvashadha, Poorvaphalguni and Uttarabhadrapada among the Nadi named as 'Madhya'; and those of Swati, Vishakha, Kritika, Rohini, Ashlesha, Magha, Uttarashadha, Shrivana and Rewati among the Nadi named as 'Antya'. If the Nakshtras of the bridegroom and the bride are in the same Nadi, the marriage of such persons is inauspicious; if the Nakshtras of the bridegroom and the bride are in the 'Madhya' Nadi they are certainly givers of death.

Notes: Nadi Koota is of the utmost importance. These Nadis are related to the health, longevity and the happiness of issues (sons and daughters) of the couple who are joined in wedlock. It is thought that if the Nadi of the bridegroom and of the bride is the same, the married life of such couple does not pass happily. The issues of such couple are unhealthy and somewhat mentally undeveloped. There is also the possibility that some mental defect will be developed.

If the Nadi of the bridegroom and the bride is 'Adi', then money crisis come in the family life of the couple and there is adverse effect on their health. If the Nadi of both is 'Madhya' then there will certainly be the death of one of them.

8 Points have been allotted to the 'Koota' of 'Nadi'. If there is the 'Nadi Dosha', then marriage should not take place. It should be altogether rejected.

THE FIRST MIDDLE (SECOND) AND LAST PARTS OF THE NAKSHTRAS: 6 Nakshtras beginning with Rewati (Rewati, Ashwini, Bharani, Kritika, Rohini and Mrigashira) are the Nakshtras of the First Part; 12 Nakshtras beginning with Ardra (Ardra, Punarvasu, Pushya, Ashlesha, Magha, Poorvaphalguni, Uttaraphalguni, Hasta, Chitra, Swati, Vishakha and Anuradha) are of the Middle (second) Part; and 9 Nakshtras beginning with Jyeshtha (Jyeshtha, Moola, Poorvashadha, Uttarashadha, Shrivana, Dhanishtha, Shatabhisha, Poorvabhadrapada and Uttarabhadrapada) are of the Last part.

If the Nakshtras of both the bridegroom and the bride happens to be in the First Part, then the husband is dear to the wife; if in the Middle Part then both have great love for each other; and if in the Last Part then the husband has great love for the wife.

अकचटतपयशवर्गाः खगेशमार्जारसिंहशुनाम् ।

VARGA KOOTA (THE KOOTA OF VARGAS): The Lord of the अ (Aa) Varga (अ आ इ ई उ ऊ ए ऐ ओ औ - these are vowels in the Hindi Language) is Garuda (a bird, the conveyance of Lord Vishnu) that of क (Ka) Varga (क ख ग घ ङ) is Marjara or Tom Cat;; that of च (Cha) Varga (च छ ज झ ञ) is Singha or Lion; that of ट (Ta) Varga (ट ठ ड ढ ण) is Swana or Dog; that of त (ta) Varga (त थ द ध न) is Sarpa or Snake; that of प (Pa) Varga (प फ ब म य) is Mushaka or Mouse; that of य (ya) varga (य र ल व) is Mriga or deer; that of श (sha) Varga (श ष स ह) is Medha or Ram; and the Varga which is the 5th from a Varga is the enemy to the former and vice versa.

Notes: The Lord of the 'Varga' of that person the first letter of whose name is in the अ (Aa) Varga is 'Garuda'. The same should be understood in reference to all the other Vargas. The Fifth Varga from each Varga is the Varga of its enemy. thus the त (Ta) Varga from the अ (Aa) Varga is the 5th Varga. The Lords of them are respectively Garuda and Sarpa who are enemies to each other. There is enmity also in the same way between Marjara and Mushaka, Singha and Mriga, and Swana and Medha.

Marriage should not be arranged of the persons having Vargas whose Lords are enemies to each other. If the bridegroom and the bride are of the same Varga or if there is friendship between the Lords of the Vargas of the bridegroom and the bride, then marriage is auspicious. This consideration should be there also when some friendship is established. The employee and the employer and the two partners in a trade should also have the same consideration of Vargas.

If the 'Janama Kundali' (the Horoscope or the birth chart) is not available, then Melapaka or equating of Gunas or Points is made on the basis of the first letter of the popular names of the bridegroom and the bride. This 'Melapaka' is based on the letters.

राश्यैक्ये चेदिमन्नमृक्षंद्वयोः स्यान्नक्षत्रैक्ये राशियुग्मं तथैव ।

नाडीदोषो नो गणानां च दोषो नक्षत्रैक्ये पादभेदे शुभं स्यात् ।।३७।।

THE REMOVAL OF NADI DOSHA OR THE DEFECT OF NADI: If the Janama Rashis of the bridegroom and the bride are the same and the Nakshtras of them are different or if the Nakshtras are the same and the Rashis are different, then there is no defect of the 'Nadi' and of the 'Gana'. And if the Nakshtras are the same but the quarters of the Nakshtras are different, it is also regarded auspicious, that is, it does not have the 'Nadi Dosha' or the Defect of Nadi.

Notes: The writer means to say that the Rashis and the Nakshtras of the bridegroom and of the bride should not be the same. If their Nakshtras are the same then it is necessary that their Rashis should be different; and if their Rashis are the same then their Nakshtras should be different. If the Nakshtras are the same then the quarters of the Bridegroom and of the bride should be different. Thus if there is the 3rd quarter of the Nakshtras of Shatabhisha and Poorvabhadrapada, then the Rashi in both the cases is the same but the Nakshtras are different. Therefore here the Dosha or Defect of the Rakshasa-Manushya Gana, and the Dosha of the same Nadi will not be present.

In the 3rd and the 4th quarter of the Poorvabhadrapada, the Nakshtra is the same but the Rashis are different. Therefore here also there will be no NADI DOSHA. If there is the same Rashi and different Nakshtras of the bridegroom and of the bride, it is the Nakshtra of the bridegroom which should be the first (in the serial order). If the Nakshtras of the male partner is the second to that of the female, it is not auspicious. This has been said by shri Gargacharya in the following shloka.

अतीव शोभना प्रोक्ता, स्त्रीतारा चेत्यशोभना ॥

THE NAKSHTRA MELAPAKA OR THE EQUATING OF THE NAKSHTRAS IN REFERENCE TO EMPLOYMENT, DEBT-MARRIAGE, RESIDENCE IN A VILLAGE OR TOWN: In reference to employment, if the Nakshtras of the employer comes before that of the employee (in serial order) the service done by the employee to his employer is wasted. In reference to lending and borrowing, if the first Nakshtra is that of the borrower and the Nakshtra of the lender comes afterwards, then the money lent is destroyed, that is, the creditor does not get back the money. In reference to marriage, if the Nakshtra of the woman comes before that of the man, then the bridegroom is destroyed (or dies soon). And if the Nakshtra of the village or the town in which the native has to reside comes before the Nakshtra of the native, then the happiness of living in a village is destroyed.

THE RULES WITH REGARD TO THE LORDSHIP OF THE RASHIS (SIGNS) AND THE NAVAMSHAS: Mars, Venus, Mercury, the Moon, the Sun, Mercury, Venus, Mars, Jupiter, Saturn, Saturn again, and Jupiter are respectively the Lords of the Rashis or signs, that is Mars is the Lord of Aries, Venus of Taurus, Mercury of Gemini, the Moon of Cancer the Sun of Leo, Mercury of Virgo, Venus of Libra, Mars of Scorpio, Jupiter of Sagittarius, Saturn of Capricorn, Saturn of Aquarius and Jupiter of Pisces.

The Pandits or Astrologers have spoken of the system of Navamshas from the signs of Aries, Capricorn, Libra and Cancer.

Notes: There are 30° (thirty degrees) in each Rashi or sign. The 9th part of a sign is called Navamsha. Therefore the 9th part of 30° is $30 \div 9 = 3^\circ - 20'$. There are 9 Navamshas in the signs of Aries, Leo and Sagittarius beginning from Aries and going down to Sagittarius; 9 Navamshas in the signs of Taurus, Virgo and Capricorn beginning from Capricorn and going down to Virgo; 9 Navamshas in the signs of Gemini, Libra and Aquarius beginning from Libra and going down to Gemini; and 9 Navamshas in the signs of Cancer, Scorpio and Pisces beginning from Cancer and going down to Pisces.

The Navamsha begins with a movable sign in the Movable Signs, in the fixed signs from the 9th sign from it and in the Dual signs from the 5th sign from it.

Like the Planetary Lords of the signs there are the planetary Lords of the Navamshas. The Lord of the sign of Aries is Mars and the Lord of the first Navamsha of Aries is also Mars. Where the Lord of the Rashi or sign and the Lord of the Navamsha is the same Planet, that Rashi or sign is called Vargottama sign.

THE RULE REGARDING HORA: There is the Hora of the Moon to the first 15° in the even signs and that of the Sun to the 30° after that. And contrary to it in the odd signs there is the Hora of the Sun to the first 15° and that of Moon to the 30° after that.

Notes: In the above Shloka it has been said that the half part of a sign is called Hora and therefore there are two Horas in each sign of 15° each.

TRIMSHAMSHA AND DRESHKANA OR DECANATE: In the even signs the first 5° are the Trimshamshas of Venus, after 7° of Mercury, 8° of Jupiter, 5° of Mars. In the odd signs there is the reverse of it, that is, the first 5° are the Trimshamshas of Mars, after that 5° of Saturn, 5° of Jupiter, 7° of Mercury and 5° of Venus.

The Dreshkana or Decanate is of the same Rashi or sign upto 10°, of the 5th Rashi or sign from that upto 20°, and of the 9th Rashi or sign from that from 20° to 30°.

DWADSHAMSHAS AND THE EFFECTS OF SHADAVARGAS: The Dwadshamshas are in the order of the same Rashi or sign in which the Dwadshamsha is to be known, that is, there are 12 Dwadshamshas in any Rashi or sign beginning from that very Rashi or sign.

In this way 6 Vargas (Divisions) - Lagna or Ascendant, Hora, Dreshkana or Decanate, Navamsha, Dwadshamsha and Trimshamsha - have been spoken of. The Vargas (Divisions) of the Benefic Planets give auspicious effects and those of the Malefic Planets give inauspicious effects.

Notes: The 12th part of a Rashi or sign is called Dwadshamsha. Therefore $30 \div 12 = 2^{\circ}-30'$ is the Dwadshamsha of a Rashi or sign. In the sign of Aries the first Dwadshamsha is of Aries, the 2nd of Taurus, and so on. The counting of Dwadshamshas is done in the other Rashis or signs in the same way beginning from that very sign.

THE THREE KINDS OF GANDANTAS AND THEIR EFFECTS: The time of the last two ghatis (48 minutes) of the Nakshtras of Jyeshtha, Rewati and Ashlesha and of the first two ghatis of those of Moola, Ashwini and Magha is referred to as 'Nakshtras Gandanta'.

The time of the last ½ ghati (12 minutes) of the Ascendants of Cancer, Scorpio and Pisces, and of the first ½ Ghati of those of Leo, Sagittarius, and Aries, is referred to as the Lagna or Ascendant 'Gandanta'.

The time of the last one Ghati of the Poorna Tithis (5,10,15 Tithis) and of the first one Ghati of the Nanda Tithis (1,6,11 Tithis) is referred to as the Tithi Gandanta. All these 3 Gandantas are inauspicious, that is, all these, there times or periods should be rejected while doing some auspicious deeds.

Notes: The Sanskrit word 'Gandanta' means Sandhi or juncture. In the 27 Nakshtras, the Nakshtras in which a Rashi or sign is divided fully, those very three Sandhis or junctures are referred to as Nakshtra Gandanta. Thus there is the ending of the sign of Cancer at the end of the Ashlesha Nakshtra and there is the beginning of the sign of Leo at the end of the Magha Nakshtra. There is the ending of the sign of Scorpio at the end of the Jyeshtha Nakshtra and there is the beginning of the sign of Sagittarius in the Moola Nakshtra, and there is the ending of the sign of Pisces at the end of the Rewati Nakshtra, and there is the beginning of the sign of Aries in the Ashwini Nakshtra. It is on this basis that the Sandhi or juncture of Cancer-Leo is referred to as the First Nakshtra Gandanta, that of Scorpio-Sagittarius as the Second one, and that of Pisces-Aries as the Third One. The Lagna or Ascendant Gandanta also arises exactly in the same way.

Similarly, the Tithis on which the difference of the Sun and the Moon is Full sign (the difference of the Sun and the Moon is 12° at the end of every Tithi) are the Tithis on which there is the Tithi Gandanta. Thus the difference of the Sun and the Moon is full 2 signs at the end of the 5th Tithi, it is full 4 signs at the end of the 10th Tithi, and it is full 6 signs at the end of Pauranmasi or the 15th Tithi. Therefore the Sandhi or juncture of the 5th and the 6th, of the 10th and the 11th, and of the 15th and the 1st (Pratipada after Pauranmasi) Tithis—these 3 Sandhis or junctures have been referred to as the 3 Tithi Gandantas. The thinkers have managed of the removal of the Doshas of Gandantas. The Dosha or the Defect of 'Tithi Gandanta' is removed if the Moon is endowed with strength. And if Jupiter is endowed with strength the Dosha or Defect of Lagna or Ascendant Gandanta is removed. There is not the Dosha or Defect of any 'Gandanta' in the Nakshtra of Abhijita, it is the saying of Muni Vashishtha.

KARTARI YOGA (The Combination of Kartari): If a Malefic Planet, being Direct, is posited in the 12th House from the Ascendant at Marriage, and being Retrograde, is posited in the 2nd place from this Ascendant, then there occurs the yoga or combination named as 'Kartari'. This Kartari Yoga is the giver to the native of death, penury and grief.

Notes: There is the Kartari Dosha (or the Defect named as 'Kartari') if a Malefic Planet, being Retrograde is situated in the 12th House from the Ascendant at Marriage and if, being Direct, he is situated in the 2nd House.

In the Ascendant at marriage the, Moon should also be free from the 'Kartari Dosha' because there always remains the fear of evil and trouble if there is the Kartari Dosha in 'Chandra Lagna' or the Moon as Ascendant.

'Kartari Dosha' is merely a representative one in reference to the Ascendant. Actually all the Houses are subjected to the evil effect of this Dosha. Therefore, the 5th, the 7th and the 9th Houses from the Ascendant at marriage should also be free from the 'Kartari Dosha'.

The Hindi word 'Kartari' means scissors. As cloth etc. between the two blades of a pair of Scissors is cut, in the same way, Ascendant which represents the body is destroyed between the two Malefic Planets situated in the 2nd and the 12th House. It happens in this way. The Retrograde Planet situated in the 2nd House comes back and reaches the Lagna or the Ascendant and the Direct Planet situated in the 12th House goes ahead and reaches the Ascendant. The conjunction of these two Malefic Planets is on the Ascendant and it is capable of destroying the body. It is because of this that the Acharyas, or the Astrologers have called it 'Kartari Dosha'.

Some Acharyas think that there is the characteristic of the 'Kartari Dosha' also when there is the situation of a Direct Malefic Planet in the 12th House and of Rahu or Ketu in the 2nd House.

सौख्यं सापत्न्यवैराग्यं पापद्वययुते मृतिः ।।४५।।

THE EFFECTS OF THE MOON DUE TO THE PLANETARY POSITIONS RELATED TO THE LAGNA OR ASCENDANT AT MARRIAGE: If in the Ascendant at Marriage the Moon is in conjunction with the Sun, then there will be penury; if she is in conjunction with Mars, death; it will be auspicious if with Mercury; there will be happiness if she is with Jupiter; enmity if with Venus; and Vairagya or renunciation of the worldly matters if with Saturn; and if she is in conjunction with two Malefic Planets, she is the giver of death.

Notes: There is inauspicious effect if the Moon is conjuncted with Rahu.

If the Moon is in her own sign, or in her highest exaltation sign or in a friend's sign, then she will not be affected by this 'Yuti Dosha' (the Dosha or Defect arising due to conjunction). This has been said by Shri Narada for the removal of this Dosha or Defect.

जन्मलग्नमयोर्मृत्युराशौ नेष्टः करग्रहः ।

एकाधिपत्ये राशीशमैत्रे वा नैव दोषकृत् ।।४६।।

THE DOSHA OR DEFECT, ARISING DUE TO THE 8TH

HOUSE FROM THE JANAMA LAGNA AND JANAMA RASHI IN THE LAGNA OR ASCENDANT AT MARRIAGE: If the 8th Rashi or sign from the Natal Ascendant and Janama Rashi is there in the Ascendant at Marriage, then such marriage is not auspicious. But when the Planetary lord of the Natal Ascendant or of the Janama Rashi is the Lord of the Ascendant at marriage also or if there is friendship between the two, then this Dosha or Defect does not apply.

Notes: Suppose the Janama Lagna (the Natal Ascendant) or the Janama Rashi is Aries and the Ascendant at marriage is Scorpio. Here the Lord of the Lagna (Ascendant) and of the 8th House is the same (This is called 'Ekadhipatya' or the Lordship of one and the same). Now this Dosha or Defect will not apply here. Again, suppose the Janama Lagna or Janama Rashi is Leo and the Ascendant at marriage is Pisces. Here also this Dosha or Defect will not apply due to there being friendship between the Sun (the Lord of the Leo sign) and Jupiter (the Lord of the Ascendant at Marriage).

THE REMOVAL OF THE DOSHA OR DEFECT OF THE RASHI OR SIGN OF THE 8TH HOUSE FROM THE JANAMA LAGNA OR THE JANAMA RASHI BEING THE ASCENDANT AT MARRIAGE: If the 8th sign from the Janama Lagna (Natal Ascendant) or the Janama Rashi is Pisces, Taurus, Cancer, Scorpio, Capricorn, or Virgo and the Ascendant at marriage is one of these signs, then this Dosha or Defect does not apply, because there being the friendship of the Lord of the Janama Lagna or of the Janama Rashi with the Lords of these Ascendants, such Ascendant is the giver of son, longevity, house and happiness.

Notes: Another Acharya has said that if the 8th Lord is in an Angle and he is aspected by some Benefic Planet or the 8th Lord is in his own Navamsha or in the Navamsha of some Benefic Planet, in his highest exaltation, in his own sign or in a friend's sign then the Dosha or the Defect of the 8th sign as Lagna does not apply.

मृतिमवनांशो यदि च विलग्ने तदधिपतिर्वा न शुभकरः स्यात् ।

THE CONSIDERATION WITH REGARD TO THE 8TH AND THE 12TH HOUSE AT THE TIME OF BIRTH IN THE ASCENDANT AT MARRIAGE: If the Navamsha Rashi or sign of the 8th House or the Lord of the sign of the 8th House from the Janama Lagna (Natal Ascendant) happens to be there in the Ascendant at marriage, then the celebration of marriage in such Ascendant is not auspicious or if the Navamsha of the 12th sign or the sign of the 12th House or the Lord of the 12th House happens to be there in the Lagna or Ascendant at marriage, then this yoga or combination proves to be a quarrel-causing one for the bridegroom and the bride.

THE VISHA GHATIS OF THE NAKSHTRAS, THE GHATI WHICH SHOULD BE REJECTED WHILE DOING SOME AUSPICIOUS DEEDS: The 4 'Ghatis' after the 30 Ghatis of the Nakshtras of Rewati, Punarvasu, Kritika and Magha; after the 40 Ghatīs of Rohini, after the 32 Ghatīs of Ashlesha; after the 50 Ghatīs of Ashwini, after the 18 Ghatīs of Uttaraphalguni and Shatabhisha, after the 20 Ghatīs of the Nakshtras of Poorvaphalguni, Chitra, Uttarashadha and Pushya; after the 14 Ghatīs of those of Vishakha, Swati, Mrigashira and Jyeshtha, after the 21 Ghatīs of those of Ardra, and Hasta, after the 16 Ghatīs of Poorvashadha, after the 24 Ghatīs of the Nakshtras of Uttarabhadrapada, Poorvashadha and Bharani, after the 10 Ghatīs of those of Anuradha, Dhanishtha and Shravana, after the 56 Ghatīs of the Moola Nakshtra, the 4 Ghatīs in each case as per the 'Madhyama Maana' (Average value which is 60 ghatīs) are Visha Ghatīs. These are to be rejected (as inauspicious) while doing some auspicious deed. And the Dhruwa or the constant of the Nakshtras should be multiplied by the Bhabhoga (the full Maana or value of the Nakshtra) and the resultant is to be divided by 60. the quotient thus arrived at is the spashta (Real) Dhruwa or constant. And the 4 visha Ghatīs is also multiplied by the Bhabhoga and the resultant is to be divided by 60. The Quotient thus arrived at is the spashta (Real) Visha Ghati.

Notes: The Maana or value of the Nakshtras is roughly supposed to be 60 ghatīs and according to that Madhyama Maana or Average value the Dhruwa or constant of Visha ghati has been supposed to be 4 ghatīs. But the Maana or Value (period) or Bhabhoga is either less or more than 60 ghatīs. In such condition the real Maana or value of the Dhruwa or constant of the Nakshtras and of the Visha ghatīs should be found out. For example, suppose the Bhabhoga of the Kritika Nakshtra is 64 Ghatīs. Then, here the Dhruwa of the Kritika Nakshtra as given in the Shloka (30) is to be multiplied by 64 and the product is to be divided by 60.

$$\frac{30 \times 64}{60} = 32 \text{ Ghatīs}$$

The Quotient 32 Ghatīs is the real Dhruwa or constant of the Kritika Nakshtra. In the same way the Visha Ghati of the Kritika Nakshtra in the shloka which is 4 is to be multiplied by 64 and the product is to be divided by 60 to arrive at the real Visha Ghatīs:

$$\frac{4 \times 64}{60} = 4 \text{ Ghatīs 16 Palas}$$

Thus, if the Bhabhoga of the Kritika Nakshtra is 64, then there will be 4 Ghatis 16 Palas as Visha Ghatis after 32 Ghatis and these (4 Ghatis 16 Palas) will be referred to as inauspicious in doing any auspicious deed.

There is the description of the Visha Ghatis of the Tithis and days besides of the Visha Ghatis of the Nakshtras in the book entitled 'Daivayga Manohar' which is as follows:

The Ghatīs which are written against the Tithis and Days are those after which the 4 Ghatīs are Visha Ghatīs.

The Removal of the Dosha or Defect of the Visha Ghatīs has also been pointed out by some Acharyas. If the Moon is in the 4/7/5/9/10 Houses or if the Ascendant Lord is in the 1/4/7/10 Houses and is aspected by Benefic Planets, the Dosha or Defect of Visha Ghatīs does not apply or if the Moon or the Ascendant Lord being in a Benefic Sign or in his own shadavarga is aspected by his friendly planet, then also the Dosha or defect of Visha Ghatīs does not apply.

THE NAKSHTRAS OF THE SAMSKARA OF MARRIAGE AND THE VALUE OF THE ABHIJITA NAKSHTRA: The celebration of the Samaskara of marriage is auspicious in the 'Vedha rahita' (without Vedha) Nakshtras of Mrigashira, Hasta, Moola, Anuradha, Magha, Rohini, Rewati, Uttaraphalguni, Uttarashadha, Uttarabhadrapada, Swati, on the other Tithis except the Rikta Tithis and the Amavasya Tithi and on auspicious days (Monday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday).

The 4th Quarter of the Uttarashadha Nakshtra and the first 15th part of the Shravana Nakshtra added together is the value (period) of the Abhijita Nakshtra, that is, Abhijita is not a separate Nakshtra.

THE PANCH SHALAKA VEDHA IN MARRIAGE: The presence of a Planet in any one of the pairs of the Nakshtras of Rohini Abhijita, Bharani-Anuradha, Uttarashadha-Mrigashira, Shravana Magha, Hasta-Uttarabhadrapada, Swati-Shatabhisha, Moola-Punarvasu, Uttaraphalguni-Rewati causes the presence of 'Vedha', that is, if there is a planet in any one of a pair then the other member of the pair is called 'Vidhdha' (that is, the Nakshtra which has got 'Vedha'). And the presence of a Planet in these pairs of Nakshtras causes mutual Vedha in the 4th-1st Quarters and the 3rd-2nd quarters, that is, there is the Vedha of the 4th Quarter with the 1st quarter and of the 3rd Quarter with the 2nd quarter.

Notes: Pancha shlaka and Saptashlaka cycles are used in order to have the knowledge of Vedha. Pancha Shlaka is used in order to know of auspicious Muhurta for the coming of bride, giving of alms and marriage and Sapt-Shlaka is used to know the time for doing other deeds.

THE SPECULUM SHOWING PANCHA SHALAKA VEDHA:

Uttara								Hasta
Poorva								Chitra
Shatabh.								Swati
Dhanish.								Vishakha
	Shra.	Abh.	Uttara.	Poorva.	Moola.	Jyesh.	Anu

The above drawn speculum is to be made with lines. Then on the 2nd line of Ishana Kona (Ishana Angle), that is, the Angle between East and North the Kritika Nakshtra should be established and then on the side of the Right hand all the Nakshtras along with Abhijita, in the right serial order should be established. The Specu-lum is used in this way. There should not be any planet in the Nakshtra opposite to that Nakshtra in which a certain deed is being done. If there is no planet in the opposite Nakshtra, then that Muhurta is acceptable. But if there is a Planet in the opposite Nakshtra, then it is thought that the Nakshtra in which some auspicious deed is decided to be done is subjected to Vedha and it is because of this vedha that the Nakshtra is not proper for that deed. For example, suppose the marriage has been decided to be celebrated in the Anuradha Nakshtra, then there should not be any planet in the Bharani Nakshtra. The married woman gets different effects according to the planet by which the Nakshtra of marriage has been subjected to Vedha. It has been said in the book entitled 'Vivaha Patala'.

रविवेधे च वैद्यव्यं पुत्रशोको च भवेत्कुजो ।

that is, if the Vedha is by the Sun she will be widowed; if by Mars, she will have the grief due to the death of her son; if by Mercury she will be subjected to sterility; if by Jupiter, she will become a saint (one who has renounced the world); if by Venus, her issues will be only daughters; and if by Saturn, the Moon and Rahu she will become a maid servant.

The Quarter Vedha of the Nakshtras is used in the same context for brevity. If there is a planet in the 4th Quarter of a given Planet, then there will be the Vedha of the 1st Quarter of the Nakshtra opposite to it. Likewise if there is a Planet in the 2nd Quarter of the Nakshtra, then there will be the Vedha of the 3rd Quarter of the Nakshtra opposite to it. Suppose there is some Planet in the 4th Quarter of the Uttarashadha Nakshtra, then there will be the Vedha of the First Quarter of the Mrigashira Nakshtra, and if there is some planet in the 2nd Quarter of the Uttarashadha Nakshtra, then there will be the Vedha on the Third Quarter of the Mrigashira Nakshtra.

Only that Quarter of the Nakshtra in which there is the Vedha should be rejected while doing some auspicious deeds like marriage etc. But if the Vedha is by a Malefic Planet then the whole Nakshtra should be rejected as inauspicious for doing an auspicious deed.

Acharya Varaha Mihira has said at one place:

“ वेध दोषस्तु विन्ध्याख्ये देशे नान्येषु केषु च । ”

that is, the Vedha Dosha or Defect is considered only in the region around the Mountains of Vindhyachala, it is not considered in the other regions.

The Nakshtra Vedha is insignificant in the presence of the following yogas or combinations.

1. The Lagna or Ascendant at the Marriage time is occupied by some benefic planet.
2. If the Ascendant Lord is in the 11th House and is in conjunction with and aspected by Benefic Planets.
3. The marriage is to be celebrated in the 'Kaala Hora' of a Benefic Planet.
4. The Moon is endowed with strength.

SAPTA SHALAKA CHAKRA: In the 'Sapta Shalaka Chakra' there is mutual Vedha in these pairs of Nakshtras. Jyeshtha-Pushya, Shatabhisha-Swati, Poorvashadha-Ardra, Rewati-Uttaraphalguni, Dhanishtha-Vishakha, Uttarashadha-Mrigashira, Ashwini-Poorvaphalguni, Ashlesha-Anuradha, Hasta-Uttarabhadrapada, Rohini-Abhijita, Moola-Punarvasu, Chitra-Poorvabhadrapada, Bharani-Magha and Kritika-Shravana.

Notes: In the 'Sapta Shalaka Chakra' also if the Vedha is with a Benefic Planet, then only that quarter of the Nakshtra which has got Vedha should be rejected; but if the Vedha is with a Malefic Planet, then the full time of that Nakshtra should be rejected.

THE SPECULUM OF SAPTA SHALAKA:

	Kri.	Roh.	Mriga.	Ardra	Punar.	Pushya	Ash.
Bharani								Magha
Ashwini								Poorva
Rewati								Uttara
Uttara								Hasta
Shatabh.								Chitra
	Shra.	Abh.	Uttara.	Poorva.	Moola.	Jyesh.	Anu.

Generally it is the 'Pancha Shalaka Chakra' which is consulted in reference to marriage, but 'Deepika Kara' (writers of books on Astrology) Bhoja and Varaha Mihira are of the view that the Sapta Shalaka Chakra should also be consulted. Bhoja writes:

विद्धे सप्तशलाकाख्ये विधवा लग्नवाससा ।

पुनर्यात्य चिरान्नारी मुखाग्नौ मुखचन्द्रिकाम् ॥

The meaning is that the woman who is married in a Nakshtra which has got Vedha in the 'Sapta Shalaka Chakra' gets widowed very soon.

Therefore, as far as possible, consideration should be done according to both the Chakras, but higher recognition is to be given to the 'Pancha Shalaka Chakra'.

THE NAKSHTRA DOSHA DUE TO MALEFIC PLANETS AND ITS REMOVAL: The Nakshtras which is subjected to 'Vedha' by the Malefic Planets, the Nakshtra which has just been traversed by Malefic Planets, that is, the Nakshtra through which a Malefic Planet has just passed and the Nakshtra in the period of which all the three kinds of portents have occurred, if it (the Nakshtra) is traversed by the Moon, it becomes auspicious for doing auspicious deeds.

Notes: Here the writer has told how the Dosha of a Nakshtra is removed. The Nakshtras with Dosha or Defect are:

1. The Nakshtra in which Malefic Planets are situated.
2. The Nakshtra through which Malefic Planets have just passed.
3. The Nakshtra which is being subjected to 'Vedha' by Malefic Planets.
4. The Nakshtra in the period of which all the 3 kinds of portents (described in the 32nd Shloka of Chapter I) have occurred.

Such Nakshtra has been rejected for doing an auspicious deed. But if it is traversed by the Moon, it becomes acceptable for doing auspicious deeds.

THE LATTA DOSHA OR DEFECT IN MARRIAGE: The Planets Mercury, Rahu, Full Moon and Venus hit with their legs the Nakshtra which are respectively (if counted backwards) the 7th, the 9th, the 22nd and the 5th from that Nakshtra in which these Planets are situated. In the same way the Sun, Saturn, Jupiter and Mars hit with their legs the Nakshtras which are respectively (if counted in the right order) the 12th, the 8th, the 6th and the 3rd from that Nakshtra in which these planets are situated.

Notes: The word 'Latta' means hitting with leg. The Nakshtra which is subjected to the 'Latta Dosha' or Defect is rejected in doing marriage Samskara. The Nakshtra which is hit with leg by any Planet is not auspicious.

The imaginary planet Rahu always moves backwards. In the regular order of counting the 9th Nakshtra will be the one causing the Latta Dosha or Defect. For example, if Rahu is in the Ashwini Nakshtra, then the 9th Nakshtra (when counted backwards) from it is Poorvashadha. This Nakshtra, Poorvashadha will not be a Latta causing Nakshtra (because of the backward movement of Rahu). Instead of this, the 9th Nakshtra from Ashwini in the regular order of counting will be the Latta causing Nakshtra. This Nakshtra is Ashlesha and it is this which will be taken as Latta causing.

The Nakshtras cause inauspicious effects when they are subjected to Latta Dosha or Defect. These effects are as follows:

When the Latta Dosha or Defect is Caused by the Sun	– Loss of Money

When by the Moon	– Total Destruction
When by Mars	– Death
When by Mercury	– Destruction
When by Jupiter	– Destruction of relatives
When by Venus	– Loss of work
When by Saturn	– Destruction of the family
When by Rahu	– Death

PAATA DOSHA OR DEFECT: The Nakshtra (at the time of marriage) which is there at the end of the yogas of Harshana, Vaidhriti, Sadhya, Vyatipaata, Ganda and Shoola, is affected by Paata Dosha or Defect.

Notes: The Nakshtra which is affected by the Paata Dosha or Defect should be rejected as inauspicious for marriage. Narada and Vashishtha have considered the Paata Dosha or Defect in another way. According to them the numbers which are arrived at by counting from the Nakshtra of the Sun to the Ashlesha, Magha, Anuradha, Chitra, Shravana and Rewati Nakshtra, the Nakshtras having those numbers from Ashwini are affected by the Paata Dosha or Defect. For example, if the Sun is in the Hasta Nakshtra, then the Bharani, Mrigashira, Magha, Swati, Shatbhisha and Poorvabhadrapada will be said as affected by Paata Dosha or Defect.

THE DOSHA OR DEFECT NAMED KRANTI SAMYA OR MAHA PAATA: If there is the Sun in one sign and the Moon in the other sign of the pairs of signs of Leo-Aries, Taurus-Capricorn, Libra-Aquarius, Virgo-Pisces, Cancer-Scorpio and Sagittarius-Gemini, there occurs the Dosha or Defect named as Kranti Samya (Maha Paata). It is not regarded as auspicious for doing auspicious deeds.

Notes: When there is the Sun in Leo and the Moon in Aries or when the Sun is there in Aries and the Moon in Leo etc. there occurs the 'Kranti Samya Dosha' or Defect. It is not auspicious for doing auspicious deeds.

When the total of the Saayana Sun and Moon becomes 6 signs (180°), there are different 'Ayans' and one 'Gola' (Sphere) and the 'Bhujamshas' (longitude) of both being equal, therefore, their Kranti (declination) is also equal or same. It is this which is referred to as the Mahadosha (great defect) of 'Vyatipaata'

When the 'Kranti' (declination) of the Sun and the Moon is equal or same, due to the conjunction of the same rays of both a strange type of infected atmosphere is created which has been regarded as a symbol of inauspiciousness for doing auspicious deeds. And, therefore, auspicious deeds should not be done in 'Vyatipaata'.

KHARJOOR OR EKARGALA DOSHA OR DEFECT: On the day on which there is the inauspicious yoga (combination) of Vyaghaata, Ganda, Vyatipaata, Shoola, Vishakambha, Vaidhriti, Vajra, Parigha or Atiganda, and the Moon is situated in the odd numbered Nakshtra from the Nakshtra of the Sun (the Nakshtra in which the Sun is there) there occurs the Dosha or Defect named 'Kharjoor' which is not acceptable for celebrating marriage Samskar. There is the counting in it of all Nakshtras including the Abhijita Nakshtra.

Notes: If there is the situation when the Moon is in the same number of Nakshtras in which is the Sun and therefore the day has evil causing yogas (combinations) like Vyaghaata etc. the 'Kharjoor Dosha' or Defect does not occur. The 'Kharjoor Dosha' or Defect has another name also which is 'Ekargala Dosha' or Defect. According to the view of Narada the Abhijita Nakshtra is not counted in it. See 'Naradiya Samhita' Chapter 7 Shlokas 5-7.

UPAGRAHA DOSHA (THE DOSHA OR DEFECT ARISING BECAUSE OF SUB PLANETS): If the Moon is situated in the Nakshtras numbered 5/8/10/14/7/19/15/18/21/22/23/24/25 from the Nakshtra in which the Sun is there, then there is the Dosha or Defect referred to as 'Upagraha Dosha' or Defect. The 'Upagraha Dosha' or Defect is not regarded as auspicious in the region around Delhi and in the Places called 'Vahlka' (West to Kashmir).

THE REMOVAL OF THE DOSHAS OF PAATA, UPAGRAHA AND LATTA AND THE DOSHA OF ARDHAYAMMA: The inauspicious quarter of a Nakshtra is only that one in which there is the situation of the Graha or planet which has caused the Dosha or Defect of Paata, Upagraha and Latta; that is, only that Quarter of a Nakshtra is to be rejected in which, in the Paata and upagraha Doshas, the Sun is situated; And in the Latta Dosha or Defect, there is the Dosha only in that Quarter of a Nakshtra in which the Planet which has caused the Dosha or Defect is situated.

The number of the day, Sunday etc, is multiplied by 3 and the Product is divided by 8 and 1 is added to the remainder, and the number thus arrived at is 'Ardhayaama'

Notes: The 8th part of Dinamaana is called Ardha yaama. One Ardhayaama is inauspicious every day. Marriage should not be celebrated in the inauspicious 'Ardhayaama'. Suppose we have to know of Ardhayaama on Wednesday. Then the number of Wednesday (counting from Sunday) is 4 which is multiplied by 3 which gives 12. The remainder after dividing 12 by 8 comes to be 4. 1 (one) is added to 4 which gives 5. Therefore, the 5th will be the inauspicious Ardhayaama.

There are 8 'Ardhayaamas' in each both day and Night. 'Ardha Yaama' is regarded extremely defective or inauspicious in the regions of Mithila, Bengal, Nepal etc.

THE 'KULIKA MUHURTA': On days Sunday etc. respectively the 14th, 12th, 10th, 8th, 6th, 4th and the 2nd Muhurta is named as 'Kulika' Muhurta. In Night it is the 13th, 11th, 9th, 7th, 5th, 3rd and the 1st Muhurta (subtracting 1 from each of the above Muhurtas) which are named 'Kulika Muhurtas' On Saturday, the last 15th Muhurta is also regarded as inauspicious.

DAGDHA TITHI: If the Sun is situated in the signs of Sagittarius and Pisces then the 2nd Tithi; if in Taurus and Aquarius, the 4th Tithi; if in Cancer and Aries, the 6th Tithi; if in Virgo and Gemini, the 8th Tithi; if in Leo and Scorpio; the 10th Tithi; and if in Capricorn and Libra, the 12th Tithi is named as the Dagdha Tithi'.

Notes: The Dagdha Tithis also are to be rejected in doing the Samskara of marriage. But it is only in Madhya Pradesh region that these Tithis are regarded as defective or inauspicious. The sage Kashyapa refers to this fact when he writes: that is, the Dagdha Tithis, are rejected as inauspicious in the Madhya Pradesh.

भास दग्धाञ्च तिथयो मध्य देशे विवर्जिताः ।

लग्नाच्चन्द्रान्मदनभवनगे खेटे न स्यादिह परिणयनम् ।

किं वा बाणाशुगमितलवगे जामित्रं स्यादशुभकरमिदम् ।।६७।।

JAMITRA DOSHA: If in the 7th Sign from the Ascendant at marriage or from the Moon there is situated some Planet, it causes the Dosha or Defect named Jamitra'. The marriage Samskar is not auspicious in it, that is, the Ascendant and the Moon of the 7th sign from any planet is not auspicious.

The Jamitra Dosha or Defect is also caused by the Planet who is situated in the 55th Navamsha from the Ascendant or the Moon. This brief Jamitra Dosha or Defect is also specifically inauspicious for marriage Samskar.

Notes: Suppose the Ascendant is in the 2nd Navamsha of the sign of Gemini. Then there are the 8 Navamshas of Gemini and after this there will be 9 Navamshas of each of the Cancer, Leo, Virgo, Libra, Scorpio signs and 2 Navamshas of the Sagittarius sign and thus the Navamsha of Sagittarius will be the 55th which is extremely inauspicious for marriage

If a Planet is situated in the 7th House from any Ascendant or from the Moon, there is formed the rough Jamitra Dosha or Defect. But that whole sign should not be regarded as inauspicious for the marriage Samskar and should not be rejected. The more proper thing will be to accept only the brief 'Jamitra Dosha'. According to it the Planets of the 7th Sign from the Ascendant and the Moon having the same number of degrees as are those of the Ascendant or the Moon will be those which will be rejected as inauspicious.

The Jamitra Dosha or Defect is removed if the Planet situated in the 7th sign from the Ascendant or the Moon at the time of marriage gets the aspect of Benefic Planets.

This Dosha does not occur also if the Moon is in her highest exaltation, in her own sign, in a friend's sign or in the shadavarga of Benefic planets. Vatsyana has said.

सा तु मर्तुः प्रिया नित्यं बुधे चन्द्रस्य सप्तमे ।। that is, the woman who is married at a time when there is Mercury in the 7th sign from the Moon always remains dear to her husband.

According to Varahamihira, the Jamitra Dosha should be considered only in the regions on the bank of the river Jamuna.

It has occurred in 'Sheeghrabodha'

चन्द्रश्चान्दि भृगुजीवो जामित्रे शुभकारकाः ।

स्वर्मानु मानुमन्दारा जामित्रे न शुभप्रदाः ।। that is, the Jamitra Dosha caused by the Moon, Mercury, Jupiter and Venus is the giver of auspicious effects and that caused by the Sun, Mars, Saturn and Rahu is the giver of inauspicious effects.

According to 'Muhurta Martanda'

ततो ऽब्जांगोनात्कृत मौर्विकात्खखय मैलेब्धं यदाब्धीषवः ।

that is, if there is any planet in the 7th sign from the Ascendant or the Moon, then that planet should be subtracted from the Longitude of the Ascendant or the Moon, and the sign etc. which are obtained thus should be converted into minutes and seconds. Then it is divided by 200, and if the Quotient comes to be 54, then there is no Jamitra Dosha or Defect.

According to 'Martanda Vallabha' if the Sun occupies the 3/6/11 Houses the Jamitra Dosha or Defect does not come into being.

THE REMOVAL OF THE DOSHAS (DEFECTS) LIKE EKARGALA ETC.: If the Sun and the Moon being endowed with strength are posited in the Lagna or the Ascendant of the auspicious deed (which is intended to be done) then the Doshas or Defects of 'Ekargala', 'Upagraha', 'Paata', 'Latta', 'Jamitra', 'Kartari' and 'Udaya' (rising) and 'Asta' (Combustion) are destroyed in the same manner as the darkness of the night is destroyed by the rising of the Sun.

THE REMOVAL OF SOME DOSHAS OR DEFECTS DUE TO THE DIFFERENCE OF PLACES: The Nakshtra subjected to the Dosha of 'Upagraha' should be rejected while doing some auspicious deed in the regions of Kurukshetra, and 'Vahluka' (Kashmir); the Nakshtra subjected to the Dosha or Defect of 'Paata' in the regions of Kalinga (the region between the South of Urisa and the North of Madras) and Bengal; that subjected to the Dosha of 'Latta' in the regions of Saurashtra (Surat) and Salva (the regions near the Himalyas); and the 'Nakshtra' which gets 'Vedha' with planets should be rejected in all places.

DASHA YOGA (COMBINATION) DOSHA: The total number of the Nakshtras in which there are the Sun and the Moon is to be divided by 27 and if the remainder after dividing is any of the figures 0/1/4/6/10/11/15/18/19/20, then that day is regarded as affected by the Dosha named as 'Dasha yoga'.

यों गांके दलिते समे मनुयुतेऽथौजे तु सैकेऽर्धिते ।

मं दास्रादथ सम्मिता स्तु मनुभी रेखाः क्रमात्संलिखे—

द्वेषोऽस्मिन् ग्रहचन्द्रयोर्न शुभदः स्यादेकरेखास्थयोः । ॥७१॥

THE EFFECTS OF 'DASHA YOGA': If the remainder is 0 (zero) there will be fear of wind; if it is 1, fear of clouds; if 4, fear of fire; if 6, fear of the king; if 10, fear of thief; if 11, death; if 15, disease; if 18, fear of Vajra (a weapon); if 19, quarrel and; if 20, fear of the destruction of wealth.

If after adding the numbers of the Nakshtras of the Sun and the Moon the figure happens to be an 'even' one, then it should be halved and 14 should be added to the figure thus arrived at. If after adding the figure happens to be an odd one then it should be halved after adding 1 (one) to it. After this 14 curved lines are to be drawn. Beginning with that Nakshtra which is obtained in this way write the names of all the Nakshtras including the Abhijita Nakshtra (that is all the 28 Nakshtras) at the ends of these lines. The planet which is there in a Nakshtra should also be written with that Nakshtra. If the planet and the Moon fall in the same line, then it should be thought that the Moon is subjected to 'Vedha' with that planet. This Vedha is inauspicious.

Notes: Suppose on some day the Sun is in the Jyeshtha and the Moon is in the Hasta Nakshtra. the serial nos. of these Nakshtras are 18 and 13. Added together the total obtained is 31. If 31 is divided by 27 the remainder comes to be 4. Therefore, it is proved that there will be the fear of fire. The Hasta Nakshtra for marriage on that day should be regarded as inauspicious.

Here the total of the Serial Nos. of both the Nakshtras is 31 which is an odd figure; therefore 1 (one) is added to it and when it $(31 + 1 = 32)$ is halved, the figure obtained is 16; and when 14 is added to 16 the figure obtained is 30; if 30 is divided by 28 (as after adding 14 to 16 there comes the figure 30 which is more than the Number of the Nakshtras otherwise it was not to be divided by 28) the remainder comes to be 2, that is, there comes the Bharani Nakshtra. Now, drawing 14 curved lines the first Nakshtra to be written will be Bharani. At the same time, the planet is also written along with that Nakshtra in which he or she happens to be on that day and at that time. Here Rahu and the Moon are in the Hasta Nakshtra and the Sun is in the Jyeshtha Nakshtra. These Planets are on the same curved line. Therefore this day will be inauspicious for marriage.

Maharishi Bharadwaja and Vyasa have said that if the Ascendant at marriage time is occupied by or aspected by Jupiter or Venus, then the Dosha of the yogas named as 'Dasha' does not occur.

लग्नेनाढ्या याततिथ्योऽंकतष्टाः शेषे नागद्वयधितर्केन्दुसङ्ख्ये ।

THE BAANA DOSHA OR DEFECT: To the number of the Tithis which have passed since the Pratipada (the 1st Tithi of a Hindi Month) of the Shukla Paksha (the bright half of the Month) is added the Ascendant at the marriage time and this is divided by 9. If the remainder is 8 then there is the 'Roga Baana' (Disease giving Baana); if it is 2, then Agni Baana (the Baana which causes the fear of fire); if 4, then Raaj Baana (the Baana which causes the fear of the king); if 6, then Chora Baana (the Baana which causes the fear of thief); and if 1, then Mrityu Baana (the Baana which causes death). This Dosha is popular in the region of Maharashtra, that is, it is inauspicious in the Maharashtra, state or region of India.

Notes: As stated in the brackets against each Baana, if there is the 'Roga Baana' the possibility of bodily pain and disease to the husband and wife always remains there; if there is the 'Agni Baana' there remains the fear of fire; if Raaj Baana, there remains the fear of getting punishment from the king; if Chora Baana, there is the fear of theft, loss of things etc.; and if 'Mrityu Baana', there remains the fear of loss of life or death. The meaning is that the effects obtained are those that are indicated by the names of the Baanas.

THE BAANA DOSHAS POPULAR IN NORTHERN INDIA:

The traversed degrees of the Sun on the related Tithi of the month in which the Dosha of Baana is to be considered are to be established in 5 places and to each of them is to be added respectively 6, 3, 1, 8 and 4 and then each is to be divided by 9. If the remainder is 5 in the First place then there will be 'Roga Baana'; if it is 5 in the 2nd place, 'Agni Baana'; if in the 3rd place, 'Raaj Baana'; if in the 4th place, 'Chora Baana'; and if in the 5th place, 'Mrityu Baana'. And if the remainder is 5 after dividing the remainder of the total of all the places by 9, then there will be 'Sashalya Baana'.

Notes: The effects of these 'Baanas' are those that are indicated by their names and have been stated in the previous Shloka. Here only Sashalya Baana has been added. The effect of Sashalya Baana is the treatment by surgery, that is, the affected person will under go surgical treatment.

Example:

Suppose the traversed degrees of the Sun are 17 Then these are placed in 5 Places

17	17	17	17	17
23	20	18	25	21

The remainder when each of these is divided by 9 is respectively 5, 2, 0, 7, and 3. Here it is in the first place that the remainder is 5. Therefore, as long as the traversed degrees of the Sun remain 17 on that day there will remain the 'Baana' named 'Roga' (indicative of disease).

If all the remainders are added together and the total is divided by 9, the remainder comes to be 8 : $5 + 2 + 0 + 7 + 3 \div 9 =$ Remainder 8. If the remainder had been 5 then on that day there would have been the Baana named 'Sashalya'. Therefore, on that day there will be only the presence of the 'Roga Baana'.

THE REMOVAL OF BAANA IN THREE WAYS: According to the difference of time, the Chora Baana and Roga Baana are to be rejected in the night, the Agni Baana and Rajbaana in the day and the Mrityu Baana in the morning and the evening Sandhyas.

According to the difference in days the Raj Baana is to be rejected on Saturday, Mrityu Baana on Wednesday, Agni Baana and Chora Baana on Tuesday, and Roga Baana on Sunday.

According to the difference of the auspicious deeds to be done, the 'Roga Baana' should be rejected in doing 'Yagyopaveeta Samskar'; Agnibaana in the covering (by thatches etc.) of the house; Raj Baana at the time when one starts to do a King's service (or Government Service); the Chora Baana in travelling; and the Mrityu Baana in Marriage Samskar.

THE ASPECTS OF THE PLANETS: The planets have their aspect with 1 (one) charana on the 3/10 Houses from the House in which they are situated, with 2 Charanas on the 9/5 Houses; with 3 Charanas on the 4/8 Houses; and with 4 Charanas (full aspect) on the 7th House. Another speciality about the the aspects of the Planets is that Saturn has his (extra) aspect on the 3/10 Houses; Jupiter on the 9/5 Houses, and Mars on the 4/8 Houses and all the planets have their full aspect on the 7th House from the House in which they are posited.

THE CONSIDERATION OF NAVAMSHAS IN THE ASCENDANT AT THE MARRIAGE TIME: If the Lord of the Navamsha of the Ascendant at the time of marriage aspects the Navamsha sign or the Ascendant or he is posited in either of them, then it is very auspicious for the bridegroom.

And if the Lord of the 7th sign from the Navamsha which is there in the Ascendant aspects the 7th Navamsha, that is, his own Navamsha or he is posited in his own Navamsha, or the Lord of the 7th Navamsha from the Navamsha sign of the Ascendant aspects the 7th House from the Ascendant, then it is auspicious for the bride. If the above is reversed, then it is inauspicious for both.

Notes: Suppose the Ascendant at the marriage time is Libra which happens to be there in the Navamsha of Sagittarius. Then if the Lord of Sagittarius Jupiter is situated in Gemini, then he aspects the sign of Sagittarius, and this Jupiter aspects the sign of Libra as well. Therefore this situation will be auspicious for the bridegroom or if Jupiter is situated in Sagittarius or Libra, even then it will be auspicious for the bridegroom.

If Mercury, the Lord of the 7th sign (Gemini) from the Navamsha sign (Sagittarius) aspects the sign of Gemini or of Sagittarius or if he is situated in the sign of Sagittarius, then it is auspicious for the bride. If that very Mercury being situated in any House in the Ascendant aspects the 7th House, even then it is auspicious for the bride.

THE AUSPICIOUS OR INAUSPICIOUS SITUATION DUE TO THE ASPECT OF THE ASCENDANT LORD AND THE NAVAMSHA LORD: If the Lord of the Navamsha of the Ascendant at the marriage time aspects the Navamsha, and the Ascendant Lord aspects the Ascendant, then it is specially auspicious for the bridegroom. Or if the Navamsha Lord aspects the Ascendant and the Ascendant Lord aspects the Navamsha, even then the situation is indicative of auspiciousness.

And if the Lord of the 7th sign from the Navamsha aspects the 7th sign from the Navamsha and the Lord of the 7th House from the Ascendant aspects the 7th House from the Ascendant, then it is auspicious for the bride. Or if the Lord of the 7th House from the Navamsha aspects the 7th sign from the Ascendant, and the Lord of the 7th sign from the Ascendant aspects the 7th sign from the Navamsha, then it is very auspicious for the bride.

Notes: Here is an example to illustrate the statement made in above Shloka. Suppose the Ascendant at the marriage time is Libra, and the Navamsha sign is Sagittarius. Now if the Ascendant Lord Venus aspects the Ascendant and in the Navamsha Chart Jupiter aspects the sign of Sagittarius, then it is an auspicious situation for the bridegroom.

Or if the Navamsha Lord Jupiter is situated in the Horoscope in a House from where he may aspect the Ascendant and the Ascendant Lord Venus is situated in the Navamsha Chart in a House from where he may aspect the sign of Sagittarius, even then it is an auspicious situation for the bridegroom.

And in the Navamsha Chart Mercury, the Lord of the Gemini sign, is situated in a House from where he may aspect the sign of Gemini, and in the Horoscope Mars, the Lord of the 7th House is situated in a House from where he may aspect the sign of Aries in the 7th House, then it will be auspicious for the bride.

Or in the Navamsha Chart Mercury who is the Lord of the 7th House here is situated in the Horoscope in such a House from where he may aspect the sign of Aries in the 7th House; And in the Horoscope, Mars who is the Lord of the 7th House here is situated in a Navamsha Chart in a House from where he may aspect the sign of Gemini in the 7th House, even then the situation will be auspicious for the bride.

If the friend of the planet who is the Lord of the Navamsha which is there in the Ascendant is a Benefic one and if he aspects the Navamsha sign or the Ascendant, then it is said in the Shastras (Books on Astrology) that the bridegroom who is going to be joined in wedlock will have excellent effects.

And if the friend of the Lord of the 7th Navamsha is a Benefic planet and if he aspects the 7th Navamsha or if he aspects the 7th sign from the Ascendant, then it causes good effects for the bride.

THE SURYA SANKRANTI DOSHA OR DEFECT: The 3 days, the days before and after and the day in the Middle in the Vishuwa Sankranti (the Sankranti of the sign of Aries and of Libra) and in the Ayana Sankranti (the Sankranti of Capricorn and of Cancer) are not acceptable in doing auspicious deeds. In the other Sankrantis (than the above ones) it is the 16 Ghatis before and the 16 Ghatis after the Sankranti which should be rejected by the Learned Astrologers as inauspicious.

देवद्वयं कर्तव्योऽष्टाष्टौ नाड्याऽंकाः खनूपाः क्रमात् ।

THE SANKRANTI GHATIS OF EVERY PLANET: 33 Ghatis in the Sankranti of the Sun, 2 Ghatis in that of the Moon, 9 Ghatis in that of Mars, 6 Ghatis in that of Mercury, 88 Ghatis in that of Jupiter, 9 ghatis in that of Venus and 160 Ghatis in that of Saturn should be rejected (as inauspicious for doing an auspicious deed). Of these the Sankranti of the Sun is more inauspicious than those of the other planets.

Notes: The movement of a planet from one sign to another is referred to as the Sankranti or ingress of that Planet. When a Planet moves from one sign into another, the Ghatis before and the Ghatis after this movement both together have been referred to as the Sankranti Ghatis of that planet.

The time in which the disc of a planet crosses the joining point of two signs is called as the Sankranti Ghatis of that Planet. These Sankranti Ghatis are different, are greater or less in number according to the size of the Disc of a planet and the average speed of that planet. Here the number of the Ghatis has been calculated according to the Average Speed of the Planets.

THE ASCENDANTS NAMED AS PANGU (LAME), ANDHA (BLIND) AND BADHIRA (DEAF): The Ascendants of Libra and Scorpio become Badhira (Deaf) in the day time and those of Capricorn and Sagittarius in the night time. The Ascendants of Leo, Aries and Taurus become Andha (Blind) in the day time and those of Virgo, Gemini and Cancer in the night time. The Ascendant of Aquarius becomes Pangu (Lame) in the day time and that of Pisces in the night time.

Notes: The meanings and significance of the various Ascendants are given in brackets. Thus Pangu means Lame, Andha means blind, and Badhira means deaf.

THE ASCENDANTS NAMED AS PANGU, ANDHA AND BADHIRA ACCORDING TO ANOTHER VIEW: The Ascendants of Sagittarius, Libra and Scorpio are named as deaf in the afternoon; those of Gemini, Cancer and Virgo are named as Andha (blind) in night; those of Leo, Taurus and Aries are Andha (blind) in day; and those of Capricorn, Aquarius and Pisces are Pangu (lame) in both the the Sandhyas (of the morning and of the evening).

THE EFFECTS OF THE ASCENDANTS NAMED AS BADHIRA ETC: If a marriage takes place in the Badhira Ascendants, it causes poverty; if a marriage is done in day in the Andha Ascendant the bride is widowed; there occurs the death of the issues in case marriage is done in Night in the Ascendant named as 'Andha' and if a marriage takes place in the Ascendant named as Pangu there occurs the destruction of wealth. But if there is the aspect of Jupiter on the Ascendant or on the Ascendant Lord there occurs no Dosha or Defect.

Notes: The effects are obtained in that very period in which an Ascendant is called Andha, Pangu and Badhira. Thus, the Virgo Ascendant has been called Andha in night, so its effect will be obtained in night only.

THE EXCELLENT NAVAMSHAS OF THE MARRIAGE OF A DAUGHTER: If a marriage is done in the Navamsha of the Sagittarius, Libra, Virgo, Gemini or Pisces sign, then the girl married thus certainly remains faithful to her husband.

नो चरलग्ने चरलवयोगं तौलिमृगस्थे शशिमृति कुर्यात् ।।८५।।

A daughter should not be married in the last Navamsha, but if the Navamsha of a sign is Vargottama and marriage is done in it, then it is excellent. But if the Moon is situated in the Libra or Capricorn sign, then marriage should not be done in the movable Navamsha of a Movable Ascendant, that is, even Vargottama is not auspicious in this situation.

Notes: The 9th Navamsha of every sign is not acceptable in marriage. But if that Navamsha is that of the sign itself then it is auspicious. For example, in the signs of Gemini, Virgo, Sagittarius, and Pisces the 9th Navamsha is their own, therefore in the case of any of these signs even the 9th Navamsha is auspicious.

If the Moon is placed in the sign of Libra or Capricorn, then there the Vargottama of a Movable sign is also inauspicious.

THE CONSIDERATION OF MARRIAGE IN A PARTICULAR ASCENDANT: Saturn in the 12th House from the Ascendant at marriage, Mars in the 10th House, Venus in the 3rd House, the Moon and a Malefic planet in the Ascendant are not auspicious. And the Ascendant Lord, Venus and the Moon, these in the 6th House; and the Moon, the Ascendant Lord, Benefic Planets and Mars in the 8th House and all the planets in the 7th House are not excellent or auspicious.

Notes: According to some Acharyas (or Astrologers) Venus or Mercury or Jupiter in the 7th House from the Moon endow the girl with good fortune and son.

BENEFIC PLACES OF THE PLANETS IN THE ASCENDANTS AT MARRIAGE: The Sun, Ketu, Rahu and Saturn are auspicious or Benefic if they are situated in the 3/11/8/6 Houses from the Ascendant; Mars is auspicious in the 3/11/6 Houses; the Moon in 2/3/11 Houses; Mercury and Jupiter are auspicious in the Houses other than the 7/12/8 ones; and Venus is auspicious in the Houses other than the 8/3/7/6/12 ones.

THE EXCEPTION TO THE DOSHAS (DEFECTS) LIKE KARTARI ETC.: If the two Malefic Planets causing the Kartari Dosha (Defect) are in their enemies' signs or if they are in their debilitation signs or if they are combust, then the 'Kartari Dosha' or (defect) does not occur. And if Venus, being in her enemy's sign or being in her debilitation sign is situated in the 6th House, the Dosha (Defect) does not occur (Venus situated in the 6th House has been said to be inauspicious or Malefic); if Mars, being in the 8th House, is combust, is in his enemy's sign, or is in his debilitation sign (Mars has been regarded as a Dosha Karaka Planet or inauspicious planet in the 8th House) then the Dosha or Defect does not occur; and if the Moon, being in the 6/8/12 Houses, is in her debilitation sign or in her debilitation Navamsha, then she also does not cause Dosha or defect (the Moon has been said to be Malefic in the 6/8/12 Houses).

THE REMOVAL OF THE OTHER DOSHAS OR DEFECTS: If in the Ascendant at marriage Mercury, Jupiter and Venus are posited in Angles (1/4/10) and Trines (9/5) then all the Doshas, of the year, Ayana, Ritu, Tithi, Month, Nakshtra, Paksha, Dagdha Tithi, Andha Kona, Ascendants of Badhira etc. are destroyed, and the Dosha of the Ascendant and the Navamsha with a Malefic Planet or with the Moon is also destroyed.

Notes: Here only the 1/4/10 Angles will be taken and the 7th House will not be taken although it is also an Angle.

OTHER COMBINATIONS WHICH REMOVE THE DOSHAS OR DEFECTS: If in the Ascendant at marriage Jupiter is in an Angle (1/4/10) or in a Trine (5/9) or the Sun is in the 11th House, or the Ascendant is in Vargottama or the Moon is in Vargottama Navamsha, then all the Doshas are destroyed. And if the Moon is in the 11th House, then the Durmuhurta and the 'PAAPA NAVAMSHA' Doshas are destroyed.

Notes: Here it has been indicated that the Doshas (Defects) are removed if even one of the above stated planets is in the said House.

THE POWER OF THE PLANETS IN REMOVING DOSHAS (DEFECTS): If Mercury is in a Trine or in one of the Angles except the 7th House (that is, in the 1/4/10 Houses) he removes one hundred Doshas; if Venus is in this Situation she removes 200 Doshas; if Jupiter is in this situation he destroys one lac Doshas; And if the Ascendant Lord or the Navamsha Lord of the Ascendant is in the 11th House or in the 1/4/10 Houses from the Ascendant, then he destroys all the Doshas in the same manner as fire burns cotton.

रामा मन्दागुकेत्वारे साद्धैकैकं विंशोपकाः ॥६२॥

THE VIMSHOPAKA OF THE PLANETS IN THE ASCENDANTS: Mercury and Venus both have 2 Vimshopakas each; the Moon has 5; the Sun 3.5; Jupiter, 3; and Saturn, Rahu, Ketu and Mars each of them has 1.5 Vimshopakas.

Notes: In the event of a planet's being in that House which has been spoken of as auspicious for that Planet in the Ascendant at Marriage, the Planet gives the Ascendant his/her own strength mentioned in the Shloka. This Bala or strength is referred to as 'Lagna Bala' (the strength acquired by the Ascendant). In the Ascendant at Marriage the Bala or strength of the planets is calculated according to their situation and it is on the basis of their strength that the auspicious or inauspicious Effects are predicted. If the total Vimshopaka strength falls short of 5 in an Ascendant, then that Ascendant is left out. The Ascendant having this strength from 5 to 10 is regarded as of low standard, that from 10 to 15 as of medium standard, and that from 15 to 20 as of excellent standard.

THE CONSIDERATION OF THE FATHER-IN-LAW ETC. FROM THE PLANETS: Venus is Mother-in-Law; the Sun, Father-in-Law; the Ascendant, the body; the 7th Lord, husband; and the Moon, the soul. At the time of marriage the Astrologer should calculate the strength of these planets and then study what the happiness to the girl from her Mother-in-Law etc. after marriage will be.

THE MUHURTA OF THE MARRIAGE OF THE HYBRID RACES: If the marriage of the Hybrid Races (Yawanas, Mohammedans, Rajakas, or washermen etc.) takes place on Saturday, Tuesday and Sunday in the Krishna Paksha or the dark half of the month and in those Nakshtras which have been rejected as inauspicious for doing Marriage Samskar, then it (the marriage) gives sons, longevity, profit of wealth and increases love.

SPECIAL CONSIDERATION IN THE GANDHARVA MARRIAGE ETC.: In the Gandharva Marriage etc. the 4 Nakshtras from the Nakshtra of the Sun to that of the Moon are inauspicious, 2 (ahead of it) are auspicious, 3 are inauspicious, 1 is auspicious, 1 is inauspicious, 4 are inauspicious, 6 are inauspicious, 3 are auspicious, 1 is inauspicious and 3 are auspicious.

Notes: Suppose the Sun is situated in the Nakshtra of Rohini and the Moon in that of Punarvasu, then from Rohini to Punarvasu there are 4 Nakshtras (including both the 1st and the last)- Rohini, Mrigashira, Ardra and Punarvasu. In these 4 Nakshtras, Gandharva Marriage is inauspicious; in the 2 Nakshtra ahead of it (Pushya and Ahslesha) such marriage is auspicious; then in the 3 Nakshtra ahead of Ashlesha (Magha, Poorvaphalguni and Uttaraphalguni) it is inauspicious. Auspiciousness and inauspiciousness of such Marriage is to be considered in this order.

Manu has spoken of 8 kinds of Marriages 1. Prajapatya, 2. Brahma, 3. Daiva, 4. Arsha (the time of marriage in these marriages is considered according to the shastras) 5. Gandharva 6. Asura 7. Rakshasa and 8. Paishacha (The time of these marriages-from 5 to 8-is not mentioned in the shastras).

THE AUSPICIOUS TIME OF THE OTHER DEEDS RELATED TO THE MARRIAGE SAMSKAR: Before marriage the strength of the Moon of the bride and the bridegroom is to be seen or even in the absence of it in the Nakshtras described in marriage, there should be done for marriage preparing of pulses by getting them ground, separating husk from paddy (for preparing rice), grinding the wheat etc. decoration of the sacred Pitcher (called Mangal Kalasha in Sanskrit), decoration of the house and its parlour, making of Vedi and Mandap (Pavilion) etc. (Vedi is made for doing Havana or yajna for burning the Sacred fire and pouring butter, spices, myrrh etc. into it; Mandap is the pavilion under which Vedi is made). But the above stated deeds should not be started on the 3/6/9th day before marriage.

MEASURE OF THE VEDI AND THE MUHURTA FOR REMOVING IT: In the left part of the marriage Mandap (Pavilion) a Vedi of one hand of height and of 4 hands on each of the four-sides should be prepared. The Marriage Mandap (Pavilion) should be removed on the other even days than the 6th day (that is on the 2/4/8/10 etc. days) and on the odd (5/7 etc.) days.

THE TIME OF ANOINTING (OILING) THE BRIDE ETC. BEFORE MARRIAGE: The number of days in which the would be bride born in the signs of Aries etc. and the child whose Upanayana Samskar may be done are to be bathed and anointed (oiled) etc. before these Samskars has been fixed. Thus the would be bride born in the sign of Aries is to be anointed etc. on 7 days before marriage; she who is born in that of Taurus, 10 days; in Gemini, 5 days; in Cancer, 10 days; in Leo, 5 days; in Virgo, 7 days; in Libra, 7 days; in Scorpio, 5 days; in Sagittarius, 5 days; in Capricorn, 5 days; in Aquarius, 5 days; and in Pisces, 7 days.

THE PLACE WHERE THE POLE OF THE MANDAP (PAVILIAN) IS TO BE FIXED: If at the time of marriage the Sun is in the signs of Virgo, Leo and Libra then the pole is to be fixed in the Ishaana Kone (between the East and North direction); if he is in Scorpio, Sagittarius, and Capricorn, in the Vayavya Kone (between the North and West direction); if he is in Aquarius, Pisces and Aries, in the Nairitya Kone (between the South and West direction); and if he is in Taurus, Gemini and Cancer, in the Agni Kone (between the South and East direction).

THE TIME OF GODHULI LAGNA (GODHULI OR EVENING ASCENDANT): In the Godhuli Lagna no special Dosha of Nakshtra, Tithi, Karana, Lagna, day, Navamsha, Muhurta, yoga, the Situation of planets in the 8th House and Jamitra etc. is to be considered. The Munis or the sages have praised the Godhuli Lagna and have recommended it as auspicious for doing all deeds (religious).

KINDS OF THE GODHULI LAGNA: If in the season of Hemanta (Margashirsha, Pausha, Magha and Phalgun) the Sun appears to be a disc of red colour, it should be thought that it is the time of 'Godhuli Lagna'. And in the months of Chaitra, Baisakha, Jyeshtha and Asadha, it is the time of the 'Godhuli Lagna' when half of the disc of the Sun is set; in those of Shravana, Bhadrapada, Ashwina, and Kartika it is when the disc of the Sun is completely set. These three kinds of the Godhuli Lagnas are regarded as auspicious for doing all kinds of auspicious deeds.

THE THINGS WHICH SHOULD BE LEFT EVEN IN THE GODHULI TIME: On Thursday the Godhuli Lagna is auspicious only after the setting of the Sun and on Saturday it is auspicious before the setting of the Sun. Even in the Godhuli Lagna, if the Moon is in the Ascendant or in the 6/8 Houses, it causes the death of the bride; and if Mars is in the Ascendant or in the 7/8 Houses from the Ascendant, it causes the death of the bridegroom. And if even in the Godhuli time the Moon is in the 11/2/3 Houses, there occurs the obtainment of happiness to the bridegroom and the bride.

Notes: On Thursday, before the setting of the Sun there occurs the Dosha of 'Ardhayaama'. It is because of this that the Godhuli Lagna after the setting of the Sun only has been said to be auspicious. But on Saturday it is the Godhuli Lagna before the setting of the Sun only that has been regarded as auspicious as on this day after the setting of the sun there occurs the Muhurta named 'Kulika' and the moments of the Kulika Muhurta are very inauspicious.

THE MOTION (SPEED) OF THE SUN IN THE SIGNS ARIES AND SO ON: In Aries the motion (speed) of the Sun is 58 Kalas, (minutes), in Taurus 57 Kalas, in Gemini 57 Kalas, in Cancer 57 Kalas in Leo 58 Kalas, in Virgo 59 Kalas, in Libra 60 Kalas, in Scorpio 61 Kalas, in Sagittarius 61 Kalas, in Capricorn 61 Kalas, in Aquarius 60 Kalas, and in Pisces 59 Kalas.

104. TO KNOW THE LONGITUDE OF THE SUN AT A GIVEN TIME: The ghatas and the Palas which have passed since the time when the Sankranti of the Sun started to occur to the Ishta Kaala of the Ascendant at Marriage or to the other desired Ishta Kaala, are to be multiplied by the above stated motion (speed) of the Sun. The product is to be divided by 60. The quotient in degrees etc. is to be added to the number of signs which have been traversed by the Sun and it will give the longitude of the Sun at a given time (Ishta Kaala).

भोग्यंभुक्तं चान्तरालोदयाद्व्यं षष्ट्या भक्तं स्वेष्टनाड्यो भवेयु ।।१०५।।

TO KNOW THE DEGREES ETC OF THE DESIRED LAGNA: The Navamsha number before the auspicious Navamsha in the auspicious Ascendant for marriage etc. which is desired to be known should be multiplied by 10 and the product is to be divided by 3, and the quotient thus obtained are the traversed degrees etc. of the Ascendant for knowing the shadavarga.

Notes: There are 30 degrees and 9 Navamshas in a sign. Therefore, in order to know the desired Navamsha in an Ascendant there is the formula

$$\begin{array}{cc} 30 \times \text{desired Navamsha} & 10 \times \text{Navamsha} \\ 9 & 3 \end{array}$$

Suppose in the Gemini Ascendant found out for marriage we have to know the Navamsha of the Pisces sign. The first Navamsha in the Gemini sign is of Libra, and the Navamsha of Aquarius from the Navamsha of the desired sign of Pisces is the 5th one. Therefore by multiplying 5 with 10 and then by dividing it by 3 we get 16°-40'. Therefore the Navamsha of Pisces will begin when the 16°-40' of the Lagna of Gemini will have passed.

THE KNOWLEDGE OF ISHTA KAALA FROM THE LONGITUDE OF THE ASCENDANT AND OF THE SUN: There will be separately the to be traversed Palas of the Sun and the traversed Palas of the Ascendant if the to be traversed degrees of the Sayana Sun and the traversed degrees of the Sayana Ascendant are multiplied separately by their 'Udayamaana' or Palas at the time of rising and each of them then is divided by 30. To the Sum of both (the obtained to be traversed palas of the Sayana Sun and the traversed palas of the Ascendant) are to be added the 'Udaya Palas' of the signs between the Sun and the Ascendant and this should be divided by 60, and the figure thus obtained is the Ishta Kaala or the desired time from the time of the Sunrise.

Notes: Here is an illustration. Suppose the Ascendant at marriage time is $2-16^{\circ}-40'-00''$. If Ayanamsha is added to it then we get $2-16^{\circ}-40'-0'' + 21^{\circ}-22'-3'' = 3-8^{\circ}-2'-3''$. If the 'Udayamaana' of Cancer, 342 Palas are multiplied by its traversed degrees $8^{\circ}-2'-3''$ it gives $2747-41-6$. If it is divided by 30 then are obtained the traversed Palas of the Ascendant $91-35$. By adding the Ayanamsha $21^{\circ}-22'-23''$ to the Longitude of the Sun $10-6^{\circ}-33'-34''$ we get the Sayana Sun $10-27^{\circ}-55'-57''$. By multiplying the to be traversed degrees of the Sayana Sun (30°) - ($27^{\circ}-55'-57''$) = $2^{\circ}-4'-3''$ with the Udaya Maana of Aquarius and by dividing the figure thus obtained by 30 we get the to be traversed palas of the Sun $17/26$. If to the Sum of these $91/35 + 17/26 = 109/1$ are added the 'Udayamaanas' of the signs between the Sayana Sun and the Ascendant of Pisces, Aries, Taurus and Gemini ($221 + 221 + 253 + 304$) we get 1108 palas. (If these Palas are divided by 60 then the Quotient thus obtained is the Ishta Kaala $18/28$; that is, the Navamsha of Pisces in the Ascendant of Gemini will begin at $18/28$ Ghatis and Palas from the Sunrise.

SPECIAL STATEMENT ON KNOWING THE ISHTA KAALA: If the Sayana Ascendant and the Sayana Sun are in the same sign, then the Sun is subtracted from the Ascendant and the remaining degrees etc. are multiplied by the Udayamaana of that sign and the product is divided by 30, then the quotient thus obtained is itself Ishta Kaala.

If the Sayana Ascendant is less than the Sayana Sun, then the Ishta Kaala obtained in this way will be of before the Sunrise. If the Ascendant is to be known in the night then 6 signs are added to the Sun, the Ascendant etc. are to be known by the method stated above.

THE DESCRIPTION OF THE ABOVE STATED DOSHAS WHICH ARE TO BE AVOIDED WHILE DOING THE MARRIAGE SAMSKAR: Utpaata, Mahapaata, Dagdha Tithi, the evil combinations like Vyatipaata etc. the combustion of the Moon, Jupiter, and Venus Tithi Kshaya, Tithi Vridhdi, Gandanta, Bhadra, the day of Sankranti, the combustion of the Ascendant Lord and the Navamsha Lord, the Dosha arising due to the situation of the Ascendant Lord, the Navamsha Lord and the Moon in the 6/8 Houses, the 'Shadavarga' or divisional chart of the Malefic Planet, the Ascendant and the Navamsha occupied by the Moon and the Malefic Planet, the Chandrayudha Dosha, the Kharjoor Dosha, Dasha Yoga, Jamitra Dosha, Latta Dosha, Vedha (Sapta Shalaka and Panchashalaka), Baana Dosha, Paapa Kartari yoga, the Dusta or Evil Yoga (combination) arising due to Tithi, Nakshtra, and Days, the Doshas or Defects of Ardha Yaama, Kulika etc., the Nakshtra with a Malefic Planet, the Nakshtra traversed by a Malefic, the Nakshtra having an eclipse, the Nakshtra in which a Malefic Planet is about to enter, the Nakshtra in which there has been a portent, the Nakshtra in which a Ketu has risen, the Nakshtra rising at Sandhya time, the Nakshtra which has been subjected to Vedha, the Nakshtra for which there has been Planetary war and the Ascendant with a planet-all these Doshas are to be avoided while doing some auspicious deed like marriage etc.

THE COMING IN OF THE BRIDE AFTER MARRIAGE

समाद्रिपञ्चांकदिने विवाहाद्धूप्रवेशोऽष्टिदिनान्तराले ।
शुभः परस्तद्विषमाब्दमासदिनेऽक्षवर्षात्परतो यथेष्टम् । १ ।

AUSPICIOUS TIME FOR THE COMING IN OF THE NEWLY WEDDED BRIDE: The coming in of the bride (to her husband's home) after marriage is regarded as auspicious during the 15 days from the day on which the marriage is celebrated on the even days (2/4/6/8/10/12/14) and if the days are odd then on 5/9/7th day.

If the coming in of the bride may not occur during the 16 days after the day of marriage, then it is regarded auspicious during one month on odd days (17/19/21/23/25/27/29th day); then after one month during one year in the odd months and then after one year in the odd years.

If the time of the coming in of the bride to her husband's home exceeds five years, then the coming in may be at any time according to one's own will.

Notes: The coming in of the newly wedded bride to her husband's home for the first time after marriage is really a part of marriage. According to 'Muhurta Martanda' it is the time of the bride's first meeting with her husband. In some provinces of India the 'Baraat' or the marriage party returned after marriage without the bride because the bride used to be too young to go to her husband's home. In the present times marriages are done at mature age. Therefore the coming in of the newly wedded bride occurs at the same time when the marriage has taken place.

AUSPICIOUS TITHI AND NAKSHTRA FOR THE FIRST COMING IN OF THE BRIDE TO HER HUSBAND'S HOME: The first coming in of the bride to her husband's home is auspicious in the Nakshtras named as Dhruwa (Uttaraphalguni, Uttarashadha, Uttarabhadrapada and Rohini), those named as Kshipra (Hasta, Ashwini and Pushya), those named as Mridu (Mrigashira, Rewati, Chitra and Anuradha), Shravana, Dhanishtha, Moola, Magha and Swati, on the other Tithis and days except the Rikta Tithis (4/9/14) and Tuesday and Sunday.

SPECIAL CONSIDERATION REGARDING THE LIVING OF THE BRIDE IN HER HUSBAND'S HOME IN THE FIRST YEAR AFTER MARRIAGE: If after the marriage the bride lives in her husband's home in the month of first Jyeshtha, she destroys the elder brother of her husband, if she lives there in the first Adhi massa, she destroys her husband, if in the first Ashadha she destroys her mother-in-law; if in the first Pausha, she destroys the father-in-law; and if in the first Kshaya Maasa she destroys her own self. And if after the marriage she lives in her father's house in the month of Chaitra she destroys her father.

Notes: If the woman does not have 'Jetha' (husband's elder brother), father-in-law, mother-in-law and father, then there is no Dosha or defect. Here the destruction of the relatives Jetha, father-in-law etc means that evil may happen to them in future.

THE MUHURTA FOR THE DWIRAGMANA (The bride's going to her husband's home for the second time after marriage): The Muhurta (auspicious time) for the bride's going to her husband's home for the second time after her first coming in there is, in odd years, when the Sun is in Aquarius, Aries, Scorpio, -when the Sun and Jupiter are in a benefic house from the sign of Virgo, on auspicious days, in the Ascendants of Gemini, Pisces, Virgo, Libra and Taurus, and in the Nakshtras named as Laghu (small) (Hasta, Ashwini and Pushya), those named as Dhruwa (Uttaraphalguni, Uttarashadha, Uttarabhadrapada, and Rohini), those named as Chara or Movable (Swati, Punarvasu, Shravana, Dhanishtha and Shatabhisha), those named as Mridu or Delicate (Mrigashira, Rewati, Chitra, Anuradha) and that of Moola-in these 17 Nakshtras.

THE CONSIDERATION OF VENUS ON THE BRIDE'S GOING TO HER HUSBAND'S HOME FOR THE SECOND TIME: If at the time of going on a journey Venus happens to be in front and on the right side, then the child on his first journey, and the pregnant woman and the newly wedded woman should not go on the journey, because the first journey of the child, and the journey of the pregnant woman and of the newly wedded woman cause respectively death of, abortion of and sterility in the person concerned.

Notes: Venus rises in the east or in the west. When the Spashta (Longitude) of Venus is more than the Spashta (Longitude) of the Sun, then she rises in the west. In this condition if the journey is done towards the west then Venus will be in front, and if it is done towards the south then she is on the right side. Therefore, leaving the West and the South the journey towards the East and the North may be undertaken. On the other hand if the Spashta of Venus is less than that of the Sun, then Venus rises in the morning in the east. In this condition she is in front in the journey towards the east and on the right side in that towards the north. Therefore, leaving the east and the north, journey towards the west and the south may be undertaken. It will be auspicious. The woman who is pregnant and also who has been newly delivered of a child should always have this consideration of Venus.

नृपपीडने नववधूप्रवेशने प्रतिमार्गवो भवति दोषकृत्र हि ।३।।

THE REMOVAL OF THE DOSHA OR DEFECT OF VENUS WHEN SHE IS IN FRONT: At the time of going from one city to another, on the coming of some emergency condition in the country, when going to join a marriage (in the marriage party), in the pilgrimage to some temple (or other holy place) in the condition when one is subjected to the oppression of the king and has to go to another place and the coming in for the first time of the newly wedded bride to her husband's home- in these conditions-Venus's being in front does not cause any Dosha or Defect.

THE OTHER REMOVAL OF THE DOSHA OR DEFECT OF VENUS WHEN SHE IS IN FRONT: If the rising or emerging, of the breasts of a married woman happens to be in her father's house and if she has menses there, then the Dosha or Defect of Venus's being in front is not there. And to the issues of the Gotra or family of Bhrigu, Angira, Vatsa, Vashishtha, Kashyap, Atri, Bharadwaj of these seven sages-there does not occur the Dosha or Defect of Venus's being in front.

Notes: In the ancient Times the marriage of a daughter was done before puberty or before the emerging of breasts and starting of menses. The Dosha or Defect of Venus's being in front has been said for the bride of that age.

THE DOING OF YAJNA OR THE WORSHIP OF FIRE THE MUHURTA (AUSPICIOUS TIME) FOR AGNYADHAAN OR WORSHIP OF FIRE: The doing of Agnihotra (Yajna) is auspicious at the time when the Sun is in Uttarayana (moving towards the North) on the other Tithis except those of Rikta (4/9/14) in the Nakshtras named as Mishra or mixed (Vishakha and Kritika), in those named as Dhruwa or Sthira (the 3 Uttaras and Rohini), in those of Rewati, Mrigashira, Jyeshtha, and Pushya-in these 10 Nakshtras.

The doing of Yajna or Havana is inauspicious if the Moon, Mars, Jupiter and Venus are in their debilitation signs, are combust, are defeated in the Planetary war and are in the enemy signs.

Notes: The worship of fire (the Havana bearing the name of Jyotishtoma etc) which is done through the Vedic and the Smarta deeds is known by the name of Agnyadhan or Agnihotra. For the Yajna after doing the worship of fire it is put into the Samidhas (pieces of wood), it is also 'Agnyadhana'. The Agnyadhana Yajna is regarded as the Mouth. It is done by men with their wives.

Many acharyas think that the Agnyadhaan Muhurta is considered at the time of marriage when the Agnihotra or Havana is done every day.

At the time of the division of property among brothers the doing of Agnyadhaan is regarded as the most important thing. Some Acharyas say that Agnyadhaan should be done by one at that very time when devotion in him is aroused. If Agnyadhaan is done at the time of marriage there is no need for it to consult the Muhurta.

LAGNA SHUDHDHI (OR AUSPICIOUS LAGNA) IN AGNYA DHAAN: The situation of the Moon and of the Navamshas of the Cancer, Capricorn, Pisces, Aquarius signs and of the Lagna or Ascendant of these is regarded as inauspicious in Agnyadhaan.

If in the 9/5/1/4/7/10/3/6/11 Houses from the Lagna or Ascendant there are the Sun, the Moon, Jupiter and Mars and in the 6/3/11 Houses there are Mercury, Venus, Saturn, Rahu and Ketu, and the 8th House from the Lagna or Ascendant is without any Planet, then Agnyadhaan is auspicious.

THE YOGA OR COMBINATION DUE TO WHICH THE NATIVE CONTINUOUSLY DOES YAJNAS: If Jupiter is situated in the Ascendant of Sagittarius or there is the Aries sign in the Ascendant and Mars is situated in it or Mars is there in the 10th or the 7th House from the Ascendant or in the 3/6/11 Houses there is the Moon or the Sun, then the doer of Agnihotra does Yajnas for a long time.

THE CORONATION OF A KING

राजाभिषेकः शुभ उत्तरायणे गुर्विन्दुशुक्रैरुदितैर्बलान्वितैः ।
मौमार्कलग्नेशदशेशजन्मषैर्नो चैत्ररिक्तारनिशामलिम्बुचे ॥१॥

THE MUHURTA FOR CORONATION: The auspicious Muhurta for the Coronation of a king is when the Sun is in Uttarayana (moving towards the North and is in the signs from Capricorn to Gemini), Jupiter, the Moon and Venus are not combust, Mars, the Sun, the Lord of the Natal Ascendant, the Lord of the present Dasha of the would-be-king and the Lord of the Janama Rashi or sign are endowed with strength.

Coronation should not be done in the Chaitra month, on the Rikta Tithis (4/9/14), in the night on Tuesday and in the Adhimaas.

Notes: The sacred bathing along with the chanting of Mantras (spells) according to the specific Vedic manner of a king's son is named as 'Rajyabhisheka'. Coronation or putting on the Crown is the English equivalent to 'Rajyabhisheka'. There is no need of selecting a Muhurta for the Rajyabhisheka of a Prince if it takes place after the death of the king.

शाक्रश्रवः क्षिप्रमृदुधुवोद्भुमिः शीर्षोदये वोपचये शुभे तनौ ।
पापैस्त्रिषष्टायगतैः शुभग्रहैः केन्द्रत्रिकोणायधनत्रिसंस्थितैः ॥२॥

THE NAKSHTRAS AND THE AUSPICIOUS LAGNAS OR ASCENDANTS FOR THE CORONATION: The Rajyabhisheka or Coronation of a King is auspicious in the Nakshtras of Jyeshtha, Sharvana, those named as Kshipra (Hasta, Ashwini and Pushya), those named as Mridu (Mrigashira, Rewati, Chitra and Anuradha), those named as Dhruwa or Sthira (the 3 Uttaras and Rohini), in the Ascendant rising with its head (Gemini, Leo, Virgo, Libra Scorpio and Aquarius) or the King's natal Ascendant and in the Ascendant of the 3/6/10/11 Houses from the Janama Rashi or sign, when the Malefic Planets are in the 3/6/11 Houses and when there are Benefic Planets in the Angles, the Trines and 11/2/3 Houses.

THE EFFECTS OF THE LAGNA OR ASCENDANT AND THE REMOVAL OF THE DOSHAS OR DEFECTS: If there are Malefic Planets in the Ascendant at the time of the Rajyabhisheka the king will be affected by diseases; if there is a malefic planet in the 8th House, then there will be the occurrence of death; if there is a Malefic Planet in the 5th House, then there will be trouble and pain to the King's son; if there are Malefic Planets in the 2nd and the 12th House the King will suffer from poverty; if there is a Malefic Planet in the 10th House, he will be subjected to indolence or laziness; if there are Malefic Planets in the 4th and the 7th Houses, the King will be without rights; and if there are Benefic Planets in the Angles then it is auspicious in every way.

THE YOGA OR COMBINATION OF IMMOVABLE PROPERTY ON THE BASIS OF THE RAJYABHISHEKA LAGNA: If Jupiter is in the Ascendant or in a Trine, Mars in the 6th House and Venus in the 10th House, then the king is endowed with Rajya

Lakshmi (Royal wealth) and happiness. And if Saturn is in the 3rd, the Sun in the 11th, and Jupiter, in the 10th or in the 4th House, then the King's land (Kingdom) always remains immovable or fixed, that is, there always remains stability in the kingdom of the king.

JOURNEYS AND TRAVELS

यात्रायां प्रविदितजन्मनां नृपाणां दातव्यं

To those Kings (persons) whose 'Janama Kundali' or horoscope is known according to their time of birth, the Muhurta (auspicious time) for journeys and travels should be told through the medium of their Janama Kundalis or horoscopes, and those who have no knowledge of the time of their birth should be instructed about the Muhurta of a journey according to the knowledge of the auspicious and the inauspicious situations of 'Shakun' or 'Omens' and of Horary System.

Notes: The Muhurta or auspicious time selected for attacking an enemy which happens to be an as auspicious Tithi, on an auspicious day, in an auspicious Nakshtra, in an auspicious Ascendant is a very important travel Muhurta for a king. The travel Muhurta for commercial purposes, for a pilgrimage or for other deeds is an ordinary one.

In this Chapter the author has described the Muhurtas for a king. But the king is merely a representative. The word 'King' does not refer merely to a king, but to an ordinary man as well, as the Muhurta is meant for everybody

त्रिरिपुखायगृहं यदि वोदयो विजय एव भवेद्वसुधापतेः ॥२॥

THE QUESTION INDICATING AUSPICIOUS EFFECTS IN A JOURNEY : If the Janama Rashi or the Janama Lagna is there in the Horary Ascendant or if the Lords of both these signs are in the Lagna or Ascendant or any Sign happening to be in the 3/6/10/11 Houses from the Janama Rashi, or the Janama Lagna is also there in the Horary Ascendant, then the journey of the king gives him victory.

Notes: In this Shloka 6 Yogas or combinations are formed due to the difference of Janama Rashi and the Janama Lagna.

I. Suppose the Janama Rashi of the king is Pisces, that is, the Moon in the horoscope is in the sign of Pisces. At the time when the question is asked this sign happens to be in the Ascendant or in the First House. This will form one Yoga.

II. Another Yoga is formed if the Rashi in the Ascendant happens to be in the Ascendant also at the time when the question is asked.

III. If the Lord of the Janama Rashi is situated in the Ascendant of the Horary Chart

IV. If the Lord of the Ascendant in the Horoscope is situated in the Ascendant of the Horary Chart.

V. The Janama Rashi is, as we supposed, in Pisces. Then if the signs in the 3/6/10/11 Houses from Pisces, that is, the signs of Taurus, Leo, Sagittarius and Capricorn happen to be there in the Ascendant of the Horary Chart.

VI. Suppose the natal Ascendant is Sagittarius, then the signs that are there in the 3/6/10/11 Houses from the Ascendant, that is, Aquarius, Taurus, Virgo and Libra are in the Ascendant in the Horary Chart.

हिबुके द्युनेऽथ शुभवर्गकस्तनौ यदि

THE OTHER YOGAS INDICATING AUSPICIOUS EFFECTS:

If the Janama Lagna or the Janama Rashi of the enemy (One who is to be attacked) or the Lords of both of these are in the 4th and 7th House from the Lagna in the Horary Chart, then the king gets victory, or if the sign which is there in 3/6/10/11 Houses from the Janama Rashi, or the Janama Lagna of the enemy is there in the 4th or the 7th House from the Lagna or Ascendant in the Horary Chart or there is the "Shadavarga" (Divisional chart) of the Benefic Planets in the Lagna of the Horary Chart or if there are the signs rising with their heads (3/5/6/9/11) in the Lagna of the Horary Chart, then the journey is the giver of victory.

4. AUSPICIOUS QUESTION FOR PERSONS WHOSE DATE OF BIRTH IS NOT KNOWN: If at the time of asking the question there is beautiful charming land around the astrologer or an auspicious thing is seen or something is heard about it and the person is putting the question to the astrologer with respect and reverence or if there is a 'Chara' or Movable Lagna or Ascendant (1/4/7/10) which is occupied by or aspected by Benefic Planets, even then Journey is the giver of auspicious effects.

5. THE QUESTION RELATING TO A JOURNEY INDICATING INAUSPICIOUS EFFECTS : If in the Lagna or Ascendant of the Horary Chart there are situated Mars and the Moon and Saturn aspects them, then the king is defeated by his enemy; or if the Moon is in the 7th or the 8th House from the Ascendant of the Horary

Chart, and there is the Sun in the Ascendant, then failure is obtained in the journey. If the Sun is posited in the 8th or the 7th House and the Moon is gone in the Ascendant or if some Malefic Planet is situated in the 4/8/1/7 House from the Lagna or Ascendant of the Horary Chart, even then the person putting the question (the king) gets defeated.

6. THE CONSIDERATION OF THE DIRECTION OF THE JOURNEY ON THE BASIS OF THE QUESTION PUT BY THE PERSON UNDERTAKING THE JOURNEY : If from Mars there is in a Trine (5/9) Saturn, Venus, Mercury, Jupiter, one of these or all of them, or if from the Sun there is in Trine the Moon then the person undertaking the journey will not be able to go in the direction in which he wants to go. The journey will be in the direction of that Planet who is the stronger of the two.

Notes: Suppose one wants to go in the Eastern direction and there is Jupiter in a trine from Mars, and between Mars and Jupiter, the latter (Jupiter) is stronger than the former one then the person will go on journey towards the Direction of the stronger Planet (Jupiter), that is, in the Ishaana (between North and East) direction

The Lords of the Directions, Eastern etc. are as follows :

1. The Sun : East
2. Venus : between the South and the East
3. Mars : South
4. Rahu : Nairiritya (South West)
5. Saturn : West
6. The Moon : Vayavya Kone (North-West)
7. Mercury : North
8. Jupiter : Ishaana (between East-North)

7. THE SECOND YOGA OR COMBINATIONS REGARDING THE DIRECTION OF THE JOURNEY : The Journey is done in the direction of the Planet who is the strongest one among those Planets who are in the 5th House from the Lord of the Direction in the Lagna at the time of asking the question.

Notes: Suppose the journey is to be done in the Western direction. Then suppose in the Lagna or Ascendant at the time of asking the question there is Mars in the 5th House from the Lord of the Western direction (Saturn) then the person undertaking the journey will go in the Direction of Mars (South) if Mars is stronger than Saturn, and he will go in the direction of Saturn (West) if he is stronger than Mars.

8. THE EFFECTS OF A JOURNEY ACCORDING TO THE SUN'S LONGITUDE : If at the time of the Journey the Sun is in the signs of Sagittarius, Aries, and Leo, the journey is auspicious or beneficial, if he (the Sun) is in those of Capricorn, Aquarius, Gemini, Virgo, Taurus and Libra, it (the journey) gives effects of medium level (that is, it is neither auspicious nor inauspicious), and if he is in those of Cancer, Pisces and Scorpio, then the journey undertaken in such times is a long one.

The journey in the Taras of 1/5/7/3, at the time of the journey, from the Janama Rashi of the person going on a journey is harmful and causes evil, that is, in the Nakshtras 1/3/5/7/10/12/14/16/19/21/23/25 from the Janama Nakshtra, journey should not be undertaken.

9. THE AUSPICIOUS AND INAUSPICIOUS EFFECTS OF TITHIS AND NAKSHTRAS IN A JOURNEY : A Journey is not auspicious if it is undertaken on the Tithis of 6th, 12th, 8th, the Pratipada or the First Tithi of the Shukla Paksha (or the bright half of the Month), Amavasya or the 30th Tithi, Pauranmasi or the 15th Tithi and on the Tithis named as Rikta (4/9/14). It (the Journey) is auspicious if it is undertaken in the Nakshtras of Ashwini, Punar Vasu, Anuradha Mrigashira, Pushya, Rewati, Hasta, Shravana and Dhanishtha.

Notes: If the Tithis which have been rejected as inauspicious are Sidhaha etc due to the Yoga or combination of day etc, then the journey will be auspicious. Vashishtha clearly says in this respect :

शुक-ज्ञ-कुज-मन्देज्या वारा नन्दादिषु कमात् ।

सिद्धा तिथिः सिद्धिदा स्यात् सर्वकार्येषु सर्वदा ॥

That is,

The Tithis which form the evil Yogas like Dagdha etc. should altogether be rejected. In connection with Nakshtras also it should be kept in mind that if in the 9 Nakshtras which have been told as auspicious for undertaking a journey there are formed evil Yogas or Combinations like Yamaghanta etc. they should be rejected.

10. THE CONSIDERATION OF 'VAAR SHOOLA' OR SHOOLA ON THE DAY AND NAKSHTRA SHOOLA IN A JOURNEY : The wise person who is desirous of getting wealth, victory and life should not go in the Eastern direction in the Jyeshtha Nakshtra and on Monday and Saturday, in the Southern Direction in the Poorvabhadrapada Nakshtra and on Thursday, in the Western Direction on Sunday and Friday and in the Rohini Nakshtra, and in the Northern Direction in the Uttara phalguni Nakshtra and on Tuesday and Wednesday.

Notes: The word 'Shoola' means a disturbing thing or the thing which puts obstacles on the way of doing something. Therefore, 'Vaar Shoola' etc should be taken to mean the failure of some purpose of a journey in a certain direction on a certain day or in a certain Nakshtra etc.. The word Shoola also mean intense pain. Therefore, if a journey is undertaken in a Nakshtra or on a day which has 'Shoola', the person undertaking the journey gets intense pain.

THE SPECULUM OF SHOOLAS OF THE DAY AND THE NAKSHTRA

Direction	East	South	West	North
VAAR SHOOLA	Monday Saturday	Thursday	Sunday Friday	Tuesday Wednesday
NAKSHTRA SHOOLA	Jyeshtha	Poorvabhadrapada	Rohini	uttara-phalguni

If it is necessary and one is compelled to undertake a journey on the days which are rejected and journey on which is forbidden, then journey should be undertaken after taking Ghee (butter) on Sunday, milk on Monday, Gur or Jaggery on Tuesday, Til or Molasses on Wednesday, Curd on Thursday, barley on Friday, and Urda (a pulse grain) on Saturday.

11. THE KAALA SHOOLA (SHOOLA RELATING TO TIME) ON THE BASIS OF THE DIVISION OF DAY AND NIGHT AND THE NAKSHTRA: Journey should not be undertaken in the 'Poorvanha' (Forenoon. If the Dinmaana is divided into 3 equal parts, then the first part is called 'Poorvanha', the second one 'Madhyanha' and the third one 'Apranha') in the Nakshtras named as Dhruwa and Mishra (the 3 Uttaras, Rohini, Vishakha and Kritika); in the Madhyanha (Noon) in the Nakhstras named as Tikshana (Moola, Jyeshtha Ardra, and Ashlesha); and in the Apranhha (afternoon) in the Nakhstras named as Laghu (Hasta, Ashwini, Pushya and Abhijita)

And the undertaking of a journey should not be done in the Poorva-Ratri (forenight. If the Ratrimaana is divided into 3 parts, then the first part is called Poorvaratri, the second one Madhya Ratri, and the third one Antima-Ratri) in the Nakhstras named as Mitra (Mrigashira, Rewati, Chitra, Anuradha); in the Madhya Raatri (Mid-night) in the Nakshtras named as 'ugra' (Poorvaphalguni Poorvashadha, Poorvabhadrapada, Bharani, Magha); and in the Antima Ratri (Afternight) in the Nakshtras named as Chara or Movable (Swati, Punarvasu, Sharavana, Dhanishtha and Shatabhisha)

But journey is auspicious in all times in the Nakshtras of Sharavana, Hasta, Pushya and Mrigashira).

12. THE GHATIS OF THE KROORA OR CRUEL NAKSHTRAS WHICH SHOULD BE REJECTED: The 16 first (of the beginning) ghatīs of the Nakshtras of the three Poorvas, 21 ghatīs of the Kritika Nakhstra, 11 ghatīs of Magha, 7 ghatīs of Bharani, and 14 ghatīs of the Swati, Vishakha, Jyeshtha and Ashlesha Nakshtras should be rejected as inauspicious for doing any auspicious deed.

Notes: Here the ghatīs of the Nakshtras which should be rejected as inauspicious are so if we suppose the value of the Nakshtras to be 60. Therefore, the real value of these ghatīs should be found out according to the proportion.

As a matter of fact the above stated Nakshtras are not auspicious for making journeys in their periods. Therefore if it is necessary to make a journey in their periods, those ghatis should be avoided and the journey should be taken after their expiry.

13. THE GHATIS WHICH SHOULD BE REJECTED ACCORDING TO ANOTHER VIEW: In a journey for the fulfilment of one's desire of getting victory the first half of the Nakshtras of Kritika, Magha and Swati, and the 2nd half of the Nakshtras of Chitra, Ashlesha and Bharani should be rejected as inauspicious; and according to the view of Shukracharya, the Nakshtras of Swati and Magha should be completely rejected as inauspicious.

14. THE JEEVA, MRITA, KARTARI AND GRASTA NAMES OF THE NAKSHTRAS: Thirteen (13) Nakshtras traversed by Rahu are named as 'Jeeva paksha' and they are auspicious. Thirteen (13) Nakshtras which are to be traversed by Rahu are named as 'Mrita Paksha' and they are inauspicious. The Nakshtra in which Rahu is situated is named as 'Kartari' and the 15th Nakshtra from the Nakshtra named as 'Kartari' is named as Grasta.

Notes: The imaginary Planet Rahu has retrograde motion. Therefore the Nakshtras ahead of the Nakshtra in which Rahu is situated are the 'Traversed Nakshtras', and those which are behind him will be called the 'To be traversed' Nakshtras. Thus if Rahu is in the Swati Nakshtra then, Vishakha, Anuradha and so on which are ahead of him will be the Traversed Nakshtra's, and Chitra, Hasta, Uttaraphalguni and so on which are behind him will be the 'to be traversed Nakshtras'. In this way the 13 Nakshtras from 'Swati' to Rewati will be the 'Traversed Nakshtras' which will be named as 'Jeeva Paksha'; and the 13 Nakshtras behind Swati upto Bharani will be the 'to be traversed Nakshtras' and will be named as 'Mrita Paksha'. Swati will be called 'Kartari' and the 15th Nakshtra from Swati which is Ashwini will be called 'Grasta'.

15. THE EFFECTS OF THE NAKSHTRAS WHICH ARE NAMED AS JEEVA PAKSHA ETC.: If the Sun is in the Nakshtras named as 'Mrita Paksha' and the Moon is situated in those named as 'Jeeva Paksha' then the journey is auspicious. In the reverse condition there is loss in the journey. And if during the time of the journey both the Sun and the Moon are in the Nakshtras named as 'Jeeva Paksha' the journey is auspicious. The Nakshtras named as 'Grasta' are more auspicious in comparison to those named as 'Mrita Paksha' and those named as 'Kartari' are more auspicious than those which are named as 'Grasta'.

And if the 'Chandra Yayi' (the king who goes out to conquer his enemy) and 'Surya Sthayi' (the king who is sitting in his castle) both these are in 'Jeeva Paksha', then both the kings make a mutual treaty. If the Moon be in 'Jeeva Paksha', then the 'Yayi' gets victory; and if the Sun is there in 'Jeeva Paksha', then it is the 'Sthayi' who gets victory.

Notes: This shloka implies the following things:

1. If the Sun is in 'Mrita Paksha' and the Moon is in 'Jeeva Paksha', the journey proves to be auspicious effects giving.
2. If the Moon be in 'Mrita Paksha' and the Sun be in 'Jeeva Paksha', the journey is the giver of inauspicious effects.
3. If both the Sun and the Moon are in 'Jeeva-Paksha', then the journey is the giver of auspicious effects.

4. Contrary to it, if the Sun be in 'Mrita Paksha', then the Journey proves to be greatly destructive, it brings total destruction.

5. From the point of view of auspiciousness 'Mrita Paksha' is at the lowest level. The writer says that 'Grasta Nakshtra' is more auspicious than 'Mrita Paksha', and 'Kartari Nakshtra' is more auspicious than the 'Grasta one'.

6. One who attacks another country (state) with the desire of getting victory is called 'Yayi' or one who files a case in the court in order to get what belongs to him and is his right is called vadi or plaintiff. The Planet who has been appointed to be the Lord of these is the Moon. One who is attacked upon is called 'sthayi' (stable). And one against whom a case is filed in the Court is referred to as 'Defendant'. The Planet who is the Lord of these is the Sun. Therefore, here the journey-makers have been said to be of two kinds: one is 'Yayi' and the other is 'Sthayi' or one is plaintiff and the other is Defendant.

7. If both the Moon and the Sun be in 'Jeeva Paksha', then both the kings or both the plaintiff and the Defendant make treaty with each other, that is, the situation of both the Sun and the Moon in 'Jeeva Paksha' does not indicate the defeat of either of them.

8. If the Moon be in 'Jeeva Paksha' and the Sun be in 'Mrita Paksha', then Yayi or plaintiff gets victory and the Sthayai or the Defendant gets defeated.

9. If the Sun be in 'Jeeva Paksha' and the Moon be in 'Mrita Paksha', then it is the 'Sthayi' or the Defendant who gets victory.

10. If both the Sun and the Moon be in 'Mrita Paksha' then both the kings or both the plaintiff and the Defendant get defeated.

16, 17. NAKSHTRAS NAMED AS AKULA, KULA-KULA AND KULA: The Nakshtras of Swati, Bharani, Ashlesha, Dhanistha, Rewati, Hasta, Anuradha, Punarvasu, those named as Dhruwa (the 3 Uttaras and Rohini), the odd Tithis (1/3/5/7/9/11/13/15) and the days of Monday, Saturday and Thursday, each of these is named as 'Akula'; the Nakshtras of Moola, Shatabhisha, Ardra and Abhijita, the 2/6/10 Tithis and the day of Wednesday each of these is named as 'Kulakula'; and the Nakshtras of the 3 Poorvas, Ashwini, Pushya, Magha, Mrigashira, Shravana, Kritika, Vishakha, Jyeshtha and Chitra, the days of Friday and Tuesday and the 12/8/14/4 Tithis, each of these is named as 'Kula'.

If the war is begun in the Nakshtra, the Tithi and the Day named as 'Akula' (or if the case is filed in these) then it is the Yai (the plaintiff if it is a case in the Court) who gets victory; if it is begun in the Nakshtra, the Tithi and the Day named as 'Kula', then it is the 'Sthayi' (the Defendant in a case in the court) who gets victory; and if it is begun in the Nakshtra, the Tithi and the Day named as 'Kulakula', then both make treaty of peace between them.

18. (On the Way) THE SPECULUM OF PATHI-RAHU : Dharma (Religion), Artha (Economic condition), Kama (Sexual Desire), and Moksha (Relief from the cycle of birth and death), these four ways are resorted to in order to divide the Nakshtras in the Pathi-Rahu speculum in which Seven Nakshtras - Ashwini, Pushya, Ashlesha, Dhanishtha, Shatabhisha, Vishakha, Anuradha are said to be of the 'Dharma' Marga (Path); Seven Nakshtras - Bharani, Poorva bhadrapada, Jyestha, Shravana, Punarvasu, Magha and Swati, - are of the Artha Marga; Seven Nakshtras - Kritika, Ardra, Uttarabhadrapada, Chitra, Moola, Abhijita and Poorva phalguni - are of the 'Kama Marga'; and Seven Nakshtras - Rohini, Poorvashadha, Mrigashira, Rewati, Uttarashadha, Uttaraphalguni and Hasta are of the Moksha Marga'.

Notes: In order to make the speculum of 'Pathi-Rahu' all the 28 Nakshtras Ashwini etc. including the Abhijita Nakshtra should be written in 4 lines in the manner of inverse and reverse : There will be 7 Nakshtras in each line. The first line will be of 'Dharma', the second of 'Artha', the third of 'Kama' and the 4th of Moksha.

THE SPECULUM OF PATHI RAHU

Dharma	Ashwini	Punya	Ashlesha	Vishakha	Anuradha	Dhanishtha	Shatabhisha
Artha	Bharani	Punarvasu	Magha	Swati	Jyeshtha	Shravana	Poorvabhadrapada
Kama	Kritika	Ardra	Poorvaphalguni	Chitra	Moola	Abhijita	Uttarabhadrapada
Moksha	Rohini	Mrigashira	Uttaraphalguni	Hasta	Poorvaphalguni	Uttarashadha	Rewati

19. THE EFFECTS OF PATHI RAHU CHAKRA

धर्मगे भास्करे वित्तमोक्षे शशी वित्तगे
धर्ममोक्षस्थितः शस्यते ।

कामगे धर्ममोक्षार्थगः शोभनो मोक्षगे
केवलं धर्मगः प्रोच्यते ॥१९॥

The Pathi Rahu speculum is auspicious in the following conditions:

1. If the Sun be in the Nakshtra relating to the 'Dharma Marga' and the Moon is in the Nakshtra relating to the Artha or Moksha Marga.

2. If the Sun be in the Nakshtra relating to the Artha Marga and the Moon be in those relating to Dharma or Moksha

3. If the Sun be in the Nakshtra relating to the 'Kama Marga' and the Moon be in the Nakshtra relating to the Dharma or the Artha or the Moksha Marga.

4. If the Sun be in the Nakshtra relating to the Moksha Marga and the Moon be only in the Nakshtra relating to the Dharma Marga.

If the situations of the Sun and of the Moon be the reverse of these, then the Pathi Rahu Marga is inauspicious.

Notes: In the book entitled 'Raj Vijaya' the effects of the Sun and of the Moon being in the Nakshtras relating to one Marga only have also been mentioned. These are as follows :

धर्ममार्गगते सूर्ये चन्द्रे तत्रैव संस्थिते ।

समं युद्धं भवेत्तत्र किञ्चिदयायी जयी भवेत् ॥

अर्थस्थौ चन्द्रसूर्यौ च यायिनां भगदायकौ ।

चन्द्रार्कौ कामगौ यत्र रिपुयोगादि दुःखदौ ॥

चन्द्रार्कौ मोक्षमार्गस्थौ घोरविघ्नप्रदायकौ ॥

that is, if the Sun and the Moon be in the Nakshtras relating to the 'Dharma Marga', then the 'Yayi' (one who attacks) and the 'Sthayi' (one who is attacked upon) remain equal in victory but the 'Yayi' has greater advantage in victory; if both of them are in the Nakshtras relating to the 'Artha Marga', then the Yayi is defeated; if both of them are in the Nakshtras relating to the 'Kama Marga' then they (the Sun and the Moon) are pain-giving to both the 'Yayi' and the 'Sthayi'; and if both of them are in the Nakshtras relating to the 'Moksha Marga', then there come hard obstacles.

20. THE WAY TO MAKE THE SPECULUM OR TABLE OF THE AUSPICIOUS AND INAUSPICIOUS TITHIS : In the journey in the direction of East etc. in the month of 'Pausha' from the Pratipada (1) of both the Pakshas (Shukla and Krishna), and in the other months like 'Magha' etc from the second Tithi (2) etc should be written 12 Tithis in 12 Brackets (After writing upto 12th Tithi, should be written Pratipada etc.). The Tithis of 13, 14, 15 should be understood like those of 3/4/5.

Notes: In order to know the auspicious and inauspicious Tithis in the various months for making journey in the direction of East etc. the writer gives direction to make a table. There will be in the table 12 cells for each of the 12 Months beginning from the month of Pausha. In the Cells of the Month of Pausha the Tithis which will be written will be from the Pratipada (1) Tithi to the 12th Tithi; in those of the Magha month from the 2nd Tithi to the 12th Tithi, and then the cell which remains vacant will have the Pratipada Tithi in it; in those of the Phalguna month from the 3rd Tithi to the 12th Tithi, and then in the 2 cells which remain vacant will have the Pratipada and the 2nd Tithi in them. This order of writing will be there to the last month, that is, the month of 'Marga Shīrsha'.

The speculum is given Shloka 23

24. THE KNOWLEDGE OF AUSPICIOUS AND INAUSPICIOUS MUHURTAS THROUGH NUMBERS: The sum of numbers of Tithi, day and Nakshatra should be put in three places and these should be divided respectively by 7, 8 and 3. If after dividing the remainder is zero in the First Place, then the person making the journey will get much grief in the journey; if the remainder is zero in the Second Place, then there will be loss of wealth (Money) to him; and if the remainder is zero in the Third Place, then there occurs the death of the person going on the journey. If after dividing the remainder is some number in all the three places, then the person going on the journey will get comfort and success.

Notes: Here is an illustration: Suppose on the 5th Tithi of any month there is the Hasta Nakshtra on Wednesday. Then, the Number of the Tithi is 5, of the day is 4, and of the Nakshtra is 13. The total is $5+4+13 = 22$. After dividing it by 7 the remainder is 1; by 8, 6; and by 3, 1. Here the remainder in all the 3 places is some number (1, 6, 1), therefore, the person making the journey will get comfort and success in the journey.

25. THE DOSHAS (DEFECTS) OF MAHADALA AND BHRAMA : If after dividing by 7 the number which is arrived at from the Nakshatra in which the Sun is there to that in which the Moon is there, the remainder comes to be 2 and 7 (that is, zero), then there is the Dosha (Defect) named as 'Mahadala'; and if the remainder comes to be 3 and 6, then there is the Dosha named 'Bhrama'. Both these Doshas are to be avoided while making a journey.

शशांकं सूर्यमतोऽत्र गण्यं पक्षादितिथ्या दिनवासरेण ।

युतं नवाप्तं नगशेषकं चेत्स्याद्विवरं तद्गमनेऽतिशस्तम् ॥२६॥

26. THE YOGA (COMBINATION) NAMED HIMBER : To the number which is arrived at by counting from the Nakshtra in which the Sun is there to that in which there is the Moon is to be added the number which is arrived at by counting from the Pratipada Tithi of the Paksha (Shukla or Krishna) to the Tithi Number of the day on which the journey is to be made. If after dividing the Sum thus arrived at the remainder happens to be 7, then there is the Yoga named as Himber. This Yoga is excellent for making a journey.

Notes: There is the description of the Yogas named 'Dhabar', 'Jelaka' and 'Gaurava' in the Sanskrit Commentary of the present book named as 'Peeyush Dhara' which is as follows :

(i) DHABAR YOGA :

सूर्यमाद गणयेच्चान्द्रं त्रिगुणं तिथिसंयुतम् ।

सप्तमिस्तु हरेदभागं त्रिशेषं स्याद धबाढकम् ॥

If after multiplying by 3 the number which is arrived at by counting from the Nakshtra in which the Sun is there to that in which there is the Moon, and after adding the date of the journey to it and dividing the Sum by 7 the remainder happens to be 3, then there is the Yoga named 'Dhabar'. The Yoga named 'Dhabar' is better than that named Himber and it is excellent for doing all kinds of deeds. Some astrologers call it 'Ghabar' also.

(ii) TELAKA YOGA :

सूर्यमादगणयेच्चान्द्रं तिथिवारं च मिश्रितम् ।

सप्तमिस्तु हरेदभागं पञ्चशेषं तु टेलकम् ॥

that is, to the number which is arrived at by counting from the Nakshtra in which the Sun is there to that in which there is the Moon should be added the numbers of the Tithi and of the day (added together) on which the journey is to be made. If after dividing the Sum by 7 the remainder happens to be 5, then there is the 'Telaka Yoga'. This Yoga is auspicious for the thieves.

(iii) GAURAVA YOGA:

अर्कं संख्यैर्हरेदभागं नवशेषं तु गौरवम् ॥

that is, to the number which is arrived at by counting from the Nakshtra in which the Sun is there to that in which there is the Moon should be added the numbers of the Tithi and of the day (added together) on which the journey is to be made. If after dividing the Sum by 12 the remainder happens to be 9, then there is the 'Gaurava Yoga'. If this 'Yoga' is there at the time of entrance, then it is auspicious.

27. THE GHAATA CHANDRA DOSHA : If the Moon of the persons whose Rashi be Aries (in whose horoscope the Moon is in Aries) be there in the First House (that is, the Moon be in Aries itself), of those whose Rashi is Taurus be there in the 5th House (that is the Moon be there in the Virgo Sign), of those whose Rashi is Gemini be there in the 9th House; of those whose Rashi is Cancer be there in the 2nd House; of those whose Rashi is Leo be there in the 6th House; of those whose Rashi is Virgo be there in the 10th House, of those whose Rashi is Libra be there in the 3rd House, of those whose Rashi is Scorpio be there in the 7th House, of those whose Rashi is Sagittarius be there in the 4th House, of those whose Rashi is Capricorn be there in the 8th House, of those whose Rashi is Aquarius be there in the 11th House; and of those whose Rashi is Pisces be there in the 12th House; then there occurs the Dosha named 'Ghaata Chandra' (the Pain giving Moon). This 'Ghaata Chandra' should be avoided by a person when he goes to join a king's service (or government service), to make a quarrel, to fight a battle. It does not need to be avoided in other things.

28, 29. THE QUARTERS OF THE NAKSHTRAS WHICH SHOULD BE AVOIDED IN GHAATA CHANDRA : The natives having Aries as their Rashi (the sign in which the Moon is situated in the horoscope) should reject as inauspicious the first Quarter of the Kritika Nakshtra; those having Taurus, the second quarter of Magha; those having Gemini, the 3rd Quarter of Shatabhisha; those having Cancer, the 3rd Quarter of Magha; those having Leo, the 1st Quarter of Dhanishtha; those having Virgo, the 3rd Quarter of Ardra; those having Libra, the second Quarter of Moola; those having Scorpio, the 4th Quarter of Rohini; those having Sagittarius, the 3rd Quarter of Poorva bhadrapada; those having Capricorn the 4th Quarter of Magha; those having Aquarius, the 4th Quarter of Moola; and those having Pisces, the 3rd Quarter of Poorvabhadrapada. This has been said by the Munis (Thinkers).

30. THE GHAATA TITHIS : The Poorna Tithis (5/10/15) for the natives having Taurus, Virgo and Pisces as their Rashis; the Bhadra Tithis (2/7/12) for those having Gemini and Cancer as their Rashis; the Nanda Tithis (1/6/11) for those having Scorpio and Aries as their Rashis; the Rikta Tithis (4/9/14) for those having Capricorn and Libra as their Rashis; and the Jaya Tithis (3/8/13) for those having Sagittarius, Aquarius and Leo as their Rashis - these Tithis are Ghaata (pain-giving) Tithis. These Tithis are inauspicious and should be rejected when going on a journey.

31. THE GHAATA DAYS : Tuesday for the natives having Capricorn as their Rashi; Saturday for those having Taurus, Leo and Virgo as their Rashis; Monday for those having Gemini as their Rashi;

Sunday for those having Aries as their Rashi; Wednesday for those having Cancer as their Rashi; Friday for those having Sagittarius, Scorpio and Pisces as their Rashis; and Thursday for those having Libra and Aquarius as their Rashis - (each of these days) - is the Ghaata Day. Journey is inauspicious on a Ghaata day.

32. THE GHAATA NAKSHTRAS : For the natives having Aries and so on as their Rashis the Nakshtras respectively Magha, Hasta, Swati, Anuradha, Moola, Shravana, Shatabhisha, Rewati, Bharani, Rohini, Ardra and Ashlesha these are 'Ghaata' Nakshtras and the making of Journey should be avoided in them.

33. THE GHAATA ASCENDANTS : For the natives having Aries and so on as their Rashis the Ascendants respectively 1, 2, 4, 7, 10, 12, 6, 8, 9, 11, 3 and 5 are Ghaata Ascendants. The learned should avoid them when they make a journey.

Notes: The Sanskrit word 'Ghaata' or 'Ghaataka' means 'killing' or that which kills. Therefore, the Ghaata Tithis and so on are harmful or inauspicious and should be rejected.

34. THE CONSIDERATION OF 'YOGINI' : Yogini remains in the Eastern direction on the 9th and the Pratipada Tithis (9/1), in the Agneya direction (South East) on the 3/11 Tithis, in the Southern direction on the 5/13 Tithis, in the Nairitya direction (South West), on the 4/12 Tithis, in the Western direction on the 6/14 Tithis, in the Vayava direction (North West) on the 7/15 Tithis, in the Northern direction on the 2/10 Tithis, and in the Ishan (East North) direction on the 8th and the Amavasya Tithis. Yogini is not auspicious if she remains in the front or on the left side.

Notes: Suppose one has to make journey on the Pratipada or on the 9th Tithi. Then to the person going in the Eastern direction Yogini will be in the front side, and to that going in the Southern direction she will be on the left side because on these Tithis Yogini remains in the Eastern direction.

35. THE DOSHA OF KAALA AND PAASHA : There is 'Kaala' on the days Sunday and so on in the reverse order from the Northern direction, that is, on Sunday Kaala is in the Northern direction, on Monday in the Vayavya direction (North-West), on Tuesday in the Western direction, on Wednesday in the Nairitya direction (South West), on Thursday in the Southern direction, on Friday in the Agneya direction (South East), and on Saturday in the Eastern Direction. There is the position of 'Paasha' in the reverse side of 'Kaala'. In the night 'Kaala' and 'Paasha' are in the reverse direction, that is, Paasha is there in the night where there is Kaala in the day and there is 'Kaala' in the place of Paasha. 'Kaala' and 'Paasha' should not be in the front side in journey and in war.

THE SPECULUM SHOWING KAALA AND PAASHA:

In Day		Sun	Mon	Tues	Wednes	Thurs	Friday	Satur
	Kaala	North	Vayavya	West	Nainitya	South	Agneya	East
	Pasha	South	Agneya	East	Ishan	North	Vayavya	West

36. PARIGHA DANDA YOGA : Beginning with Kritika 7 Nakshtras are to be established (put) in each of the Four Directions East and so on. In this figure the line joining the Vayavya (North-West) direction and the Agneya direction (South East) is referred to as 'Parigha Danda'. In a journey there should be no violation of the Parigha Danda. The meaning is that in the Nakshtras in the opposite side to that side of which these Nakshtras divided by 'Parigha Danda' are journey should not be made.

Notes: The consideration of journey on the basis of 'Parigha Danda' may be easily understood from the following speculum:

THE SPECULUM OF PARIGHA DANDA

The Nakshtras in this speculum are 28 as the Abhijita Nakshtra has also been included. Beginning with the Kritika Nakshtra, seven Nakshtras in each direction or side are placed in such a way that the Nakshtras from Kritika to Ashlesha are in the East side, those from Magha to Vishakha are in the South side, those from Anuradha to Abhijita are in the West side and those from Dhanishtha to Bharani in the North side. Journey should be made only in those Nakshtras so that there should be no violation of the line which has been drawn from the Vayavya Angle (North West) to the Agneya Angle (East-South). Thus in the Nakshtra in the East and the North side no journey is to be made in the West and the South side and in those in the West and the South side journey will not be made in the East and the North side.

The journey in that direction or side in the Nakshtras which are there in that direction is auspicious. Thus the journey in the seven Nakshtras Kritika and so on in the East side will be auspicious but that in the West or the South will be inauspicious. The line which has been drawn in the middle in the 'Parigha cycle' is referred to as Parigha Danda or 'Kaala Danda'.

आवश्यकोऽपि परिधं प्रविलङ्घ्य गच्छेच्छूलं

37. THE REMOVAL OF THE DOSHA OF 'PARIGHA DANDA' The king (or any person) should make the journey in the Agneya direction (side) in the Nakshtras of the East side, in the Nairiritya direction in those of the South side, in the Vayavya direction in those of the West side and in the Ishan direction in those of the North side. If the work is of urgent necessity, then leaving the consideration of Dika Shoola, if the Ascendant of the Direction in which the journey is to be made is auspicious or favourable, the journey may be made even though the Parigha Danda is violated.

Notes: The journey of the main direction (such as the East Direction) is the journey also of its Angle (such as of Ishan or of Agneya) and the shoolas of the Directions will be the shoolas of the Angles.

The directions of the 12 signs Aries and so on are fixed. Thus the direction of the signs of Aries, Leo and Sagittarius is East, of Taurus, Virgo and Capricorn is South, of Gemini, Libra and Aquarius is West, of Cancer, Scorpio and Pisces is North. This thing may be expressed in this way also - Aries, Leo and Sagittarius are the Ascendant of the East, Taurus, Virgo and Capricorn of the South, Gemini, Libra and Aquarius of the West, and Cancer, Scorpio and Pisces of the North. When there is not the aspect of or conjunction with the Malefic Planets and when there is the aspect of or conjunction with the Benefic Planets or when there is the Shadavarga of the Benefic Planets in these signs, then the Ascendant of the related Direction is said to be auspicious or favourable.

38. THE NAKSHTRAS OF THE JOURNEY IN ALL THE FOUR DIRECTIONS : In the Nakshtras of Anuradha, Hasta, Pushya and Ashwini the journey in all the Four Directions is auspicious.

If a Retrograde Planet is in an Angle, or if there is the Shadavarga of a Retrograde Planet in the Ascendant, then journey in such an Ascendant is prohibited (that is, it is inauspicious) and the day of a Retrograde Planet is also prohibited.

39. THE AUSPICIOUS OR FAVOURABLE 'AYANA' IN A JOURNEY : If the Sun and the Moon are in 'Uttarayana', then the journey in the East and the North direction may be (auspiciously) made; if both are in Dakshinayana then it is the journey in the West or the South which may be (auspiciously) made. If the situation of both is in different 'Ayanas', then the journey in that direction of which is the Sun may be made in day time, and the journey in that direction of which is the Moon may be made at night time. Death (of the person undertaking the journey) occurs if journey is made contrary to the above condition.

40. THE DOSHA WHICH OCCURS IF VENUS IS IN THE FRONT SIDE IN THREE WAYS :

(i) THE DIRECTION (East or West) in which Venus rises will bring her (Venus) in front of the person who is making journey in that direction and therefore it will be left (the journey will not be made)

(ii) According to the order of the North and the South sphere (Venus is in the North sphere in the 6 signs Aries and so on and in the South sphere in the 6 signs Libra and so on) Venus happens to be in the front side to the person who makes a journey in front of that sphere in which Venus is there. It is also to be rejected in making a journey.

(iii) The seven Nakshtras from Kritika to Magha are said to be the Dika-Nakshtras of the East Direction (Dika-Nakshtras, that is, Nakshtras relating to Dika or Direction), the 7 Nakshtras from Magha to Vishakha of the South Direction, the 7 Nakshtras from Anuradha to Shravana of the West direction, the 7 Nakshtras from Dhanishtha to Bharani of the North Direction. In these Nakshtras journey should not be made in that direction in which Venus is there according to her situation.

41. VENUS'S DOSHA OF RETROGRESSION AND ITS EXCEPTION : If Venus is Retrograde, combust and is in her debilitation sign, then the king who makes a journey (that is, who goes to fight against his enemy) at that time becomes subjected to his enemy; but in such condition if Mercury is favourable, that is, he is behind the traveller (the king) then he defeats his enemy; but if Mercury is in front of him then the traveller king does not get victory.

मध्ये मार्ग मार्गवास्तेऽपि राजा तावत्तिष्ठेत्सम्मुखत्वेऽपि तस्य । ४२ ।।

42. THE EXCEPTION TO VENUS'S BEING IN FRONT AND THE DOSHA OF VENUS'S BEING COMBUST : As long as the

Moon remains from Rewati to the First Quarter of the Kritika Nakshtra, Venus is said to be blind. In such a situation the Dosha of Venus's being in front or on the right side does not occur. If, even when the journey has been commenced in auspicious Muhurta (time), Venus gets combust in mid way or happens to be in front, then the traveller king should stay in mid way as long as Venus does not rise and does not come on the left side.

Notes: According to an old view Venus remains blind as long as the Moon remains from Rewati to the end of Mrigashira.

43. REJECTION OF JOURNEY IN THE AQUARIUS ASCENDANT : The learned should reject as inauspicious, at the time of journey, the Aquarius Ascendant and the Navamsha of the Aquarius in any Ascendant because there is loss of money at every step of the king who travels in these Yogas.

44. INAUSPICIOUS AND AUSPICIOUS ASCENDANT : The person who makes a journey in the Pisces Ascendant and when there is the Navamsha of Pisces in any ascendant gets lost on the way (that is, he strays from his way). And if the Lord of the natal Ascendant and the Lord of the Rashi at the time of birth, both of these are benefic planets and they are in the Ascendant then the journey is auspicious or if the Natal Ascendant or the Rashi at the time of birth is in the Ascendant at the time of birth, even then the journey is auspicious.

45. OTHER INAUSPICIOUS ASCENDANTS : If during the time of journey the 8th sign from the Natal Ascendant or the Rashi at the time of birth; or the 6th sign from the natal Ascendant or the Rashi at the time of birth of the enemy king is there in the Ascendant, or the Lords of these signs are there in the Ascendant, then the traveller king is subjected to death.

46. AUSPICIOUS ASCENDANT AND JOURNEY BY A BOAT: If at the time of journey the Ascendant or the Moon is in his Vargottama Navamsha, then the journey is the giver of desired effects. If they are in a watery sign (Cancer, Capricorn, Aquarius and Pisces) or the Navamsha of the Ascendant is of a Watery sign, then journey by boat is auspicious and it serves all ends or completes all deeds.

47. THE 'DIGDWAR' ASCENDANT : The journey which is commenced at the time when the Ascendant of the Digdwar (Indicator of the Directions or sides) rises is the giver of wealth and of victory or success, but the journey made in the Ascendant opposite to the Direction or side is the bringer of loss, destruction and fear from the enemy.

Notes: Aries, Leo and Sagittarius for the journey which is made in the Eastern Direction, Taurus, Virgo and Capricorn for that made in the Southern direction, Gemini, Libra and Capricorn for that made in the Western direction, and Cancer, Scorpio and Pisces for that made in the Northern direction are called the Digadwar Ascendants; and Gemini, Libra and Aquarius for the journey which is made in the Eastern direction, Cancer, Scorpio and Pisces for that made in the Southern direction, Aries, Leo and Sagittarius for that made in the Western direction, and Taurus, Virgo and Capricorn for that made in the Northern direction are the opposite Ascendants.

48. THE SECOND AUSPICIOUS ASCENDANT: If the Janama Rashi of the person making a journey is occupied by Benefic Planets or the 8th sign from the Natal Ascendant or the Janama Rashi of the enemy is there in the Ascendant at the time of the journey or the Rashi which is named as Veshi (The second sign from that sign in the horoscope of the person making the journey in which the Sun is there is referred to as Veshi sign) is there in the Ascendant at the time of the journey then the journey is the giver of victory or success or making a journey in the Ascendant which has the Raj Yogas described in the Jataka shastras is the giver of victory or success.

Notes: In the above shloka (shloka 48) Shri Rama Daivagya has recognised the following Ascendants as auspicious at the time of a journey:

1. If the traveller's Janama Rashi (the Rashi or sign in which the Moon was there at the time of birth) is occupied by Benefic Planets. According to a learned commentator it is that Rashi or sign which is occupied by Benefic Planets in the horoscope that has been regarded as auspicious for the Ascendant at the time of journey.

(ii) If the Rashi or sign which is the 8th from the Natal Ascendant or the Natal Rashi (Janama Rashi) of the traveller's (king's) or the claimant's enemy is the Ascendant at the time of journey will bring victory or success.

(iii) If the Ascendant at the time of the journey is of that Rashi or sign which is the second from that sign in which the Sun is there in the horoscope of the traveller, then also the journey will bring victory or success.

(iv) Any such Ascendant which rises at the time of making a journey that causes the formation of Raj Yogas described in the ancient shastras.

49. THE PLANETRY LORDS OF DIRECTIONS : The Sun, Venus, Mars, Rahu, Saturn, the Moon, Mercury and Jupiter, these are respectively the Lords of the 8 directions East and so on.

Notes: The Sun is the Lord of the Eastern direction, Venus of Agneya (South East), Mars of South, Rahu of Nairiritya (South West), Saturn of West, the Moon of Vayavya (North West), Mercury of North and Jupiter of Ishan (East North).

केन्द्रे दिगधीशो गच्छेदवनीशः ।

50. THE SIGNIFICANCE OF THE LORDS OF DIRECTIONS : If in the Ascendant at the time of journey the Lord of the Direction (the direction in which the journey is to be made) is in an Angle, it is proper for the king to make the journey. If the Lord of the Direction joins to form Lalatika Yoga (described in the next shloka) then the king should not make an attack on the army of his enemy.

चन्द्रः शत्रुगृहात्मजेऽपि च बुधः पातालगो गीष्पतिर्वित्तप्रातृगृहे
विलग्नसदनाल्लालाटिकाः कीर्तिता । १५१ ।।

51. LALATIKA YOGA : If there is the Sun in the Ascendant at the time of journey the Yoga named as 'Lalatika' occurs in the East; if there be Venus in the 11/12 House from the Ascendant this Yoga occurs in the Agneya direction; if Mars be in the 10th House, it occurs in the Nairiritya direction; if Saturn be in the 7th House, it occurs in the West; if the Moon be in the 5/9 House, it occurs in the Vayavya direction; if Mercury be in the 4th House, it occurs in the North; and if Jupiter be in the 2/3 House, it occurs in the Ishan direction.

Notes: It is quite clear from the shloka that the Lalatika Yoga is formed due to the 'Dikapati' or the Lord of the Direction. If in the Ascendant which is there at the time of a journey a Planet is in the same direction of which he is the Lord, then it forms the Lalatika Yoga. Here it becomes clear that if the Lord of a direction is in any other of the 3 Angles than the Angle related to his own direction, the journey is auspicious. Thus if the Sun, (the Lord of the Eastern direction) is in the Ascendant (the House related to the Eastern Direction), then the journey should be rejected. The situation of the Sun in any other of the Angles will be auspicious for a journey.

मृगे गत्वा शिवे स्थित्वाऽदितौ गच्छञ्जयेद्रिपून् ।

52. AUSPICIOUS TIME FOR MAKING JOURNEY : The king should start on a journey from his home and should move towards the destination in the Mrigashira Nakshtra, in the Ardra Nakshtra he should stay on the way and then should restart on the journey in the Punarvasu Nakshtra; by doing so he gets victory over his enemies.

In the same way he should start from home in the Anuradha Nakshtra, should stay on the way in the Jyeshtha Nakshtra and then should restart on the journey in the Moola Nakshtra; by doing so he conquers his enemies.

Notes: It is proper for the king that for getting victory over his enemy he should start on journey in the Mrigashira Nakshtra and the journey should remain continued as long as this Nakshtra remains, and when in the journey there begins the Ardra Nakshtra he should stay in some safe place during the time of this Nakshtra and then again at the beginning of the Punarvasu Nakshtra the journey is to be resumed. If he does so he will certainly get victory.

In the same way in the second yoga Shriram Daivagya says that the king gets victory if he starts on the journey in the Anuradha Nakshtra, stays on the way in some safe place during the period of the Jyeshtha Nakshtra and then resumes the journey in the Moola Nakshtra.

53. OTHER YOGAS WHICH PROCURE VICTORY : The king who is desirous of getting victory should start in the Hasta Nakshtra, should stay for rest during the Swati and Chitra Nakshtras and then should resume his journey in the Vishakha Nakshtra.

And if the journey is commenced in any of the Nakshtras of Dhanishtha, Rewati and Pushya and it is resumed after staying in his own territory for one night, then such journey procures the gain of lands in the war.

54. THE STRENGTH OF TIME : A journey is auspicious in the morning in all the other directions than in the Eastern, in the Godhuli (the dusk) in all the other ones than in the Western, at mid-night in all the other ones than in the Northern, in the Abhijita Nakshtra in all the other ones than in the Southern.

55. THE NAMES OF THE TWELVE HOUSE, THE ASCENDANT ETC. : The names of the 12 Houses the Ascendant etc are respectively, Deha (body), Kosha (accumulated wealth), Dhatushka (arms and weapons), Vahana (Conveyance), Mantra (thinking and counselling power), Ari (Enemy), Marga (Way) Ayu (Longevity), Hridaya (Heart), Vyapaar (profession), Agama (gains) and Vyaya (expenditure).

Notes: Here the names of 12 Houses are related to those matters which are studied in the various respective Houses. Thus, 'Deha' or body is studied from the Ascendant; In the same way 'Kosha' means accumulated wealth, 'Dhatushka' means arms and weapons. These are studied respectively from the 2nd and the 3rd House. Other Houses also have names indicating matters which are studied from them.

56. AUSPICIOUSNESS AND INAUSPICIOUSNESS IN THE ASCENDANT AT THE TIME OF JOURNEY ACCORDING TO PLANETRY POSITION: In a journey the situation of Benefic Planets in the Angles and Trines from the Ascendant and the situation of Malefic Planets in the 3/11/6/10 Houses from there is auspicious. The Moon in the 1/12/6/8 House from the Ascendant, Saturn in the 10th House, Venus in the 7th House, and the Ascendant Lord in the 7/12/6/8 House - these (combinations) are inauspicious.

57. THE STRENGTH OF COMBINATIONS, NAKSHTRAS ETC. FOR THE KING AND BRAHMINS ETC. : Success has been predicted from the Raj yogas forming in the Ascendant during the journey for the kings or the Kshatriyas, from the strength of the Nakshtras for the Brahmins, for the thieves on the basis of good omens and due to Muhurtas for the other general people.

Notes: If there is an urgent necessity and immediacy and auspicious Muhurta for the journey is not there, then the Muhurta should be decided according to the class (or castes) described in the Shloka. Thus the Kshatriyas should make a journey in such necessity if in the Ascendant at the time of the journey the situation of the Planets is 'Yoga karaka' (that is, it forms an auspicious combination). Similarly, the person belonging to the Brahmin caste may make a journey in such necessity after consulting an auspicious Nakshtra, the thieves after seeing an auspicious omen at the time of commencing a journey, and the general people after consulting an auspicious Muhurta.

58. THE YOGA OR COMBINATION LEADING TO VICTORY : If from the Ascendant at the time of journey the Sun be in the 3rd House, the Moon be in the 10th House, Saturn and Mars be in the 6th House, Venus be in the 5th House, Mercury be in the 4th House and Jupiter be in the Ascendant, then the king who makes a journey (in such combination) soon overcomes his enemies and gets victory.

59. If from the Ascendant at the time of journey Saturn be in the 3rd House, Mars in the 6th House, Jupiter in the Ascendant, the Sun in the 11th House, and Venus be favourable, that is, she be at the left side or behind, then by making a journey (in such combination) the king conquers his enemy.

60. If Jupiter be in the Ascendant, the Moon be in the 8th House, and the position of the Sun be in the 6th House, even then the king (or the person making a journey) gets victory or success.

लग्नगतः स्याद्देवपुरोधाः ।

61. If Jupiter be in the Ascendant and the other Planets be in the 2nd and the 11th House, then the journey of such Ascendant is certainly the giver of victory (or success) to the king (or the person) making it.

62. If from the Ascendant at the time of journey there is the Moon in the 7th House, the Sun in the Ascendant, Jupiter, Venus and Mercury in the 2nd House, then by making journey in such Yoga Karaka Ascendant the king gets victory over his enemies in the same manner as a Garuda (a bird) does over snakes.

63. If Mercury be in the 2nd House, the Sun in the 3rd, and Venus be gone in the Ascendant, then in the journey of such Raj Yoga the enemies who are likened to Moths are burnt by the Power and Dignity of the king which is likened to an earthen lamp.

65. If in the Ascendant there be Saturn and Mars, the Sun be in the 10th House, and Mercury or Venus be in the 10th or the 11th House, or in the 3/6/11 House (in any of these Houses) there be Saturn and Mars and Mercury, Jupiter and Venus are endowed with strength, even then the king (or person) making the journey in such combination gets victory.

66. If Jupiter be in the Ascendant at the time of the journey, the Moon be in the 7th House, Mercury and Venus be gone in the 4th House, and there is the situation of a Malefic Planet in the 3rd House, it procures victory for the king.

67. If in the Ascendant at the time of journey there be Jupiter in the 7th House, there be the Moon in the 11th House, the Sun, Venus and Mercury be gone in the 10th House and Saturn and Mars, that is, Malefic Planets should be there in the 3rd House, then the king gets victory.

68. By making journey in an Ascendant in which there is the situation of Jupiter and the Moon in the Ascendant, the Sun be gone in the 6th House, Mercury in the 5th House and in the 10th House there be Saturn, and Venus be gone in the 4th House, the king gets victory.

69. The journey of the king in a Raj Yoga Karaka Ascendant in which Mercury being endowed with strength be gone in the Ascendant, in an Angle there be Jupiter and in any of the 12/3/6/9 Houses there be the Moon in emaciated condition, is the giver of victory.

70. The king who makes a journey in an Ascendant having the combination of Planets in which the 9th, 8th and the 7th House, are without any Malefic Planets and Venus being situated in the 4th or 3rd or the 11th House gets the aspect of Jupiter who is gone in an Angle, gets a great wealth.

72. THE YOGAS PROCURING KINGDOM . If Jupiter be situated in the Ascendant, in the 10th or the 11th House there be the situation of the Malefic Planets, then by making journey in an Ascendant having such combination of Planets, the king has the obtainment of kingdom. Or by making a journey in an Ascendant having a combination in which Mercury and Venus be situated in the 7th House, in the 4th House there be the situation of the Moon there is the obtainment of kingdom for the king, this has been said by all the Munis.

73. AGAIN THE YOGAS GIVING VICTORY : If Venus be in the 6th House, Jupiter in the Ascendant and the Moon in the 8th House, the king gets victory. Or, if Mercury and Venus be in the 4th House and the Moon be in the 7th House or the Moon being between Mercury and Venus be in the 4th House, that is, on one side of the Moon who is gone in the 4th House there be Mercury and on the other side there be Venus, even then the king gets victorious.

74. If in the Ascendant there be Venus, in the 7th House there be Jupiter, in the 6th House Mars, in the 4th House Mercury and in the 3rd House Saturn, the king gets victory.

Or, if on Thursday Mercury and the Sun be there in the 6th

House, the Moon in the 3rd House, Mars in the 10th House, Jupiter be situated in the Ascendant, Venus be there in the 4th House and Saturn in the 11th House, then the journey made by the king procures victory for him.

75. If in the 3rd House there be Mars, in the 8th House Mercury, in the 6th House the Sun and in the Ascendant there be Jupiter, then the king gets victory in the journey made in such Yoga. And if Jupiter, Venus and the Sun be there in the Third and the 4th House, Mars and Saturn be in the 6th House, even then the king gets victory.

76. 'YOGA', 'ADHI YOGA' AND 'YOGADHI YOGA' : If any one of the Planets among Mercury, Jupiter and Venus be in an Angle or in a Trine, then there occurs the combination named as 'YOGA'. And if two of these Planets, that is, either Mercury and Jupiter or Mercury and Venus be there in an Angle or in a Trine, then there occurs the combination named as 'Adhiyoga'. And if all these 3 Planets themselves be in an Angle or in a Trine, then there occurs the combination named 'Yogadhi Yoga'.

By making the journey in the combination named as 'YOGA' the person undertaking the journey remains well; in that of 'Adhiyoga' he not only remains well but also kills his enemies; and due to the journey made in the 'Yogadhiyoga' combination he remains well and obtains fame and lands.

Notes: In Shloka no.51 Shri Rama Daivagya (the writer of the Present book) has said in reference to the Yoga named 'Lalatika' that Mercury being in the 4th House and Venus being in the 7th House, in both the conditions there is the formation of the 'Lalatika Yoga'.

But in the present shloka in the combinations named as 'Yoga', and 'Yogadhiyoga' Mercury in the 4th House and Venus in the 7th House both are capable of producing auspicious situations. In such a paradoxical condition recognition is to be given to the more powerful rule. Therefore, here the combinations named 'Yoga' and 'Yogadhiyoga' being more powerful, the less powerful yoga of Lalatika will be rejected.

In the 'Peeyusha' commentary of the present book in the situation of Mercury, Jupiter and Venus being in Angles and Trines, 108 kinds of combinations have been referred to, but from the practical point of view it is not possible to write about all of them here.

77. VIJAYADASHMI : The 10th Tithi of the Shukla Paksha of the Month of Ashwina is known by the name of 'Vijayadashmi'. This Vijayadashmi is the giver of success in all matters. If there occurs the Shravana Nakshtra also on the day of 'Vijaya dashmi', then it is the giver of an extremely auspicious effects, and it is the giver of victory and maker of treaty in the journey of the king undertaking it.

78. THE TIME OF JOURNEY ACCORDING TO THE PURITY OF THE CONSCIENCE AND GOOD OMEN : If the Conscience (of the person undertaking the journey) is pure and there is good omen, then having known the strength of the Ascendant, that is, if the Ascendant is strong, then the journey made in such a time gives success. The purity of conscience is more excellent than the other factors. Therefore, if there is no purity of conscience, journey should not be made.

79. THE TIME WHICH SHOULD BE REJECTED AS INAUSPICIOUS FOR A JOURNEY : Journey should not be made if someone's 'yogyopaveeta' samskar is to be done in the family, if there is the establishing of a god or goddess, if there is some festival and if there is the period of 'Asauch' or 'Sutaka-Pataka' (the whole family is regarded as impure and unclean for a certain period if there occurs the birth or the death of some one in the family). If there is the untimely dazzling lightning, there is heavy rains and there is frost, then journey should not be made for 7 days.

80. LEAVING THE CONSIDERATION OF DIKASHOOLA ETC. WHEN THE DAY OF STARTING ON A JOURNEY AND THAT OF REACHING THE OTHER VILLAGE IS THE SAME : If the king has to start from one village and to enter the other village on the same day after travelling, then in such a situation the learned (astrologers) Pandits should have no consideration of the Nakshtra shoola, day shoola, of Venus's being in the front side and of Yogini.

Notes: When one has returned from a journey one should keep in mind that the day on which one starts on a journey again should not be the 9th, the Nakshtra of the new Journey should not be the 9th one from that Nakshtra in which one has returned home. It is the 9th Tithi, the 9th Nakshtra and the 9th Day which are inauspicious. It is the Dosha of the 9th Tithi the 9th Nakshtra and the 9th day which is called the 'Trinavami' Dosha.

93. THE DEFINITION OF A JOURNEY : According to the sage named Garga going from one house to another is referred to as journey. The Muni or Sage named Bhṛigu defines a journey as going into the premises of another village from one's own village. 95. THE TIME DURING WHICH ONE MAY STAY WHILE MAKING A JOURNEY AND PROHIBITION OF COPULATION OR SEXUAL INTERCOURSE : The king who is independent should not stay, in the course of a journey, for 10 days at one place, a feudal Lord (a small king) for seven nights, and an ordinary person for 5 days. And if he has to stay for more days, then he should restart on the journey on an auspicious day. And the king who is desirous of getting victory over his enemies should not indulge in copulation or sexual intercourse for 7 nights before starting on the journey. If this is not possible, he should not indulge in sexual intercourse at least on the day on which he makes the journey.

98. THE DOSHA OF UNTIMELY RAINING AND ITS CHARACTERISTICS : If there is rain fall in the four months of Pausha, Magha, Phalguna and Chaitra, it is referred to as untimely raining. In this untimely raining as long as there are no marks of footsteps of animals and men on the earth, there occurs no Dosha, that is, it is only when due to rains there is so much mud on the earth that marks of the footsteps of animals and men are made that there occurs the Dosha of untimely raining.

99. THE CONSIDERATION OF JOURNEY WHEN THERE OCCURS THE DOSHA OF UNTIMELY RAINING : If there occurs less rain there is less Dosha and if there occurs more rains there is greater Dosha. But the recitation of their names by one's own self or by some other person is inauspicious. At the time of crossing a river and reaching the other bank, running away with fear, entering the newly constructed house, war and searching for a lost article, the above stated auspicious omens are inauspicious and inauspicious ones are auspicious, that is, the inauspicious omens (described in shloka no. 102 and 103) alone in these matters are excellent or auspicious. But it is the auspicious omens which have been mentioned for the journey made in order to see the king, that should be regarded as auspicious.

THE REMOVAL OF INAUSPICIOUS OMENS: If when an inauspicious omen occurs in a journey for the first time, the journey should be begun again after staying for the duration of 4 breaths (1 breath = 4 seconds). If one enters one's home in the Nakshtras named as Kshipra (Hasta, Ashwini and Pushya) and in those named as Chara or Movable (Swati, Punarvasu, Shravana, Dhanishtha, Shatabhisha) one has to make the journey again. Here he has managed to tell us of that Pravesha or entering when after defeating his enemy the King again enters the palace or castle of his capital, or of that Pravesha when an ordinary person after the successful completion of his journey returns home and enters his house.

LIVING IN A CITY OR VILLAGE

यदभं द्व्यंकसुतेशदिङ्मितमसौ ग्रामः शुभो नामभात् स्व
वर्गं द्विगुणं विधाय परवर्गाढ्यं गजैः शेषितम् ।
काकिण्यस्त्वनयोश्च तद्विवरतो यस्याधिकाः सोऽर्थदोऽथ
द्वारं द्विजवैश्यशूद्रनृपराशीनां हितं पूर्वतः ॥१॥

1. THE CONSIDERATION OF LIVING IN A CITY OR VILLAGE FROM THE VIEWPOINT OF AUSPICIOUSNESS OR IN-AUSPICIOUSNESS; If the Rashi (Sign) of the Village (or the city) in which the native lives is 2/9/5/11/10 from the Rashi of the native according to the name by which he is known, then it is auspicious for that person to live there.

The number of the Varga (the group or class of letters to which the first letter of the native's name belongs) is doubled and to the product is to be added the number of the Varga of the name of the village (or the city) and the sum thus arrived at is to be divided by 8, the remainder thus obtained is the 'Kakini' of the native. And the number of the Varga of the village (or the city) is doubled and to the product is to be added the number of the Varga of the native and the sum thus arrived at is to be divided by 8, the remainder thus obtained is the 'Kakini' of the village (or the city). Of these two Kakinis that one which is greater (of the native or of the village) is the giver of Wealth. (There fore, the Kakini of the native should be greater than that of the Village)

Now Consideration (with regard to living) is made according to the RASHIS. Those having Brahmin Varna Rashi should make the door (entrance) of their houses facing the Eastern direction, those of Vaishya Varna Rashi, the Southern direction, those of Shudra Varna Rashi , the Western direction and those of Kshtriya Varna Rashi, the Northern direction.

Notes: Every village or city is not suitable or auspicious for living for every person. In order to know whether living in a village or a city will be auspicious or not , the writer has given two methods in the shloka

Method No. 1. First, the Rashi of the name of the person and of the village or the city are found out according to the first letter of their names. Suppose there is a person named Shri Rama Kumar Sharma. He wants to live in Delhi. The Rashis according to the names of Shri Ram Kumar Sharma and of the city of Delhi are respectively Libra and Pisces

Now the rule to find out whether living in a city or village will be auspicious or not is as follows:- If the Rashi of the city (or the village) is the 2/9/5/11/10 from the Rashi, according to the popular name of the person having a wish to live in that city, then living in that city will be auspicious for him

If the Rashi, according to the name, of the city is 1/3/4/6/7/8/12 from the Rashi of the Person, the effects of these are respectively enmity, loss, disease. ;loss, enmity, disease and disease

Here the sign of Pisces (the Rashi of the city of Delhi) is the 6th from Libra, the Rashi of Mr. Rama Kumar Sharma. Therefore living in Delhi for him is inauspicious. The effects of his living in Delhi will be that he will have losses there

This table is according to the quarters of the Nakshtras. Thus in the first, second, third and fourth quarters of the Ashwini Nakshtra the first letter of the native's name will be respectively चू (Choo), चे (Che), चो (Cho), and ला (La) and the Rashi will be Aries (according to column 3). In the Nakshtra of Bharani the letters of the 4 quarters will be respectively ली (Lee), लू (Loo), ले (Le), लो (Lo) and the Rashi will be Aries. In the Kritika Nakshtra there will be the Aries Rashi upto the letter आ. There are $2\frac{1}{4}$ Nakshtras in a Rashi. Therefore the 4 quarters of Ashwini, 4 quarters of Bharani and 1 quarter of Kritika will be in the sign of Aries and the letters related to these Nakshtras will be in the sign of Aries. The letters ई (ee) उ (u) ए (ae) of the 2nd, 3rd and 4th Quarters of the Kritika Nakshtra will be in the Rashi of Taurus. Against serial No 3 there is Kritika Nakshtra. In column No. 3 against this Nakshtra is written Aries, 1 and Taurus 3. It means that the letter of the first quarter of the Kritika Nakshtra will be in the Rashi of Aries and those of the 2nd, 3rd and 4th quarters will be in that of Taurus. The same should be understood in the case of other Rashis and Nakshtras.

Method No. 2(i) there are 8 Vargas

The way of knowing the 'Kakinis' of the native and of the Village or City according to the 2nd method is as follows : the number of the 'Varga' of the first letter of the name of the native is doubled and to this the number of the Varga of the first letter of the Village or City is added. The Sum thus obtained is divided by 8. The remainder indicates the number of the native's Kakini.

Similarly, the number of the varga of the first letter of the name of the City or Village is doubled, to this is added the number of the Varga of the first letter of the native's name and the sum thus obtained is divided by 8. The remainder will be the number of the Kakini of the City or the Village.

Here is an illustration: suppose there is some person named Mr. Darshan Lal Jain. He wants to live and settle in Agra. Now the first letter of the name of Mr. Darshan Lal Jain is in the 'Ja' varga whose number is 5, and the first letter of the name of the City is in the 'Aa' varga the number of which is 1. The varga number of Mr. Darshan Lal Jain will be doubled and to this will be added the varga number of Agra and the sum thus obtained will be divided by 8

$5 \times 2 + 1 \div 8 = 11 \div 8$. Here the remainder will be 3. This is the Kakini number of Mr. Darshan Lal Jain. In the same way, the varga number of Agra (1) will be doubled and to this will be added the varga number of Mr. Darshan Lal Jain and the sum thus obtained will be divided by 8

$1 \times 2 + 5 \div 8 = 7 \div 8$. Here the remainder will be 7. This is the 'Kakini' number of Agra. Here we see that the Kakini number of the city is greater than that of the person who wants to settle there. It means that it is the city which will be rich and not the person. Mr. Darshan Lal Jain, because of having fewer Kakini number, will be poor and will remain in debt. Therefore, settling and living in Agra will not be profitable for Mr. Darshan Lal Jain. It will be harmful for him from the economic point of view.

In the latter half of the shloka there is the expression 'यस्याधिको सोऽर्थदः'. It means that 'richer' will be that whose 'Kakini' is the greater. Commentators have differently interpreted this sentence. Some of them have explained it in this way: that whose Kakini is the greater becomes "indebted". But this view is not accepted by the sages. It is altogether misleading

2. CONSIDERATION WITH REGARD TO LIVING IN A CITY ACCORDING TO RASHI: The persons whose Rashi is Taurus, Leo, Capricorn and Gemini should not make their residential house in the middle part of the city, In the same way the person whose Rashi is Scorpio should not construct his residential house in the eastern part, he whose Rashi is Pisces, in the Agneya direction, the person of Virgo Rashi in the Nairiritya, of Sagittarius, in the Western, of Libra, in the Vayavya, of Aries in the Northern, and of Aquarius in the Ishan. In the same way अवर्ग (Aa varga) is strong in the Eastern Direction कवर्ग (Ka varga) in the Agneya Angle, चवर्ग (Cha varga) in the Western, टवर्ग (Ta varga) in the Nairiritya Angle, तवर्ग (Ta varga) in the Westren, पवर्ग (Pa varga) in the Vayavya Angle, यवर्ग (Ya varga) in the Northern, and शवर्ग (Sha varga) in the Ishan Angle, Every varga is the enemy to the varga which is the 5th from it, (Therefore one should not make his residence in the direction of the varga which is the 5th from his varga. Thus the direction of अवर्ग (Aa varga) is the Eastern, so the persons of this varga should not make their residence in the direction of तवर्ग (Ta varga) which is the 5th from अवर्ग (Aa varga).

Notes: the Lords of the 8 vargas are respectively Garuda, Marjara, Singha, Swan, Sarpa, Mushaka, Mriga and Mesha. Every varga has enmity with the varga which is the 5th from it because the lord of every varga is the enemy of the Lord of the varga which is the 5th from it. Thus the Lord of अवर्ग (Aa varga) is Garuda. It (Garuda) is the enemy of the Lord of तवर्ग (Ta varga) which is sarpa, as we know that Garuda eats away sarpa. Here the writer points out that one should not make one's residence in the city or village of the varga which is the 5th from it, and in the auspicious city or village also one should not live in the direction, nor make the door of his house in the direction of the varga which is the 5th from it.

3.4. THE LENGTH AND THE BREADTH OF THE HOUSE

1 (one) is to be subtracted from the number of the ishta Nakshtra, the remainder then is to be multiplied by 152. Again, in the same way, 1 (one) is to be subtracted from the number of the Ishta 'Aya' and the remainder should be multiplied by 81. Both the products should be added together and then 17 is to be added to the sum. The sum thus obtained is to be divided by 216. The number which is arrived at as remainder will be called 'Grahapinda' that is the area of the house or the product of the length and the breadth of the house (which is to be constructed). If this 'Grahapinda' is divided by the Ishta (desired) Breadth, we can get the length. And if the 'Grahapinda' is divided by 8, then the remainder may be 1,2,3 and so on. These remainders will be respectively the 8 'Ayas' namely 1. Dhwaja, 2. Dhooma, 3 Singha, 4. Shwana, 5 Vrasha, 6 Khara, 7. Gaja, and 8. Dhwanksha.

Notes: The product of the Length and the Breadth of the house has been referred to as 'Grahapinda' And in every house there are 8 'Ayas' the names of which are Dhwaja, Dhooma, Singha, Shwana, Vrasha, Khara, Gaja and Dhwanksha. Of these the 4 odd 'Ayas' namely Dhwaja, Singha, Vrasha and Gaja are auspicious. There will be the 27 Nakshtras of the house also as there should be some Nakshtra for the name of every person. In the chapter on marriage we have read that at the time of marriages the 'Melapaka' or Equation of the bridegroom and the bride is considered properly. In the same way there should be the consideration of the Melapaks of the house and of the owner of the house. In the 'Melapakas' of the Bridegroom and the Bride, the 'Nadis' of the two should be different. But here, in the construction of a house one and the same Nadi of 'Vastu' and of the owner of the house has been regarded as the most excellent one.

The following points are to be kept in mind while thinking of the Ishta (desired) Nakshtra.

1. Of the Nakshtras it is only the Nakshtras of Ardra, Punarvasu, Pushya, Ashlesha, Magha, Poorvaphalguni, Shatabhisha, Proovabhadrapada, Utrabhadrapada that are auspicious. Therefore, it is these 9 Nakshtras which are auspicious in reference to the construction of 'Grahapinda'. The person desirous of constructing a house has to equate one of these 9 Nakshtras in the same way as is done while seeing the 'Melapaka' of the bridegroom and the bride

(described in the chapter on marriage) the Nakshtra with which Melapaka (Equating) is done will be referred to as the Ishta (desired) Nakshtra. Acharya Vashishtha has referred to it in the following statement:

'राशि कूटादिकं सर्वं दाम्पत्योरिव चिन्तयेत्' that is, (while constructing a house) Rashi, koota and so on should be considered in the same way as they are done in the case of the marriage of the bridegroom and the bride. The Ishta Nakshtra for constructing the 'Grahapinda' is that one with which the Nakshtra of the name of the owner of the house has the right calculation. If the Melapaka is proper with these 9 Nakshtras, then it is excellent, otherwise the Ishta Nakshtra will be that one with which the Melapaka is proper.

2. The Kritika, Rohini and Mrigashira, (these 3 Nakshtras), the 9 Nakshtras from Uttaraphalguni to Poorvashadha and the 3 Nakshtras Rewati, Ashwini, Bharani these 15 Nakshtras are medium in auspiciousness.

3. Utarashadha, Shravana and Dhanishtha these 3 Nakshtras should be altogether rejected

4. The Ishta Nakshtra and the Nakshtra of the owner of the house should not be the same

5. It is inauspicious if the Nakshtra of the house is in the East to that of the owner of it.

It is only that Nakshtra (of the house) that has the greater number of qualities similar to those of the Nakshtra of the owner of the house (According to chapter 6 shlokas from 21 to 36), and that has the same Nadi which is to be selected as the Abhishta (desired) Nakshtra. The Abhishta (desired) 'Aya' should always be odd (1/3/5/7)

The example of finding out 'Grahapinda': Suppose according to the 'Chapter' on Marriage' in the 'Melapaka' of the Nakshtra of Shri Karan Singh which is Mrigashira 34 Gunas or qualities are the same or are in harmony with the Abhishta (desired) Nakshtra of Ardra. There fore taking the Ishta Nakshtra of Ardra as 6 and the Ishta 'Aya' as 3 we make 'Grahapinda'.

If 1 is subtracted from the Ardra Nakshtra 6, the remainder is 5. If 152 is multiplied by the remainder, the product comes to be 760. If 1 is subtracted from the number of the Ishta 'Aya' (3), the remainder is 2, when 81 is multiplied by 2, the product comes to be 162. When both the products are added together the sum obtained is $760+162=922$. If 17 is added to it then the sum obtained is 939. If it (939) is divided by 216, the remainder is 75. It is this (75) which will be the Pinda or the area given by the Ishta Nakshtra and the 'Ishta Aya' In the same way many pindas may be made from the other Ishta Nakshtras and the Ishta 'Ayas'. If we want to keep 10 as the length in this pinda, then the breadth will be $75 \div 10 = 7.5$. Again if the length is to be kept 15, then the breadth will be $75 \div 15 = 5$. In the same way by taking the breadth as 6 we can find out the length which will be $75 \div 6 = 12.5$ and so on.

If the length and the breadth of the desired house in such an 'Aya Pinda' is not suitable for the person concerned, then 216 is added again and again to the Pinda of 75 and in this way many Pindas will be arrived at. Thus by adding 216 to 75 we get 507 Pinda and so on. Here the measure of the length and the breadth has been taken on the basis of hand according to the ancient measurement system. It can be arrived at with meter and the other systems in the same way.

5. THE CONSIDERATION OF THE DOOR OF THE HOUSE ACCORDING TO AYA: If the Aya is Dhawaja (the 'Aya' which is got according to the method described in the above shloka) then doors should be made in all directions, if it is Singha, then in the Eastern, the Southern, and the Northern direction, if it is Vrasa, then in the Eastern direction, if it is Gaja, then in the Southern direction. OR a Brahmin should make the door of his house in the Western direction, a Kshtriya in the Northern direction, a Vaishya in the Eastern direction and a Shudra in the Southern direction.

6. THE TIME WHICH IS TO BE REJECTED WHEN THE CONSTRUCTION OF A HOUSE IS BEGUN: If from the Janama Rashi of the owner of the house the Sun, the Moon, Jupiter and Venus are weak, that is, if they are in a malefic house, or if they are combust or if they are in their debilitation signs, then there occurs the destruction respectively of the owner of the house, of his wife, of comfort and wealth.

If the Nakshtra in which the Moon be there at the time of beginning the construction of the house and the Nakshtra of Vastu or house happen to be in the front side, then the owner of the house is not able to live in it and if these happen to be in the back side, then there occurs theft in that house

Notes: The consideration of the Moon Nakshtra and of the Vastu or House Nakshtra being in the front side or in the back side should be made according to the 36th shloka of the chapter on 'Journeys and Travels'. According to this shloka, if the Nakshtra of the Moon and the Nakshtra of the house is there in the 7 Nakshtra from the Kritika or the Anuradha Nakshtra respectively, the door of the house should not be in the Eastern and the Western side respectively, and if these are there in the 7 Nakshtras from the Magha or the Dhanishtha, it (the door of the house) should not be made in the Southern and the Northern side respectively.

7. THE CONSIDERATION OF 'VAYAYA' IN THE BEGINNING OF THE CONSTRUCTION OF THE HOUSE: The remainder which is obtained on dividing by 8 the number of the Ishta Nakshtra of the house is the 'Vayaya' (the expenditure). To this obtained number of 'Vayaya' is to be added the number of the letters of the house Dhruwa, Dhanya etc. described in a shloka ahead and the number of the Pinda (described in the 3rd and the 4th shlokas); if on dividing the sum obtained by 3 the remainder is 1, then there is the Ansha (share) of Indra if it is 2, that of Yama (Kritanta), and if it is 3, that of Bhoopa (king). Of these the Ansha (share) of Yama is inauspicious.

Notes: Here is an example to find out as to whose Ansha is there. Suppose the Ishta Nakshtra is Mrigashira whose number is 5, on dividing it by 8 the remainder is 5. This is 'Vayaya'. Again, suppose the name of the house is 'Sumukha', the number of letters in this name is 3. If 5 is added to 3 it gives 8. Again, if Pinda 75 is added to 8 it gives 83, and if 83 is divided by 3 the remainder is 2, 2 is the Ansha (share) of Yama (Kritanta) which is inauspicious.

शालध्रुवांकसंयोगः सैको वेश्मध्रुवादिकम् ॥८॥

8. TO FIND OUT THE GRAHA DHRUWANKA (CONSTANT OF THE HOUSE): There is the Dhruwa (constant) of 1,2,4 and 8 in the directions East etc. If to the sum of the numbers of the Dhruwas (constants) of those directions in which the doors, 1,2,3, or 4 what so ever number of these is to be made in the various directions 1 is added, and there are the 'Gharas' (houses) having names like Dhruwa etc.

If there is door in the house in the Eastern direction, then there is 1 Dhruwa, if it is in the Southern direction there are 2 Dhruwas, if it is in the Western direction there are 4 Dhruwas, and if it is in the Northern direction, there are 8 Dhruwas.

Notes: For example, suppose one has to make doors in his house in the Eastern and Northern Directions. Then to the sum of the Dhruwas of the East and of North 1 and 8 = 9, 1 is added which gives 10. Therefore, according to shloka no. 9 and 10 ahead the name of the Graha will be 'Ugra'

THE NUMBER OF LETTERS IN THE NAMES OF THE GRAHA. (HOUSE): According to shloka no. 8 if there is any of the numbers 15,12,8,16,9,11 and 14, then the name of the house will be of 3 letters; and if the numbers are 1,2,4,5,6,10,3 and 13, it will be of 2 letters; and if the number is 7, it will be of 4 letters.

10. THE 16 NAMES OF THE GRAHAS (Houses): (1) Dhruwa, (2) Dhanya, (3) Jaya, (4) Nanda, (5) Khara (6) Kant, (7) Manorama, (8) Sumukha (9) Durmukha, (10) Ugra, (11) Ripuda, (12) Vittada, (13) Nasha, (14) Akranda, (15) Vipula, (16) Vijaya, these are respectively the names of the 16 Grahas.

Notes: According to the meaning of their names the Grahas, Khara (evil minded person), Durmukha (ugly faced), Ugra (sharp), Ripuda (enemy), Nasha (Destruction), Akranda (that which brings misery) are inauspicious. Therefore, consideration of it should be made before constructing a house. What should be the name of the Graha, it may be understood in the following way: suppose in a house there are doors in the West, North, and South. Now by adding 1 to the sum of the Dhruwas $2+4+8=14$ we get 15. Therefore, according to shloka 10, the name of this house should be 'Vipula'. This name is auspicious.

11,12. TO FIND OUT THE 'AYA' VAAR, ETC. OF A HOUSE ACCORDING TO ANOTHER VIEW: The Pinda or the Area of the house is put in 9 places and in each place it should be multiplied respectively by 9/9/6/8/3/8/8/4/8. then the product should be divided respectively by 8/7/9/12/8/27/15/27/12 ; the remainder will be respectively Aya, Vaar, Ansha, Dhana, Rina, Nakshtra, Tithi, Yoga, Ayu.

If the Nakshtra of the Graha (house) obtained in this way is the same as is the Nakshtra of the owner of the house, then there occurs the death of the owner of the house.

Notes: This shloka tells us how to find out the Aya, vaar etc. of a house. The way to find out these is as follows:

1. The Pinda (75) of the Graha is put in 9 places. If the Pinda put in the first place is multiplied by 9 and the product is divided by 8, we get 3 as remainder. Therefore the 'Aya' should be taken to be 'Singha'

2. If the Pinda (75) put in the 2nd place is multiplied by 9 and the product is divided by 7, the remainder obtained is 3, and so the Vaar(day) should be Tuesday.

3. When the Pinda(75) put in the 3rd place is multiplied by 6 and the product is divided by 9, the remainder obtained is zero, therefore, the Ansha (Navamsha) is 9.

4. When the Pinda (75) put in the 4th place is multiplied by 8 and the product is divided by 12, the remainder is zero, and so the Dhana (Money) is 12.

5. When the Pinda (75) put in the 5th place is multiplied by 3 and the product is divided by 8, the remainder obtained is 1, and therefore, the 'Rina' is 1.

6. When the Pinda (75) put in the 6th place is multiplied by 8 and the product is divided by 27, the remainder obtained is 6, and therefore, the Nakshtra is Ardra.

7. When the Pinda (75) put in the 7th place is multiplied by 8 and the product is divided by 15, the remainder obtained is zero, and therefore, the Tithi should be Pauranmasi (or the 15th Tithi)

8. When the Pinda (75) put in the 8th place is multiplied by 4 and the product is divided by 27, the remainder obtained is 3, and therefore, the 'Yoga' is 'Ayushmaana'

9. When the Pinda (75) put in the 9th place is multiplied by 8 and the product is divided by 120, the remainder obtained is zero, and therefore, the Ayu should be 120 years.

In the construction of house it is the odd Aya, the vaars (days) of the Benefic Planets, their Rashis (signs) and their Navamshas, the 'Deergha Ayu' which are auspicious.

13,14. THE CONSIDERATION OF 'VRASHA VAASTU' IN THE BEGINNING OF THE CONSTRUCTION OF HOUSE : By counting 3 Nakshtras from that Nakshtra in which the Sun is situated the numbers are put in the head of the image of the size of 'Vrasha' (ox). If the construction of the house is begun in these Nakshtras, the house is put on fire; after this 4 Nakshtras ahead are to be imagined in the front legs, if the construction is begun in these Nakshtras, the effect of it is zero, after this 4 Nakshtras ahead in the rear legs, the effect of which is in the form of the stability of the owner in that house; after this 3 Nakshtras in the back are helpful in the obtainment of wealth; after this 4 Nakshtras are to be imagined in the right womb, there is the obtainment of profit in these Nakshtras; then 3 Nakshtras are to be imagined in the tail, if the construction of house is begun in these Nakshtras, there occurs the destruction of the owner of the house; after this 4 Nakshtras are of the left womb, the effect of these is poverty, after this 3 Nakshtras should be imagined in the mouth of the 'Vrasha' (ox), if the construction of house is begun in these Nakshtras, it proves to be pain giving.

15. THE DETERMINATION OF THE DIRECTION OF THE DOOR OF THE HOUSE, THE NAKSHTRA OF THE CONSTRUCTION OF THE HOUSE AND THE MUHURTA FOR ENTERING THE DELIVERY HOUSE : The construction of the door of the house in the East and the West side is auspicious in the month of Phalgun (February -March) if the Sun be in the Aquarius sign, in that of Shravana (July-August) if he (the Sun) be in the Leo or the Cancer sign, in that of Pausha (December-January) if he be in the Capricorn sign, and the construction of the door of the house in the North and the South side is auspicious in the month of Baisakha (April-May) if the Sun be in the Aries- Taurus sign, in that of Margashirsha if he be in the Libra-Scorpio sign.

The beginning of the construction of house is auspicious in these 13 Nakshtras—the Nakshtras named as Mridu or (Delicate), (Mrigashira, Rewati, Chitra and Anuradha) those named as Dhruwa or constant (the 3 Uttaras and Rohini), the nakshtras of Shatabhisha, Swati, Dhanishtha, Hasta and Pushya.

It is excellent or auspicious if the beginning of the construction of Delivery House is done in the Punarvasu Nakshtra, and if entering the Delivery House is done in the Shravana and the Abhijita Nakshtra.

16. THE CONSIDERATION OF THE BEGINNING OF THE CONSTRUCTION OF HOUSE ACCORDING TO ANOTHER VIEW : According to the view of an astrologer the beginning of the construction of house is excellent or auspicious in the month of Chaitra (March) if the Sun be in the Aries sign, in that of Jyeshtha (May June) if he be in the Taurus sign, in that of Bhadrapada if he be in the Leo sign, in that of Ashwin if he be in the Libra sign, in that of Kritika if he be in the Scorpio sign, in that of Pausha if he be in the Capricorn sign, in that of Magha if he be in the Aquarius sign, and the beginning of the construction of house is inauspicious in the month of Kartika if the Sun be in the Virgo sign, in that of Magha if he be in the Sagittarius sign. Here the counting of the months should be made from the Pratipada Tithi (1) of the Krishna Paksha (the dark half of the month), that is, after the Pauranmasi of Phalgun to the Pauranmasi of Chaitra there is the 'Chandra Chaitra Maasa' and from the Pauranmasi of Chaitra to the Pauranmasi of Baisakh there is the Chandra Baisakh Maasa. Thus here the Chandra Maasa is not counted from one Amavasya to another Amavasya.

Notes: According to the above two shlokas the beginning of the construction of house has been said to be inauspicious if it is done when the Sun be in the signs of Gemini, Virgo, Sagittarius and Pisces. When the Sun is situated in the sign of Gemini, there is the possibility of the occurrence of the month of Jyeshtha and Ashadha; when he be in that of Virgo, of Bhadrapada and Ashwin; when he be in that of Sagittarius, of Pausha and Magha; and when he be in that of Pisces of Phalguna and Chaitra. Therefore, it has been specially pointed out that if in the month of Chaitra (from the Pauranmasi of Phalguna to the Pauranmasi of Chaitra) the Sun happens to move into the sign of Aries, it is only then that even in the month of Chaitra too the beginning of the construction of house should be done. If the Sun be in the sign of Pisces even the month of Chaitra should be rejected for the construction of house. And if the Sun happens to move into the sign of Taurus, it is auspicious to construct a house in the month of Jyeshtha. If the sun be in the sign of Gemini, the construction of house is inauspicious in the months of both Jyeshtha and Ashadha. But if the Sun remains in the sign of Cancer then Ashadha is auspicious for the construction of house. The month of Bhadrapada is auspicious for the construction of house as long as the Sun remains in the sign of Leo, if he moves into the sign of Virgo, it is not auspicious. The month of Ashwin is auspicious for the construction of house if the Sun moves into the sign of Libra, it is not so if he remains in that of Virgo; and if the Sun remains in the sign of Virgo even Kartika is inauspicious. If the Sun be in the signs of Libra and Scorpio, the construction of house is inauspicious in the month of Margashirsha. The month of Pausha is regarded auspicious for the construction of house so long as the Sun should be in the sign of Capricorn. If the sun be gone in the sign of Sagittarius then the months of Pausha and Magha both are inauspicious. In the same way the month of Phalguna is also left if the Sun moves into the sign of Pisces.

The conclusion is that here in the construction of house it is not the Chandra Maasa (Lunar Month) but the Surya Maasa (Solar month) which is considered as of greater importance. In the beginning of the construction of house it is the Shukla Paksha which should be chosen, in the Krishan Paksha it may be done by the 5th Tithi

पूर्णेन्दुतः प्राग्वदन नवम्यादिषूत्तरास्यं त्वथ पश्चिमास्यम् ।

17. INSTRUCTION WITH REGARD TO THE DIRECTION OF THE DOOR ON THE BASIS OF TITHI The house facing the Eastern direction or side should not be constructed from the Pauran masi (15th Tithi) to the 8th Tithi of the Krishna Paksha, that facing the Northern direction from the 9th Tithi of the Krishna Paksha to its 14th Tithi, that facing the Western direction from the Amavasya (the 30th Tithi) to the 8th Tithi of the Shukla Paksha, and that facing the Southern direction from the 9th to the 14th Tithi of the Shukla Paksha. The meaning is that the beginning of the construction of house should be done leaving the Tithis which are inauspicious for the direction in which the door of the house is to be made.

व्यष्टान्त्यस्थैः शुभैर्गेहारम्भस्त्रयायारिगैः खलैः ॥१८॥

18. AUSPICIOUS TITHIS AND VAARS (DAYS) ETC. FOR THE BEGINNING OF THE CONSTRUCTION OF HOUSE : The beginning of the construction of house is regarded as auspicious on the days and Tithis other than the days of Tuesday and Sunday, the Tithis named as Rikta Tithis (4/9/14), those of Amavasya and Pratipada (the 8th Tithi according to symbol), in the other Ascendants than the Lagna or Ascendant called 'Chala' or Movable (1/4/7/10), when the Benefic Planets are in the other House than the 12th and the 8th House and when the Malefic Planets are in the 3/6/11 Houses, in all the Nakshtras except the Panchaka Nakshtras.

Notes: The 5 Nakshtras Dhanishtha and so on are referred to as the Panchaka Nakshtras. In the 15th shloka of this very chapter Dhanishtha, Shatabhisha, Uttarabhadrapada and Rewati, these four Nakshtras have been said to be auspicious for the construction of house. It is only the Nakshtra of Poorva bhadrapada that has been said to be inauspicious, this confusion is removed when we have in our mind the following statement of the sage Mandavya.

घनिष्ठा पञ्चके नैव कुर्यात् स्तम्भसमुच्छ्रयम् ।

सूत्राधार शिलान्यास प्राकाशादि समारयेत् ॥

According to this shloka, the leaving of the Panchaka Nakshtras is in reference to the establishing of 'Chaukhata' (the base wood of the door) after the beginning of the construction; and these Nakshtras are to be left only when the house is to be made of wood alone, as in the 48th shloka of chapter 2 there is the clear statement with regard to the collection of wood in the Panchakas which has been prohibited. The reference to it is there in the words "त्यजेज्ज्यावितानं गृहगोपनादि च".

देवालये गेहविघ्नौ जलाशये राहोर्मुखं शम्भुदिशो विलोमतः ।

मीनार्कसिंहार्कमृगार्कस्तस्मिन्नेखाते मुखात्पृष्ठविदिककुम्भो भवेत् । १६ ॥

19. THE CONSIDERATION OF RAHU MUKHA IN THE BEGINNING OF HOUSE : In laying the foundation stone of the abode of a god (or of gods) or of a temple the Sun's being in 3 signs from the sign of Pisces, of a man in 3 signs from the sign of Leo, and in the beginning of the digging of a tank in 3 signs from the sign of Capricorn there is the mouth of Rahu in the opposite directions respectively from the direction of Ishan Angle (Ishan, Vayavya, Nairititya and Agneya) and there is the back of Rahu in the opposite direction to it, that is in the Angle of the back side. In laying the foundation stone the direction or side of back is auspicious, that is, if the mouth be in the Ishan Angle, the foundation stone should be put in the Agneya Angle, if it be in the Vayavya Angle, in the Ishan Angle; if it be in the Nairiritya Angle, in the Vayavya Angle. If it be in the Agneya Angle, in the Nairiritya Angle.

Notes : The consideration of direction is necessary when the foundation stone of a temple or of a house is laid or the digging of a tank is begun. If at the time when the foundation stone of a temple is laid the Sun is of the signs of Pisces, Aries or Taurus then the mouth of Rahu is towards the Ishan Angle (East-North), if he (the Sun) be of Gemini, Cancer or Leo, towards the Vayavya Angle (North-West), if he be of Virgo, Libra, and Scorpio, towards the Nairiritya Angle (South-West), if he be of Sagittarius, Capricorn and Aquarius, towards the Agneya Angle (East-South). If a house is to be constructed and if at the time of laying its foundation stone the Sun is of Leo, Virgo or Libra, the mouth of Rahu is towards the Ishan Angle, if he be of Scorpio, Sagittarius or Capricorn, towards the Vayavya Angle, if he be of Aquarius, Pisces or Aries, towards the Nairiritya Angle; if he be of Taurus, Gemini, or Cancer, towards the Agneya Angle. If at the time of digging a tank, a well etc. the Sun is of Capricorn, Aquarius or Pisces, then the mouth of Rahu is towards the Ishan Angle; if he be of Aries, Taurus or Gemini, towards the Vayavya Angle; if he be of Cancer, Leo or Virgo, towards the Nairitya Angle; if he be of Libra, Scorpio or Sagittarius, towards the Agneya Angle. Therefore, at the time of digging the foundation of a temple or of a house or at the time of digging a well or a tank the digging should be started leaving the side of Rahu's mouth, it should be started from Rahu's back side. Here is the speculum showing the directions in which Rahu's mouth remains.

THE SPECULUM OF RAHU

Rahu's mouth	Ishan Angle (East-North)	Vayavya Angle (North-West)	Nairitya Angle (South-West)	Agneya Angle (East-South)
The beginning of the construction of a temple	Pisces, Aries Taurus	Virgo Libra Scorpio	Sagittarius Capricorn Aquarius	The position of the Sun
The beginning of the construction of a house	Leo Virgo Libra	Scorpio Sagittarius Capricorn	Taurus Gemini Cancer	The position of the Sun
The beginning of the digging of a tank etc.	Capricorn Aquarius Pisces	Aries Taurus Gemini Sagittarius	Cancer Leo Virgo Libra Scorpio	The Position of the Sun
Rahu's Back	Agneya Angle	Ishan Angle	Vayavya Angle	Nairitya Angle

20. THE CONSIDERATION WITH REGARD TO THE CONSTRUCTION OF WELL IN SIDE A HOUSE: If the well is constructed in the middle part of the Vastu (the land on which the house is to be constructed) it causes the loss of wealth of the owner; if in the Ishan Angle, the owner is strengthened; if in the East side, it causes increase in the grandeur of the owner; if in the Ayneya Angle, loss (death) of his son; if in the Nairitya Angle, it causes the death of the owner himself; if in the West side, it is auspicious, if in the Vayavya Angle, it causes pain to the enemy; and if in the North side, it is auspicious for the owner of the house.

21. THE CONSIDERATION WITH REGARD TO MAKE KITCHEN, LATRINE AND BEDROOMS ETC. IN THE HOUSE :

There should be in the Eastern part of the Vastu (the land on which the residential house is to be built) place for bathing (for bath room) for kitchen in the Agneya Angle, for bed rooms in the South side, for keeping arms and weapons (if it is a royal palace, but if it is an ordinary man's house, place for keeping instruments, sewing machine motor etc.), for dining room in the West side, for store room (for storing grains etc.) in the Vayavya Angle, for treasury in the North side, and a place for the abode of gods or temple in the Ishan Angle. Respectively in the middle of the two rooms mentioned above there should be place for churning curd to make butter, for store room to store Ghee (butter), for study room, for making a room in which one may cry and weep (in a royal palace), for making a room in which sexual intercourse may be done, for keeping medicines and other household articles, which are needed in daily life

Notes: The places in the house should be made in the following way: in the middle of the Eastern side and the Agneya Angle there should be place (room) for churning milk, curd and butter; between the Agneya Angle and the Southern side place for latrine; between the Nairitya Angle and the Western side place for study room; between the Western side and the Vayavya Angle place for weeping and crying ; between the Vayavya Angle and the Northern side place for having sexual intercourse; between the Northern side and the Ishan Angle place for keeping medicines; and between the Ishan Angle and the Eastern side place for keeping necessary things

The figure which will show how these places (rooms) should be got made in the house is being given here for clear understanding.

22. THE LONGEVITY OF THE HOUSE : If in the Ascendant at the time when the construction of the house is begun Jupiter is posited in the Ascendant, the Sun and Mercury in the 7th House, Venus in the 4th House and Saturn in the 3rd House, then the longevity of the house is 100 years. And if there is Venus in the Ascendant, the Sun be in the 3rd House, Mars be in the 6th House, and Jupiter be in the 5th House, then in such combination of planets the longevity of the house will be 200 years.

बन्धौ गुरुव्योम्नि शशी कुजार्कजौ लाभे तदाशीतिसमायुरालयः ॥२३॥

23. THE OTHER YOGAS WITH REGARD TO LONGEVITY:

If in the Ascendant at the time of beginning the construction of the house there be Venus in the Ascendant, Mercury be in the 10th House, the Sun be in the 11th House and Jupiter be in an Angle except the Ascendant House (that is, he be in 4/7/10 House), then the house has the longevity of 100 years

And if Jupiter be in the 4th House, the Moon be in the 10th House, and Mars and Saturn be in the 11th House, then the longevity of the house will be of 80 years

शनौ स्वोच्चे लामगे वा लक्ष्म्या यक्तं चिरं गृहम् ।।२४।।

24. THREE YOGAS WHICH ENSURE A HOUSE HAVING THE BLESSING OF LAXMI, THE GODDESS OF WEALTH FOR EVER OR FOR A LONG TIME : If (in the Ascendant at the time of beginning the construction of the house) Venus be exalted in the Ascendant or Jupiter be in the 4th House of the sign of Cancer, or Saturn be in the 11th House in his exaltation sign, then the house the construction of which has been begun in these 3 Yogas (in any of these 3 yogas) has the blessing of Laxmi, the goddess of wealth for ever or for a very long time.

Notes : Jupiter gets exalted position in the 4th House only when the Ascendant is Aries and the Aries Ascendant being a movable Ascendant at the time of beginning the construction of the house

अब्दान्तः परहस्तस्थं कुर्याच्चेद्वर्णपोऽबलः ।।२५।।

25. MALEFIC PLANETS AT THE TIME OF BEGINNING THE CONSTRUCTION OF HOUSE: If even one Benefic planet (auspicious effects giving planet) being in the Navamsha of the enemy planet is in the 7th or the 4th House (from the Ascendant), and the planetary Lord of the Varna of the owner of the house (the varnas Brahmin etc. have been described in the 43rd shloka of chapter 5) is also weak, then the house the foundation stone of which has been laid in such yoga of planets is taken possession by some other person within a year only

26. THE EFFECTS OF NAKSHTRAS AND DAYS ON THE BEGINNING OF THE CONSTRUCTION OF HOUSE: If Jupiter happens to be in any of the Nakshtras of Pushya, those named as Dhruwa (all the 3 Uttaras and Rohini), Mrigashira, Shravana, Ashlesha and Poorva shadha, and the day is of Thursday, the house the construction of which is begun in such yoga is the giver of house, issues and kingdom.

And if Venus happens to be in any of the Nakshtras of Vishakha, Ashwini, Chitra, Dhanishtha, Shatabhisha, and Ardra, and the day too is Friday, then the house the construction of which is begun in such yoga is the giver of wealth and grains

सङ्गैः कदास्यार्यमतक्षहस्तैर्ज्ञस्यैव वारे सुखपुत्रदं

27. OTHER INAUSPICIOUS AND COMFORTS AND SON-GIVING YOGAS; If Mars be in any of the Nakshtras of Hasta, Pushya, Rewati, Magha, Poorvashadha and Moola and the day be of Tuesday, the house the construction of which is begun in such yoga, gives to the owner affliction from fire and pain to his son.

And if Mercury happens to be in any of the Nakshtras of Rohini, Ashwini, Uttaraphalguni, Chitra and Hasta and the day happens to be of Wednesday, the house the construction of which is begun in such yoga is the giver of house, comforts and son

समन्दैर्मन्दवारे स्याद्रक्षोभूतयुतं गृहम् । १२८ ॥

28. THE YOGA THE CONSTRUCTION BEGUN IN WHICH MAKES THE HOUSE THE ABODE OF GHOSTS, SPIRITS ETC.: If Saturn happens to be in any of the Nakshtras of Poorva bhadrapada, Uttarabhadrapada, Jyeshtha, Anuradha, Swati and Bharani, and the day happens to be of Saturday, then the house the construction of which is begun in such yoga becomes the abode of demons, ghosts and pretas (spirits).

29. THE CONSIDERATION WITH REGARD TO THE MAKING OF DOOR ACCORDING TO ANOTHER ACHARYA: Four Nakshtras from that Nakshtra in which there is the Sun are on the head of the door; if the door of the house is constructed in these Nakshtras, the owner gets Laxmi or wealth. After this 8 Nakshtras are there in the four corners of the house; if the door is constructed in any of these Nakshtras, the owner has to wander out of his house. After this 8 Nakshtras are there in the four branches of the door. If the door is constructed in these Nakshtras which are there in the branches, then the owner always gets comforts in that house. After this 3 Nakshtras are there in the foot of the door. If the construction of the door is begun in these Nakshtras, it causes the death of the owner. And after this 4 Nakshtras are there in the middle of the door. If the construction of the door is begun in these Nakshtras the owner gets comforts.

स्याद्वेशनं द्वाःस्थमृदुध्रुवोद्धुमिर्जन्मर्क्ष लग्नोपचयोदये स्थिते ॥१॥

1. THE MUHURTA FOR ENTERING A NEWLY CONSTRUCTED HOUSE; Entering the house after the king's returning from journey and entering the newly constructed house for the first time is auspicious in the months of Jyeshtha, Magha, Phalguna and Baisakha when the Sun is in 'Uttarayana', in the Nakshtras happening to be in the front of the door of the house, in the Nakshtras named as Dhruwa (the 3 Uttaras and Rohini) and those named as Mridu or Delicate (Mrigashira, Rewati, Chitra and Anuradha), and in the Upachaya (3/6/10/11) and the Sthira or Fixed Sign (2/5/8/11) Ascendant from the Janama Rashi and Natal Ascendant of the owner

Notes: After the Completion of a long journey made by a king or by an ordinary person entering one's house or entering a newly constructed house is auspicious when the Sun is in Uttarayana and the months are Jyeshtha, Magha, Phalguna and Baisakha. If the house is covered with Straws or grass (and it is newly built) entering may be made in Dakshinayana too. Entering the house is auspicious in the Nakshtras named as Mridu or Delicate and Dhruwa or Fixed and in those which happen to be in the front of the door of the house, Entering the house (for the first time) in the Nakshtra named as Digdwar (stated in the 38th shloka of chapter 11) Nakshtra, as it is the Nakshtra of that direction-East, South, West and North whichever it is-towards which there is the main door of the house in question, is auspicious.

If a dilapidated or old house is reconstructed entering it may be done in the Nakshtras of Pushya Dhanishtha , and Shatabhisha.

Entering a new house is auspicious in the Lagna, which is the 3rd, 6th, 11th from the Natal Ascendant or the JanamaRashi, and in Ascendants of the Fixed Signs.

At the time of entering a newly constructed house many 'Doshas' stated in the Chapter on Marriage should also be avoided

जीर्णे गृहेऽग्न्यादिमयान्नवेऽपि मार्गोर्जयोः श्रावणिकेऽपि सत्स्यात् ।
वेशोऽम्बुपेज्यानिलवासवेषु नावश्यमस्तादिविचारणाऽत्र ॥२॥

2. SPECIAL RULES WITH REGARD TO ENTERING AN OLD DILAPIDATED HOUSE: Entering an old, dilapidated, newly constructed house because of the fear of fire etc. is excellent or auspicious in the months stated above and in the month of Kartika, Margashirsha, and Shravana, and in the Nakshtras of Shatabhisha, Pushya, Swati and Dhanishtha also, and no consideration should be made of the combustion of Jupiter and Venus when entering an old, dilapidated house.

3.4. CONSIDERATION WITH REGARD TO THE PACIFICATION OF EVILS AFFECTING THE NEWLY CONSTRUCTED HOUSE BEFORE ENTERING IT: Before entering a newly constructed house there should be done the Worship of the 17 Nakshtras namely, those named as Mridu or Delicate (Mrigashira, Rewati, Chitra and Anuradha) those named as Dhruwa or Fixed (the three Uttaras and Rohini), those named as Kshipra (Hasta, Ashwini and Pushya), those named as 'Chara' or Movable (Swati, Punarvasu Shravana, Dhanishtha and Shatabhisha) and the Nakshtra of Moola, and Bhoota

Bali (a religious rite) should be performed. After this in an auspicious Ascendant in which there are Benefic Planets in the 9/5/1/4/7/10/11/2/3 houses and Malefic Planets are in 3/6/11/ houses and the 4th and the 8th house are without any Planet and the Rashi (sign) which is the 8th in the owner's Natal Ascendant and the Janama Rashi should not be in the Ascendant at the time of entering the house, it is auspicious to enter a newly constructed house. Sunday and Tuesday, the Tithis named as Rikta (4/9/14) the Ascendants which are named as 'Chara' or Movable (1/4/7/10), Amavasya, and the month of Chaitra, these should be left for the Muhurta of entering a newly constructed house. The Bhakoota of the owner of the house also should be auspicious. In such auspicious Muhurta the owner should enter the house taking pitcher filled with water and Brahmins ahead of him.

5. THE CONSIDERATION OF THE SUN'S BEING ON THE LEFT SIDE OF THE LAGNA AT THE TIME OF ENTERING THE HOUSE: If the Sun be 5th Houses ahead from the 8th house from the Ascendant which is fixed for entering the house that is, if the Sun is posited in the 8/9/10/11 or 12 house (from the Ascendant at the time of entering the house), then he (the Sun) is on the left side for the person entering a house facing the Eastern Direction. And the Sun is on the left side for the person entering a house facing the Southern Direction if he (the Sun) is posited in the 5/6/7/8 or 9 House from the Ascendant at the time of entering the house. If the Sun is posited in the 2/3/4/5 or 6 House he is on the left side for the person entering a house facing the Western Direction. The Sun's being on the left side is auspicious at the time of entering a house. For the person entering a house facing the Northern Direction the Sun is on the left side if he is posited in the 11/12/1/2/ or 3 House. Entering a newly constructed house is auspicious if it is done on Poorna Tithis (5/10/15) in a house having its door facing the Eastern Direction, on the Nanda Tithis (1/6/11) in that facing the Southern Direction, on the Bhadra Tithis (2/7/12) in that facing the Western Direction, on the Jaya Tithis (3/8/13) in that facing the Northern Direction. Entering on the Rikta Tithis (4/9/14) should be altogether rejected.

6. THE CONSIDERATION OF 'KUMBHA CHAKRA' (Kumbha= Pitcher. Kumbha Chakra is explained in the shloka) Counting from the Nakshtra in which the Sun is there to the Nakshtra at the time of entering the house, one Nakshtra is supposed to be in the mouth of the imagined shape of a pitcher. If entering is done on that day the house catches fire and is burnt. Then 4 Nakshtras after this are in the East. Due to entering in these Nakshtras the owner is not able to live in that house. From the Sun's Nakshtra the Nakshtras having numbers from 6 to 9 are in the Southern Direction from the pitcher. If entering is done in these Nakshtras, the house always remains filled with wealth. The Nakshtras from 10 to 13 from the Sun's Nakshtra are in the Western Direction from the pitcher. If the entering is done in these Nakshtras the owner is always getting Laxmi or Wealth. The 4 Nakshtras after these are in the Northern Direction, they cause quarrel and dispute (if entering is done in them), then 4 Nakshtras in the womb cause the destruction of the owner; then 3 Nakshtras are in the bottom of the pitcher the effect of which is enabling the owner to live in the house for a long time. After this 3 Nakshtras are supposed to be in the throat of the pitcher, these Nakshtras make the living of the owner in the house eternal (that is, till his death)
